

Council Meeting Held
In Community Building

The last Council meeting was held at the Community Building Oct. 5.

The president, Mrs. Chester Haltom, opened the meeting with the creed, roll call, and minutes of the last meeting. The report of the nominating committee was given by Mrs. Russell Houston. Officers elected for 1965 are Mrs. Eugene McFarlan, president; Mrs. Cleo Arnold, 1st vice president; Mrs. Charles Chestnut, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Paul Aker, secretary; Mrs. John Danberry, treasurer; Mrs. Chester Haltom, adviser.

The Young Homemakers Committee reported a new club in Washington Township. Names of new Homemakers are to receive useful information from the county office.

Reservations for Achievement Day are to be sent to Mrs. Andrew Sutherlin, Greencastle R. 1, by Oct. 15th by the club presidents. Price $1.28, children 66¢.

Lessons to be given Nov. 2, Highlights of Local History, by Mrs. Charles Rector; Nov. 10, What Women Should Know About the Family Car. Three of next year's lessons will be Parent Lessons.

Instead of a summer conference at Purdue there will be the National Convention Aug. 10-12. There will be representatives from every state and Puerto Rico. The theme of the convention will be Community Development.

Mrs. Benner was asked to be technical leader to the group from Brazil, South America, and was unable to be present at this meeting.

12 Will Join 50-Year Club

INDIANAPOLIS UPI — Twelve physicians will become members of the Fifty Year Club of the Indiana State Medical Association at its 115th annual convention here Oct. 12-15.

They are Drs. Jesse Sanders, Auburn; William Moore, Muncie; George Bowdoin, Elkhart; Merrill Davis, Marion; Dale Weir, Louisville, Ky.; Ernest Eggers, Hammond; Russell Wharton, Gary; Jerome Holman, Sr., and Henry Nolting, Indianapolis; Lawrence Fisher and Harry Slominski, South Bend, and Frederick Whisler, Wabash.

Notice to all Republican voters and persons interested in Republican politics in the Sixth Congressional District. Thursday, Lebanon, Indiana, Boone County is having a Bontrager Day which will include a fish fry starting at 5:00 p.m. at the 4-H Fairgrounds.

Brenda Palmer, 7-year-old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. James Palmer, is a patient in the Putnam County Hospital with a broken arm and collar bone as result of having been hit by a car shortly before 7 o'clock Saturday evening. The accident was investigated by a state trooper.

Don't look for us in the TV News, we're at 309 N. Jackson St. with Top Quality cleaning plus Top Value Stamps. Old Reliable White Cleaners.

ANNIVERSARIES
Birthday
Gertie Ziegler, Cloverdale, October 7th.

Weddings
Mr. and Mrs. Everett Masten, 58 years, Oct. 7th.

THE DAILY BANNER AND
HERALD CONSOLIDATED
26-28 S. Jackson St.
Greencastle, Ind.
Business Phone OI 3-5151
Samuel R. Roriden, Business Mgr.
James B. Zais, Managing Editor
William D. Hooper, Adv. Mgr.

Entered in the Post Office at Greencastle, Indiana, as Second Class Mail matter under Act of March 7, 1878.

Subscription Prices
Home Delivery 35¢ per week
Mailed in Putnam Co. $7.00 per year
Outside of Putnam Co. $8.00 per year
Outside of Indiana $12.00 per year

Bible Thought

Personal And

With men, it is impossible, but not with God; for with God all things are possible. Mark 10:27.

The only limitations to the power of God are His love and His holiness.

Local News

Mrs. Ronald Clark and daughter, Julie Ann, of Martinsville are guests of Mrs. Elton Reed.

A daughter was born Wednesday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Crodian, Greencastle, Route 1.

Mrs. Bess Barnaby, East Seminary Street, returned home from the Putnam County Hospital Tuesday.

Donald Gorham returned by ambulance to his home Saturday from the Robert Long Hospital where he has been a patient for the last five weeks.

Prior to that he had been a patient in the Putnam County Hospital for three weeks.

There will be a miscellaneous shower for Mr. and Mrs. Rex Boswell of Fincastle, whose home and all contents were lost by fire, on Monday, Oct. 12 at 7:30 p. m. at Fincastle Community House.

"If the Democrats have the same opportunity we have to work at voter registration the year round," he said. "But they should not start working until just before the general election.

They don't want to get out a big vote before a primary because they are afraid they will lose control of their party."

Neal said he did think that several voters registration law changes are needed. He proposed that if the present 12-hour period the polls are open is not sufficient that a law should be enacted adding three hours to the time the polls are open.

He charged the law should be obeyed which now closes the polls at 6 p. m. and termed a 2-1 state election board ruling allowing voters in line at closing time to vote as a Democratic maneuver.

Neal said also he believes

"people who move into a state within six months of an election should be able to vote the national ticket."

He termed the Democratic protest against vote limitations

"baloney" and added "we prize the right to vote more than our so-called opposition."

"The Democrats have the same opportunity we have to work at voter registration the year round," he said. "But they should not start working until just before the general election.

They don't want to get out a big vote before a primary because they are afraid they will lose control of their party."

Neal said he did think that several voters registration law changes are needed. He proposed that if the present 12-hour period the polls are open is not sufficient that a law should be enacted adding three hours to the time the polls are open.

He charged the law should be obeyed which now closes the polls at 6 p. m. and termed a 2-1 state election board ruling allowing voters in line at closing time to vote as a Democratic maneuver.

Neal said also he believes

"people who move into a state within six months of an election should be able to vote the national ticket."

He termed the Democratic protest against vote limitations

"baloney" and added "we prize the right to vote more than our so-called opposition."

"The Democrats have the same opportunity we have to work at voter registration the year round," he said. "But they should not start working until just before the general election.

They don't want to get out a big vote before a primary because they are afraid they will lose control of their party."

Neal said he did think that several voters registration law changes are needed. He proposed that if the present 12-hour period the polls are open is not sufficient that a law should be enacted adding three hours to the time the polls are open.

He charged the law should be obeyed which now closes the polls at 6 p. m. and termed a 2-1 state election board ruling allowing voters in line at closing time to vote as a Democratic maneuver.

Neal said also he believes

"people who move into a state within six months of an election should be able to vote the national ticket."

He termed the Democratic protest against vote limitations

"baloney" and added "we prize the right to vote more than our so-called opposition."

"The Democrats have the same opportunity we have to work at voter registration the year round," he said. "But they should not start working until just before the general election.

They don't want to get out a big vote before a primary because they are afraid they will lose control of their party."

Neal said he did think that several voters registration law changes are needed. He proposed that if the present 12-hour period the polls are open is not sufficient that a law should be enacted adding three hours to the time the polls are open.

He charged the law should be obeyed which now closes the polls at 6 p. m. and termed a 2-1 state election board ruling allowing voters in line at closing time to vote as a Democratic maneuver.

Neal said also he believes

"people who move into a state within six months of an election should be able to vote the national ticket."

He termed the Democratic protest against vote limitations

"baloney" and added "we prize the right to vote more than our so-called opposition."

"The Democrats have the same opportunity we have to work at voter registration the year round," he said. "But they should not start working until just before the general election.

They don't want to get out a big vote before a primary because they are afraid they will lose control of their party."

Neal said he did think that several voters registration law changes are needed. He proposed that if the present 12-hour period the polls are open is not sufficient that a law should be enacted adding three hours to the time the polls are open.

He charged the law should be obeyed which now closes the polls at 6 p. m. and termed a 2-1 state election board ruling allowing voters in line at closing time to vote as a Democratic maneuver.

Neal said also he believes

"people who move into a state within six months of an election should be able to vote the national ticket."

He termed the Democratic protest against vote limitations

"baloney" and added "we prize the right to vote more than our so-called opposition."

"The Democrats have the same opportunity we have to work at voter registration the year round," he said. "But they should not start working until just before the general election.

They don't want to get out a big vote before a primary because they are afraid they will lose control of their party."

Neal said he did think that several voters registration law changes are needed. He proposed that if the present 12-hour period the polls are open is not sufficient that a law should be enacted adding three hours to the time the polls are open.

He charged the law should be obeyed which now closes the polls at 6 p. m. and termed a 2-1 state election board ruling allowing voters in line at closing time to vote as a Democratic maneuver.

Neal said also he believes

"people who move into a state within six months of an election should be able to vote the national ticket."

He termed the Democratic protest against vote limitations

"baloney" and added "we prize the right to vote more than our so-called opposition."

"The Democrats have the same opportunity we have to work at voter registration the year round," he said. "But they should not start working until just before the general election.

They don't want to get out a big vote before a primary because they are afraid they will lose control of their party."

Neal said he did think that several voters registration law changes are needed. He proposed that if the present 12-hour period the polls are open is not sufficient that a law should be enacted adding three hours to the time the polls are open.

He charged the law should be obeyed which now closes the polls at 6 p. m. and termed a 2-1 state election board ruling allowing voters in line at closing time to vote as a Democratic maneuver.

Neal said also he believes

"people who move into a state within six months of an election should be able to vote the national ticket."

He termed the Democratic protest against vote limitations

"baloney" and added "we prize the right to vote more than our so-called opposition."

"The Democrats have the same opportunity we have to work at voter registration the year round," he said. "But they should not start working until just before the general election.

They don't want to get out a big vote before a primary because they are afraid they will lose control of their party."

Neal said he did think that several voters registration law changes are needed. He proposed that if the present 12-hour period the polls are open is not sufficient that a law should be enacted adding three hours to the time the polls are open.

He charged the law should be obeyed which now closes the polls at 6 p. m. and termed a 2-1 state election board ruling allowing voters in line at closing time to vote as a Democratic maneuver.

Neal said also he believes

"people who move into a state within six months of an election should be able to vote the national ticket."

He termed the Democratic protest against vote limitations

"baloney" and added "we prize the right to vote more than our so-called opposition."

"The Democrats have the same opportunity we have to work at voter registration the year round," he said. "But they should not start working until just before the general election.

They don't want to get out a big vote before a primary because they are afraid they will lose control of their party."

Neal said he did think that several voters registration law changes are needed. He proposed that if the present 12-hour period the polls are open is not sufficient that a law should be enacted adding three hours to the time the polls are open.

He charged the law should be obeyed which now closes the polls at 6 p. m. and termed a 2-1 state election board ruling allowing voters in line at closing time to vote as a Democratic maneuver.

Neal said also he believes

"people who move into a state within six months of an election should be able to vote the national ticket."

He termed the Democratic protest against vote limitations

"baloney" and added "we prize the right to vote more than our so-called opposition."

"The Democrats have the same opportunity we have to work at voter registration the year round," he said. "But they should not start working until just before the general election.

They don't want to get out a big vote before a primary because they are afraid they will lose control of their party."

Neal said he did think that several voters registration law changes are needed. He proposed that if the present 12-hour period the polls are open is not sufficient that a law should be enacted adding three hours to the time the polls are open.

He charged the law should be obeyed which now closes the polls at 6 p. m. and termed a 2-1 state election board ruling allowing voters in line at closing time to vote as a Democratic maneuver.

Neal said also he believes

"people who move into a state within six months of an election should be able to vote the national ticket."

He termed the Democratic protest against vote limitations

"baloney" and added "we prize the right to vote more than our so-called opposition."

"The Democrats have the same opportunity we have to work at voter registration the year round," he said. "But they