God . . . will not suffer you to

Dodgers Defeat Yanks 4 Straight

LOS ANGELES UPI — On the banquet circuit this winter they'll toast Sandy Koufax of the Dodgers as the man who contributed most to the misery of the proud Yankees in 1963.

Koufax started the Yankees on the skids to their most humiliating World Series defeat last Wednesday in New York. And he dealt the knockout blow Sunday with a superb six-hit, 2-1 victory that completed the Dodgers' four-game sweep before 55,912 fans in sunsoaked Dodger Stadium.

He gave up six hits in each game, yielded a total of only three runs, and struck out 23 Yankee hitters, including a record 15 in the opening game.

But while Koufax is the glamorous hero who won the sports car as the outstanding player in the series, there were several other Dodgers who turned in "clutch" performances in the final game of the sweep.

There was Jim Gilliam, the cagey "old pro" who took advantage of the lapse in the Yankee defense to scoot all the way to third base on an error by first baseman Joe Peplone in the seventh inning.

THIEVES ACTIVE

doors.

Robert Brown, 25, and Delbert Boyd, 26, both of Indianapolis, were scheduled for a municipal

ROBBERS ACTIVE

INDIANAPOLIS UPI—Two closing-hour gunmen robbed an Indianapolis jewelry store Saturday night, tied four employees and a customer with nylon stockings and fled with thousands of dollars in cash and jewelry.

The men, dressed in dark conservative suits, entered the Goodman Jewelers in the Ayr-Way West Shopping Center just before closing time.

SANDY'S DANDY—Back in Los Angeles, pitcher Sandy Koufax, hero of the first Dodger-New York World Series game in Yankee Stadium, is all smiles as more than 3,000 fans greet the team at the airport.
