Pierceton Qualifies Two For Regional; Kerr Breaks High Jump Record

In the sectional track meet held at Huntington, May 10, the Cubs qualified two men for the regional track meet and placed in a three way tie for 8th place in a field of 18 teams.

Rick Kerr, a Pierceton senior, placed 3rd in the high jump, qualified for the regional meet and broke the Pierceton school record with a 5 ft. 10 1/2 inch jump. Team mate Ray Slusher, a junior, placed 2nd in the shot put and qualified for the regional.

Neighboring Larwill, led by Albert Surfus who won the 100 yd.

dash and the 220 yd. run, placed 3rd in the meet and qualified four men for the regional.

The following is the order and points scored of the teams in the sectional meet:

Huntington 46; Warsaw 28; Larwill 19; Columbia City 10; Bremen 8; Plymouth 6; Milford 6; Andrew 5; Roanoke 5; Pierceton 5; Liberty Center 5; Jefferson Twp. 3; Elma Green 3; Bluffton 3; Sidney 3; Lapaz 3; Manchester 3; Lancaster 2.

The regional meet will be held Friday, May 17, at Fort Wayne.

Thursday Ladies Hold Bowling Banquet

The Thursday Nite Ladies bowling league held their end of the season banquet last week at the Driftwood Room of the Wawasee Golf club, Syracuse. Ninety-six were in attendance.

Tables were decorated with dainty decorative candleholders which were later given as door prizes. Each place was graced with little basket nutcracks and miniature wooden bowling pins with each person's name and closing average for the year.

Following dinner awards were given with top place honors going to the B and K Drive-In. Members of this team are Anne Gallahan, captain, Maxine Thomas, Pearl Fletcher, Jean Niles and Elgie Tatman. Anne Gallahan also won the Linda Stiffy award for bowling the most over her average on Valentine's Day. This award is given each year by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Money in memoriam of their daughter.

Other awards were: High team game and series - scratch - Hawaiian Village; high team game and series - hodgepodge - American Industries; high individual game - Betty McKibben; high individual series - Isabelle Stahley; most improved average - Helen Lantz.

Election
Betty Nyve was elected vice president during the business meeting; Beverly Hamman re-elected treasurer; and Evelyn Bower, Sgt.-at-Arms, Margaret Smith, president, and Isabelle Stahley, secretary, will continue in office for another year.

Door prizes went to the following: Lorraine Rondot, Mary Lou Wilsey, Linda Greene, Eunice Baugher, Susie Tytler, Karleen Felner, Frances Holloway, Katherine White, Barbara Coy, and Connie Allen.

A 4 by 6 drawing by Debbie Carpenter, daughter of Shirley Carpenter, of a baby in diapers rolling a bowling ball down the alley, graced the head table and was awarded to Eunice Reed.

SYRACUSE

Court News

Files Complaint
The Overhead Door company, Syracuse, has filed a complaint for $1,123.09 against D. A. Bontrager of r 1, Middlebury. The complaint is on materials furnished from February 11, 1960 to August 31, 1960.

Promissory Note
The Weatherhead Federal credit union, Syracuse, has filed a complaint on a promissory note asking judgment of $1,151.90 plus interest and attorney's fees against Willie Mae and Wayne McMillan and Maude Flückinger. The suit alleges the defendants have paid only $214.10 since the date of the note on March 4, 1960.

Marriage Licenses
A marriage license was issued in the Kosciusko county clerk's office to Clarence R. Hewes Jr., 33, a Fort Wayne contractor, and Lucille Ann Hunnicutt, 23, of r 4, Syracuse.

A marriage license was also issued to Charles Ray Folger, 20, of r 4, Syracuse, assistant purchasing agent for Concord Mobile Homes at Elkhart and Zelma May Kilmer, 19, of Syracuse, a beauty school student.

Divorce Granted
Mary Weaver Hughes of Syracuse has been granted a divorce from John Hughes in Kosciusko circuit court. Her former name of Mary Weaver was restored.

Attorney Sued
R. Leon Connolly, Syracuse attorney, has been named the defendant in a suit filed by Seth Ward, Lake Wawasee attorney, in which the defendant is charged with fraud and deception.

Ward alleges that he had been a chief counsel for a Mr. Smith in a personal injury case and that a former supreme court judge, Can Flanagan who is now deceased, to whom he had given the filing fee, had instructed Smith to return the papers to Ward.

Ward claims that instead, the papers were given to Connolly who then settled the case without paying Ward $200 he says is due him. The plaintiff seeks judgment of $600.

Those that spent Mother's Day with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pinkerton at Milford were Mrs. Paul Schell and Anne of St. Joseph, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. James Pinkerton and Terry of Goshen; Mr. and Mrs. Max Brower, sons, Syracuse; Mrs. Nelson Morehouse and Carolyn of the New Salem community; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schermerhorn and family of Leesburg; Mr. and Mrs. James Hummel and family of Shoe Lake; and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Pinkerton of Kokomo.

Mrs. Harry F. Haab of Milford will entertain the Thursday Night Sewing club in her country home next Thursday evening, May 23.

ACCIDENT WEDNESDAY
An accident happened at 6 and 15 around noon Wednesday when a truck turned over. Details of the accident were not available.

TOP BOWLERS — These bowlers are winners of the Nappanee Thursday night Ladies' League for the second consecutive year, and proudly display their plaque. Their name: The Main Grill. They are left to right, Betty Wiegand, Phil Whisler, captain Dorothy Mishler, sponsor O. A. Mishler, Peg Bean and Phil Hively. Betty Wiegand has had two 600 series and has a 171 average, while Peg Bean has also had two 600 series with a 169 average.

They received the plaque at the Nappanee City Association banquet held last Thursday evening at the Pickwick Lounge at Syracuse.

They competed in the national bowling tournament at Memphis, Tenn., April 22. (Adv.)
