

DRY GOODS.

TO-MORROW--SATURDAY
HOBERG'S
 WILL START A GRAND
Clean-Sweep Sale
 OF
CLOAKS

We are overstocked and must sell. As we make it a rule to close out as near as possible every ladies' misses' and child's cloak in our house before taking our annual inventory, prices will be no object during this sale. We cannot afford to pack them away. Money is what we want and a little will go a great way to-morrow in this department.

FIRST—We will sell you any Cloth Newmarket in our house that sold for upwards to $25.

Choice, $7.00 Each.

WE MEAN WHAT WE SAY.

C
 U
 T
 S

THAT TALK.
 WE HAVE THE CLOAKS AND WE WANT YOU TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS GREAT SALE.

5 Plush Jackets $6.50,

Former Price $8.98.

13 Plush Jackets $7.50,

Former Price $12.00.

As our cheap Plush Sacques are all sold, we offer now our finest ones for less than we ever sold the cheap ones for. Thus, at $19, we will sell our $30 Plush Sacques—only six left.

At $28 we will sell our $40 Plush Sacques—only 4 left.

At $35 we will sell our $48 Plush Sacques—we have of these, 7 left.

Two elegant Plush New Markets will go at $28, former price $50.

At $5, $8 and $10

we have to show you garments that were marked double the price.

All our fine, matchless Plush and Astrachan Jackets marked away down.

Fur-trimmed, Imported Jackets away down.

Misses' and Children's Cloaks less than cost of materials.

We must sell, and we will sell, and don't you think of buying a cloak of any kind till you attend this cut price sale to-morrow. Come in the morning if possible.

Hoberg, Root & Co
 518 and 520 Wabash Avenue.

DRY GOODS.

GRAND

CLEARANCE SALE!

We have lots of goods that must be cleared out this month, as we need both room and money for spring goods to arrive in February. We make prices to astonish you.

54 inch all wool Dress cloth at 48c real value 60c.

Black and colored Mohair at 25c, real value 35c.

All wool Henrietta black and colors at 50c worth 65c.

Black and colored 36 inch Henrietta, 25c.

Shawls and blankets at your own prices.

1,000 yards Indigo print remnants at 5c a yard.

Just received 5,000 yards Arnold's best Indigo prints.

P. S.—Everybody is having a linen sale, call and inspect our stock. Table linens at 25c, 30c, 35c, 40c, 50c up to $1.75 a yard. Napkins and towels at your own prices.

'LEVI'S' DRY GOODS STORE,
 676—WABASH AVENUE—676.
 Corner of Seventh Street.

DRY GOODS.

14th. LINEN STOCK TAKING SALE!
 COMMENCING

FRIDAY, JANUARY 2d, 1891.

We were the first to inaugurate the linen sale in Terre Haute 14 years ago (others have since followed). We have always kept the lead and propose to hold it. Our good treatment toward our customers and low prices and good goods have constantly increased our trade. Our linen sale will have lots of good things at special clearing-sale prices prior to stock-taking.

There will be towels, napkins, table linens, table sets, cloths, covers, stamped goods, etc., besides we will add the following:

Ladies' muslin underwear, aprons, dress goods, laces, embroideries, silk umbrellas, underwear, cloaks, jersey jackets, at half price, ladies' driving gloves at 50c a pair, worth $1. All the surplus stock and pulled out and prices cut that will surely bring the crowd. Every department will have some good bargains to show. Come and see us.

Odds and Ends

Espenhain AND Albrecht

INDICATIONS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—For Indiana: Threatening weather with snow or rain, slightly warmer.

BUNTING'S THERMOMETERIC REPORT.

JAN. 8. 9 P.M.	JAN. 9. 7 A.M.	JAN. 9. 2 P.M.
32.0	30.5	31.5

PERSONAL AND SOCIETY.

Mrs. C. F. Putnam has returned from Chicago.

Miss Ella Thomas, of Muncie, will visit friends in the city next week.

Miss Nan Mitchell has returned to the city to resume her art studies.

Miss Florence Barbour is the guest of her cousin; Miss Anna Warren.

Miss Emma Whitney, of Plainfield, is in the city visiting for a few days.

Josephus Collett has been confined to his room for several days with a cold.

Mrs. Charles McKeen and son Frank of Logansport, are in the city visiting friends.

The uniform rank K. of P. are preparing to give one of their delightful dances, January 23rd, at their hall.

Miss Emma Wurster, of Dayton, Ohio, who has been visiting friends in the city for the past six weeks, has returned to her home.

Miss Carnathan, housekeeper at the Terre Haute house, has gone to Indianapolis to accept a similar position at the New Denison.

Miss Kitty Arnett, of Sullivan, Ind., is visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Arnett, at 211 north Sixteenth street.

Mrs. Ricketts of Sanford, well known in this city, has been called to Macksville, by the serious illness of her brother Richard McElroy.

The friends of Al Grimes in this city will be glad to learn that he is doing well at Portsmouth, Ohio, as proprietor of the Hotel Portsmouth.

Prof. W. W. Byers has been chosen director of the Oratorio society, R. L. Alder, resigning. Prof. Alder remains a member of the society.

Charles L. Brown, drummer for N. P. Dodge's shoe company, has returned home from the East to visit his mother for a few weeks.

Miss Jessie Levering is visiting at Terre Haute. —Misses Grace and Emma Gagen have returned to their studies at Terre Haute. —Lafayette Journal.

Frank Boltz and sister, Daisy, who have been visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Wilson, of north Eighth street, have returned to their home in Indianapolis.

The Germania gave a very pleasant masquerade hop, last evening at their hall. A large crowd was in attendance. The music was furnished by the Ringgold orchestra.

Miss Valora King visited in Terre Haute last week. —Miss Daisy Heishfield, of Terre Haute, has been spending a few days with relatives here. —Saline was received in Brazil.

Mrs. Harvey B. Taylor, of south Fourth street, has returned home from Portsmouth, Ohio, where she spent the holidays with her husband. Mr. Taylor is connected with the Hotel Portsmouth.

Mrs. Thatchier Parker gave a delightful reception yesterday afternoon from 2 to 6 at her home on south sixth street. The house was beautifully decorated with palms and cut flowers. The prettily arranged parlors were filled all afternoon with guests. Mrs. Parker was assisted in receiving and entertaining by Miss Nellie McKeen, Miss Emma Harris, of East Saginaw, Mich., Mrs. John Aikman, Misses Corsi and Fannie O'Boyle, Mrs. Robert Geddes, Mrs. John Warren, and Mrs. Geo. Parker. Elegant refreshments were served.

Burt Darien who has been under treatment of Dr. Crowley for deafness returns to Vincennes to-day. Mr. Darien's hearing has been perfectly restored.

Double screened bituminous nut coal $1.05 per ton. Best quality block, bituminous lime and stone coke at cheap prices. Burns & Ray 14 south Eighth street. Telephone 86.

Go to E. B. Wright & Co's, for the best oysters, game, poultry and butter at the lowest prices.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Charles Rosenbaum, charged with stealing a wagon, was released on bond. The prosecutor filed affidavit against Rosenbaum in Justice McCarthy's court.

There was a delightful masquerade ball at Germania hall last night given by the ladies of the Germania Society. It was invitation and quite a large crowd was present.

Reuben Glover, guardian of Emma G. Glover, vs. Celia S. Glover, petitions the circuit court for the appointment of commissioners to sell property belonging jointly to the ward and the defendant.

Newton Wilson's team ran away yesterday morning, and threw Mr. Wilson out, bruising him slightly, but not injuring him seriously. The team was caught before the wagon was damaged. Mr. Wilson is a resident of Atherton, Ind.

Lizzie Jones, the 16-year-old colored girl arrested yesterday for incorrigibility, is in jail awaiting the return of Judge Taylor. Her father, Dennis Jones, living on south Thirteenth-and-a-half street, says his daughter persists in running about at night. Lizzie declares that her father would make no provision for her.

Don't buy a pair of hand-me-down pants when Schlueter, the hatter, will show you 700 or 800 samples of goods for less money and will give you a perfect fit. You can make your selection and we will fit you.

The tailor-made girl is being relegated to the rear, but the tailor-made young man is still in the ring. The tailor that can keep you well dressed for the least money is Merritt, 645 Main street.

If you begin to sneeze and take cold, take a dose of Hollingsworth's Antiperitic and its all gone in 20 minutes—guaranteed.

Call and sample a cup of cocoa at E. R. Wright & Co's. Headquarters for fine fruits, oysters, dressed turkeys, chickens, geese and ducks. Butter a specialty.

A RUNAWAY.

A brick yard coming south on north First street this morning, driven by Will McKenna, took flight at clothes flying from a line in a yard and ran away tipping over the wagon and dumping the driver out on the hard ground. McKenna received a severe cut on the side of his head and a bad abrasion on one of his cheeks. The wagon was badly broken.

Mme. Bernhardt will arrive in this country about February 1st and her first production will be "La Tosca."

SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR THE NEWS.

LEGAL INFORMATION.

Intoxicating Liquor—Beer—Beer was held to be an intoxicating liquor by the Supreme court of Indiana in the case of Welch vs. the State, and the court held that it was not necessary to allege that beer is intoxicating.

Statute of Limitations—Statute—Payments or promises to pay made by a surety in a note, or by his personal representative, do not suspend the running of the statute of limitations in favor of him or his representative, according to the decision of the Supreme court of Kentucky in the case of Pusey vs. Smith's administrator.

Husband and Wife—Note—The Supreme court of Georgia held, in the recent case of Schofield vs. Jones, that parol evidence is admissible to show whether the debt covered by joint promissory notes of husband and wife was in fact the joint debt of both or whether it was the several debt of the husband.

Refusal to Deliver—Tender—Waiver—A refusal to deliver property exclusively upon a ground other than the non-payment of charges upon it amounts to a waiver of tender of such charges according to the decision of the Supreme court of Minnesota in the case of Tarbell et al. vs. the Farmers Mutual Elevator Company.

Chattel Mortgage—Crops—Lien.—A chattel mortgage crops to be thereafter raised on land of the mortgagor constitutes no lien on the land, and will attach only to such interests as the mortgagor has in the crops when they come into being, according to the decision of the Supreme court of Minnesota in the case of Simons vs. Anderson.

Cattle Inspection Law—Unconstitutional—The supreme court of Indiana held, in the recent case of the State of Indiana vs. Klein, that the act of 1889 for promoting the growth and sale of healthy cattle and sheep, and making it a misdemeanor to sell, him with-out inspection before slaughter, within the State, and to authorize cities to appoint inspectors, was in violation of the constitution of the United States

Chattel Mortgage—Sale—Fraud—According to the decision of the Supreme court of Indiana in the case of Fletcher et al. vs. Martin et al., a provision in a chattel mortgage authorizing the mortgagor to sell the mortgaged property and apply the proceeds to the payment of the mortgage debt is not a fraud, and does not vitiate the mortgage and a parol agreement made after the execution of a mortgage embodying a similar provision, is governed by the same principle.

Husband and Wife—Loan—The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania held, in Wormley's appeal, that the mere fact of the receipt of his wife's money by her husband makes him her debtor, and that it requires no affirmative proof by the wife that he received it as a loan and not as a gift, but that, on the contrary, if it is alleged afterwards, either by the husband's heirs or his creditors, that the money was received as a gift and not as a loan, the burden is upon those making such allegation to prove it.

EDUCATIONAL.

The State Agricultural school of Rhode Island will in future be open to women.

An organization modeled after the American Chautauqua literary and scientific circle has been organized in Great Britain under the name of the National Home Reading union.

The Chautauqua literary and scientific circle, which was organized in 1875 with a membership of 700, has now 17,000 circles located in all parts of the world, including a branch at the Cape of Good Hope.

While the population of Germany has increased in the last eighteen years in the proportion of 100 to 114.8, the number of German students has been swelled in the proportion of 100 to 111.5.

Austria has not only a high school of agriculture, but fifteen intermediate and eighty-three primary agricultural schools, besides nine chairs of agriculture in polytechnic establishments and agricultural experimental stations. There are also 162 courses of agricultural lectures attended by about ten thousand persons a year.

A New York dispatch says the Italian government has subsidized schools in the principal cities of this country, in which the youth of Italian parentage may be instructed in the language of that country. The Italian government is desirous that the youth should speak the language, so that when they visit Italy they may be better fitted to serve the three years in the army, required of all citizens over twenty years of age.

Prominent Italian-Americans seen knew of only one school of this kind in this country. That was in the city of New York. There was a school in San Francisco where Italian was taught, but it was supported by a society of Italians and by the people of the Pacific slope. The New York school is free.

An educational tendency of the day which has been reflected prominently is that of late at the Johns Hopkins university is the great growth of historical and political study among young men. For some years the steady increase in desire for knowledge of the two subjects has been noticeable, but this is due to the preference has been particularly striking.

Of the 214 graduate students who have already attained the dignity of degrees and are seeking special training in separate departments of geography, 51 are devoting themselves to history and politics, which is considered one of the most popular courses at the university, and 44 to Latin and Greek. Five years ago 100 students, all told, both graduate and undergraduate, preferred historical instruction. There were 116 in German, 91 in chemistry and 73 in Latin. At the last session they had so changed that 142 took history and politics, 137 chemistry, 126 German, and 69 Latin.

Don't buy a pair of hand-me-down pants when Schlueter, the hatter, will show you 700 or 800 samples of goods for less money and will give you a perfect fit. You can make your selection and we will fit you.

The tailor-made girl is being relegated to the rear, but the tailor-made young man is still in the ring. The tailor that can keep you well dressed for the least money is Merritt, 645 Main street.

If you begin to sneeze and take cold, take a dose of Hollingsworth's Antiperitic and its all gone in 20 minutes—guaranteed.

Call and sample a cup of cocoa at E. R. Wright & Co's. Headquarters for fine fruits, oysters, dressed turkeys, chickens, geese and ducks. Butter a specialty.

ALLEGED HUMOR.

"Is that a Shanghai chicken?" asked the visitor to the country place.

</