

MILLER NAMES AREA WORKERS FOR WAR CHEST

TO CANVASS BUSINESS DISTRICT AND LOCAL PROFESSIONAL MEN

Kent Lenzen, Ernest Flint, Lawrence Crump and Ed Coffman have been named by Harley Miller, a vice-chairman of the Putnam County War Chest Committee as area workers for the canvass of the business district of Greencastle in the coming war chest campaign. Roy Sutherland and Kimball Larkin will have charge of the canvass among professional men. The work of solicitation throughout the county will begin Monday, October 9th.

In commenting on the agencies which make up the Nation War Fund, Mr. Miller spoke of the War Prisoners Aid as one of the most worthwhile. This agency goes to the assistance of those unfortunate men of war, who, suddenly shut off from the most active kind of life now find themselves confined to the most monotonous and deadening form of existence.

To keep his spirits strong there are two things a prisoner needs above all else—an interest in life and the reassurance that he has not been forgotten at home.

War Prisoners Aid undertakes to give him those two things—by providing him with books and study courses, with games and sports equipment, with materials for crafts and hobbies and with direct contact in the prison camps by neutral representatives of the War Prisoners Aid.

It has sent enough books to establish a library one-sixth as large as the New York Library, enough musical instruments to equip all the "name bands" in the United States and enough of every possible recreational medium to stock a score or more of large stores.

"It is good to think that we have the privilege, by the gifts we make, to place these things in the hands of our boys held in enemy prison camps," said Mr. Miller.

$1500 Is DePauw's Quota In Campaign

The DePauw allotment in the $14,550 Putnam county War Chest will be $1500, according to Lois Arnold, chairman of the Putnam county War Chest committee.

The fund raising campaign, which will start on Monday, Oct. 9, throughout the country as well as on the campus will be under the direction of Mrs. William Nicoll, DePauw's committee chairman. Assisting Mrs. Nicoll as vice chairman will be Miss Ermina Mills and Miss Mildred Dimmick.

Bainbridge Wins Softball Crown

Bainbridge defeated Cloverdale in this city Friday afternoon to cap the 1944 Putnam county high school championship.

Bainbridge won, 9 to 7, but only after the Clovers had staged a rally that for a time threatened to at least tie the score and send the game into extra innings.

Bainbridge coasted along on a 9 to 1 margin until the last half of the seventh and final frame. The south Putnam boys pushed across six runs before they were retired and the contest ended, 9 to 7.

Don South with a home run and a triple to his credit led the Bainbridge batters.

The Pointers had previously won the title in the north half of the county while Cloverdale downed Reelsville, 3 to 2, here earlier in the week to annex the crown for the southern half of the county.

Large groups of fans from both schools witnessed the championship game.

IN GREENCASTLE

Miss Margaret Nelson spent the day in Indianapolis.

Mrs. Vernon Shirley was hostess to the Veronica Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Matthews were in Frankfort and Kokomo visiting relatives.

R. P. Mullins was elected to the city council, succeeding Ed Hamilton who had resigned.

A LAND MARK ON BIG WALNUT CREEK

This is the former home of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Matthews northeast of Greencastle on Big Walnut creek. It is the old Park Coffman home and is beautifully situated behind the towering bluff on the west and tall, stately trees on the east and the back view is over the lowlands of Big Walnut. Mr. and Mrs. Matthews are now making their home in Quincy, Florida.

Society Members Get Riley Volume

A privately printed "Bibliography of James Whitcomb Riley," by Anthony J. and Dorothy R. Russo, has just been distributed by the Indiana Historical Society as a gift to members of that Hoosier group. Mrs. Russo, who brought the work to completion after the death of her husband, was graduated from DePauw University in 1922 and has been well known in Indianapolis for many years as a partner with her husband in the book business.

The beautifully printed and illustrated volume, dedicated to Josiah K. Lilly, Jr., was made possible by a grant to the Indiana Historical Society by the Lilly Endowment, Inc. Its frontispiece is the portrait of Riley by Theodore Clement Steele, reproduced in color. The bibliography, the most complete list of Riley's publications yet produced, is especially useful to collectors of first editions, to librarians, and to research workers in American literature.

Mrs. Russo, the former Dorothy Ritter, is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta social fraternity and won Phi Beta Kappa honors while a student at DePauw. She completed this important bibliographical work after Mr. Russo's death in 1940.

PLANS MADE FOR ANNUAL BOY SCOUT COUNCIL DINNER

The Wabash Valley Council Boy Scouts of America annual appreciation dinner, honoring scoutmasters, cub-masters and their wives, will be held in the Woodrow Wilson Junior High School cafeteria on Monday, October 30th. Guy Stantz, general chairman of the central committee in charge of the dinner, has announced that general plans for the occasion have been made. Scoutmasters, cub-masters and their wives will be invited as guests. Scouters and other friends of Boy Scouts will attend the meeting. Tickets will be sent to the chairman of every troop or pack committee and members of the executive committee. Three hundred leaders in Boy Scout activities from Vigo and surrounding counties are meeting. Tickets will be sent to the Haute.

WILL GLIDEWELL PASSES AWAY AT HOME NEAR CITY

WAS LIFE LONG RESIDENT OF COMMUNITY AND WAS WIDELY KNOWN

William Glidewell, age about 57 years, well known resident of the Greencastle community, died early Saturday morning at his home south of the city on state road 43. He had been in ill health for some time.

Mr. Glidewell was born October 9, 1877 in Putnam county, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Marion Glidewell. He spent most of his life in Putnam county. On February 24, 1905 he was united in marriage to Margaret Jennings. They were married in Washington Court House, Ohio. Mr. Glidewell united with the Christian church in 1904 and he was also a member of the Greencastle Masonic Lodge.

For eight years Mr. Glidewell was acting assistant superintendent at the Indiana State Farm. He also farmed for a while and was in the road and bridge contracting business.

Surviving are the widow and five children, Mrs. J. D. Quackenbush, Mrs. Paul VonBurg and Mrs. I. L. Patterson, Robert Glidewell and Ted Glidewell; two sister, Mrs. Ida Grantham of Muncie and Mrs. H. P. Gamble of Farmland; twelve grandchildren and other relatives.

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Rector Funeral Home. The Rev. H. C. Fellers will officiate. Burial will be in the Brick Chapel cemetery.

SUBSCRIBES 100%

By making a 100% subscription the employees of the Omar Baking Company were the first to register a group contribution to the Putnam County War Chest drive.

The subscription was made following an invitational presentation of the campaign needs by the committee chairman, Lois Arnold.

Merchants and consumers of the community interested in the price control program are cordially invited to attend the meeting.

Gun Explosions Mark Truce End

LONDON, Oct. 7.—(UP)—Canadian First Army troops were playing out the last bloody act of the drama of Dunkerque today under a sky turned dull red by the fires and explosions besetting the German garrison trapped in the French channel port.

A mercy truce expired at 10 a. m. after the removal of French civilians and British and Canadian land and air forces swung into action where the Luftwaffe and the Wehrmacht had battered the remnants of the British expeditionary force four years ago.

Both sides of the Straits of Dover were lit by one great blast last night which shook Deal, thirty-seven miles west of Dunkerque. An hour later, fires still lighted the sky and dull rumblings and explosions persisted. It may have been either a huge ammunition dump or the Germans carrying out demolitions.

The merciless allied bombardment from big guns and bombers was much like that which the Germans in June, 1940, inflicted on the shattered remnants of the British Expeditionary Force which tried unsuccessfully to defend northern France.

But this time the Nazis were on the receiving end and, unlike the members of the B. E. F., they have no rescue fleet to shuttle them from the wide beaches to safety. With the allies in control of land, sea, and air, the fanatical defenders of the ports have no alternative but surrender or death.

The truce ended after the Germans had asked and received a four-hour extension. Since 6 p. m. Tuesday some 19,000 civilians and several hundred German, British and French wounded came out of the beleaguered port in a strange and pathetic procession while the guns were stilled and the troops on both sides girded for the final battle.

OFFICIALS PROTEST ODT BAN ON SCHOOL BUS USE

VALPARAISO, Ind., Oct. 7 (UP)—Northwest Indiana public school officials went on record today as protesting the Office of Defense Transportation order against using school busses for extracurricular activities.

Since truck tires are available for beer trucks, the educators from 15 schools maintained the tires should be available also for school busses to transport athletic teams, bands and other student groups to the extent of 300 miles a year.

REPORTS MADE DURING ANNUAL CHURCH MEETING

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH MEMBERS MET THURSDAY AT SECOND WARD

The First Christian church held its annual meeting Thursday evening in the auditorium of Second Ward School. After a bounteous dinner, the heads of the various organizations of the church presented their reports of achievements during the past year. Treasurers reported all obligations paid as of September 30 th, and balances in all treasuries. A significant report revealed that the members of the congregation have raised $860.00 on their goal of $10,000 for the remodeling and expansion of buildings without the soliciting of a single individual. The committees in charge desire to complete the fund before November 12th, the date set for the dedication of the new parsonage and the educational annex.

The giving to missions and benevolences increased considerably over the amounts given the preceding year, total given to these larger services being in excess of $900.00.

The minister, H. C. Fellers, reported 35 new members received during the year. He also reported that during the year he had delivered 77 sermons and addressed in addition to those required by the regular worship services of the church. He conducted 30 funeral services, married 40 couples, and made a total of 967 pastoral visits. The sixth annual church camp provided training and an outing for fifty-seven young people of the church. 17 people attended summer conferences. Twelve members of the congregation passed from the church visible to the church invisible during the year. More than 100 young men from the church are now in the armed forces, about sixty of them overseas at this time.

The minister called attention to the fiftieth anniversary of the dedication of the present house of worship, the golden anniversary to be in August of 1945, and suggested a number of "fifties" as goals to be reached before the anniversary. He expressed appreciation for the vision and loyalty shown by the members during his ministry in Greencastle, which will soon enter its eighth year.

Dr. Joseph Todd brought the inspirational address of the evening, speaking on the theme "The Church in the New World," stressing the importance of the two directives of Christ for Christian living, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God, and thy neighbor as thyself," and pointed out how these two ideals will help to build a greater and more useful church in Greencastle, and throughout the whole world.

Miss Marian Canady, a student of DePauw, entertained with piano numbers in the interim between the dinner and the presentation of the reports and the address.

31 Found Guilty Of Polygamy Practice

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 7.—(UP)—Thirty-one fundamentalists last night were found guilty by an eight-man jury of conspiring to practice polygamy and "commit acts injurious to public morals"—fifty-four years to the day after the signing of the Norman Manifesto banning plural marriage.

All those convicted prepared immediately to appeal to the State Supreme Court and said they would "keep appealing until the Utah conspiracy law was proven unconstitutional." The basis of their appeals will be the contention that preaching of any religious doctrine is not conspiracy.

The jury went into its locked chamber immediately after Prosecutor Brigham Roberts reminded the jurors that "every defendant entering into the polygamy agreement is personally responsible for the action of any other party to the conspiracy."

The group will be sentenced Friday, Oct. 13. The maximum sentence is one year in the County Jail or a fine of $1,000.

BREMEN ABLAZE AFTER HEAVY RAF ASSAULT

GERMANY'S SECOND PORT AND REICH CAPITAL PRINCIPAL TARGETS OF BRITISH

LONDON, Oct. 7 (UP)—A big force of RAF heavy bombers set fire from "end to end" and also hit Berlin, Dortmund and Saarbrücken in a shattering four-pronged assault on the Reich during the night.

Upwards of 750 Lancasters and Halifaxes participated in the night foray, which followed by only a few hours the largest American daylight raid on Germany since June with Berlin among the prime targets.

The main weight of the RAF's assault was directed against Bremen and Dortmund, the latter an inland port and one of the main railway centers in Germany's great industrial Ruhr, with probably more than 1,000 tons of fire and demolition bombs being dropped on each city.

Bainbridge Lions Sponsor Fish Fry

The Lions Club of Bainbridge is sponsoring a fish fry and entertainment on the main street in Bainbridge on Friday and Saturday evenings, October 13 and 14th, for the purpose of raising funds to have a recreation center for the young people of the community. The club will lease the Masonic Home for this purpose and the school P. T. A. is co-operating.

The Lions Club is also in charge of the War Chest drive in the Bainbridge community.

THOUSANDS PAY FINAL RESPECTS TO AL SMITH

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Thousands of persons from Park Avenue to the Bowery formed in line outside St. Patrick's Cathedral Friday to await their turn to pay final respects to Alfred E. Smith, who died Wednesday at the age of 70.

An hour after the heavy bronze casket bearing the body of the four-time Governor of New York state had been placed on its catafalque in the Lady Chapel, police estimated that 20,000 persons were in line on Fifth Avenue.

ARMY INFANTRY SERGEANT WAS GRADUATE OF THE FILLMORE H. S.

Mrs. Flossie Alexander of near Fillmore has received word from the War Department that her son, Sgt. James F. Alexander, was killed in action on September 18th in Italy.

Sgt. Alexander was an assistant squad leader with the 34th "Red Bell" Division of the Fifth Army in Italy. He was in the infantry.

He was graduated from the Fillmore high school and left immediately for the army. From Alabama he was sent to Fort Meade, Maryland, and he had been overseas since October 1, 1943.

Yanks Pounding Jap Airdromes

SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, Oct. 7 (UP)—Allied airmen temporarily neutralized the main Japanese airfields on Halmahera island and sank or damaged eight more enemy vessels in a series of night and day attacks over the Dutch East Indies, a communique said today.

In a two-day strike to knock out the threat of Jap aerial interference against the rear of the Philippines-bound American ground forces on Morotai island, formations of medium bombers and fighters bombed and strafed the Galela and Kace airdromes south of Morotai on Tuesday and Wednesday.

The raiders poured 59 tons of bombs into the two air bases, destroying one grounded enemy plane and rendering both fields unserviceable, the communique said.

Other raiders lashed out against the chain of Japanese island bases west and south of the Halmaheras, ripping up enemy airfields and wrecking warehouses, docks and military installations on Amboina and Boeroe Islands and in the Celebes.

Services Monday For J. A. Frazier

James Abner Frazier, age 79 years, died Saturday morning at 1:45 o'clock at his home in Roachdale, following an extended illness. Death was due to complications.

Mr. Frazier was born in Scott county, Va., on March 20, 1865, the son of George and Lucy Williams Frazier. On Oct. 27, 1887 he was united in marriage to Lucy Johnson of Virginia, who preceded him in death. In March 29, 1933 he married Elizabeth Sutherland, who survives him.

Surviving besides the widow are two daughters, Mrs. Ernestine Parker and Mrs. Alice Morpew, and three sons, George, Melvin and Clyde, all of Roachdale; two brothers Jess of Virginia and Max Frazier of Ladoga; and one sister, Mrs. Margaret Johnson of Virginia; eight grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

LUCILE SMITH

Here is a recipe for lamb stew that is a complete change from the more usual carrot and potato variety. Unbelievably fresh flavored, light and colorful it makes the perfect dish for wartime entertaining at any season of the year.

For four people get 1 1/2 pounds of lamb shoulder. Have the butcher bone it before he cuts it up—there isn't anything worse than finding sharp slivers of bone in a stew!

Go over the meat carefully, discarding any excess fat. You can render it down and strain it for salvage you know, so it won't be wasted. Cut the meat into 1 inch pieces, put it in a deep stew pan with 1 strip of bacon, diced, a pinch of marjoram, 1 teaspoon of salt, a good quarter teaspoon of black pepper, 1 whole onion and 1/2 cup of chopped celery leaves. Cover with 2 cups of boiling water and simmer for 1 hour. This part of the preparation can be done a day ahead of time if necessary, but for best results the rest of the ingredients should be added to the stew only about half an hour before serving. So, reheat the stew if necessary, simmer for 5 minutes and add the following ingredients: 2 tomatoes, chopped, 2 onions, chopped, 1 green pepper, chopped, 1/2 cup diced celery. Cook over slightly increased heat for 30-35 minutes, until the lamb and vegetables are just tender. Mix 1 egg yolk with 2 tablespoons of milk, and stir it into the stew immediately before serving, after removing from the stove.

Pile the meat and vegetables in the center of a serving dish and pour the thin gravy carefully around. Sprinkle with about a tablespoon of chopped parsley. Small separately boiled potatoes are often arranged around the meat mixture before the gravy is poured around. String beans, corn or yellow squash make an excellent accompaniment.

Lamb stew for 4: 1 1/2 pounds lamb shoulder, 1 strip bacon, 1 pinch marjoram, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 onion, 1/2 cup celery leaves, 2 cup boiling water, 2 tomatoes, 1 onion, 1 green pepper, 1/2 cup diced celery, 2 tablespoons milk, 1 egg yolk, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley.

"A" Motorists May Get More Tires

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 7.—(UP)—Motorists holding "A" gas ration cards may begin rolling on new tires by next January as the result of stepped-up civilian production according to a high WPB official. Hiland G. Batcheller, chief of WPB operations, said the backlog of 850,000 new tires for essential motorists would be filled within two months, assuring enough to fill the needs of "B" and "C" card holders by the end of the year.

He said the passenger tire output would be 2,500,000 a month by January. The OPA has taken the position that new tires would be available when output reaches 2,000,000 a month.

RUSSIANS CONTINUE ADVANCE

MOSCOW, Oct. 7.—(UP)—Red Army tanks and infantry pounded across the plains of southeastern Hungary within artillery range of Szeged and less than 100 miles from Budapest today in a rapid-fire offensive to knock Germany's third Balkan satellite out of the war.

Breaking through frontier defenses on a 96-mile front, Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky's 2nd Ukrainian Army already had swept more than 15 miles inside Hungary and the broad Tisa river was the only natural obstacle between the advancing troops and Szeged and Budapest.

More than 100 towns and villages were overrun in the first phase of the new offensive, which carries 32 miles from last reported Soviet positions in Romania and was part of a giant squeeze play mapped by the Russian high command to eliminate the last of Adolf Hitler's Balkan allies.

The southern phase of the triple play already was shaping up with other elements of Malinovsky's 2nd Army driving northward through Rusko Selo, 38 miles below Szeged, Hungary's second largest city.

Still other Russian forces were poised along the Czechoslovak border north of Hungary. Soviet patrols were believed already to have established into the Carpatho-Ukraine, the eastern tip of the old Czechoslovak republic annexed by Hungary in 1941.

The 2nd Army pushed to within artillery range of Szeged after capturing Mago, 14 miles east of the city, at the southern end of the new offensive front.

REMEMBER ME?

I'm the guy who looked at you from a War Fund poster some time ago. I'm the guy for whom you and millions of others gave and gave so generously. And now Where am I? . . . well, I may be behind German barbed wire -- in a field hospital -- on duty in the fox-hole zone -- or following the German cross-country team But, wherever I am, your War Fund dollars reach me and help a lot . . .

Your War Fund dollars help bring the boys the needed tonic of entertainment -- 3000 U. S. O. clubs and U. S. O. camp shows Your War Fund dollars help bring recreational material, school courses, food, and clothing to German prison camps Your War Fund dollars are helping to feed starving children in China, Greece, and other war-throttled lands

Of the $14,450 budget for the 1944 Putnam County War Chest, $10,553 goes to the National War Fund for just such uses

SUPERMEN'S SUPER PLANE--THAT'S NAZI CLAIM

NEW GERMAN MULTI-PURPOSE PLANE, shown during a reconnaissance flight, is labeled by the Nazis as a super plane. It is called the ME-210. Photo supplied by a Swedish picture agent. (Interactions)

Benjamin Franklin in the constitutional convention said, "We have assured, sir, in the Sacred Writings, that 'except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it.' I firmly believe this; and I also believe that without his concurring aid, we shall succeed in this political building no better than the builders of Babel. We shall be confused, and our project will become a reproach and a byword down to the future ages. And it is worse, mankind may hereafter, from this unfortunate instance, despair of establishing governments by human wisdom, and leave it to chance, war, and conquest." Note the statement "except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it." Why not accept the invitation and go to CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY?—D. Carl Yoder.

any people have everything to them happy except happiness, they can never have until they the secret of self-escape: the getting themselves off their Self is the center of life of every baby is selfish, but if he selfish he stays a baby. To up means to get out of self into others.

Wit and Wisdom

He Didn't Have to Shoot
The Quaker had heard a strange tale in the night and waking, found a regular ransacking his kitchen. He his fowling piece and called to the landing of the kitchen, from where he had plain sight the intruder, "Friend, I would do no harm for this world and all is in it—but thee standest where about to shoot."

DO YOU KNOW

What Bible writer tells us most of the resurrection of the dead? Where, in the Bible, do we find fullest description of heaven? What is the best passage to be to anyone about to die? Where in the Old Testament is the promise of a new command given? Did Jesus ever command give?

Wealth, like education, is valuable only to those who know how to use it.

Give us as we stay at home that solid, unwavering faith that we will be able to say "Thy will be done." Even in the homes where the Gold Star must hang, may there be shining the Star of Bethlehem which is the promise of the Resurrection and of eternal life to all who believe in him who was prophesied by that star. Amen.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 8.

The Golden Text is: "O Lord my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me. O Lord, thou hast brought up my soul from the grave: thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit" (Psalm 130:2, 3).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable. But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept. O death, where is thy sting? O death, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ" (1 Corinthians 15:19, 20, 55-57).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The Bible calls death an enemy, and Jesus overcame death and the grave instead of yielding to them. He was 'the way.' To him, therefore, death was not the threshold over which he must pass into living glory" (p. 39).

"Jesus' deed was for the enlightenment of men and for the salvation of the whole world from sin, sickness, and death" (p. 45).

NEWS in the WORLD of RELIGION

By W. W. REID

Four million American dollars of China Relief funds passed through the hands of the Rev. C. Bertram Rappe, Methodist missionary in Chungking, West China, during the past year, for assistance to Chinese non-belligerent victims of the war with Japan. Dr. Rappe is treasurer of the American Advisory Committee, expending the money in China. A summary of the relief during that period shows: seed grain provided for 16,150 farmer families (averaging five to the family); food for 540,852 persons; clothing for 15,016; lodgings for 7,958; medical care for 286,087; travel money for 6,685; cash given to 433,606; loans made to 4,212; sundry help to 7,312 persons. More than one and a third million individuals were thus given vital aid at a cost of about three dollars per person.

Agricultural economists who advise that returning servicemen be sent to the cities so as to prevent over-production in the farm areas "lack vision and imagination," in the opinion of the Rt. Rev. L. G. Ligutti, of the National Catholic Life Conference, Des Moines, Iowa. He urges that a greater number of families be settled upon the land. "If our American democracy is to continue," he says, "we must have more small businesses, small factories, small towns, small farms, small schools, and small churches. They are the warp and woof of a democracy; they are the backbone of Christianity; they are the cornerstones of a peaceful world. The post-war problems of the cities and of industries will be more serious than the problems of the countryside. Why advocate dumping rural youth into the cities? Do the cities want them? Are the cities ready to use them? Do we want a totalitarian state to take over and make jobs? Which will enhance human personality or contribute to the development of families?"

Dr. M. Edwin Thomas, executive of the Board of Missions of the United Lutheran Church, "will shortly visit Argentina to participate in the twenty-fifth anniversary celebration of the establishment of Lutheran missions in that country. There are now in Argentina twelve Lutheran missionaries, and 24 national workers, twelve congregations and five day schools. The Board is planning to expand its service by sending two additional missionaries per year during the next five years."

The Rev. Dr. Arthur H. Bradford, of Providence, R. I., is chairman of a newly appointed national Committee on Christian Citizenship which, under the direction of the Council for Social Action of the Congregational Christian Churches, will endeavor to "train the denomination's youth for responsible exercise of their rights as citizens; encourage Christians to take an active part in public service; build a deeper understanding of the principles and functions of our government; stimulate the practice of democratic rights such as voting; work for better government; provide information on important issues in political life; supply non-partisan facts about candidates and their records." The denomination believes that in the recent past the Protestant churches have taken too lightly their responsibility in the American political scene. Its final goal is "a day in which all men will find peace, security, and abundant life."

A nationwide emphasis on Bible reading, on a scale never before attempted in the United States, is planned for the period between Thanksgiving Day and Christmas this year. The American Bible Society, which sponsors the plan, states that it is undertaken because the Society has "a deep conviction that now is the strategic time to give the Bible a new share in our American life." National officers and leaders of the major denominations are cooperating. For each day a Bible passage considered "most helpful in times like these" has been selected through a canvass made among more than 100,000 pastors and 6,000 chaplains. Members of the armed services as well as all the people at home will be invited to join in the reading, the Society announces.

Two western church groups recently asked the government to ease the restrictions on Japanese Americans who are loyal to the United States. The Disciples of Christ, of the states of Washington and North Idaho, meeting in Lewiston, Idaho, requested that upon the cessation of hostilities Japanese Americans be returned to their west coast homes. The Western Jurisdictional Conference of the Methodist Church, meeting at Salt Lake City, asked that loyal Japanese Americans be allowed now to return to their homes on the Pacific coast or elsewhere if they so desire, referring to them as "victims of organized discrimination and wartime hysteria."

CATHOLIC INFORMATION

Modern minds shall pass away, but—

Nineteen hundred years ago a Roman orator was publicly scoffing at the teachings of the followers of Christ; and while he was speaking a priest in the catacombs was saying a requiem mass, while a woman was weeping and smiling and praying.

She was weeping because of the loss of a beloved husband. She was smiling because he had confessed his sins to a priest and had gone to his death with his God in his breast. She was praying because she believed God would heed her entreaties to take her husband soon from purgatory into heaven.

Today in a famous cathedral a "modernistic" cleric is preaching against the "absurdities" of hell and purgatory and other fundamental Christian beliefs; and while he is preaching other widows are weeping and smiling and praying for the exact same reasons as had the woman in the catacombs nearly twenty centuries before.

Nineteen hundred years hence, new leaders of "isms" will be resurrecting dead and discounted heresies of the ages before and preaching them under the ego-satisfying names of "Modern Thought" and "Scientific Enlightenment."

And while they are so preaching, Catholics of the 39th century will be assisting at mass, confessing to a priest, praying for their dead in purgatory and adhering to all the Catholic beliefs that we adhere to today—that the Apostles believed and taught in the first half of the first Christian century.

For every Catholic knows that neither time nor man can alter by a whit the truths which God revealed to man and about which Christ himself said: "Heaven and earth shall pass away but My word shall not pass away."

Every year on the second day of November (All Soul's Day) every Catholic priest throughout the world offers up mass for all departed souls. During the entire month of November, the church exhorts every Catholic in the world to remember in his prayers the dead of all ages and all peoples. So you see, dear neighbor, we Catholics pray regularly for your departed ones and some day we shall be praying for the welfare of your own immortal soul.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Charles Elmer Black who passed away two years ago today, October 8, 1942.

A husband, a father, so divine, We miss you darling all the time. We miss your voice and footsteps too.

And all the things you used to do. We miss your courage, kind and true. For home is nothing without you. But precious memories that we share.

Will help us all our grief to bear. Not now but in the coming years. It may be in the better land, We'll read the meaning of our tears. And then, sometime, we'll understand.

Mrs. Effie Black and children

IN MEMORY

In memory of Charles E. Black who passed away 2 years ago Oct. 8th.

Dad Black of you we have not forgot, But to be with you we cannot. But trusting in the one above, We hope to meet you in the land of love.

Dad Black your trials of life are past But ours are still heaping upon us fast.

But someday our trials will all end too.

It's then we hope to meet again with you.

HIGH SCHOOL P. T. A. RECOGNITION SERVICE

The High School P. T. A. will hold a recognition service Oct. 10th at 8 o'clock in the High School Auditorium for the students in the armed forces.

The first week of October has been proclaimed as Parent-Teachers Week—a week for enrollment.

Membership in the P. T. A. offers to you:

(1) An opportunity to belong to an organization that is known and respected all over the nation for its work toward the betterment of children and youth.

(2) An awareness of the needs of all children as revealed by a broadening acquaintance with their parents, their teachers, and their way of life.

(3) A closer relationship between your home, your children's school, and the community at large, and a voice in shaping the purposes and policies of both school and community.

(4) A voice in determining the kind of education your child shall be given.

(5) A means by which you are kept up to date on the progress of events as they affect the welfare of children.

(6) An opportunity to serve your country by adding your services to a state-wide and nation-wide program as it relates to the needs and interests of children and youth in the local community.

With the present enrollment of 87,277, the largest membership in the history of the Indiana Congress, Mrs. Conklin, state president, has asked for a membership of 100,000 for this year.

Will you enroll?
Mrs. Granville Thompson,
President High School P. T. A.

Excerpts from "Physical Fitness for America"—Hygeia, October, 1944 by Col. Leonard G. Rowntree, M. D.

Our country has created and equipped the largest and best fighting forces of its history. While this was being done, hidden weaknesses, heretofore unsuspected, have been uncovered. The discovery of these weaknesses was made by some 33,000 doctors and 10,000 dentists in the examination, up to January 1, 1944, of 13,000,000 Selective Service registrants. Many defects, deficiencies, diseases, disabilities and disorders were uncovered in numbers little short of appalling.

The high percentage of health deficiencies, however, is only part of the picture which has been revealed since the outbreak of the war. Another factor was equally startling. Obviously, even the healthy—those who could be classified as 1A—were far below the physical top condition which could and should have been expected of healthy American men.

The Army and Navy found that the "healthy" American youth, when called to the colors, was neither strong nor enduring enough to stand physical strain or to do vigorous physical work without laborious previous conditioning. The men needed three or four months of systematic physical training before they were ARMY'S ADJUSTED SERVICE RATING CARD will look like this, when readjustment of personnel and partial demobilization start after Germany's fall. Each enlisted man will get one of these cards to fill out, at which time point values for the multiplication column will be announced. The war department will announce how high the score must be for a surplus rating that makes a man eligible for discharge, but if a certain Johnny Doughboy is considered essential in uniform, he might just as well forget his score—he's in until his services are no longer needed. The physical fitness of the people of the United States is fundamental to the safety, productiveness and welfare of the nation. The experience of our nation in times of war and distress has established beyond question the vital necessity for developing and maintaining in each individual the utmost self reliance, physical fitness, mental and physical health.

To be physically fit is more than being healthy. The Army inducts healthy men, but it trains them for weeks and months before they can be considered physically fit. By that time they have changed physically.

At the beginning of his military training, for example, the merely healthy boy is dead tired in the evenings and falls asleep as soon as he finds a chance. After some months, however, he does the same and far more strenuous work with hardly any effort and takes leave for the evenings. All the men gain an increase of strength reserve, which is a physiologic reality and can be expressed in work hours.

This conditioning to dynamic strength has been greatly neglected in peacetime. Hence a large percentage of the selectees, even those who were healthy from the medical point of view (had no specific defects nor illnesses), were conspicuously weak and needed a long period of training and conditioning. It should be remembered, however, that the achievement and maintenance of basic clinical health is a prerequisite for the achievement of physical fitness.

This characterizes the task which medicine and physical education have in their joint program. Both are vitally interested in the common objective, that of increasing the dynamic health of the American population and improving its physical fitness. In this endeavor, medicine has the special task of bringing forth and maintaining health. While physical education aims to develop and maintain physical fitness.
