

THE DEMOCRAT.

GREENCASTLE, INDIANA.

The News Condensed.

Important Intelligence From All Parts.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Regular Session.

On the 28th resolutions were introduced in the senate asking the secretary of war whether subordinate employees and laborers engaged by engineer officers have been employed or discharged for political reasons; directing the finance committee to prepare a bill for the repeal of all laws authorizing the secretary of the treasury to issue bonds or other interest-bearing obligations without specific authority, and one calling for information regarding changes made in the weight or fineness of silver coins of silver standard countries. A bill to provide for the free and unlimited coinage of silver was introduced by Mr. Stewart, of Nevada.... in the house an attempt to discuss the two election cases of O'Neill vs. Joy and Engle vs. Hulborn showed the lack of a quorum.

In the senate the pension appropriation bill was reported on the 29th and the house joint resolution appropriating $10,000 additional to carry out the provisions of the Chinese exclusion act and the McGarran land claim bill were passed.... In the house the president's message vetoing the Bland silver seigniorage bill was received. No business was transacted.

The senate was not in session on the 30th ult.... In the house Mr. Bland gave notice that on April 3 he would move to pass the seigniorage bill over the veto. No business was transacted.

On the 31st ult. the senate was not in session.... In the house bills were introduced for the free and unlimited coinage of silver dollars of 413 grains and for an additional district judge for the Northern district of Illinois. The river and harbor bill was reported, and the remainder of the day was devoted to eulogies upon the life, character and public services of the late Representative O'Neill, of Pennsylvania.

In the senate on the 21st Senator Voorhees (dem., Ind.) opened the tariff debate and in his speech denounced the protective system of tariff taxation. The nominations of Thomas E. Benedict, of New York, to be public printer, and James D. Yoemans, of Iowa, to be interstate commerce commissioner, were received from the president.... In the house a fruitless attempt was made to secure a quorum in order to bring the O'Neill-Joy contested election case to a close.

DOMESTIC.

THE TOWN of Sutherland, Neb., was totally destroyed by fire.

THE Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railway and the Cincinnati, New Orleans & Texas Pacific railway have been consolidated.

A REVIVAL reached such a stage in Bloomington, Ill., that business houses and saloons closed during the day appointed for general prayer.

KENTUCKY women were signing a petition asking congress to impeach Col. Breckinridge.

THREE families, comprising fourteen persons, were buried in a snowslide at Canyon Creek, Wash.

MISS SARAH BILLINGS and her sister Linda, aged 35 and 40 years respectively, took their own lives with poison at Winchester, O., because they were about to be separated by marriage.

JIM GODSEY, sentenced to five years at Terre Haute, Ind., for forgery, said his father had trained him in crime from childhood.

AT Antigo, Wis., William Nonnemacher pleaded guilty to murdering his wife and three children and was given a life sentence.

AT Indianapolis seven members of a family were poisoned by eating sausage containing trichina.

COL. BRECKINRIDGE took the stand in his own defense in Washington and told of his intrigue with Madeline Polard.

THOMAS HOLLOWAY, a populist farmer, while watching Coxey's army in Columbiana, O., dropped dead from apoplexy.

HOWARD S. LONG, an installment goods agent at Springfield, O., met Miss Lydia Brown, of Urbana, for the first time, and in half an hour they were married.

RECEIVER FAUBOT, of the Lima (O.) National bank, which closed two years ago, claims a shortage of $90,000 for which he can get no explanation.

CHESTER, Ia., has been selected as the location for a new insane asylum to accommodate 1,000 patients and cost $1,000,000.

JOHN WITT's residence at McKendree, W. Va., was burned and his eight little children and Miss Mollie Hettrick perished in the flames.

A COLD norther did millions of dollars of damage in Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas, killing almost everything green. OLIVER JACKSON (colored), one of the Grant murderers, while en route to Montgomery, Ala., was taken by masked men from two deputies and shot to death.

A GENERAL strike of the 10,000 coke workers and miners of the Connellsville (Pa.) region was ordered.

Gov. TILLMAN called on the militia to assist in enforcing the dispensary law in South Carolina.

THE California supreme court holds that the act of the last legislature in removing the capital from Sacramento to San Jose was illegal.

R. McMANUS, of Livingston, Mont., shot and killed his wife and then cut his own throat. Domestic trouble was the cause.

PROF. JOHN M. ELLIS, of Oberlin college at Oberlin, O., died on a Santa Fe train as it entered Chicago from California.

THEATERS, cards and dancing have been tabooed as vices by the Epworth league of Michigan.

SENATOR VOORHEES declined to allow the factory girls of New England to appear before the senate finance committee in opposition to the tariff bill.

THE exchanges at the leading clearing houses in the United States during the week ended on the 30th ult. aggregated $741,401,756, against $885,001,934 the previous week. The decrease, compared with the corresponding week in 1893, was 29.2.

EXECUTIONS took place as follows: Israel Johnson (colored) at Union Springs, Ala., for the murder of Wash Roberts (colored) January 15 last; at Paris, Tex., E. R. Gonsales, for the murder of John Daniels, May 16, 1893; Manning Davis for the murder of John Roden December 26, 1891, and Jim Upkins for the murder September 6, 1893, of his 6-year-old step-daughter.

JUDGE DALLAS filed an opinion in the United States court at Philadelphia holding that Chinamen cannot be naturalized.

In discussing the right of the south to secede the debating society at Maple Creek, Neb., broke all the furniture and several members were badly injured.

ONE person was killed, fifteen injured, four of them probably fatally, and property worth $40,000 destroyed by the collapse of a water tower at Peoria, Ill.

THE Maryland legislature passed a bill making it obligatory on the courts of Maryland, under certain conditions, to send inebriates to gold cure institutes for treatment.

JUDGE LOUIS S. LOVELL died at Stanton, Mich., aged 78. He was on the circuit bench in the eighth district for twenty-four years.

FRIEZ KLOETZLER, a shoemaker and a socialist, murdered his wife and four children and then committed suicide at Dolgeville, N. Y.

THE acting secretary of war has formally decided that a deserter's release is in no sense a discharge from the army nor does it in any way remove the charge of desertion.

EXCITEMENT was aroused by the find of a pronounced vein of silver near Virginia City, Wis.

FIVE blocks in the central portion of Barry, Ill., were destroyed by fire, the loss being $200,000.

FOUR persons were killed and three badly wounded in a fight near Darlington, S. C., over the enforcement of the dispensary law. Gov. Tillman ordered troops to quell the disturbance.

WILLIAM R. LAIDLAW was awarded damages in New York of $25,000 in his suit against Russell Sage, who used him as protection against a dynamiter.

NUGETS of pure gold were washed from sand dug out of a well at La Veta, Col.

SOUTH CAROLINA was almost in a state of anarchy, nearly all the troops having refused to obey Gov. Tillman in the dispensary war. He had placed the counties of Florence and Darlington under martial law.

MISS ANNIE VAN DORN, of Passaic, N. J., has just discovered that she was married to the wrong man in 1892 while under the influence of drugged liquor.

FOUR persons were injured in a collision between passenger trains at Anderson, Ind.

ROBBERS secured $3,200 from the safe of the township treasurer at Frankfort, Mich.

W. B. BROZELL, a well-to-do farmer of Hurd county, Ga., shot his wife and then shot himself fatally.

FOUR men were burned to death and one fatally and two others seriously injured by a natural-gas explosion at Alexandria, Ind.

FIVE tramps were thought to have perished in a fire which destroyed the Rock Island hay barns at Geneseo, Ill.

AN employee of the American exchange national bank of New York conspired with an outsider and swindled the concern out of $33,000.

BECAUSE a tag was pinned to his coat John Williams stabbed Walter Johnson to death at a revival meeting in Olive, O.

COMPETITION and a falling off in business caused the collapse of the brewing pool made up in September, 1892.

THREE men were burned to death in a summer cottage at Squantum Beach, Mass.

DURING a riot at a political meeting in Milwaukee half a dozen men were stabbed. The trouble was started by Polish laborers.

FIRE which started in a flourmill at Borden, Ind., burned six stores and eighteen residences, causing a loss of $125,000.

FOUR HUNDRED drunken strikers terrorized the town of East Liverpool, O., and non-union men were beaten and the police cowed.

FOUR members of the Louisville (Ky.) city council were indicted for bribery and perjury.

THE regular monthly treasury statement for March shows that the total receipts were $24,842,797, against $24,115,509 for March, 1893. The disbursements were $31,137,520, against $31,633,482 for March, 1893, leaving a deficiency for the month of March of $6,294,763, and for the nine months of the present fiscal year of $55,432,027.

THE visible supply of grain in the United States on the 2d was: Wheat, 71,536,000 bushels; corn, 18,539,000 bushels; oats, 2,713,000 bushels; rye, 415,000 bushels; barley, 630,000 bushels.

MORONI DUNCAN, a stockman, formerly owner of the Rock Springs (Wyo.) Review, perished in a blizzard which swept over that state.

HOLLAND ENGLISH was taken from the jail at Bakersville, Va., by a mob and hanged. He was charged with killing his wife.

In a boiler explosion near Tompkinsville, Ind., Alex. Ritter, the owner of the mill, and two brothers named Fowler were killed instantly.

STRIKING mill operatives at Paterson, N. J., attacked five working women, but a squad of police rescued the defenseless party.

CHAMPION CORBETT says that Jackson will put up a defensive fight and will be beaten inside of twenty rounds.

THE decomposed body of Rev. M. Nolan, a traveling evangelist claiming Richmond, Va., as his home, was found riddled with bullets near Homer, Tenn.

BILL DALTON, the famous outlaw, was fatally shot in a fight with officers in the Indian territory.

At Camden, Mo., a fire destroyed the town, Ind., was burned, and his three children perished in the flames.

In a fight between Indians and white settlers in the Cheyenne country west of El Reno two white men and five Indians were killed.

CHRISTOPHER WILKIE and Henry Wells, farmers living at Columbus, Ill., killed themselves with poison. They made an agreement to take their own lives several weeks ago, owing to ill health.

FOUR THOUSAND painters and paperhangers in Chicago struck against a reduction of wages.

THE Howland Falls (Mo.) pulp mill, out buildings, offices and one dwelling were burned, the loss being $150,000.

WALTER BERDAN started to ride on bicycle from Denver, Col., to Paterson, N. J. The distance is 2,500 miles and he will strive to make a long distance record.

NOTICE of a cut in the wages of trainmen has been issued by the Wabash road, to take effect May 1.

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL.

CHARLES C. BAER, grand commander of the Knights Templars of Pennsylvania, died of spinal meningitis at Pittsburgh, aged 58 years.

GEORGE TICKNOR CURTIS, the lawyer and writer on political economy and constitutional history, died in New York, aged 53 years.

LEADING women of Atlanta, Ga., met and organized a Woman's Suffrage association.

CHARLES F. CRISP, speaker of the house, was appointed United States senator by Gov. Northen, of Georgia, to fill the vacancy caused by Senator Colquitt's death.

MRS. JANE G. AUSTIN, the novelist, died in Boston, aged 55, after a lingering illness.

SPEAKER CRISP has declined the seat in the senate made vacant by Senator Colquitt's death.

E. G. RATHBONE, of Hamilton, O., was nominated for congress by the Third district republicans to fill the vacancy caused by the death of George W. Houk.

EX-CONGRESSMAN GEORGE E. HALSEY died in Newark, N. J., of pneumonia after a brief illness. He was 67 years of age and a millionaire.

In the Kansas municipal elections the issue was the fight of women against the saloons and in many instances the former were beaten.

In the municipal elections in Ohio and Michigan the republicans were successful in most of the cities and towns.

PATRICK WALSH, editor of the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle, was appointed by Gov. Northen to fill the vacancy in the United States senate caused by the death of Senator Colquitt.

FOREIGN.

THE remains of Hans von Balow, the distinguished pianist, were cremated at Hamburg.

RUSSIA has passed a law against American insurance companies, forbidding the tonnage system.

MALAYS sacked the Spanish station at Lepanto and killed two officers and three women.

HENRY LE CARON, who was a British spy upon Irishmen in America, died in London.

THE 79th birthday of Prince Bismarck was celebrated throughout Germany.

THE German empire lost its oldest official in the person of Johann Muller, jailer at Wittlich, near Treves, who died at the age of 103.

PRESIDENT BERMUDEZ, of Peru, died at Lima from an intestinal trouble.

THE sixteenth constitutional congress of Mexico assembled in semi-annual session at Mexico City.

SENOR BORGONO has assumed the presidency of Peru, the first vice president declining the office.

NUMEROUS riots occurred among the starving residents of Andalusia, Spain.

MARGARET WALKER, 53 years of age, was executed in Walton jail at Liverpool, England, for the murder of her husband last November.

THE Land Securities company of London, formed thirty years ago, failed for $10,000,000.

PROF. BROWN-SEQUARD, the eminent physician and physiologist, known chiefly to the world at large as the discoverer of the so-called "elixir of life," died in Paris, aged 76 years.

LATER.

In the United States senate on the 3d Senator Allison opened the tariff debate for the republicans and he gave an outline of some of the main objections which will be urged against the bill. A resolution directing the finance committee to prepare a bill for the repeal of all laws which give the secretary of the treasury authority to issue interest-bearing bonds was presented. In the house the democrats seated John J. O'Neill as the representative from St. Louis in place of Charles F. Joy.

AN incendiary fire destroyed the business portion of Hartford, Kan., a town of 2,000 people.

THE public debt statement issued on the 3d showed that the debt increased $13,786,063 during the month of March. The cash balance in the treasury was $133,950,045. The total debt, less the cash balance in the treasury, amounts to $1,631,025,138.

THE Nauvoo Fruit company of St. Louis has been compelled to destroy over 400,000 fruit trees that have been injured by the weather and insects.

Gov. TILLMAN, of South Carolina, issued a proclamation taking absolute control of the police forces of the towns in the state.

At the city election in Spring Hill, Kan., women were elected to fill all of the municipal offices, including mayor, councilmen and police judges.

THE Connellsville (Pa.) coke region was convulsed by a labor war and from one end of the territory to the other rioting and disorder held full sway. Human life was in danger and the destruction of property was being carried on every hand.

THE six-story building of Tichnor & Jacob at Rochester, N. Y., was burned, the loss being $300,000.

BITTER animosities that have existed at Kansas City, Mo., between the American Protective Association and the Catholics culminated in a pitched battle at the polls in which two men were killed, two fatally injured and two others wounded.

TROOPS were ordered to the Cheyenne country, where the Indians and cowboys were fighting.

In the municipal elections throughout Illinois the republicans were successful in fifty-nine towns and the democrats in sixteen. In Chicago the republicans will have a majority of sixteen in the common council. In Wisconsin the republicans carried forty out of fifty-three towns and elected their entire ticket in Milwaukee.

In Minnesota fifteen out of twenty cities elected republican officials.

SLAIN IN A RIOT.

Result of a Bitter Religious War in Kansas City.

Catholics and Members of the American Protective Association Fight at the Polls—Two Men Killed and Several Others Wounded.

BLOOD IS SHED.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 4.—The bitter animosities that have existed here between the American Protective Association and the Catholics culminated Tuesday in a pitched battle in which two men were killed, two fatally injured and two others wounded, as follows:

Killed—Con Brownham, shot through the kidneys; Michael Callahan, shot through right side.

Fatally injured—Perry Fowler, shot through the back; Jerry Pate, shot in the face.

Seriously wounded—Patrick Fleming, shot in the left shoulder; John McGovern, shot through right arm.

It cannot be definitely said which is responsible for the unfortunate affair, as the partisans of each loudly charged the other with being the full cause of all the trouble. More than 100 shots were exchanged between the combatants in less than that many seconds, and when the firing ceased the men named were lying dead, dying or injured on the pavement.

The two antagonistic elements were solidly divided in their choice of candidates for mayor. The strong and aggressive support that each side gave to its candidate during one of the hottest campaigns ever known in this city engendered a strong sentiment of bigotry. It was, therefore, in no amiable mood that the workers of the respective factions came together at the different polling places throughout the city, and that these workers came expecting trouble to occur before the day was over was apparent from the number of deadly weapons that were drawn when the first pistol shot was fired.

This riot took place on the Southwest boulevard in the Fifth ward, close to police station No. 3, and those who took part in it had been heated to the fighting temper by reports that had been hourly arriving at the station of brawls at other polling places. Only one hour before it was known that John Gooley, a stonemason, was shot in the back and forehead by William Henry Walker at a voting place at the corner of Fifth and Campbell streets and that the row was directly due to a fiery debate between the men regarding the principles of the American Protective Association to which Gooley was violently opposed.

It is claimed that Michael Callahan fired the first shot. He was a member of a gang of men working under the lead of James Prior, a politician antagonistic to the A. P. A., and in support of Frank Johnson, the labor and independent democratic candidate for mayor. Callahan was killed.

Then the battle began. The deputy constables at the polling booth and the workers of all the political factions crowded together in a solid mass about 100 strong, and every one of them seemed to be armed. For a minute or two the discharge of weapons sounded like a discharge of musketry by a regiment. Hundreds of citizens gathered at every point of vantage to witness the battle, which, however, was of short duration.

In less than five minutes from the time the first shot was fired the police from station No. 3 appeared upon the scene and quelled the disturbance. With their approach the fighting political workers ceased hostilities and made a quick effort to hide their weapons.

While the riot was in progress it is said that members of the American Protective Association telephoned to Armourdale and Argentine, strongholds of that order, for 1,000 men, and that the assurance was given that the men would shortly be on the way. Members of the A. P. A. in this city and Armourdale deny the truth of this story.

Fryor's men are claiming that Callahan was an innocent victim. They assert that it was Jerry N. Pate, an A. P. A. man, who first shot, and that was the shot that killed Callahan. Pate was serving as a constable, having been appointed especially by a Westport official to serve a warrant for the arrest of Jim Fryor, John Fryor, his son, and Bert Pryor for an alleged felonious assault upon a citizen earlier in the day. He and Callahan met, had words, and either one or the other fired the shot that brought on the conflict.

ON THE WARPATH.

Several Killed in Battle with Indians in Oklahoma.

EL RENO, O. T., April 4.—Further advices from the scene of the encounter between the band of depredating Cheyenne Indians and some cowboys who were herding cattle were brought here Tuesday by a courier who came for military assistance. He reported that when he left the fight was yet in progress and that then some eight or ten of the Indians and half that many white men had been killed or wounded. The settlers were hastening to the aid of the fighting cowboys and had surrounded the band of Indians and were slowly and surely picking them off. Two troops of cavalry left the fort for the scene of the fight, and it is expected about 7 miles they will not likely arrive before the battle is over.

ALL SORTS.

ALL diplomatic correspondence was formerly conducted in Latin.

CHINESE soldiers get one dollar a month and have to board themselves.

GRANITE is the bedrock of the world, being the lowest on the earth's crust.

DURING Victoria's reign India has coined two million pounds in gold and two hundred and six million pounds in silver.

FLORIDA produces over fifty varieties of the orange. The annual crops is about two million two hundred and fifty thousand boxes.

AT THE POLLS.

Returns from the Elections in Illinois, Wisconsin and Elsewhere.

CHICAGO, April 4.—Tuesday's aldermanic elections in this city resulted in a net gain of five members in the city council for the republicans. The majorities range from 4,000 to 10. The new council will stand: Republicans, 43; democrats, 25. The present council stands: Republicans, 38; democrats, 39. The republican west town ticket for assessor collector, supervisor and clerk, was badly beaten. In the south town the only republican elected was the nominee for assessor. The republicans elected their entire tickets in the north town, Lake View, Hyde Park and in Jefferson, while the democrats were successful in the town of Lake.

The city voted in favor of the annexation of Evanston and Morgan Park by a large majority. But Morgan Park does not want to be a part of the city and voted two to one against annexation. The annexation proposition as far as Morgan Park is concerned therefore falls through. Evanston did not vote on the question of annexation Tuesday, but will do so April 17.

CHICAGO, April 4.—The election of an alderman in the First ward was fraught with scenes of bloodshed. Two candidates, Skakel and Coughlin, are in the field, the latter the regular democratic nominee, and the former an independent democrat. The fight has been a close one. There were many fights at different precincts. Friends of both men were badly beaten and bruised by adherents of either. At the corner of Clark and Van Huren streets "Buff" Schwartz, a Skakelite, was shot and fatally wounded, and at the corner of Clark and Harrison, John Dee, a friend of Coughlin, received two bullets from a sniper in the hands of a foe.

and the entire republican city ticket are elected by pluralities which range from 4,000 to 6,000. The republicans will also have a majority in the common council. Only five of the eighteen wards in the city were carried by the democrats. The new council will be composed of twenty-six republicans and twenty-one democrats. The results were noticeable.

DENVER, Col., April 4.—Returns are coming in slowly on account of free scratching. Citizens' or independent candidates are the favorites in the mountain towns and there appears scarcely a vestige of either republicans, democrats or populists in the successful heads of tickets. At De Deque the mayor made himself obnoxious and about fifteen women returned to the polls in the afternoon armed with horse whips for him but he deamped on learning of their approach. At Highlands W. C. T. U. members canvassed candidates on their reputation as drinking men and snowed under everyone they opposed. Mrs. Carrie West, republican candidate for town clerk, was elected.

SPRING HILL, Kan., April 4.—At the election here women were elected to fill all the municipal offices, including mayor, councilman and police judges.

BIG POOL IN STEEL.

New Combine Formed with a Capital of $4,300,000.

CLEVELAND, O., April 4.—Six of the leading steel casting companies of the country have formed a combination known as the American Steel Casting company, and have organized under the laws of New Jersey, with capital stock of $4,300,000. The new company has taken charge of the plants and the business of the following companies, all of which have ceased doing business on their own account and have become part of the new concern. They are:

The Pittsburgh Steel Casting company of Pittsburgh; the Sharon Steel Casting company of Sharon, Pa.; the Syracuse Steel Casting company of Syracuse, N. Y.; the Norristown Steel Casting company of Norristown, Pa.; the Standard Steel Casting company of Chester, Pa.; the South Steel company of Alabama.

The new concern includes all the steel foundries in the country except two, which are not regarded as competitors. J. K. Bole, of this city, has been elected president of the new organization.

SOLDIERS' HOMESTEAD RIGHTS.

Favorable Report on Kyle's Bill Exempting Them from Six Months' Residence.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The senate committee on public lands has agreed to report favorably Senator Kyle's amendment to the sundry civil appropriation bill providing that any honorably discharged soldier of the late civil war, not now the owner of 160 acres of land, and who has not availed himself of the privileges under the land laws of the United States, may acquire title to 160 acres of land by making application therefor in person at any government land office and paying the minimum price of $1.25 per acre. The law now requires a residence of six months on the part of the ex-soldiers.

WASHINGTON PERSONALS.

JUSTICE BREWER, of the United States supreme court, is in charge of the Bible class in the First Congregational church of Washington.

YANG YU, the Chinese minister at Washington, is cutting a very wide swath. His costume, carriage and mansion out-line those of any other diplomat.

JUSTICE WHITE is one of the largest individual sugar planters in Louisiana. Last year over three million pounds of sugar were manufactured on his plantation.

Dr. J. C. W. Barmore, Toronto, Ontario.

A Narrow Escape

Took Poison by Mistake

Bad Effects Entirely Eliminated by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Gentlemen—In April last, through the effects of a dose of strychnine taken in mistake for another drug, I was laid up in St. John, N. B., for ten days. After this I never seemed to regain my former health, and continually suffered from indigestion and heart palpitation, for which I could get no relief. I thought I would try Hood's Sarsaparilla. After taking one bottle, I felt a little better, so continued using the remedy until I had consumed six bottles. I found myself gaining strength and flesh every day, and am now as healthy as I was before taking the poison." F. V. WARMOLD, representing the Seely Perfumes, 29 Melbourne Avenue, Toronto, Ontario.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

and flesh every day, and am now as healthy as I was before taking the poison." F. V. WARMOLD, representing the Seely Perfumes, 29 Melbourne Avenue, Toronto, Ontario.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, constipation, indigestion, sick headache, indigestion.

Friendly Regard

is never entertained by the children for a medicine that tastes bad. This explains the popularity among little ones of a preparation of cod-liver oil almost as palatable as milk. Many mothers have grateful knowledge of its benefits to weak, sickly children.

Scott's Emulsion,

Prepared by Scott & Borne, N. Y. All Druggists.

FAIRY TALES OF CHILDHOOD.

How dear to my heart are the scenes of my childhood.
With fairies and giants and wonderment fraught;
How often I wept for the Babes in the Wood—
Covered over with leaves which the little birds brought.
And sweet Cinderella, whose sisters would whip her
Till the fairy god-mother sent her to the ball!
What joy when she fitted the little glass slipper
And married the good, handsome prince after all.
My hair, it would stand right up straight from my forehead
When Bluebeard found blood on the key which his wife
Had used to peek into that chamber so horrid—
But wasn't I glad when they took Bluebeard's life.
Dear little Red Riding Hood! Who could be sweeter
When she thro' the woods to her grandmother sped;
How frightened I felt lest the big wolf would eat her
When showing his teeth while she lay on the bed.
And Hop-o-my-thumb! What a smart little fellow
He was to strew pebbles to find his way home;
I grieved his bad uncle felt awfully mellow
When Hop and his brothers would break again come.
Bold Jack and Beanstalk! I shivered whenever
The giant said: "Fe-fi-fo-fum! I smell blood."
And held in my breath till Jack's hatchet could sever
The stalk so the giant fell down with a thud.
And Jack, Giant Killer, so brave and defiant!
He wasn't afraid of old ogres a bit;
He shook his fist at a two-headed giant
Who, running to catch him, fell into Jack's pit.
Puss in Boots! How I listened in awe to that story
And wondering if cats long ago were so wise;
And dear Sleeping Beauty—who slept in her glory
Until the nice prince came to open her eyes.
And tiny Tom Thumb, on his mouse-horse a rider,
With his little sword needled O, wasn't he cute;
How bravely he vanquished that terrible spider—
A hero he was of most noble repute.
Beauty and the Beast also gave me a pleasure,
And Sinbad, the Sailor, and Forty Thieves, too,
And Aladdin, whose wonderful lamp was a treasure,
And the Wooden Horse flying aloft in the blue.
Enchantment and fairies and magic and witches,
Hobgoblins and dwarfs, genii, giants and elves,
Kings, princesses, princes and queens and such riches—
Those story books mustn't be closed on the shelves.
—H. C. Dodge, in Goodall's Sun.

A SMART CRIMINAL.

Why He Secured an Easy Job in the Warden's Office.

The train stopped for a few moments at a small town and a young girl got in. She was tall, slender and pretty, a true village lass, dressed in a neat gown, but one which, nevertheless, bore evidence of home manufacture. The coach was rather crowded and she looked this way and that for a seat. Then her bright glance rested upon two men seated in the rear of the coach, and she gave an exclamation as she came toward them.

"Why, George Comer," she said, as she stopped near the younger of the two men and extended her hand cordially.

He was a good-looking young fellow, dressed with great taste, and was evidently a friend of and long syne with the young girl. By his side was seated an older man with coarse features, a hard expression resting upon his face. He wore a slouch hat. He was powerfully built and would evidently be a hard man to handle where physical force was called for.

"Why, little Grace Shaw," exclaimed the young man, but he did not rise, nor did he extend his hand. He reached over with his left hand and turned over a seat.

"Won't you sit down here?" he asked.

"With pleasure. It is so long since I have seen you, George." Then alluding to his companion, he said: "This is—this is my friend, Mr. Charles Grove."

The young woman bowed stiffly, but she made up her mind that she would not like the companion of her old friend. There was something forbidding about him to her.

"What have you been doing, George, since you left town?"

"Oh, a little of everything and a good deal of nothing."

"It was unkind not to have let any of your old friends hear from you all this time."

"Well, a man is so busy, or rather so occupied in town with doing what little he has to do, that he—"

"Forgets old friends," she added, reproachfully.

"Well, not exactly. But tell me about yourself."

"There is nothing to tell. I am teaching school. But you, we have always wondered, all of us, how you were getting on. Some of us said that you were always so smart that you would do very well in New York. Have you done well?"

The young man recovered his suave manner.

"Don't be alarmed, Gracie," he said. "You can now understand what he meant when he said he was going to a big house. I am going to take him there. I am a United States marshal and he is a criminal. That is all, so cheer up, my girl."

The other man gave a grunt and a snort.

"Well, I am blown," he said.

"What has he done?" she asked, eyeing him with terror.

"Oh, not very much. He is a generally bad man. He would as soon burglarize as sandbag a person; he would as soon pick your pocket as run a faro bank; he would just as soon enter a front door and help himself as he would to climb a porch. He is simply a good all-round crook, and I am taking him to jail."

"Whew! whew!" whistled the other man, regarding the young fellow with amazement.

"But don't be alarmed, my dear. He won't be ugly to-day. He knows that I've got him and he'll keep quiet. Just hand me that newspaper, will you? It is as well that people should not know what bad company I'm in."

"Well, I've a good notion to punch—" began the other man.

"How long is he sent up for?" asked the young lady.

"Only five years, but he deserves ten, and I wish they had given it to him."

"Is it possible?"

"Yes. In 1883 he robbed a house of six hundred and fifty-three dollars; in 1885 he escaped from jail; in 1886 he sandbagged a man and took his watch; two years after he was running a crooked gambling house, and now he is sent up for forgery. He is capable of all the small vices, and a good many of the big ones."

By this time the train had arrived at the station where the young girl was to leave the train.

"Well good-by, George," she said, rising.

"Good-by, Gracie."

"I'm so glad to have seen you."

"And I, also. You are becoming such a sweet, pretty girl."

"You don't think so?"

"Indeed I do."

"I'm so glad that you have done well in the city, and I will tell all your old friends."

"Yes, do."

"Be careful of that man with you. Aren't you afraid of him?"

"Oh, no."

"Well, good-by."

"Good-by."

He extended his left hand.

"Shake!" he said.

She put her pretty hand in his and he gave it a pressure that made her blush.

"Sorry I can't shake with the other hand," he said, "but duty, you know, duty—"

"Yes."

"Good-by."

"Good-by."

"Don't forget to tell all the folks I am doing well."

"I won't."

"Am prosperous and all that."

"No."

"Good-by."

"Good-by."

She was off, and now the train was bowling on again.

The other man took a key from his pocket and unlocked the handcuffs. Then he fastened the end that had been attached to him to the iron work of the seat.

"Now, Confidence Jim, if you meet any more of your lady friends, just introduce this seat to them."

With that the other man walked into a smoker and lighted a cigar, but he kept his eyes upon the man who was fastened to the seat. But when the warden of the jail heard of the story he laughed. Then he gave the smooth prisoner work in his own office.—Detroit Free Press.

Philosophy from Foggy Bottom.

Er man dat kin tell whether he's tired er jes' lazy has judicial qualifications dat fits him nacherly fer de s'p're bench.

When er man go's round askin' for advice de chances is 'bout seventeen ter three dat he's jes' tryin' ter put off gittin' down ter business.

De school dat you larns in makes a heap ob difference. No good comes ob teachin' er boy his rifmetic fun a policy slip.

Er big glass di'mun' shirt stut ain't got no magnifyin' powers. Hts effects am ter make de man dat stan's behin' it look mighty small.

Some men fin's hit mighty hahd ter think sense an' talk politics simultaneously.

Don't gib too much 'tention ter fancy 'complishments. Er man gits erehead much faster by plain walkin' dan he kin by turnin' somersets.—Washington Star.

Unnecessary.

The Ainu, an uncivilized tribe on the Island of Yezo, are not at all fond of bathing. Indeed, they share the Chinese idea that it is only dirty people who need continual washing. They do not regard themselves as dirty, and therefore dispense with the uncleanly habit.

"You white people must be very dirty," said an Ainu to a traveler as the latter was preparing to take a plunge into a limpid river, "as you tell me you bathe in the river every day."

"And what about yourself?" was the question in turn.

"Oh," replied he, with an air of contempt, "I am very clean, and have never needed washing!"—Youth's Companion.

The Young Idea.

The small boy appeared at the country school and the teacher, as a preliminary, had a talk with him.

"Well, my little man," he said, pleasantly, "do you know why you came to school?"

"Yes, sir."

"Tell me why?"

"Cause mother said I was in her way all the time at home, and she didn't want the bother of me," and the teacher subsided.—Detroit Free Press.

GOOD GOVERNMENT.

The Chief Aim of the Democratic Administration.

The braves of the Iroquois club met in Chicago on the evening of Tuesday, April 2, at a grand banquet in memory of Thomas Jefferson, the father of democracy. Many democrats of national reputation were present and spoke upon the leading political questions of the day. Among them was John E. Russell, of Massachusetts, who, in response to the toast, "The Administration, Vigorous, Fearless, Democratic," said:

"MR. PRESIDENT AND GENTLEMEN: The federal elections during the last administration show that as soon as the policy of the party in power was developed it lost the confidence of the people and was discredited and repudiated to the end.

"The pressing necessity for repeal of all the fiscal legislation of that period of reaction has led to disquiet which now makes all deliberation seem impossible. We must judge the vigor of the administration not by its natural impotence of the people but by comparison with other years.

"It is a year last month since our party assumed the responsibility of government under circumstances which could not be more discouraging in time of peace. Four years previously Mr. Cleveland had given the chair to his successor with only one pressing difficulty—excessive taxation creating a large treasury surplus. This condition had been clearly put before the country in the famous message to the Fifteenth congress, which responded by the passage of the Mills bill, a salutary measure rejected by the republican senate.

"Our opponents met the condition in their way and at the end of four years we return to a change of affairs so radical that the rectal seems incredible. A treasury without a dollar of working balance and loaded with obligations deep bedded in laws: a tariff which has taken the name of its author because it is his invention of a new system to increase burdens while it reduces revenue by turning the stream of taxes from the people to the pockets of individuals, corporations and trusts.

"The financial legislation, bearing the name of Mr. Sherman, had worked adversely to the expectation of its framers and had so impaired our credit abroad that our stock markets were breaking down with securities sold for foreign account and financial panic was well under way. These were the conditions Mr. Cleveland and his cabinet were called to face.

"Never did the people expect so much; there must be economy to make up four years of reckless confidence, chided by reckless financial measures was to be taken to life, trade, fiscal and feverish from excessive stimulation, was to be restored to calm health, and, as ours is a government not of men, but of laws, and law is the fruit of wise delay, time was necessary.

"Through the whole administration of Mr. Harrison there had been a steady decline in the values of agricultural products and in the railway traffic of every part of the country. The iron and steel market, the barometer of public prosperity, had fallen until one-third of the furnaces of the country were cold. But no fair politician would attribute this solely to law, or lack of it.

"Unwise and extravagant as the legislation of the Fifty-first congress was, prodigal as its appropriations for pensions, bounties, subsidies and public buildings, there were other and deeper causes at work. The nation, civilized world, so closely are the nations bound together in financial relations that under any laws the currents of our trade would have been disturbed and we could not avoid our share of the distress which has spared no part of the trading world.

"It is the common cry of partisanship to attribute the troubles of the past year to an election which implied a reduction of the taxes of the people. If this were true, if in the second century of our government a popular election cannot be held and a change made in obedience to the will of a great majority of the electors without ruin to the business of the country, then our institutions are a failure. No thoughtful, no patriotic citizen will make such an assertion.

"The business of the country is not carried on by political parties; it is based upon the sources of the continent, upon the farm, the forest and the mine, and the daily toll of humble men. When the farmer of the south, feeling the air of the warm gulf, and looking out upon the whitening cotton field, cries in distress, and is answered by the northern grower who stands upon his mortgage, a hopeless debtor amid his golden sheaves, there are deep causes of trouble that only the shallow politician or the partisan of the hour would attribute to the changes suggested by an election.

"The necessities of the people expressed in several elections to equalize taxation and curb the power of privilege has not caused the fall in the price of iron or silver. If the whole fabric of protection was swept away in rude disregard of the two or three per cent of our population who may possibly be benefited by the will of a great majority of the electors, without ruin to the business of the country, then our institutions are a failure. No thoughtful, no patriotic citizen will make such an assertion.

"We are dependent upon the world's market, and the world in this generation has become a small planet. The submarine cable, the screw propeller, the immense steam ship, and the Suez canal, have brought all lands into a day's market, and the prehistoric races of the east, whose customs and hereditary antedates our origin, jostle us in the world's markets. The millions who from time immemorial have crouched on the ground floor of a bamboo hut, have been elevated to the level of a nation, and have their wheat and cotton landed by the great steamships, and compete with the products of our soil in the world's markets. The result of such competition was shown on the produce exchange of this splendid city, which is the creation of American farming. This condition, which has not been prevented by the power of protective tariffs, has not come suddenly. It has been the work of years. I speak of it as a part of that serious embarrassment, difficulties which no administration since Lincoln first took office has had to meet, and which we are called upon to relieve by the least expenditure, and by such changes of revenue laws as will fulfill, so far as possible, the democratic maxims—that all the money the people pay in taxes the government should receive; that taxes should be so laid as to bear equally upon all parts of the country.

"In times of public distress and sharp partisan criticism, it is hard to comply with the impatience of the people; but I assert that never in our history has an administration moved more rapidly in the correction of legislation. Public confidence has been restored in our financial situation, the federal alien laws have been fully discussed and repealed with the general approbation of the people of every part of the country who feel that the mildness of government in the employment of dangerous powers is no reason for their continuance. The intrigue and jingoism which was the least excusable trait of the Harrison administration and which has impaired our influence, if it has not lost the confidence of the South American republics, has been fully rebuked in the Hawaiian matter; a revenue measure in accordance with the orders of the people has passed the house and is before the senate months earlier than a tariff bill has ever before been presented to that body; the appropriation bills have been well advanced, unwise measures inflicting the currency have been prevented and the treasury has been made secure in its ability to redeem the paper of the government. The same confidence in Mr. Harrison's time was not by the Suez canal, the screw propeller, the immense steam ship, and the Suez canal, have brought all lands into a day's market, and the prehistoric races of the east, whose customs and hereditary antedates our origin, jostle us in the world's markets. The millions who from time immemorial have crouched on the ground floor of a bamboo hut, have been elevated to the level of a nation, and have their wheat and cotton landed by the great steamships, and compete with the products of our soil in the world's markets. The result of such competition was shown on the produce exchange of this splendid city, which is the creation of American farming. This condition, which has not been prevented by the power of protective tariffs, has not come suddenly. It has been the work of years. I speak of it as a part of that serious embarrassment, difficulties which no administration since Lincoln first took office has had to meet, and which we are called upon to relieve by the least expenditure, and by such changes of revenue laws as will fulfill, so far as possible, the democratic maxims—that all the money the people pay in taxes the government should receive; that taxes should be so laid as to bear equally upon all parts of the country.

"In times of public distress and sharp partisan criticism, it is hard to comply with the impatience of the people; but I assert that never in our history has an administration moved more rapidly in the correction of legislation. Public confidence has been restored in our financial situation, the federal alien laws have been fully discussed and repealed with the general approbation of the people of every part of the country who feel that the mildness of government in the employment of dangerous powers is no reason for their continuance. The intrigue and jingoism which was the least excusable trait of the Harrison administration and which has impaired our influence, if it has not lost the confidence of the South American republics, has been fully rebuked in the Hawaiian matter; a revenue measure in accordance with the orders of the people has passed the house and is before the senate months earlier than a tariff bill has ever before been presented to that body; the appropriation bills have been well advanced, unwise measures inflicting the currency have been prevented and the treasury has been made secure in its ability to redeem the paper of the government. The same confidence in Mr. Harrison's time was not by the Suez canal, the screw propeller, the immense steam ship, and the Suez canal, have brought all lands into a day's market, and the prehistoric races of the east, whose customs and hereditary antedates our origin, jostle us in the world's markets. The millions who from time immemorial have crouched on the ground floor of a bamboo hut, have been elevated to the level of a nation, and have their wheat and cotton landed by the great steamships, and compete with the products of our soil in the world's markets. The result of such competition was shown on the produce exchange of this splendid city, which is the creation of American farming. This condition, which has not been prevented by the power of protective tariffs, has not come suddenly. It has been the work of years. I speak of it as a part of that serious embarrassment, difficulties which no administration since Lincoln first took office has had to meet, and which we are called upon to relieve by the least expenditure, and by such changes of revenue laws as will fulfill, so far as possible, the democratic maxims—that all the money the people pay in taxes the government should receive; that taxes should be so laid as to bear equally upon all parts of the country.

"In times of public distress and sharp partisan criticism, it is hard to comply with the impatience of the people; but I assert that never in our history has an administration moved more rapidly in the correction of legislation. Public confidence has been restored in our financial situation, the federal alien laws have been fully discussed and repealed with the general approbation of the people of every part of the country who feel that the mildness of government in the employment of dangerous powers is no reason for their continuance. The intrigue and jingoism which was the least excusable trait of the Harrison administration and which has impaired our influence, if it has not lost the confidence of the South American republics, has been fully rebuked in the Hawaiian matter; a revenue measure in accordance with the orders of the people has passed the house and is before the senate months earlier than a tariff bill has ever before been presented to that body; the appropriation bills have been well advanced, unwise measures inflicting the currency have been prevented and the treasury has been made secure in its ability to redeem the paper of the government. The same confidence in Mr. Harrison's time was not by the Suez canal, the screw propeller, the immense steam ship, and the Suez canal, have brought all lands into a day's market, and the prehistoric races of the east, whose customs and hereditary antedates our origin, jostle us in the world's markets. The millions who from time immemorial have crouched on the ground floor of a bamboo hut, have been elevated to the level of a nation, and have their wheat and cotton landed by the great steamships, and compete with the products of our soil in the world's markets. The result of such competition was shown on the produce exchange of this splendid city, which is the creation of American farming. This condition, which has not been prevented by the power of protective tariffs, has not come suddenly. It has been the work of years. I speak of it as a part of that serious embarrassment, difficulties which no administration since Lincoln first took office has had to meet, and which we are called upon to relieve by the least expenditure, and by such changes of revenue laws as will fulfill, so far as possible, the democratic maxims—that all the money the people pay in taxes the government should receive; that taxes should be so laid as to bear equally upon all parts of the country.

"In times of public distress and sharp partisan criticism, it is hard to comply with the impatience of the people; but I assert that never in our history has an administration moved more rapidly in the correction of legislation. Public confidence has been restored in our financial situation, the federal alien laws have been fully discussed and repealed with the general approbation of the people of every part of the country who feel that the mildness of government in the employment of dangerous powers is no reason for their continuance. The intrigue and jingoism which was the least excusable trait of the Harrison administration and which has impaired our influence, if it has not lost the confidence of the South American republics, has been fully rebuked in the Hawaiian matter; a revenue measure in accordance with the orders of the people has passed the house and is before the senate months earlier than a tariff bill has ever before been presented to that body; the appropriation bills have been well advanced, unwise measures inflicting the currency have been prevented and the treasury has been made secure in its ability to redeem the paper of the government. The same confidence in Mr. Harrison's time was not by the Suez canal, the screw propeller, the immense steam ship, and the Suez canal, have brought all lands into a day's market, and the prehistoric races of the east, whose customs and hereditary antedates our origin, jostle us in the world's markets. The millions who from time immemorial have crouched on the ground floor of a bamboo hut, have been elevated to the level of a nation, and have their wheat and cotton landed by the great steamships, and compete with the products of our soil in the world's markets. The result of such competition was shown on the produce exchange of this splendid city, which is the creation of American farming. This condition, which has not been prevented by the power of protective tariffs, has not come suddenly. It has been the work of years. I speak of it as a part of that serious embarrassment, difficulties which no administration since Lincoln first took office has had to meet, and which we are called upon to relieve by the least expenditure, and by such changes of revenue laws as will fulfill, so far as possible, the democratic maxims—that all the money the people pay in taxes the government should receive; that taxes should be so laid as to bear equally upon all parts of the country.

"In times of public distress and sharp partisan criticism, it is hard to comply with the impatience of the people; but I assert that never in our history has an administration moved more rapidly in the correction of legislation. Public confidence has been restored in our financial situation, the federal alien laws have been fully discussed and repealed with the general approbation of the people of every part of the country who feel that the mildness of government in the employment of dangerous powers is no reason for their continuance. The intrigue and jingoism which was the least excusable trait of the Harrison administration and which has impaired our influence, if it has not lost the confidence of the South American republics, has been fully rebuked in the Hawaiian matter; a revenue measure in accordance with the orders of the people has passed the house and is before the senate months earlier than a tariff bill has ever before been presented to that body; the appropriation bills have been well advanced, unwise measures inflicting the currency have been prevented and the treasury has been made secure in its ability to redeem the paper of the government. The same confidence in Mr. Harrison's time was not by the Suez canal, the screw propeller, the immense steam ship, and the Suez canal, have brought all lands into a day's market, and the prehistoric races of the east, whose customs and hereditary antedates our origin, jostle us in the world's markets. The millions who from time immemorial have crouched on the ground floor of a bamboo hut, have been elevated to the level of a nation, and have their wheat and cotton landed by the great steamships, and compete with the products of our soil in the world's markets. The result of such competition was shown on the produce exchange of this splendid city, which is the creation of American farming. This condition, which has not been prevented by the power of protective tariffs, has not come suddenly. It has been the work of years. I speak of it as a part of that serious embarrassment, difficulties which no administration since Lincoln first took office has had to meet, and which we are called upon to relieve by the least expenditure, and by such changes of revenue laws as will fulfill, so far as possible, the democratic maxims—that all the money the people pay in taxes the government should receive; that taxes should be so laid as to bear equally upon all parts of the country.

"In times of public distress and sharp partisan criticism, it is hard to comply with the impatience of the people; but I assert that never in our history has an administration moved more rapidly in the correction of legislation. Public confidence has been restored in our financial situation, the federal alien laws have been fully discussed and repealed with the general approbation of the people of every part of the country who feel that the mildness of government in the employment of dangerous powers is no reason for their continuance. The intrigue and jingoism which was the least excusable trait of the Harrison administration and which has impaired our influence, if it has not lost the confidence of the South American republics, has been fully rebuked in the Hawaiian matter; a revenue measure in accordance with the orders of the people has passed the house and is before the senate months earlier than a tariff bill has ever before been presented to that body; the appropriation bills have been well advanced, unwise measures inflicting the currency have been prevented and the treasury has been made secure in its ability to redeem the paper of the government. The same confidence in Mr. Harrison's time was not by the Suez canal, the screw propeller, the immense steam ship, and the Suez canal, have brought all lands into a day's market, and the prehistoric races of the east, whose customs and hereditary antedates our origin, jostle us in the world's markets. The millions who from time immemorial have crouched on the ground floor of a bamboo hut, have been elevated to the level of a nation, and have their wheat and cotton landed by the great steamships, and compete with the products of our soil in the world's markets. The result of such competition was shown on the produce exchange of this splendid city, which is the creation of American farming. This condition, which has not been prevented by the power of protective tariffs, has not come suddenly. It has been the work of years. I speak of it as a part of that serious embarrassment, difficulties which no administration since Lincoln first took office has had to meet, and which we are called upon to relieve by the least expenditure, and by such changes of revenue laws as will fulfill, so far as possible, the democratic maxims—that all the money the people pay in taxes the government should receive; that taxes should be so laid as to bear equally upon all parts of the country.

"In times of public distress and sharp partisan criticism, it is hard to comply with the impatience of the people; but I assert that never in our history has an administration moved more rapidly in the correction of legislation. Public confidence has been restored in our financial situation, the federal alien laws have been fully discussed and repealed with the general approbation of the people of every part of the country who feel that the mildness of government in the employment of dangerous powers is no reason for their continuance. The intrigue and jingoism which was the least excusable trait of the Harrison administration and which has impaired our influence, if it has not lost the confidence of the South American republics, has been fully rebuked in the Hawaiian matter; a revenue measure in accordance with the orders of the people has passed the house and is before the senate months earlier than a tariff bill has ever before been presented to that body; the appropriation bills have been well advanced, unwise measures inflicting the currency have been prevented and the treasury has been made secure in its ability to redeem the paper of the government. The same confidence in Mr. Harrison's time was not by the Suez canal, the screw propeller, the immense steam ship, and the Suez canal, have brought all lands into a day's market, and the prehistoric races of the east, whose customs and hereditary antedates our origin, jostle us in the world's markets. The millions who from time immemorial have crouched on the ground floor of a bamboo hut, have been elevated to the level of a nation, and have their wheat and cotton landed by the great steamships, and compete with the products of our soil in the world's markets. The result of such competition was shown on the produce exchange of this splendid city, which is the creation of American farming. This condition, which has not been prevented by the power of protective tariffs, has not come suddenly. It has been the work of years. I speak of it as a part of that serious embarrassment, difficulties which no administration since Lincoln first took office has had to meet, and which we are called upon to relieve by the least expenditure, and by such changes of revenue laws as will fulfill, so far as possible, the democratic maxims—that all the money the people pay in taxes the government should receive; that taxes should be so laid as to bear equally upon all parts of the country.

"In times of public distress and sharp partisan criticism, it is hard to comply with the impatience of the people; but I assert that never in our history has an administration moved more rapidly in the correction of legislation. Public confidence has been restored in our financial situation, the federal alien laws have been fully discussed and repealed with the general approbation of the people of every part of the country who feel that the mildness of government in the employment of dangerous powers is no reason for their continuance. The intrigue and jingoism which was the least excusable trait of the Harrison administration and which has impaired our influence, if it has not lost the confidence of the South American republics, has been fully rebuked in the Hawaiian matter; a revenue measure in accordance with the orders of the people has passed the house and is before the senate months earlier than a tariff bill has ever before been presented to that body; the appropriation bills have been well advanced, unwise measures inflicting the currency have been prevented and the treasury has been made secure in its ability to redeem the paper of the government. The same confidence in Mr. Harrison's time was not by the Suez canal, the screw propeller, the immense steam ship, and the Suez canal, have brought all lands into a day's market, and the prehistoric races of the east, whose customs and hereditary antedates our origin, jostle us in the world's markets. The millions who from time immemorial have crouched on the ground floor of a bamboo hut, have been elevated to the level of a nation, and have their wheat and cotton landed by the great steamships, and compete with the products of our soil in the world's markets. The result of such competition was shown on the produce exchange of this splendid city, which is the creation of American farming. This condition, which has not been prevented by the power of protective tariffs, has not come suddenly. It has been the work of years. I speak of it as a part of that serious embarrassment, difficulties which no administration since Lincoln first took office has had to meet, and which we are called upon to relieve by the least expenditure, and by such changes of revenue laws as will fulfill, so far as possible, the democratic maxims—that all the money the people pay in taxes the government should receive; that taxes should be so laid as to bear equally upon all parts of the country.

"In times of public distress and sharp partisan criticism, it is hard to comply with the impatience of the people; but I assert that never in our history has an administration moved more rapidly in the correction of legislation. Public confidence has been restored in our financial situation, the federal alien laws have been fully discussed and repealed with the general approbation of the people of every part of the country who feel that the mildness of government in the employment of dangerous powers is no reason for their continuance. The intrigue and jingoism which was the least excusable trait of the Harrison administration and which has impaired our influence, if it has not lost the confidence of the South American republics, has been fully rebuked in the Hawaiian matter; a revenue measure in accordance with the orders of the people has passed the house and is before the senate months earlier than a tariff bill has ever before been presented to that body; the appropriation bills have been well advanced, unwise measures inflicting the currency have been prevented and the treasury has been made secure in its ability to redeem the paper of the government. The same confidence in Mr. Harrison's time was not by the Suez canal, the screw propeller, the immense steam ship, and the Suez canal, have brought all lands into a day's market, and the prehistoric races of the east, whose customs and hereditary antedates our origin, jostle us in the world's markets. The millions who from time immemorial have crouched on the ground floor of a bamboo hut, have been elevated to the level of a nation, and have their wheat and cotton landed by the great steamships, and compete with the products of our soil in the world's markets. The result of such competition was shown on the produce exchange of this splendid city, which is the creation of American farming. This condition, which has not been prevented by the power of protective tariffs, has not come suddenly. It has been the work of years. I speak of it as a part of that serious embarrassment, difficulties which no administration since Lincoln first took office has had to meet, and which we are called upon to relieve by the least expenditure, and by such changes of revenue laws as will fulfill, so far as possible, the democratic maxims—that all the money the people pay in taxes the government should receive; that taxes should be so laid as to bear equally upon all parts of the country.

"In times of public distress and sharp partisan criticism, it is hard to comply with the impatience of the people; but I assert that never in our history has an administration moved more rapidly in the correction of legislation. Public confidence has been restored in our financial situation, the federal alien laws have been fully discussed and repealed with the general approbation of the people of every part of the country who feel that the mildness of government in the employment of dangerous powers is no reason for their continuance. The intrigue and jingoism which was the least excusable trait of the Harrison administration and which has impaired our influence, if it has not lost the confidence of the South American republics, has been fully rebuked in the Hawaiian matter; a revenue measure in accordance with the orders of the people has passed the house and is before the senate months earlier than a tariff bill has ever before been presented to that body; the appropriation bills have been well advanced, unwise measures inflicting the currency have been prevented and the treasury has been made secure in its ability to redeem the paper of the government. The same confidence in Mr. Harrison's time was not by the Suez canal, the screw propeller, the immense steam ship, and the Suez canal, have brought all lands into a day's market, and the prehistoric races of the east, whose customs and hereditary antedates our origin, jostle us in the world's markets. The millions who from time immemorial have crouched on the ground floor of a bamboo hut, have been elevated to the level of a nation, and have their wheat and cotton landed by the great steamships, and compete with the products of our soil in the world's markets. The result of such competition was shown on the produce exchange of this splendid city, which is the creation of American farming. This condition, which has not been prevented by the power of protective tariffs, has not come suddenly. It has been the work of years. I speak of it as a part of that serious embarrassment, difficulties which no administration since Lincoln first took office has had to meet, and which we are called upon to relieve by the least expenditure, and by such changes of revenue laws as will fulfill, so far as possible, the democratic maxims—that all the money the people pay in taxes the government should receive; that taxes should be so laid as to bear equally upon all parts of the country.

"In times of public distress and sharp partisan criticism, it is hard to comply with the impatience of the people; but I assert that never in our history has an administration moved more rapidly in the correction of legislation. Public confidence has been restored in our financial situation, the federal alien laws have been fully discussed and repealed with the general approbation of the people of every part of the country who feel that the mildness of government in the employment of dangerous powers is no reason for their continuance. The intrigue and jingoism which was the least excusable trait of the Harrison administration and which has impaired our influence, if it has not lost the confidence of the South American republics, has been fully rebuked in the Hawaiian matter; a revenue measure in accordance with the orders of the people has passed the house and is before the senate months earlier than a tariff bill has ever before been presented to that body; the appropriation bills have been well advanced, unwise measures inflicting the currency have been prevented and the treasury has been made secure in its ability to redeem the paper of the government. The same confidence in Mr. Harrison's time was not by the Suez canal, the screw propeller, the immense steam ship, and the Suez canal, have brought all lands into a day's market, and the prehistoric races of the east, whose customs and hereditary antedates our origin, jostle us in the world's markets. The millions who from time immemorial have crouched on the ground floor of a bamboo hut, have been elevated to the level of a nation, and have their wheat and cotton landed by the great steamships, and compete with the products of our soil in the world's markets. The result of such competition was shown on the produce exchange of this splendid city, which is the creation of American farming. This condition, which has not been prevented by the power of protective tariffs, has not come suddenly. It has been the work of years. I speak of it as a part of that serious embarrassment, difficulties which no administration since Lincoln first took office has had to meet, and which we are called upon to relieve by the least expenditure, and by such changes of revenue laws as will fulfill, so far as possible, the democratic maxims—that all the money the people pay in taxes the government should receive; that taxes should be so

The Bee Hive Store

Will be moved from Greencastle
MAY 10. From now till then we will

SELL EVERYTHING

—AT—

Actual Cost

To save packing and shipping, which includes a large line of

SPRING GOODS,

All fresh and new. Ladies' and Gents' Fine Shoes. Don't miss this opportunity, as it will not occur soon again.
All kinds of Produce taken in exchange for Goods.

W. M. DOBBINS & SON.

The Greencastle Democrat.

H. B. MARTIN, C. L. MARTIN,
Editors and Proprietors.

Entered at the Postoffice at Greencastle, Ind., as second class matter.

OFFICE OF PUBLICATION:

N. E. corner Jackson and Franklin-sts.

SUBSCRIPTION:

Per Year.....$1 00

Six Months..... 50

PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.

Greencastle, Ind., April 7, 1894.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

For Representative..... H. M. RANDEL.
" Clerk..... D. T. DARNALL.
" Auditor..... W. L. DENMAN.
" Treasurer..... G. W. HUGHES.
" Sheriff..... F. M. GLIDEWELL.
" Recorder..... E. S. HARRIS.
" Coroner..... E. H. KLEINBUR.
" Surveyor..... J. F. O'BRIEN.
" Commis't-1st Dist..... B. F. THOMPSON.
" " 2d Dist..... J. E. TALBOTT.

To Contributors.

Correspondence of general interest on any subject will be welcome, provided it is not too voluminous and is free from unkind personalities. Preference will always be given to news letters of local significance. Resolutions of condolence of ordinary length will be published only when accompanied by a fee of $1. Obituary notices when not over twelve lines in length are always acceptable and will be printed free; over twelve lines will be charged for in proportion to the amount of space occupied. Send your article as soon as possible after the death of the person of whom you write. Sign your correct name to all communications, not for publication but as an evidence of good faith.

To Our Subscribers.

The date printed opposite your name on the margin or wrapper of this paper is a notification of the expiration of your subscription. Thus "John Smith Feb. 28" shows that he has paid for the DEMOCRAT up to the month of February, 1894, and is owing for it up to the present time. Subscribers will confer a favor on us by giving prompt attention to this notice.

KEEP religion out of politics.

THE introduction of church bigotry into politics at Kansas City resulted in the death of one man and the serious wounding of five others.

MARK the prediction—the Half Breeds and Stalwarts will come back from that Congressional convention with rocks in their pockets.

CONGRESSMAN Cooper has secured a favorable report from the House committee on banking and currency on his bill to subject greenbacks to state and municipal taxation.

THE republican city officials are star calamaty howlers and whimper about hard times in a manner nauseating to their merchant friends, but when it is proposed to reduce their salaries —

THE republican annex known as the A. P. A. will not be able to bring on a religious war in this country, try as it may. All sensible men of every party refuse to have anything to do with the un-American, unpatriotic and fanatical order.

THE democrats of Crawfordsville have nominated an unusually strong city ticket and will expect to carry the election by a clean sweep. It is composed of leading business men and the best citizens of the place, being headed by Capt W. W. Herron for Mayor.

DID you notice in reading the reports of the recent municipal elections that everywhere the A. P. A. supported the republican ticket? Wherever they were pledged to do something else, a quarrel and bolt to the g. o. p. was conveniently arranged.

A. P. A. riots march hand in hand with republican municipal campaign all over the country, but it is not likely Greencastle will have an experience of the kind. If there are any members of the A. P. A. here, they are so thoroughly ashamed of their connection with the odious organization they keep the fact carefully concealed. Those who sympathize with the movement as a part of the republican machine are also doing very little talking.

SINCE the liquor traffic has been swept out of Cloverdale, a great change is noted by visitors to that place. There are no fights, no disturbances of any kind and few law suits. The people of South Putnam have also quit attending Circuit Court en masse. The village is prettier than ever, for every man spends his surplus cash in painting his house and improving his property in other ways.

COOPER voted to pass the Bland bill over the President's veto and explains his vote, according to a Washington special in the Indianapolis News, as follows: "My disposition was to vote the other way, until I had talked with General Catchings and several other Democrats of the House and we concluded that, inasmuch as we had voted for the bill on its original passage, it would be proper to vote for it on the test yesterday. While the principle of the bill suited me, I have thought all along that its construction was faulty."

COL. BRECKINRIDGE is a ruin—a colossal ruin, a picturesque ruin. And, which is unusual in such cases, public opinion is unanimous in its condemnation of the Kentucky congressman. The woman in the case was evidently a born adventuress and when she got the statesman in her toils led to him with hooks like those mentioned by his namesake of Avon who also had trouble with the sex. But the great lecturer on social purity and favorite commencement day orator at seminaries for young ladies richly deserves his punishment on account of his disgusting hypocrisy.

"FOR Congress"—Maj. John Dunbar, the statesman from Nubbin Ridge, Jesse W. Weik, the able young historian, and Chas. B. Case, the versatile mayor and Bismarck of the council chamber. Will any of them get a chance to be offered up as a sacrifice? Mr. Case deserves credit as a politician for putting a thin crust over the malignant sore which has raged on the body of the g. o. p. party of Putnam for many years. However, the Half Breeds and Stalwarts rest uneasily together and will to the end of time. Although the Grand Old Man, Langsdale, has been absorbed in the task of building a big monument, yet his spirit is still abroad in Greencastle and his ghost still walks its nightly rounds in Banner alley.

SWEET sounds of harmony are not tickling the ears of Gowdy when the wind blows from Clay county. The republicans of that shire are knifing each other right and left. Editor Luther E. Wolfe, who runs a go epaper and battles heroically for the g. o. p., has been growing for some time over the manner in which one faction ignores him, refusing to give his paper the financial support it deserves. He does not love Judge Coffey, and the faction opposed to that foxy politician charge him with being an unscrupulous rounder in political matters, one who will unblushingly trade off his fellow candidates to secure votes for himself. The fight has become warm and very interesting.

POOR White Breckinridge! He was young and tender, untutored in the ways of the wicked world and only forty-eight years of age, too, when a school girl in short dresses caught him out, kidnapped him, overcame him and robbed him of his honor. From this time on the DEMOCRAT will be found battling day and night for a much needed reform and pledges itself to keep up the fight until the battle is won. The members of the House have already provided themselves with private secretaries and now we urge that every Congressman of fifty years of age be furnished with a duenna at the expense of the country. This thing must not occur again. And, fearful thought, suppose some bold, bad female of eighteen years should carry off one of those frosted hollyhocks that adorn the Senate chamber and keep him for good! We cannot afford to take such risks any longer. It shall be our earnest endeavor to stir up public sentiment on this question and we call on all patriots to come to their country's aid in this, her hour of peril. A petition to Congress for the enactment of this measure at once will be circulated for signers by Capt. Wimmer and Col. Peter Stoner, of Walnut Knobs, next week.

A Sea Change Into Something Rich and Strange.

Congressman Case made a speech to the republicans of Morgan county Wednesday, but while he raised his voice in a calamity howl neglected to say anything about the difference in the rate of taxation in g. o. p. ridden Morgan and democratic Putnam. Brother E. T. Chaffee is "over there." In his enthusiasm he rushed to the telegraph office, rammed his hand in his pocket for the necessary toll and fired the following luridly worded special at the Telegraph editor of the Daily Banner Times:

Martinsville, April 4, 12:50 p. m.—Congressman Case, of Greencastle, spoke to the county convention here this morning and stirred up great enthusiasm. He is a great favorite and will make a gallant fight for the congressional nomination at the district convention to be held here next month. He is a hustler. E. T. CHAFFEE.

Look here, dear brother, aren't you the same gentleman who made himself so conspicuous in the Maxson-Case campaign?

Aren't you the "hustler" who ran around town frowning as austere as a Puritan on Sunday evening and with Plymouth Rock pants declared you could never, never vote for Charley Case on moral grounds and would never cast a ballot for a man who was supported by the saloon element? Aren't you the politician who ripped, roared, bucked, kicked and tore around until he split his shirt down the back in trying to knock Chawles out?

Tell us, man of morals, if this be false or true? Where are we "at." Was this wondrous change brought about by "them Martinsville waters?" Perhaps it's all a mistake and you have a Dromio in Greencastle. If so, by this picture you see thou "art a sweet-faced youth."

Only a Poor Brakeman.

Ed Hare, of Bainbridge, a brakeman of Conductor Walden's crew, was thrown from a north bound Monon freight near Cloverdale at an early hour yesterday morning and badly hurt. He was brought to this city and turned over to Dr. Lammer's, the company's surgeon. One shoulder was thrown out of place and his side badly bruised. It is thought he is not seriously hurt internally.

New Landlords at the Commercial.

William Dobbins, of the Bee Hive Store, an old hotel man, and John Cooper, the liveryman, have purchased the Commercial Hotel of B. M. Hopkins who came here from Chicago last fall. They have taken possession and will endeavor to add to the already splendid reputation of this popular inn.

New Suits.

The following have been docketed for trial at the ensuing term of court:

John Cawley vs. Philip M. Frank, notes.
George H. Goodsell vs. James W. Starnper, foreclosure.
Oliver K. Stroube et al vs. John Williams, title.
Martha J. Dobbs vs. Jesse Hurst et al, to quiet title.
Andrew J. Vice vs. John Connerly, on warranty.
Helen M. Osborn vs. Alonzo and Sarah Sutton, foreclosure.
Willis M. Jackson et al vs. Thomas Jackson et al, partition.

A Faithful Congressman.

It is highly creditable to Hon. George W. Cooper that there is little or no opposition to his renomination for a fourth term in this district. He has been a faithful and hardworking representative, and his constituents will show their appreciation by returning him by an increased majority.

Big Fair Excursions.

To Indianapolis April 24 and 25, account of republican State convention, half fare.
To Louisiana, Texas and Arkansas April 10, half fare.
To Kentucky, Virginia, Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia, Florida, and New Orleans, April 9th, half fare.
For other dates and particulars see F. P. HUSTIS, Agent.

Donahoe's Magazine for April has a successful look about it. It gives one the impression of force and stability, not only in its convictions, but in its business aspect as well. Artistically the magazine improves with every issue. It contains this month an article on the Cardinals of the Catholic church, illustrated with 55 portraits of these great church men from all over the world. It is doubtful if such an array of portraits was ever gathered together and presented in an American periodical; and considering the position in the Catholic Church of the men portrayed, this enterprise of Donahoe's seems sure to be effective.

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of a certified copy of a decree to me directed from the clerk of the Putnam circuit court in a cause wherein the Farmers and Citizens Building Loan Fund and Savings Association, of Putnam county, Indiana, is plaintiff and Lizzie C. Hamilton, Christian C. Hamilton, William A. McFadden, the First National Bank of Wellington, Kansas, and Hanson H. Crow are defendants,

I will expose at public sale to the highest bidder, on

MONDAY, THE TWENTY-THIRD DAY OF APRIL, 1894,

between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m. of said day at the door of the court house of Putnam county, Indiana, the rents and profits for a term not exceeding seven years of the following described real estate, situated in Putnam county, State of Indiana, to-wit:

The southwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section number nineteen (19) in township number fifteen (15) north, in range number three (3) west, containing forty (40) acres, more or less.

Also a part of the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter of said section number nineteen (19) in said township and range, described as follows to-wit: Beginning at a point on the west line of said quarter quarter of said section which is six (6) chains and twenty-five (25) links south of the northwest corner of said quarter quarter, thence south with the west line of said quarter quarter to a point thereon which is ten (10) chains north of the southwest corner of said quarter quarter, thence in a southeast direction to a point on the east line of said quarter quarter which is five (5) chains north of the southeast corner thereof, thence north to the place of beginning, containing twenty-five (25) acres, more or less.

Also a part of section number twenty (20) in township number fifteen (15) north, in range number three (3) west, described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a point on the west line of the southwest quarter of said section which is six (6) chains and twenty-five (25) links south of the northwest corner of said quarter section, thence south with said line thirteen (13) chains and seventy-five (75) links to the south line of the north half of said quarter section, thence east parallel to the south line of said section fifty-one (51) chains and seventy-three (73) links to the east bank of Big Walnut creek, thence north sixty-six (66) degrees west seven (7) chains and twenty (20) links, thence north nineteen (19) degrees west five (5) chains and eleven and one-half (11 1/2) links, thence north fifty-six and one-half (56 1/2) degrees east, ten (10) chains and sixty (60) links, thence west parallel to the south line of said section fifty-two (52) chains and thirty-six (36) and one-half (36 1/2) links to the place of beginning, containing sixty-five and forty-four hundredths (65.44) acres, more or less.

If such rents and profits will not sell for a sufficient sum to satisfy said decree, interest and costs, I will at the same time and place, expose to public sale the fee simple of said real estate, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to discharge said decree, interest and costs. Said sale will be made without relief from valuation or appraisal laws.

FRANCIS M. GLIDEWELL,
Sheriff Putnam County.

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of a certified copy of a decree to me directed from the clerk of the Putnam circuit court in a cause wherein the Farmers and Citizens Building Loan Fund and Savings Association, of Putnam county, Indiana, is plaintiff and John W. Thornburg, Ette Thornburg, Washington Taylor Scott, the Newark Machine company and the First National Bank of Greencastle, Indiana, are defendants,

I will expose at public sale to the highest bidder, on

MONDAY, THE TWENTY-THIRD DAY OF APRIL, 1894,

between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m. of said day at the door of the court house of Putnam county, Indiana, the rents and profits for a term not exceeding seven years of the following described real estate, situated in Putnam county, State of Indiana, to-wit:

The north half of the northeast quarter of section number thirty-five (35) in township number thirteen (13) north, in range number three (3) west, containing eighty (80) acres, more or less; and a part of the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section number thirty-five (35) in township number thirteen (13) north, in range number three (3) west, bounded as follows, to-wit: Beginning at the northeast corner of said quarter quarter, and running thence south, with the east line of said quarter quarter, seventy-five (75) rods and six (6) feet, thence east parallel to the north line of said quarter quarter, forty-two (42) rods and seven (7) feet, thence north parallel with said east line seventy-five (75) rods and six (6) feet to the north line of said quarter quarter, thence east on said north line forty-two (42) rods and seven (7) feet to the beginning, containing twenty (20) acres, more or less. In all containing one hundred (100) acres, more or less.

If such rents and profits will not sell for a sufficient sum to satisfy said decree, interest and costs, I will at the same time and place, expose to public sale the fee simple of said real estate, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to discharge said decree, interest and costs. Said sale will be made without relief from valuation or appraisal laws.

FRANCIS M. GLIDEWELL,
Sheriff Putnam County.

Notice to Non-Residents.

The State of Indiana, Putnam county.

In the Putnam circuit court, April term, 1894.

Oliver R. Stroube, and Lizzie Stroube vs. John Williams et al., complaint No. 5 292.

Now come the plaintiffs by W. S. Scott, their attorney, and files their complaint herein, together with an affidavit that said defendants the unknown heirs at law of John L. Williams, deceased, the unknown heirs at law of Dennis Williams, deceased, the unknown heirs at law of Lizzie Williams, deceased, John Williams, the unknown heirs at law of John Williams, deceased, Robert Williams, the unknown heirs at law of Robert Williams, deceased, Nancy Williams, the unknown heirs at law of Nancy Williams, deceased, Angie Williams, the unknown heirs at law of Angie Williams, deceased, Mariah Sellers, the unknown heirs at law of Mariah Sellers, deceased, Harvey Sellers, the unknown heirs at law of Harvey Sellers, deceased, Keziah Patrick, the unknown heirs at law of Keziah Patrick, deceased, Gabriel Patrick, the unknown heirs at law of Gabriel Patrick, deceased, Jeremiah Patrick, the unknown heirs at law of Jeremiah Patrick, deceased, Herod Patrick, the unknown heirs at law of Herod Patrick, deceased, — widow of Herod Patrick, deceased, Emory Patrick, Nancy Brown, the unknown heirs at law of Nancy Brown, deceased, Bently Brown, the unknown heirs at law of Bently Brown, deceased, Rubie Walters, the unknown heirs at law of Ruby Walters, deceased, Henry Walters, the unknown heirs at law of Henry Walters, deceased, William Walters, George Walters, Effie Walters, John Patrick, the unknown heirs at law of John Patrick, deceased, the unknown heirs at law of Samuel Seares, the unknown heirs at law of Lizzie Seares, deceased, Harrison Seares, the unknown heirs at law of Harrison Seares, deceased, Noah Seares, the unknown heirs at law of Noah Seares, deceased, Emily Yowel, the unknown heirs at law of Emily Yowel, deceased, James Yowel, the unknown heirs at law of James Yowel, deceased, Mary Yowel, John Yowel and Mary DeMotte are not residents of the State of Indiana.

Notice is therefore hereby given said defendants that unless they be and appear on the twenty-first day of the next term of the Putnam circuit court, the same being May 16, 1894 at the court house in Greencastle, in said county and State, and answer or demur to said complaint, the same will be heard and determined in their absence.

Witness my name and the seal of said court at Greencastle, Indiana, on the 22nd day of March, A. D. 1894. 63 DANIEL T. DARNALL, Clerk.

For Sale—A first class piano. Call at Smiley & Neff's office. 46-47

DO YOU WANT $1.50 for $1? IF YOU DO, ATTEND THE GREAT DOLLAR SALE AT THE BOSTON STORE This Week.

We are always to the Front to save money for our customers.

We are always the Cheapest for Good Honest Goods.

- $1 buys 14 yards of Genuine Lonsdale, or "Fruit of the Loom" Muslin.
- $1 buys 24 yards of Lawrence LL Brown Sheeting.
- $1 buys 25 yards of sound thread Cheviot Shirting.
- $1 buys 20 yards of good Dress Gingham.
- $1 buys 12 yards of Fast Black Satteen.
- $1 buys 10 yards of Black Satteen with colored figures.
- $1 buys 20 yards of Simpson Prints in black and white Mourning Grays and Fancies.
- $1 buys 25 yards of Toweling.
- $1 buys 20 yards of Tennis Flannel.
- $1 buys 20 yards of 45-inch Scrim.
- $1 buys 7 1/2 lbs of the best white Carpet Chain made.
- $1 buys 6 1/2 lbs of the best colored Carpet Chain made, warranted best fast colors.
- $1 buys 10 bleached Linen Napkins, size 24x24, long fringe.
- $1 buys 1 dozen of unbleached Napkins, 3/4 of a yard square.
- $1 buys 6 1/2 yards of Atlantic Cashmere.
- $1 buys 11 yards of Worsted Goods all colors.
- $1 buys 5 Gents' Tennis Flannel Shirts, extra long.

Bring your neighbors with you and you will get more for your dollar than you ever did.

Boston Store, BARGAIN-GIVERS OF GREENCASTLE. Quality the Best. What the "Boston" says is so.

Putnam County Herd

POLAND
CHINAS.
Good Pigs for Sale.
Both Sexes.

FANCY POULTRY.

White Holland Turkeys—
Eggs $2 per dozen.

Barred and White
Plymouth Rocks,
Langshans,
S. C. Brown Leghorns,
—AND—
Silver Spangled
Hamburgs.
Eggs $1 for fifteen.

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED.

Visitors welcome at all times. Stock delivered in Greencastle on Saturdays, if desired. WM. A. CRAVER, 5m3 Fillmore, Ind.

Bartow's Laundry.

Have your mending done free.
Work called for and promptly delivered.
294f

Notice to Non-Residents.

State of Indiana, Putnam county.
Before M. L. Fortune, justice of the peace of Marion township.
T. S. Vermillion and Isaiah Vermillion vs. Walter Buis.
Now comes the plaintiff, T. S. Vermillion, and files his complaint herein together with his affidavit for an attachment of personal goods of said defendant, that defendant, Walter Buis, do not a resident of Putnam county, or has gone to parts unknown.
Notice is hereby given said defendant of the pendency of said attachment suit, and that unless he be and appear on the 16th day of April, at 10 o'clock a. m., at my office in said township and answer said complaint, the same will be disposed of in his absence, according to law.

Witness my name and seal this 22nd day of March, 1894. 63 M. L. FORTUNE, J. P.

Notice of Petition to Sell Real Estate.

Probate cause No. 1745.
In the circuit court of Putnam county, Indiana, April term, 1894.
William A. Porter, administrator of the estate of Alexander Johnson, deceased, vs. John F. Johnson, et al.
To William N. Johnson, Andrew Johnson, Elmore Johnson, Alfred Johnson, Albert Johnson, Charles Johnson, Dolph Johnson and Maria Johnson, (implicated with the said John F. Johnson, et al.)

You are severally hereby notified that the above named petitioner as administrator of the estate aforesaid, has filed in the circuit court of Putnam county, Indiana, a petition making you defendant therein, and praying the court, for an order and decree of said court authorizing the sale of certain real estate belonging to the estate of said decedent, and in said petition described, to make assets for the payment of the debts and liabilities of said estate; and that said petition so filed and pending, is set for hearing in said circuit court at the court house in Greencastle, Indiana, on the 7th judicial day of the April term, 1894, of said court, the same being the 30th day of April, 1894.

Witness, the clerk and seal of said court, this 22nd day of March, 1894. DANIEL T. DARNALL, Clerk.

By W. H. H. CULLEN, Deputy. 63 Williamson & Williamson, Attys for Plf.

R. CUMMINS & CO. OLD PROCESS SOUR MASH WHISKEY

Absolutely Pure.
A Perfect Stimulant for Medicinal Purposes.

FREE FROM
FUSIL OIL, ARTIFICIAL FLAVOR AND
ARTIFICIAL COLORING MATTER.

Prof. John N. Hurty, analytical chemist, says of this "Old Process" Whiskey:

"It answers every test of the U. S. Pharmacopoeia. The purity and excellence of this whiskey recommend it for all medicinal uses."

This whiskey has been warmly endorsed by a large number of Physicians who have used it in their practice.

The "R. Cummins & Co. Old Process Sour Mash Whiskey" is sold by all reputable retail druggists. It is put up in bottles bearing our lithographic label.

PRICE, PER QUART, $1.25.

A. Kiefer & Co., Indianapolis, Wholesale Druggists, and Sole Distributors.

R. Cummins & Co., Distillers,

LORETTO, KENTUCKY.
For sale only by the "Big Drug House," Piercy & Co., Greencastle.

A. F. PRIEST, AUCTIONEER,

Who has been crying sales in Kentucky, is again at home and offers his services to the people of Putnam county. Best of terms and satisfaction guaranteed. Call on or address him at Bainbridge, Ind. 36m

G. C. NEALE, VETERINARY SURGEON.

Graduate of the Ontario Veterinary College, Office at Cooper Bros' Livery Stable, Greencastle, Ind. All calls, day and night, promptly attended. Firing and Surgery a specialty. 11-1f

Dr. F. H. LAMMERS, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON.

Office over Central National Bank 44y1

THEY DO SAY —THAT— HANNAS Is the cheapest place in the county to buy FURNITURE. Try him and be convinced.

UNDERTAKING In the best manner. Prices reasonable. East side

JAMES M. HURLEY. Real Estate

—INSURANCE— —LOANS—

Property of all kinds for sale or rent. Office over First National Bank.

ABOUT THE CITY.

Convention to Nominate City Ticket.

The Democrats of the city of Greencastle will meet in the Court House Tuesday next at 7 p. m. for the purpose of nominating candidates for city offices. By order of Committee.

Whoop up a horse show.

Born, to V. B. Hill and wife, a daughter.

Republican convention next Saturday.

The sick: Mrs. A. T. Kelly, Chas. Irwin.

James Steele is home from Spencer, improved in health.

The Century Club will meet at Mrs. E. Marquis' this afternoon.

Mrs. W. J. Ashton was at Lafayette as a delegate to the W. R. C.

Harry Wright, student, is nursing a broken collar bone—wrestling.

Dr. R. T. Collier will erect a brick block at Roachdale this summer.

The Messrs. Dobbin will remove the Bee Hive store to Bedford in May.

Otto B. Welk is at Chicago looking after his real estate interests there.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Smith entertained their friends Tuesday evening.

Dr. G. W. Bence is making extensive improvements at his residence.

The city telephone station has been removed to the office of the Belnap house.

G. W. Black shipped one load of horses to Vermont. Prices are no better.

Billy Thompson is making extensive improvements at his North End restaurant.

Where's the street sprinkler? It was badly needed on the windy days this week.

Again we ask all correspondents to sign their name to every communication sent us.

John Buis has moved from near Stillsville to Enoch Procter's farm, north of town.

The Indianapolis Weekly Sentinel and THE GREENCASTLE DEMOCRAT one year for $1.50.

J. F. Fee, A. M. Maxson and J. McD. Hays attended the G. A. R. encampment at Lafayette.

W. H. Burke has an incubator containing over two hundred chicks on exhibition at his store.

Sells Bros.' circus will be at Indianapolis on May 5. The price of admission has been reduced to 25cts.

The Messrs. Welch have contributed an artistic job of lettering to the show window of the DEMOCRAT office.

A shooting match will be given here on May 3, by John M. Frazier, Joe Kleinbub, Jr., and Ed Callender.

Are you a member of a secret order? If so, examine the DEMOCRAT's samples of emblematic address cards.

B. F. Barwick, the North side merchant, will put in a stock of groceries in connection with his hardware business.

Died, March 28, 1894, in Washington township, John Sutton, son of A. C. Sutton, aged 53 years, 4 months and 7 days.

The friends of Joseph W. Finley, of Washington township, want him to make the race for county clerk on the republican ticket.

The closest observer cannot detect any falling off in the "growler" traffic.

Drop in at the DEMOCRAT office with your job printing. We are prepared to let you in on the "ground floor" northwest corner public square.

Edwin A. Angell died on March 31, aged 66 years, of congestion of the brain. The deceased leaves a widow. The remains were interred in the home preserved and in good health. He has never voted anything but a straight democratic ticket.

The following young ladies and gentlemen compose the list of graduates at the commencement exercises at Reelsville, April 18, the names having been furnished us through the kindness of Trustee S. C. McElroy, of Washington township: Dora Sharp, Cornelius Burks, Blanche Osborn, Maggie Kirk, Ella Smith, Walter Zener, Grace Kirk, Ethel Knoll, Rosa Purcell, Chas. Purcell, Maude Brown.

A gentleman called at the DEMOCRAT office Thursday and indignantly declared that many of the saloons of Greencastle sold liquor to men who were drunk. He said he was an eye witness on several occasions when the customers were so intoxicated they held to the bar to maintain their equilibrium, but whisky was ladeled out to them without a word of protest. The law is plain in regard to such violations and it should be enforced and the guilty barkeepers fined to the fullest extent.

Morris Goodwin, the ex-conductor on the St. Louis division of the Big Four, entered the service of the I. & St. L. road as a freight brakeman twenty-three years ago. By hard and faithful service and by frugality he acquired sufficient means to purchase his farm of 130 acres—near Darwin—his wife, however, having inherited part of the land. He had been running a passenger train nine years. Mr. Goodwin is highly incensed over the insinuations and charges made by the papers in reference to the recent wholesale decapitation of conductors and justly so, for he is not that kind of man. What property he has was acquired by industry and economy. He says he will never railroad again, but will move to his farm next summer.

Want Their School to Remain As It Is.

The following protest, the result of a mass meeting of the colored people of the city, was presented to the school board Tuesday night:

To the honorable members of the school board of the city of Greencastle, Indiana.

We, the colored citizens of the city of Greencastle, State of Indiana, do hereby submit the following resolution of protest, for the consideration of the honorable body.

Whereas, it has been made known to the colored citizens by the school board, that is their intention to change the colored school from its present form to that of a country school, with but one instructor for the school, therefore,

Resolved, That we, the colored citizens of Greencastle, Indiana, do hereby and herein protest against such a move, and be it further

Resolved, That we request of you to retain the present system with two rooms and two instructors. Knowing that the children could not receive the proper instructions otherwise than the present system.

Recognizing the fact that the power is vested in the body of trustees to make all such alterations, therefore we, the committee, in behalf of the colored citizens of Greencastle, do hereby respectfully submit this for due consideration.

J. W. Cain,
Wyatt James,
Spear Pittman,
Lawrence Lewis,
Chas. W. Herring.
Greencastle, Ind., March 26, 1894.

Marriage Licenses.

Moore C. Deckerson and Susan Allgood.
Zachariah Evans and Bessie Katt.
William H. Stringer and Lillie M. Wallace.
George Gray and Mary M. Ryan.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.

The April installment of taxes will be due on the third Monday, being the 16th day of this month. Taxpayers will do well to bear the date in mind and govern themselves accordingly.
GEORGE W. HUGHES,
Treasurer Putnam Co.

WHISKIES BUDWEISER BEER ON TAP.

CIGARS

Carried by any house in the city.

THE WHITE FRONT,
LEE HAMILTON, Prop.,
8m3 North side Square.

Guardian's Sale of Real Estate.
Notice is hereby given that pursuant to an order of the Putnam circuit court, the undersigned, guardian of the minor heirs of George W. McCamey, deceased, will sell at private sale at his residence, in Morgan county, Indiana, the undivided two-thirds interest of said heirs in the west half of the northwest quarter of section two (2), in township twelve (12) north of range three (3) west, in Putnam county, Indiana. Applications of purchasers will be received by said guardian at his said residence on and after the 5th day of May, 1894.

TERMS OF SALE—One-third cash, one-third in three months and one-third in eighteen months, the purchaser giving notes at 6 per cent. interest, waiving relief and secured by mortgage on premises sold, for deferred payments.
A. ANANIAS MICHAEL, Guardian.

Administrator's Sale.
Notice is hereby given that I will sell at private sale the property known as the Eckels dwelling house, on Indiana street, two blocks south from the public square, Greencastle, Indiana. Persons wishing to invest in cheap property will please call on the undersigned at his office and learn price and terms of sale.
D. E. WILLIAMSON,
Executor Eckels Estate.
March 24, 1894.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

Diamond Dyes at Jones'. 7-2
Dye stuff at Jones'. 7-2
Stolen or Strayed—A female goat, one horn broken off; reward for information left at Haspel's meat market. 8-3t
Smoke the Board of Health Cigar, one of the most popular brands manufactured by Herman Hoffman. 1-tf
Kalsomine at Jones'. 7-2
Blueing and starch at Jones'. 7-2
Found—a two year old colt; bay in color, no white. Owner can have same by paying expenses. Call at Albin & Bivin's stable. 8-2t
Sewing machine oil at Jones'. 7-2
Carriage paint and varnish at Jones'. 7-2
Anti moth balls at Jones'. 7-2
Jones' corn cure takes em out. 7-2
We have secured a further extension of the time on our clubbing rates with the Indianapolis Weekly Sentinel and can furnish the DEMOCRAT and the excellent State organ for $1.50 per year. 6-tf
Beautiful and cheap wall paper at Jones'. 7-2

I solicit the attention of my patrons to my stock of ladies and childrens hats, caps, bonnets, tam o'shanter, veiling, ribbons, silks, laces, velvets, etc. also my complete line of boys caps and sailors, childrens hoods a specialty. All my hats and dress bonnets trimmed after the latest Paris fashions.

MRS. EFFIE FOSTER WATSON,
8-2t Cloverdale, Ind.

Mrs. Effie Foster Watson invites her old friends and customers to call and examine her large and complete stock of millinery. My prices are low and goods of superior quality and design, Cloverdale, Ind. 8-2t

Use Jones' chicken cholera cure 'tis good. 7-2

Dyes that will color at Jones'. 7-2

Jones' condition powders the best. 7-2

For Sale—A good, paying saloon business in a county town of central Indiana; good barns, ice houses, a brewery agency and other inducements. Also a convenient residence for rent. Address this office. 45-tf
Jones' little liver pills does the work. 7-2

Pure paints and oils at Jones'. 7-2

Liver correctors at Jones'. 7-2

Jones sells the best paints. 7-2

Have your letter heads, note heads, statements, bill heads, envelopes and job printing of all kinds turned out by the DEMOCRAT office. First-class work guaranteed at reasonable prices. 6 -tf

Low priced wall paper at Jones'. 7-2

Floor paints at Jones'. 7-2

Nice new wall paper at Jones'. 7-2

Farmers, go to Tom Bivin's National House, West Washington-st., two doors west of Central National Bank, for a first class meal for 25 cents; lodging 25 cents. 7-4

Ladies
And Children's Underwear
At Lowest
Prices
At Gilmore's.

A Pointer
For You.

With the opening of Spring will come renewed activity in the channels of Trade and a general restoration of confidence in commercial circles. It behooves every business man to

Take Time

—BY THE—Forelock.

And the way to do it is to plant your advertisement in The Greencastle Democrat. The Democrat is read by more people than any other paper published in Putnam County. They want your goods and you want their trade. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Are You
In It?

The Pride of the Ladies

ARE THOSE ELEGANT SHOES,

"Oxfords" and "Yanks,"

Now being received almost daily by L. L. LOUIS & CO. For style, finish, durability and excellence in every particular, they surpass anything in the way of fine footwear ever brought to this city for either Ladies or Gentlemen, Misses or Children, and at prices as low as the lowest.

You will never regret buying your Spring and Summer Shoes at the

GREAT SHOE EMPORIUM OF

L. L. LOUIS & CO.

Talk About
Cheap Goods

—AND—

Low Prices!

You are not in it. Look here!

5c per lb for Raisins, Soda, Beans and Macaroni.

Bacon 10c, Shoulders 10c, Hams 11c, Lard 10c.

50 Clothes Pins for 5c, and everything else in proportion.

Not responsible for any accidents, except you get in before the rush. If you don't want to buy, stop in and get prices. AUT is a hustler. Rival dealers can't down him.

AUT has sold 5760 clothes pins in three weeks, also 3560 bars soap. There are no flies on the Corner Grocery, which is also known as

AUT'S PLACE.

A Tender Steak

Makes the most delicious meal in the world, and the place to get it is

HASPEL'S MEAT MARKET

"Our Meat Market" has a well established and enviable reputation for cleanliness, the good quality of its meats and for square dealing.

Northwest Corner Public Square.

SCIENTIFIC Horseshoeing!

All Faulty Actions Stopped.

We guarantee our shoeing.

Repairing of all kinds a Specialty.

CHARLEY PFEIFFENBERGER,

Old Stand, Northeast cor. Square.

[TRY]

[KEIFER'S]

[LUNCH COUNTER.]

North side Square.

[Greencastle.]

FRANK AND THEODORE
Still on Deck.

THE KLEINBUBS
AND THEIR ELEGANT
Five Chair Barber Shop

Are well known to the Shaving Public. They never keep a Poor Workman or Bad Razor Longer than the Time Required to "fire" HIM or IT.

The new proprietor respectfully asks a continuance of the liberal patronage extended during the past, and guarantees entire satisfaction. Old friends and New are invited to call.

FRANK KLEINBUB, Prop'r.

Basement First National Bank. 1tf

RAILWAY TIME TABLE.

BIG FOUR.

EAST.		WEST.
No. 2	8:45 a.m.	No. 9	8:45 a.m.
No. 18	1:52 p.m.	No. 17	12:44 p.m.
No. 8	5:15 p.m.	No. 3	6:34 p.m.
No. 12	2:35 a.m.	No. 7	12:40 a.m.

VANDALIA LINE.

EAST.		WEST.
No. 4	8:54 a.m.	No. 5	8:56 a.m.
No. 20	1:52 p.m.	No. 1	12:53 p.m.
No. 8	3:35 p.m.	No. 21	1:52 p.m.
No. 2	6:20 p.m.	No. 3	5:28 p.m.
No. 12	2:28 a.m.	No. 7	12:20 a.m.
No. 6	3:32 a.m.

PEORIA DIVISION.
Leave Terre Haute—No. 75, 7:55 a.m. for Peoria; No. 77, 3:25 p.m. for Decatur (ex. Sunday.)

MONON ROUTE

LOUISVILLE, NEW ALBANY & CHICAGO RY. CO.

NORTH.		SOUTH.
No. 6	12:45 a.m.	No. 5	2:38 p.m.
No. 4	1:27 a.m.	No. 3	3:47 a.m.
Local fr't	12:35 p.m.	Local fr't	1:45 p.m.

FINE LIVERY OUTFITS

Cabs, Carriages, Etc.,

FOR PARTIES AND WEDDINGS, AT

Feed and Livery Stable

—OF—

Chas. & Q. L. Cooper,

Northeast Corner Square.

Money Loaned

In any sum for any time. Must see the borrower in person. No delay. Money furnished at once at the very lowest rates.
GEORGE E. BLAKE,
Greencastle, Ind.

J. D. TORR,

Calmar, Ind.,

—BREEDER OF—

Thorough-bred

Poland China

SWINE,

Light Brahma,

Barred Plymouth

Rock,

Black Minorca,

Mammoth Bronze

Turkeys.

Pekin Ducks,

Toulouse Geese,

Guinea Fowls,

&c., &c.

EGGS AND STOCK FOR SALE.

(40m3)

FINEST CIGARS

In the city are turned out at the factory of

HERMAN HOFFMAN,

Manufacturer of a number of leading and popular brands, and

Wholesale and Retail

—DEALER IN—

Tobaccos and Smokers' Articles

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

North side Square.

"The Best of the kind
For the Money,"

Describes our Stock of Drugs,

Paints and Wall Paper

We solicit a trial.

JONES' DRUG STORE.