

DePauw Notes

More than $300,000 worth of scholarships have been granted to honor high school graduates by the Edward Rector scholarship foundation at DePauw university. All records have been broken with 380 scholarships granted to date and from the number of applications being received each day the total may reach 400 before the university opens in September. The highest mark ever reached before was 363 in 1931.

Each scholarship pays all tuition and fees for four years and is valued at $800. There were 609 Rector scholars on the DePauw campus last year to set a new record and it now appears that this mark will be passed. The 380 freshmen who have received scholarships come from nineteen states in the Union and one foreign country. The majority are from Indiana with 78 counties being represented. Marion county holds the highest number being represented by 24 scholarships. Lake county is next with 14 and St. Joseph third with nine. In the states, Illinois is second to Indiana and Ohio is third.

The economic conditions of the last two years has caused a greater demand than ever for scholarships and Dr. Henry B. Longden, director of the Rector foundation, has responded by granting a larger number than ever before. The foundation was originally planned for 400 scholarship students on the campus each year with 100 being available for entering freshmen each September. The growth of the foundation, however, has been phenomenal and today it stands as the largest singly endowed undergraduate scholarship foundation in the world. It is now entering its fourteenth year being established in 1919. At that time only 45 scholarships were granted and none of the awards went outside the state of Indiana.

Those receiving a Rector scholarship in Putnam county this year include John Howard Tumey, Bainbridge; Austin Walker, Cloverdale; Robert Oliver Ragan, Fillmore; Clyde Hunter, Reelsville; Albert Goff, Russellville; and Buford Blaydes, Rouchdale.

Hat in Ring

Herbert H. Lehman, Lieut. Gov. of New York, who has announced his candidacy to succeed Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt at Albany. It is expected the Democratic nominee for President will endorse Lehman.

pace at which he fights the measure. And, since these days there are sessions of the Cortes both in the afternoon and at night. Roja Villanova has decided to utilize the night sessions for sleeping. To do it without attracting attention, he wears dark glasses, which he also uses in the middle of the day, when the glare is particularly strong. Other deputies have adopted the habit, to such an extent that street vendors of dark glasses heard about it and did a thriving business in front of the Cortes palace.

REMOVAL SEEMS CERTAIN

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Aug. 9 (UPI)—The Springfield Daily News says today it learns on good authority that Mayor James J. Walker's removal by Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt is certain, due to information uncovered through a "private investigation" by the Governor.

KLINCK SENTENCED

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 9 (UPI)—An "Alaska Yosemite"—a marvelous hidden valley in unchartered areas of the Chiginaqak volcano—has been found by the Rev. Bernard H. Hubbard, S.J., geologist of the University of Santa Clara, Cal.

Turning from explorer to discoverer Father Hubbard and his party of scientists put in at a precipitous walled volcano harbor called Port Wrangell after a perilous voyage in Bering Sea in the metropolis, Polar Bear. The "glacier priest" accompanied by Red Chisholm, former Santa Clara athlete, Edwar Levin and George Peterson, rowed ashore and scaled the mountain barrier that hid the interior of the country from view.

From the top of the ridge they gazed on stupendous 2,000 foot cliffs that dropped to a walled valley surrounded by towering snow-capped mountains. Big brown bears and small game and fowl were seen in abundance.

Markets

INDIANAPOLIS LIVESTOCK

Hog receipts 5,000; holdovers 319; market mostly steady; 160-210 lbs. $4.30 to $4.95; small lots $5.00; 210 to 235 lbs. $4.80 to $4.85; 235 to 260 lbs. $4.60 to $4.70; 260 to 280 lbs. $4.49 to $4.50; 280 to 325 lbs. $4.20 to $4.30; 325 lbs. up $4.00 to $4.10; 140 to 160 lbs. $4.65 to $4.75; 100 to 140 lbs. $4.35 to $4.60; packing sows $3.00 to $3.75.

Cattle receipts 1,600; calves receipts 600; all fed classes active; bulk steady; others slow; several loads light and medium weight steers $9.00 to $9.25; less attractive killers $7.50 to $8.50; better grade heifers $6.50 to $7.50; odd head $8.00; fat cows $3.00 to $4.00; top $4.50; common around $2.75; low cutters and cutters $1.25 to $2.50; vealers steady at $3.50 down.

Sheep receipts 2,000; lambs 25c to 50c lower; ewes and wethers largely 55c; few choice $5.75 to $6.00; bucks $1.00 less; throwouts down to $2.50.

Skillful Photo Finishing

Our prints are clear, sparkling and permanent.

Let us do your work. You'll like our prompt delivery and moderate charges.

MULLINS DRUG STORE

THE DAILY BANNER
And
Herald Consolidated
"It Waves For All"

Entered in the postoffice at Greencastle, Indiana, as second class mail matter under act of March 8, 1879.

Subscription price, 10 cents per week; $3.00 per year by mail in Putnam county; $3.50 to $5.00 per year by mail outside Putnam county.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Monnett, Maple Heights are the parents of a son Lyle Craig, born Friday.

Mrs. Mace Vermillion and sons and Mrs. Clarence Humphrey are spending the day in Indianapolis.

Walter Woodrum, Manhattan road underwent a major operation at the county hospital, Monday afternoon.

Otto Weik, of St. Louis, Mo., is visiting his brother, Albert Weik, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hays.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Abrams and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Lyon have returned home from Lake Wauassee.

The local Moose Lodge will meet in regular session tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

Members of the city council will hold their regular meeting this evening in the council chambers at the fire department building.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Torr of Buffalo, N. Y., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mason and family, east Washington street road, Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Denny and children of Greencastle and Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Sheppard and family of Spencer, motored to Danville and Paris, Ill., Sunday.

Miss Pauline Lewallen, of near Bainbridge, and Mrs. Grace Gorham, Greencastle, returned Monday afternoon from a week end trip to Lake Manitou, near Rochester.

Miss Pauline Hoste has returned to her home near Attica after a visit in Greencastle with her sister, Mrs. Cecil Justus and Miss Wilhelmina Hoste, and other relatives.

Miss Clemmie Tolson, and Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Gillmore and daughter Luella of Anderson were week-end guests of Miss Freda MacDonald and her mother on North College Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Van Horn of east Washington street have had as their guests, J. A. Herman, Jr., brother of Mrs. VonHorn and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Broctor and children of Troy, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Owens and son Bobby of Newcastle, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Binkley, left yesterday for Marion and Cincinnati, Ohio where they will spend the remainder of their vacation.

Airport news at Indianapolis is responsible for the information that Vernie Larkin of Cloverdale made a solo flight at Capitol airport after seven hours and fifteen minutes of dual control instruction. C. K. Hall of Greencastle has enrolled as a student for the flying course.

Fred M. Sanford was appointed administrator of the estate of John F. Allee, who died last June, in the Putnam circuit court Monday afternoon. The widow, Emma Allee, voluntarily relinquished her right to serve as administrator in favor of Mr. Sanford. The deceased left an estate valued at $750.

Henry Gustave Blaschke, a truck gardener of Maywood and Miss Rose Catherine Lamb, an employee of the Real Silk Hosiery mills in Indianapolis, who came to this city and secured a marriage license last Saturday, were married at Maywood Monday by the Rev. J. F. Patterson, according to a marriage return filed in the county clerk's office.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Taylor have returned from a week end visit in Culver, Ind., with their daughter, Mrs. J. M. Wareing and family. They were accompanied home by another daughter, Mrs. Edward Wendell and her sons, George Edward and David Taylor Wendell of Freeport, Ill. Mrs. Wendell will spend several weeks here with her parents.

Among the guests who have accepted invitations to attend a Democratic political rally at Forest Park in Brazil Wednesday evening is Judge James P. Hughes, Greencastle, nominee for supreme judge. Clarence Marion, Notre Dame university, will be the principal speaker but practically all of the candidates on the Democratic state ticket and many of the Democratic leaders are expected to be present. The meeting is sponsored by the Clay county Democratic Women's club.

Two ELECTROCUTED

MARION, Ind., Aug. 9, (UPI)—William Dye, 55, and his brother, Albert, 65, were killed instantly today when their drilling outfit, which they were taking to Fowlerton, Ind., came in contact with a high tension wire carrying 11,000 volts. Paul Dye, 21, son of William, was burned probably fatally.

The men had a contract to repair the town pump at Fowlerton.

NOTICE!—Edgar Vancleave announces the re-opening Wednesday morning of the Vancleave Meat Market in south Greencastle. Quality meat at very reasonable prices. Special attention to telephone orders. Call 27. Free delivery. 8-2p

Mr. Carl J. Miller attended a clinic at the Robert Long Hospital at Indianapolis Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Densford Martin of Terre Haute were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Ames.

The L. F. F. Bridge club will meet with Mrs. C. A. Agnew, 315 Elm street Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Called meeting of the Conference club tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Christian church. It is important that all members be present.

The annual three-day meeting at Bethel on Little Walnut, will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Several visiting ministers are expected.

Mrs. Chas. Davis who has been with her son Glen Davis at Danville the past few weeks, since leaving the hospital, was brought to the home of her sister, Mrs. Raymond Flint, last Saturday, visiting and resting over Sunday before going on to her home near Clinton Falls, Monday evening. Mrs. Davis is greatly improved.

Mrs. Fred V. Thomas, city librarian, who is on a tour of the west with her son Frederick and Mrs. Will Graham of this city, in a letter to friends here stated that she could not get homesick because while she was in Hays, Kan., she stopped at the Thomas tourist camp and also saw the Lucas grocery and Throop hotel while going through that town. Mrs. Thomas' party expects to visit the west coast before returning home.

Suit to collect insurance of $216 with interest from 1928, has been filed in circuit court by Delilah Miller against the Metropolitan Life Insurance company. The suit seeks to have the local court declare dead one Ferdinand Stauch, who is alleged to have disappeared from his home in Cloverdale in 1920 and has since been unheard from. The plaintiff alleges he was beneficiary in a paid-up insurance policy carried by Stauch at the time of his disappearance.

FOR RENT:—Furnished modern apartments. One three-room and kitchenette; one two-room and kitchenette. Prices reasonable. 702 E. Seminary. 9-2ts.

Sixteen members were present and answered to roll call with a verse of scripture. The class then sang "What A Friend We Have In Jesus". Edmon Stewart then read the lesson from the fifth chapter of St. Matthew. Mrs. Day led in prayer with members of the class participating.

In the absence of the Secretary, Thelma Eastham took charge of the business meeting ending in the election of officers for the ensuing year who were: President, Lola Perkins; Vice-president, Eva McNary; Secretary-Treasurer, Lula Clift; Sick Com., Ida Day, Edmon Stewart, Vernie Shuck.

Membership Com., Goldie Clark, Thelma Wright, Ruth Smith.

The remainder of the evening was enjoyed with a social time after which refreshments of ice cream, cake, and sweet cider were served by the hostess.

Bainbridge Home Economic Club To Meet Thursday.

WASHINGON, Aug. 9, (UPI)—Francis Burke, one of the keenest strategists of the Republican party was dead today at the outset of a campaign that promises to be unusually hard fought.

General counsel of the Republican national committee, the 65-year-old Pittsburgh lawyer was stricken while visiting at the White House last night and died shortly thereafter. Always dapper and lively, Burke had been one of President Hoover's closest political advisors. He had been in the thick of Republican campaign battles for 40 years.

Only a few hours before his death last night Burke had conferred twice with Mr. Hoover regarding the notification ceremonies Thursday evening at the President's acceptance address.

He told newspapermen at the White

House that the address would be the best Mr. Hoover ever delivered and that Thursday would be "the great day of the campaign."

"I am sorry I shall not be here," Burke added. He explained he intended to sail from New York tonight for a brief holiday in Europe.

But President Hoover in conference had noted that Burke was not feeling well. He prevailed on him to be examined by Dr. Joel T. Boone, White House physician. Dr. Boone ordered him to Garfield hospital last evening and accompanied him there.

Burke died a short time later, with Dr. Boone at his side. A White House announcement said coronary thrombosis—a blood clot in the heart—caused death.

He told newspapermen at the White

House that the address would be the best Mr. Hoover ever delivered and that Thursday would be "the great day of the campaign."

"I am sorry I shall not be here," Burke added. He explained he intended to sail from New York tonight for a brief holiday in Europe.

But President Hoover in conference had noted that Burke was not feeling well. He prevailed on him to be examined by Dr. Joel T. Boone, White House physician. Dr. Boone ordered him to Garfield hospital last evening and accompanied him there.

Burke died a short time later, with Dr. Boone at his side. A White House announcement said coronary thrombosis—a blood clot in the heart—caused death.

He told newspapermen at the White

House that the address would be the best Mr. Hoover ever delivered and that Thursday would be "the great day of the campaign."

"I am sorry I shall not be here," Burke added. He explained he intended to sail from New York tonight for a brief holiday in Europe.

But President Hoover in conference had noted that Burke was not feeling well. He prevailed on him to be examined by Dr. Joel T. Boone, White House physician. Dr. Boone ordered him to Garfield hospital last evening and accompanied him there.

Burke died a short time later, with Dr. Boone at his side. A White House announcement said coronary thrombosis—a blood clot in the heart—caused death.

He told newspapermen at the White

House that the address would be the best Mr. Hoover ever delivered and that Thursday would be "the great day of the campaign."

"I am sorry I shall not be here," Burke added. He explained he intended to sail from New York tonight for a brief holiday in Europe.

But President Hoover in conference had noted that Burke was not feeling well. He prevailed on him to be examined by Dr. Joel T. Boone, White House physician. Dr. Boone ordered him to Garfield hospital last evening and accompanied him there.

Burke died a short time later, with Dr. Boone at his side. A White House announcement said coronary thrombosis—a blood clot in the heart—caused death.

He told newspapermen at the White

House that the address would be the best Mr. Hoover ever delivered and that Thursday would be "the great day of the campaign."

"I am sorry I shall not be here," Burke added. He explained he intended to sail from New York tonight for a brief holiday in Europe.

But President Hoover in conference had noted that Burke was not feeling well. He prevailed on him to be examined by Dr. Joel T. Boone, White House physician. Dr. Boone ordered him to Garfield hospital last evening and accompanied him there.

Burke died a short time later, with Dr. Boone at his side. A White House announcement said coronary thrombosis—a blood clot in the heart—caused death.

He told newspapermen at the White

House that the address would be the best Mr. Hoover ever delivered and that Thursday would be "the great day of the campaign."

"I am sorry I shall not be here," Burke added. He explained he intended to sail from New York tonight for a brief holiday in Europe.

But President Hoover in conference had noted that Burke was not feeling well. He prevailed on him to be examined by Dr. Joel T. Boone, White House physician. Dr. Boone ordered him to Garfield hospital last evening and accompanied him there.

Burke died a short time later, with Dr. Boone at his side. A White House announcement said coronary thrombosis—a blood clot in the heart—caused death.

He told newspapermen at the White

House that the address would be the best Mr. Hoover ever delivered and that Thursday would be "the great day of the campaign."

"I am sorry I shall not be here," Burke added. He explained he intended to sail from New York tonight for a brief holiday in Europe.

But President Hoover in conference had noted that Burke was not feeling well. He prevailed on him to be examined by Dr. Joel T. Boone, White House physician. Dr. Boone ordered him to Garfield hospital last evening and accompanied him there.

Burke died a short time later, with Dr. Boone at his side. A White House announcement said coronary thrombosis—a blood clot in the heart—