Heavy Snow Is Predicted During January Period

DUBLIN, N. H. UPI — The snowfall this January will be more than double the average for the month, the Old Farmer's Almanac said Wednesday.

Forty inches will fall during the first month of 1965, 24.1 inches above the average, according to the Almanac's Abe Weatherwise.

The "storm of the winter" — a 20-inch accumulation — will occur between Jan. 18 and 21, the almanac said. "Tanks needed for these snow banks" is the warning for this period.

The average temperature for through April — will be 34.15 degrees, slightly below the average, the prediction said.

Winter precipitation will be 21.23 inches, Weatherwise said, 4.8 inches below the average. However, the snowfall will amount to 75.85 inches, about 11 inches above the average.

Otherwise, weatherwise predicts an unusually early spring and fall that will "linger unusually long."

Ordered To Cut Gym Capacity

MARION UPI — The Marion School Board is the latest on the list of school officials ordered by the state fire marshal's office to reduce the seating capacity of its gymnasium.

The board was told at a meeting Wednesday night that an inspector for Fire Marshal Ira Anderson visited Memorial Coliseum Tuesday and ordered the seating capacity cut from 6,500 to 4,700.

The inspector said that if changes planned by an architect last year were put into effect the seating could be increased to 5,100. The changes involve widening some exits and adding more exits.

However, the changes will cost about $8,000 and the school board took no immediate action on the proposal.

Former Mental Patient Hunted

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. UPI

Police hunted an ex-mental patient today, hoping his capture would end a series of arrests and raids set off by reports of a plot to kill President Johnson when he visits here Sunday.

The raids uncovered an arsenal of heavy weapons — including machine guns, hand grenades and a bazooka-like rocket launcher — amidst a collection of swastika banners and other Nazi gear.

Two ex-convicts were already jailed, charged Wednesday with violating the federal Firearms Act. But authorities emphasized they were not themselves suspected of plotting to kill the President — only of being possible suppliers of the weapons to be used.

There was no suggestion that the President would cancel his scheduled visit to Corpus

He told a news conference there were several reasons for it, but the main one is that speculators are busy in the coin market.

Dillon called a news conference to help the American Bankers Association (ABA) open a nationwide campaign designed to ease the shortage this fall.

Mint Director Eva B. Adams said coin production reached 590 million in September. The mint is shooting for well over 600 million coins in October and 700 million in November.

Top LBJ Aide Resigns Due To Morals Counts

WASHINGTON UPI — A top aide to President Johnson has resigned following disclosure of his arrest on morals charges on two occasions.

The resignation of Walter W. Jenkins as special assistant to the President was announced Wednesday night by White House Press Secretary George E. Reedy in New York City where Johnson is campaigning.

Reedy told a hastily called news conference in a hallway of the Waldorf Astoria Hotel that the President had named Bill D. Moyers, another White House aide, to succeed Jenkins.

Jenkins, 46, who figured prominently in the Bobby Baker case, was in seclusion in George Washington University Hospital where his physician said he was suffering from "nervous exhaustion and high blood pressure."

Dr. Charles Thompson said that Jenkins, an aide to Johnson for more than 20 years, had "just worn himself out" and probably would remain in the hospital for four or five days.

Supt. John Burk said the blaze did not damage the factory but destroyed cotton which had been stored for use in upholstering furniture.

Miller Stumps In Windy City

CHICAGO UPI — Rep. William E. Miller, the Republican vice presidential candidate, came where the voters are today in this state which Sen. Barry M. Goldwater considers a key to a GOP victory in November.

Miller, fresh from a campaign swing through Indiana, had formal speeches, receptions and an open air rally on his schedule in the Chicago area.

More than half the population of Illinois is in Chicago and its suburbs.

Miller's visit here preceded by a day that of Goldwater, who has set his sights on swinging Illinois into the Republican column with its 27 electoral votes. The late John F. Kennedy carried the state by the slim margin of a few thousand votes in 1960.

The GOP vice presidential candidate's swing through Indiana took him across the state from Richmond to Terre Haute.

At the Indiana State College Sports Arena in Terre Haute, Miller told a crowd of about 4,000 persons that the American people "want the truth" about Bobby Baker straight from President Johnson.

The news of Jenkins' arrest came as a shock to the White and was regarded as a setback to the landslide victory that had been widely predicted for Johnson.

Johnson made no direct reference to the matter in the prepared texts of his speeches at Buffalo and Rochester.

MOSCOW UPI—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's invitation for a preliminary show-down meeting in Moscow Dec. 15 to the Sino-Soviet split has been accepted by about two-thirds of the Communist parties invited, informed sources said today.

Sen. Goldwater Speaks In Texas

HARLINGEN, Tex., UPI — Sen. Barry M. Goldwater accused President Johnson today of "using every power of his great office . . . to cover up one of the sorriest rumors we have ever had in the nation's capital."

Goldwater's remarks were in a speech prepared for delivery at a campaign rally here today in his first of three stops in Texas. He also was scheduled to go to Beaumont and Houston.

The Arizona senator told reporters his mention of rumors and scandal referred to the Bobby Baker case. He said he had no comment on the resignation Wednesday of Walter W. Jenkins as a Johnson aide after disclosure Jenkins had been arrested on morale charges. Making his fourth campaign foray into Johnson's home state of Texas, Goldwater hammered hard on the Bobby Baker issue and gave almost equal billing to the President's fellow Texan, Billie Sol Estes.

Goldwater said: "All across this land there is a rising tide of doubt and dismay concerning the presidency of the United States.

"On the one hand, there is a

President who asks for the most extreme devotion, even love, asking the people to go all the way with him, to turn their taxes, their future, their schools, their problems, their every wish over to him.

"On the other hand, there is a President whose great and good friend, Bobby Baker, has been exposed as a manipulator of high office. There is a President whose name and office is linked with that of a convicted criminal, Billie Sol Estes.

"And there is a President who must be using every power of his great office, right now, yesterday and tomorrow, to cover up one of the sorriest rumors we have ever had in the nation's capital.

Batting Power Of Yankees Ties World Series At 3 - All

ST. LOUIS UPI — Raw power was the story of the sixth game of the 1964 World Series as the New York Yankees stretched it to its seven-game limit with a 8-3 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

That old Yankee home run trade mark — missing in earlier games of this series — was in evidence as Roger Maris, Mickey Mantle and Joe Pepitone connected to pave the way for Jim Bouton to win his second game of the series and square the classic at three victories each after six games.

The homers by Maris and Mantle — only the fourth time in series history that batters have hit consecutive homers — came with one out in the sixth inning while 35-year-old Curt Simmons was battling young Bouton pitch for pitch.

Maris' homer broke a 1-1 tie and then Mantle followed on the next pitch to make the score 3-1.

The Yankees gave 25-year-old Bouton more than enough cushion when they bombarded Barney Schultz and Gordon Richardson for five runs in the eighth — four of them scoring when Pepitone hit the 10th grand slam homer in World Series history.

Those extra runs turned out to be important because fidgety nervous Bouton had just about pitched himself out in seven innings. Manager Yogi Berra let him work his way out of a jam when the Cardinals scored a run in the eighth to put the deficit to 8-2 but quickly yanked him in favor of Steve Hamilton when the Redbirds started another rally in the ninth.

Hamilton yielded a run-scoring single to pinchhitter Charlie James but then got Curt Flood to hit into a game-ending double play.

It was the second victory of this series for Bouton, who won 18 games for the Yankees during the American League season. The loss went to Simmons,

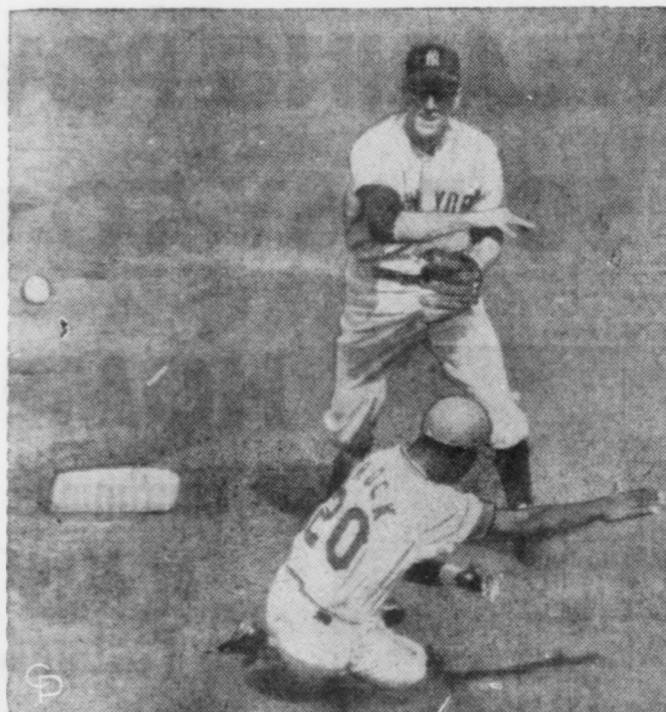

18-game winner, who pitched beautifully against the Yankees until the M & M bomb went off in the sixth.

The Cardinals staked Simmons to a run in the first inning on singles by Flood and Lou Brock and Bill White's infield double play. Simmons shut out the Yankees until the fifth when Tom Tresh doubled and scored the tying run on Bouton's line single to left center field.

Phil Linz led off the eighth with a single for the Yankees, moved to second on a sacrifice and to third on an infield out.

Mantle was purposely passed but Elston Howard singled for one run and Tom Tresh walked to load 'em up again. That ended Schultz' tour on the mound and brought in Richardson, who had a 2-2 count when Pepitone hit his grand slam.

Bouton retired the first batter in the ninth but Yogi yanked him after singles by Mike Shannon and Jerry Buchek. Pinchhitter Bob Skinner greeted Hamilton with a run-scoring single but then Flood hit to Linz, who started the game-ending double play.

FIRST RUN OF SIXTH GAME—Cardinal center fielder Curt Flood scores from third base as sliding left fielder Lou Brock is out at second in the last half of the first inning in the sixth World Series game. It was the first run of the game. Yankee shortstop Phil Linz is relaying the ball to first base to get Bill White on a double play.

Top Golfers Of Nation Tee Off At Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. UPI — The kings of golf — Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Tony Lema and Ken Venturi — tee off today in their final big fling of the season for big money in the $77,777 Sahara Invitational tournament.

Palmer, fresh from winning the world match play crown in England, has been installed as a co-favorite, with defending champion Nicklaus to take home top money of $12,000.

If either man is able to accomplish the feat, then he will nail down another championship — top money winner of the 1964 tour.

Palmer is leading the official money-winning race with $110,743 to his credit. But Nicklaus is right on his heels, with $107,717.83. The others aren't far back, but they couldn't catch the leaders, even by winning.

The new "big four" doesn't have a lock on winning any tournament, however. Also competing here on the long, 7,069-yard Paradise Valley Country Club Course are Billy Casper, third-leading money-winner of the year; PGA champion Bob Nichols, who is right behind Casper in the standings; and most of the rest of the country's finest shot-makers.

It was the second victory of this series for Bouton, who won 18 games for the Yankees during the American League season. The loss went to Simmons,

18-game winner, who pitched beautifully against the Yankees until the M & M bomb went off in the sixth.

The Cardinals staked Simmons to a run in the first inning on singles by Flood and Lou Brock and Bill White's infield double play. Simmons shut out the Yankees until the fifth when Tom Tresh doubled and scored the tying run on Bouton's line single to left center field.

Phil Linz led off the eighth with a single for the Yankees, moved to second on a sacrifice and to third on an infield out.

CENTENNIAL SCRAPBOOK
 The War for the Union 1861-65 in Pictures

No. 466 A popular camp meeting re-vival hymn in the North after the war was "Hold the Fort," inspired by a headline story from Allatoona Pass, Ga., Oct. 5, 1864.

With the occupation of Atlanta, Allatoona Pass had become an important Federal supply depot. In anticipation of a raid by hungry Rebels, it was guarded by 860 men of the 14th Minnesota Volunteer Infantry, under command of Lt. Col. J. F. Tourtelotte.

The garrison made a valiant stand when, at dawn, that Tuesday morning in October, Maj. Gen. Samuel French's small division of Hood's army struck toward Allatoona after cutting telegraph wires to prevent reinforcements being called by Tourtelotte. But the resourceful defender sent a message "overhead," via signal flag relay, to Sherman.

Back came the message, "Sherman is coming. Hold out." This was made "Hold the fort" in the dispatch of a newspaper correspondent which gave Northern readers the news of the Rebel repulse.

Whole Bran Cookies
and Cocoa Ideal Snack-Mates

Molasses whole bran cookies and hot cocoa make simple, vigorous refreshment. The snap and delicate "bite" of the spiced cookies taste especially good between warming sips of the beverage. The combination is ideal to serve after outdoor play or as a before bedtime snack these cool days and evenings.

Cereal cookies such as these are truly wholesome refreshment. Not only does whole bran cereal make the cookies taste better but it improves their nutritive value by the addition of protein, important B vitamins, essential minerals, and food energy. The cookies will keep crisp and fresh for several days in a cool jar.

Molasses Whole Bran Cookies

3 1/4 cups sifted flour
1 1/2 cups shortening
3 teaspoons cinnamon
2 teaspoons ginger
2 teaspoons soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup seedless raisins

1 1/2 cups brown sugar, packed
2 eggs
1/2 cup molasses
1 cup whole bran cereal

Combine flour, spices, soda, and salt; sift. Add raisins; mix. Combine shortening, brown sugar, and eggs; beat until smooth and creamy. Stir in molasses and cereal. Add dry ingredients and raisins; mix until dry ingredients are blended in. Shape into balls, using 1 tablespoonful of dough for each ball. Place 2 inches apart on greased baking sheet. Flatten slightly. Bake in moderate oven (350°F) until done, about 10 minutes. Remove from baking sheet with pancake turner, cool on rack. Yield: About 3 1/2 dozen cookies.

By Firing SquadSAIGON, South Viet Nam
UPI — A Communist Viet Cong terrorist, whose life was nearly traded for that of U. S. Air Force officer kidnaped in Venezuela, was executed here today by a firing squad for trying to kill U. S. Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara.

Nguyen Van Troi, 24, went to his death shouting "long live Ho Chi Minh" and "down with Nguyen Khanh." Seconds before the bullets ripped through his body, he damned the United States.

Troi was executed for the attempted assassination of McNamara during his visit to Saigon in May. He was caught trying to plant a bomb on a Saigon bridge over which McNamara was expected to pass.

Troi's execution was scheduled to take place last week. It was postponed when Cuban terrorists kidnaped Lt. Col. Michael Smolens in Venezuela and it was rumored they would release Smolens only after Troi was freed.

Word was received here Tuesday of Smolens's safe release.

British Voters
Go To Polls

LONDON UPI — Great Britain voted today in one of the tightest parliamentary elections in its history.

There was no certainty as to whether the winning party would be the Conservatives of Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home or the Labor party of opposition leader Harold Wilson.

There was fairly general agreement that it would be close — so close that the tiny liberal party might gain the balance of power between the two giants.

Public opinion polls were divided. Legalized bookmakers

DOWN IN DUMPS?—British Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home looks as if he's been paying attention to those polls indicating a Labour Party edge in the Oct. 15 elections. He's shown at a press conference in Conservative Party headquarters in London.

gave the edge to Labor. But their odds were largely determined by heavy betting among businessmen hedging against a Conservative loss.

One thing was certain. Whichever side wins, British foreign policy will be based on close alignment with the United States.

Conservatives and Laborites differ on whether Great Britain should have its own nuclear weapons. But for both of them, the American alliance, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the United Nations are the pillars of British foreign policy.

Report Is Made
On Corn Crop

WASHINGTON UPI — Harvest of the 1964 corn crop of 3.6 billion bushels was about 18 per cent complete on Oct. 12, according to the government's weekly weather and crop bulletin.

The Weather Bureau said corn picking was 35 per cent complete in Missouri, 30 per cent in Illinois, 15 per cent in South Dakota, Indiana, Michigan, and Ohio, 10 per cent in Iowa, and about 5 per cent in Minnesota. Picking was reported well under way in Nebraska.

About 30 per cent of the Kansas crop had been cribbed.

Corn harvest made favorable progress in Kentucky and Tennessee, but the going was slow in Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, and South Carolina where rainfall was heavy.

Soybean harvest advanced rapidly throughout the corn belt, except in Minnesota where drying was slowed by continued cool, damp weather.

More than half the soybean crop had been harvested in Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Ohio, and Minnesota.

The Weather Bureau said harvest of the cotton crop was not as rapid as in 1963 because of weather difficulties.
