City and Neighborhood.

No Courts.

STILL SHOWERY.

DAMP weather, this.

ALL more than quiet on Wall street.

THE Christian Chapel picnic will occur Saturday, at Paris.

SEVERAL red flags are pendant at half-mast in the city just now.

MINSTRELS at the Opera House Friday evening, Duprez & Benedict.

INDIANAPOLIS papers boast of a "short horn convention" in that city!

ANDREWS' boot and shoe establishment is having a new front—of stone, iron and glass.

THE gas facilities of South Main street, between Fifth and Sixth, are being added to and improved.

THE sidewalks throughout the city are being improved. Piles of brick can be discovered most anywhere.

"DUY'S ADDITION" is the latest; and is located between First street and the Vincennes Railroad, consists of 71 lots.

JOHN LEONARD, drunk and disorderly, $75, Station House, is what the record in the Municipal Court said this noon.

CENTENARY and Asbury Sunday schools will go gleefully to-morrow, rain or shine. No more postponement for them this time.

On the principle of "a stitch in time saves nine," a coat of paint in time, on a building is as good an investment as can be made.

If a feminine peddler calls on any of our readers with a freckle extirpator, better purchase, lest they be exterminated by the disappointed damsel.

THE hearing of the complaints against those overgrown boys, charged with attempting to rescue a prisoner from the police, was postponed yesterday, until to-day at 2 P. M. Hence, our report is deferred.

REGULAR meeting of the Prairie City Guards at their Armory this evening. A full attendance desired, as important business comes up for transaction. We make this announcement by request of the officers of the company.

THE exterior of the Terre Haute House has been wonderfully improved in appearance by a thorough painting, in drab colors. In fact, we believe that we never saw a hotel so changed in external appearance, by painting alone.

"JUDGE BRIGGS" is what the Cincinnati Enquirer calls "Dan Voorhees' old friend" to whom he addressed his explanation of his first explanation on the Presidential candidacy question. Nothing like judicious advertising.

QUITE a number of our citizens propose to attend the great shooting match at Highland, 20 miles this side of St. Louis, to-morrow. The best marksmen will receive prizes to the amount of $12,000. The match is given under the auspices of the Germans.

FROM an item in the Evansville Courier we infer that A. L. Gardner, formerly of the Vandalia Line, this city, is now Superintendent of Telegraph on the St. Louis & Southeastern R. R., and will transfer his headquarters to that city at no distant day.

MRS. OWEN TULLER, of this city, we learn from a prominent jeweler, recently ordered a magnificent diamond ring from a New York establishment, which cost $3,000, and was made after her own design. It was pronounced by the jeweler a handsomest he had ever seen.

Highway Robbery.

Last night about half-past ten o'clock a well-known citizen of this place, of the name of Andrew Watson, a plasterer by profession, was knocked down, by the Mate of the boat Phoenix, named Benjamin Barrett, and robbed, he alleges, of some $200. This occurred about ten o'clock, on Ohio street, between First and Second. The fact was reported at police headquarters, and Deputy Marshal O'Mara went in search of the perpetrator. He succeeded in finding the perpetrator at a house of ill fame, kept by a woman named Sue Garvin, and in bed. This was about four o'clock this morning. O'Mara immediately arrested and took the highwayman to the Station House, where he discovered him in the act of chewing up $20 in money and throwing the same in a vault. Upon being interrogated by Mr. O'Mara he admitted the act of knocking down, and acknowledged that he took from Watson's person $96 in money. He further confessed to the officer alluded to above that he placed $76 of the money taken, in the sand under an old barge near the river bank. Mr. O'Mara left Barrett in custody, repaired to the spot designated, and there found the amount specified.

This morning, the accused was taken before the Mayor, plead guilty to the charges preferred, and was held to bail in the sum of $400, in default of which he was sent to jail to await the action of the courts.

Patent Freckle Extirpator.

A female, giving her name as Ellen Sullivan, called at a South Third street residence, yesterday, and offered for sale a preparation which she alleged would remove freckles from the female complexion with facility and dispatch. The lady of the house did not care to invest, not being affected in that way. The vendor's of the only simon-pure and adulterated freckle annihilator and extirpator waxed warm and wroth when the lady suggested that the article was a humbug. She talked naughtily, verily nasty talk for a woman to indulge in, in the presence of a lady. She even seized a chair, and made a desperate attempt to annihilate the lady herself to illustrate the efficacy of the remedy, the merits of which she wished to set forth. She succeeded in creating freckles on the door and divers articles about the premises. For all this the gentle Ella was locked up in the Station House all night; fired before the Mayor this morning, and remanded to the Station House in default of fine.

Bishop Bowman.

It gratifies us to announce that Rev. Dr. Bowman, the well-known and courteous divine who has hitherto presided over the destinies of Asbury University at Greencastle, in an executive capacity, was yesterday morning made a Bishop in the M. E. Church, by the National Conference of that powerful and influential denomination, now in session in Brooklyn. This was a distinguished honor conferred on a distinguished gentleman, who will grace the position with the dignity which has characterized his long-life services in the ministry of his beloved faith. He brings to the discharge of the duties of the trust reposed in him by his church, scholarly attainments and ripe experience attained by but few men on this mundane sphere. If his career as Bishop is as grand and ennobling as has been his course as executive head of a great institution of learning, he will be an honor to the State, the church and the nation.

PERSONAL.—E. W. Woodward, President of the Indianapolis & St. Louis Railroad; his brother, S. Woodward, a prominent Railroad man of Ohio, President A. J. Sprague, of T. & St. L.; E. Schraeder, Evansville & Crawfordsville Railroad; W. R. Cutler, of Ohio, John Ingle, Jr., Evansville & Crawfordsville Railroad; L. Pearson, same line, Joseph Collett, Terre Haute & Chicago Railroad; the officers of the Terre Haute & Cincinnati Railroad, and other prominent Railroad officers were in the city yesterday. They had a general conference at the Terre Haute House.

S. H. Sheppard, a prominent attorney of Charleston, Illinois, was over in the city yesterday.

Mr. Edmunds, of the Journal, is absent at Indianapolis attending an Odd Fellows' meeting. Indeed, Edmunds is an odd fellow; but a good fellow notwithstanding.

Dr. Delano and S. R. Henderson are at Cincinnati.

The Hon. D. W. Voorhees will arrive home this evening, it is thought by his organ, the Journal. He will probably address his constituency while here and explain his second explanation.

MR. E. FISHER, late an engineer of the Cincinnati & Terre Haute Railroad, is now occupying a similar position on the Indiana & Illinois Central, with headquarters at Montezuma, the point where the line will cross the Wabash. Mr. Fisher will reside in this city, having just removed into the residence recently occupied by Max Wood, on Eighth street, between Eagle and Chestnut.

He says there can be no reasonable doubt but that the building of this long deferred line will be proceeded with at a rapid rate, henceforth.

We hear that the summer time schedule adopted at the late St. Louis convention takes effect June 2. The time of the arrival and departure of the Indianapolis trains is not materially changed. The various Superintendents are now engaged in arranging their time tables, which will be announced in a day or two.

AND now, an illiterate, impertinent and inquisitive cotemporary wants to know who in the blazing brimstone is this man Briggs, to whom Dan Voorhees addressed his second explanation. This in the face of the great reputation of our distinguished Circuit Court Prosecutor, is downright ignorance, made manifest.

WATER WORKS.—Much inquiry is made in relation to the water works, and a great desire is manifested to know what the company is doing. Will the President give us a few words on this subject, and relieve public anxiety?

Mrs. CLEN's regular annual trial will soon be in progress. Dan Voorhees, of this city, now returns from Washington ostensibly as counsel for the defense.

A TERRE-HAUTE lady of seventy-four, runs a sewing machine with great facility and supports several grown daughters in affluence. What is home without a mother.—Ind. Eve. News.
