

THE PERSECUTION.

The Attempt to Smirch the Character of Mr. Appman.

By Witnesses, Who Acknowledge They Were Intimate Friends of Needham, When He was in Jail.

No Fear of the Conviction of the Accused.

[From Wednesday's Daily.]

HIS CASE BEFORE ESQ. COOKERLY.

The case of the State of Indiana vs. Herman Appman was called before Justice Cookerly, in the Circuit Court room this morning.

The counsel for the defense moved a continuance, on the ground of an absent witness, by whom the defendant expects to prove that he, (defendant), was told by the witness that Needham was a lawful voter in the Third ward.

A postponement was granted until two o'clock.

AFTERNOON.

This afternoon the case of Mr. Herman Appman came up in the circuit court before Judge Cookerly; Buff and Bodin for prosecution, and Felsenthal and Harper for defense.

The prosecution first presented the affidavit of Mr. Appman swearing in Needham.

Mr. Martin Kercheval was placed on the stand. He had served as inspector on the day of election.

W. B. Hendrickson was put onto the witness stand to prove that Needham was not a lawful voter.

He said that Needham lived in the ward, but he did not think he had lived in the ward long enough. He had notified Mr. Appman that Needham was not a lawful voter. He had not subscribed for the prosecution.

David Brown was next put on the stand. He stated that Needham lived at Mattoon, where he lost his first wife, for two years.

He was a resident of Illinois to February last, or near about. He met him here afterward and saw him on election day. He understood that Needham was keeping house.

Cross examined by Mr. Harper: "Did you see Needham after his wife died in 1876? Don't you know that he was gone from Mattoon the greater part of the year 1877?"

"I did not see him all the time. I did not see him vote at Mattoon after that I did not see him during February, March, April, or May 1877."

"I don't know whether he worked in Indiana in a brick yard, or not."

"I first told Cahill about Needham not being a lawful voter. We were talking about his wife."

Mr. Brown was a remarkably "willin' witness" for the prosecution.

One, Regan, testified: "I have been acquainted with Needham for seven years. I have lived for some time in Terre Haute. Needham lived at Mattoon until 1871, when he was gone for about three months."

About the last of February, or the first of March, Needham removed to Terre Haute. I met him on the streets about that time.

I was not present at the polls when he voted. His family died about a year ago.

Cross examined by Mr. Felsenthal: I work at Seath & Hagar's. Needham was never away from Mattoon but once, and then at East St. Louis.

Wasn't he somewhere else? "Yes, he was at Charleston for about a year. I didn't see him during that time. He might have been here much before February last; that was when I saw him. I don't know whether I saw him in March, April or May, 1877, but I think I saw him in April. I have nothing to fix the fact in my mind. I was intimate with him all the time. He getting into trouble and going to jail never interfered with our friendly or cordial relations."

Mr. Gibson next took the stand: When Needham came to vote I ordered him to be challenged. Mr. Appman swore him in. I told him I would prosecute him.

Cross-examined by Mr. Felsenthal. Needham voted in the morning. I was sober at the time. I told a big party that I would challenge them.

The witness was then asked if in 1876 he did not ask somebody to challenge his brother-in-law.

There being a dispute on this point Mr. Felsenthal stated that Mr. Gibson like a great many persons, was in the habit of blowing what he would think, challenging.

He is notorious for buncombe on election day, and no one in the Third ward hears what he says.

The witnesses for prosecution were still being examined at 4 o'clock when our report closed.

There are but few persons in the court and little interest is taken.

Mr. Appman sustains a high character and his neighbors and friends are sure the persecution will come to naught.

They all agree now that Needham has been a resident of the ward for some time.

If Baldness or a Deficiency of Hair Exists, or if the hair is gray, dry or harsh, the natural youthful color can be restored by using "London Hair Color Restorer," the most delightful article ever introduced to the American people for increasing its growth, restoring its natural color, and at the same time a lovely hair dressing and beautifier. It is totally different from all others; not sticky or gummy, and free from all impure ingredients that render many other articles obnoxious; in fact it is exquisitely perfumed and so cheaply and elegantly prepared as to make it a lasting hair dressing and toilet luxury.

J. A. TYNES, A PROMINENT CITIZEN, Wilson, N. C., writes: Some ten years ago my wife's hair commenced falling and got very thin and turned gray; but after using "London Hair Color Restorer" the scalp became healthy, the hair stopped falling, the color was restored, and is now growing beautifully.

Ask your druggist for London Hair Color Restorer. Price 75 cents a bottle. Six bottles $4. Main depot for the U. S., 330 North Sixth street, Philadelphia.

Don't forget that Eiser is headquarters for fancy and French candies, fruits, nuts, &c.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE For CATARRH INSTANTLY RELIEVES.

6,000 FEET ABOVE THE SEA.

The following testimonials are from Messrs. J. O. Bosworth & Co., Denver, Col., large and influential druggists. They report unprecedentedly large sales and universal satisfaction. No other disease is so alarmingly prevalent in that region. They speak of the following gentlemen as among their best citizens:

SORELY AFFLICTED.
J. O. Bosworth & Co., Denver, Col.: Gentlemen,—I take pleasure in recommending SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH to all who are afflicted with this disease. I was greatly afflicted with it for a long time, and cured it with two bottles of the above CURE. About a year afterwards I was again taken with Catarrh quite severely, and immediately sent for another bottle, which brought me all right, giving me relief from the first dose. I am confident that this remedy will do all that is claimed for it, and more too. Wishing you success in its introduction, I am very truly yours,
A. W. SMITH, of Smith & Doh.

GREATLY AFFLICTED.
Messrs. J. O. Bosworth & Co., Denver, Col.: Gentlemen,—I have used SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, and it has given perfect satisfaction. I have tried almost everything, and it is the only thing that has given me relief. I therefore take pleasure in recommending its use to all afflicted with Catarrh of any kind, and offer this as my testimony to its benefits.
W. S. DECKER, Denver, Oct. 1, 1878.

REV. J. H. WIGGIN SAYS:
One of the best remedies for Catarrh, say the best remedy we have found in a lifetime of suffering, is SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE. It is not only a cure, but it cures the head and throat so thoroughly that, taken each morning on rising, there are no unpleasant secretions and no disagreeable hacking during the entire day, but an unobscured clearness of voice and respiratory organs.
—Rev. J. H. Wiggin, in Dorchester (Mass.) Beacon.

DR. VON Moschzisker's

Reputation in Terre Haute is now established. He has already accomplished sufficient to satisfy the most skeptical that advertising with him is a mere medium to call attention to the diseases especially treated by him, and the amount of his success in them, he would now say to all who need and desire his medical services that they should call on him.

WITHOUT DELAY. OFFICE: Terre Haute House.

The following maladies are treated by him with the utmost success:

Deafness, Impaired Sight, Catarrh, Diseases of the Throat, Lungs, Chest; Complaints of the Liver and Kidneys, Nervous and General Debility, Paralytic Affections, and all Chronic Complaints, Blood Diseases, Neuralgia, etc., etc.

Many of these diseases are most difficult to treat, and under the old system of medicine some have been given up as hopeless, but by my method of practice and my experience they are, I repeat, most successfully treated.

EDITORIALS FROM THE PHILADELPHIA PRESS.

A Medical Success.

The apparatus constructed by Dr. Von Moschzisker, for the cure of deafness, throat diseases, catarrh and asthma is indeed a great medical triumph. No idea can be given in print of its complications, but its wonderfully varied powers on applicability, and its efficiency in perfectly eradicating the above named diseases, at once speak to the understanding of every one who witnesses its application.

Its combinations are based on true medical science, attacking the very seat of the disease, and accomplishing a cure when all other means have failed. It has been pronounced by high medical authority, and scientific men generally, the most powerful, inoffensive and surest medical agent for reaching the disease, ever brought before the world, and a true triumph and advance in medical science.

—[PHILADELPHIA PRESS.]

A Valuable Apparatus.

The purpose of the apparatus constructed by Dr. Von Moschzisker, of this city, is to reach the seat of disease, through the essential agencies in a more direct as well as safe and painless method than has been in use. Its value is in all cases of deafness, catarrh and throat diseases. The medicines are applied to the seat of the disease by means of medicated atmospheric air, steam vapors and gases, under the pressure of atmospheric air, driven forward so as to reach the points to which it is intended to direct them.

—[PHILADELPHIA TIMES.]

Dr. Von Moschzisker, the well known Specialist, has arranged a most ingenious apparatus by which to apply medicines to the very seat of the diseases, and in such a form that while the desired effect is produced, there is a total absence of tendency to nausea caused by swallowing disagreeable potions. The apparatus is the most ingenious and at the same time the most simple that can be imagined.

—[PHILADELPHIA PUBLIC LEDGER.]

Philadelphia.

To Whom it may Concern: We, the undersigned, citizens of Philadelphia take pleasure in certifying that Dr. P. A. Von Moschzisker has been a resident of our city for some years, during which time he has acquired a distinguished reputation as a practitioner in diseases of the eye, ear and throat. He has also, for some time past, been professor and clinical operator in one of our medical institutions. Having made known to us that he proposes to visit other cities in order to enlarge his already extensive experience, and afford those persons who need his services and cannot leave home an opportunity of consulting him, we recommend him to the cordial support of the press, and the confidence of the communities he may see fit to visit.

We willingly thus endorse him, that he may not be placed by those to whom he is a stranger, in the category of traveling physicians, and that he may at once command the confidence which is his due, without the otherwise necessarily prolonged residence in each place.
