A SIMPLE BUT SOUND PHILOSOPHY

Stanley Reinhart of Lake Wawasee and Garrett, Ind., said he attributed his success as a successful Garrett grocer since coming to America from Switzerland to this simple philosophy:

Early to bed,
Early to rise,
Work like heck,
And advertise.

Syracuse Has Five Returning Lettermen

According to a report given to The Mail-Journal this week by Rollin Cutler of Syracuse high school, their are five returning lettermen on this year's team. He stated that he would be looking to those boys to carry a good bit of the load this year. The team will receive added strength from boys like Rodney Smith, Tom Kramer, and Richard Galt, who is a transfer student.

Lettermen are Larry Jones, John Longenbaugh, Jack Zimmerman, Paul Brewer and Roger Niles.

As can be noticed in the roster that follows the "Jackets" could use a little more size, because with the school's schedule it is very hard for a six foot boy to play along side a six foot, four inch player. Lost by graduation were Pat Money, Mickey Jones, Ron Richey, Richard Simon and Steve Crow.

Experience like this is hard to replace but before the season is over Syracuse hopes to be playing some good basketball. They are going to try and improve upon last year's 6-13 record.

Roster

Rodney Smith, 6' 7", Junior.
Bruce Cripe, 6' 1", Junior.
Kenneth Butt, 6' 1", Junior.
Tom Kramer, 5' 8", Senior.
Larry Jones, 6' 1", Junior.
John Longenbaugh, 5' 10", So.
Jack Zimmerman, 6' 0", Senior.
Paul Brewer, 6' 0", Senior.
Roger Niles, 6' 1", Senior.
Richard Galt, 6' 1", Senior.
Dallas McKibbin, 5' 11", So.
John Yoder, 5' 8", So.
Tom Clayton, 6' 1", Junior.
Mike Brown, 5' 7", Junior.
Floyd Rensberger, 5' 10", So.
Jim Wilson, 5' 7", So.
Larry Simon, 5' 7", So.
Bobby Folger, 5' 7", So.
Tom Ganshorn, 5' 6", So.

Paul Moore is principal at the Syracuse high school and Mr. Cutler is head coach. Eldon Ummel is athletic director and "B" team coach. This year's student managers are Robert Stiffler, Ronnie Robinson and Leonard Kline. Varsity cheerleaders are Vona Schacht, Peggy Firestone, and Mary Kimes. "B" team cheerleaders are Linda Biller, Carolyn Smith, and Vicki Kline.

New teams added to the schedule this year are Bremen, Bourbon and Nappanee.

OLDEST COMMITTEEMAN, COMMITTEEWOMAN RESIGN IN PROTEST MOVE

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hand, 311 So. Columbia st., Warsaw, who served the most years of any Republican precinct committeeman and -woman in the city of Warsaw, resigned during the summer in protest of their party's handling of the city election, it was learned this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hand have been precinct committeeman and -woman in the second precinct of the third ward since 1946 and have been ardent party workers in Warsaw.

The Hands have announced their support of Mayor Mike Hodges for re-election.

17.7% INCREASE IN BOND SALES

A. I. Nelson, chairman of the Kosciusko County U. S. Savings Bonds Committee, has received a report revealing that the County's Savings Bonds Sales for September were $67,331 compared with $110,487 for the corresponding period of last year. The state's sales for September were $11,769, 463. Last September's sales were $9,996,415 which gives an increase of 17.7 per cent over last year.

Sixty-one of the state's 92 counties reported sales gains for the month when compared with sales of September 1962.

SYRACUSE WSCS HOLD ALL DAY MEETING

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Syracuse Methodist church met Thursday, Oct. 17, in the church parlor.

The meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. William T. Jones, Jr., who gave a welcome and an explanation of self denial gifts.

Mrs. Merton Meredith gave the story of the week of prayer and self-denial. Devotions were given by Mrs. Manie Wesner. A discussion on "What Does Self-Denial Mean?" was presented by Mrs. Joe Bushong, chairman of the day's activities.

The noon-time prayer and grace were by Rev. J. Ross Richey.

The song leader led the group in singing "Jesus Called Us." The lunch hostesses were members of Circle four. After lunch the group sang "I Love To Tell The Story," then returned to the church parlor for the afternoon session.

Mrs. Jones presided. The leader, Mrs. Vernon Martin, summarized Matthew 5:8, "Blessed Are They Pure in Heart, For they Shall See God." "Dimension of Prayer" by Douglas Steere was given by Mrs. Ruth Rapp, a prayer by Mrs. Bushong and the reading of John 15 by Mrs. Martin ended the session. Rev. Richey gave the closing prayer.

OBITUARIES

J. W. Rothenberger Dies At 90 In Pierceton

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. today (Thursday) at Grace Lutheran church, Syracuse, for John William Rothenberger, 90. A Syracuse and North Webster resident most of his life, Mr. Rothenberger passed away at 4:30 a.m. Tuesday, Oct. 22, at the Kilgore nursing home in Pierceton.

Mr. Rothenberger suffered a stroke in January of 1961 and had been in failing health since that time. He was born in Kosciusko county on August 29, 1873, the son of the Rev. Daniel and Mary Jane (Mock) Rothenberger. His first wife, Myrtle M. Bushong preceded him in death in 1923 and his second wife, Lillian Thompson, whom he married in 1935, preceded him in death in 1949. He spent a number of winters in Florida.

Mr. Rothenberger was a funeral director in Syracuse from 1908 to 1919 at which time he went into the real estate business. He was a member of Grace Lutheran church, Syracuse, a 50-year member of the Masonic Lodge, Syracuse and a member of the Indiana Realtors association.

Survivors include one daughter, Miss Katherine, of r 2, Syracuse; one brother, Ira of North Webster; a sister Mrs. Amanda Risher of Pierceton; and a number of nieces and nephews.

The Rev. Carl H. Satre will officiate at services and burial will be in the New Salem cemetery.

Sylvester Inman

Last rites were read in the Harris-Troxel funeral home at North Webster Sunday, Oct. 20, for Sylvester Inman, 87, who died at one o'clock on the afternoon of Oct. 18 in the Kilgore nursing home. Rev. Jim Reffert of the Oswego Baptist church officiated and burial was in the Oswego cemetery.

Mr. Inman who had been a patient at the Kilgore nursing home since April of 1959, was born in Leesburg on March 23, 1876, to Sylvester and Mary (Kirkendall) Inman. He had lived in the Oswego community his entire life. He was single and a laborer by vocation.

He is survived by a nephew, Claude Barber, of Oswego.

Charles Marquardt

Word has been received of the death of Charles Marquardt, 66, of Paulding, Ohio. Mr. Marquardt died last Thursday morning in the Veterans' hospital at Fort Wayne.

A native of Paulding county, Ohio, Mr. Marquardt was born Jan. 26, 1897. He was married to Miss Bertha Kaiser of Milford and she preceded him in death 33 years ago. A veteran of World War I, Mr. Marquardt was a grain elevator operator and machinist in Paulding.

Survivors include four sisters, Mrs. Emma Davis and Mrs. Helen Reinhart, both of Paulding, and Mrs. Bertha Francis and Mrs. Blanche Albright, both of Fort Wayne.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon in the Crowell-DeHerdler funeral home in Paulding. Rev. Charles Whitman officiated and burial was in St. Paul's cemetery.

Lucille M. Simpson

Mrs. James M. (Lucille M.) Simpson, 66, of r 1 Ligonier, died early Sunday morning, Oct. 20, in Elkhart General hospital of a heart ailment.

Mrs. Simpson, a native of Noble county, was born Dec. 1, 1896, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hire. She married James M. Simpson Feb. 3, 1916. Mr. Simpson survives with the parents who reside at Lake Wawasee.

Other survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Charles Beck, Ligonier, and Mrs. Judson Spore of Sandusky, O.; two grandchildren; and two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Mentzer, Ligonier, and Mrs. Theron Wolf, Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Funeral services were held at the Ulrey-Sedgwick funeral home Tuesday at 3 p.m. Rev. Robert Carmin officiated. Burial was in Oak Park cemetery.

Shirley L. Kalb

Shirley L. Kalb, 62, of r 1 Kimball, father of Mrs. Ollie Schlotterback of Milford, died of complications at 3:15 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 16, in the McCray Memorial hospital at Kendallville. Mr. Kalb had been ill for the past three years but had only been a patient at the hospital for four days.

The deceased was born at Cromwell on March 31, 1901, to Edward and Lettie (Schlaubaugh) Kalb. He was married at Centerville, Mich., on Sept. 19, 1916, to Julia Kalb. He was a member of the Ligonier Eagles lodge and was a lifetime resident of Noble county.

Dewart Lake Resort Owner Dies Sunday P.M.

Jesse Crowl, 82, of Dewart Lake passed away Sunday at 3:30 p.m. in the Prairie View nursing home at Warsaw where he had been a patient since Aug. 22, 1963. He had been in failing health for six months.

Mr. Crowl was born April 27, 1881, at Dewart Lake, the son of Eli and Caroline (Carson) Crowl. He married Mary E. Mae Sharp of New Orleans, La., Dec. 8, 1947. Mr. Crowl had operated Crowl's landing at Dewart Lake since 1932.

Survivors include the widow; a sister, Mrs. Roy Pinkerton, and a brother, Alva Crowl, both of r 3 Syracuse.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. in the Mishler funeral home. Rev. Emery B. Jones and Rev. Howard J. Kreider officiated and burial was in the New Salem cemetery.

Mrs. Frank Gall

Funeral services for Mrs. Frank (Viola) Gall, 82, of r 1 Goshen, mother of Theodore (Bud) Gall of Kale Island, Lake Wawasee, will be held in the Mishler funeral home in Milford at 2 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 27.

Mrs. Gall died at 3 a.m. Wednesday in the Elkhart General hospital of a heart condition.

She was born in Kosciusko county on Nov. 22, 1881, to Frank and Elizabeth (Smith) Mitchell. She married Frank Gall on May 26, 1898. He preceded her in death on July 25, 1955. The deceased had lived all of her life in the Goshen and Nappanee communities. She was a member of the West Goshen Church of the Brethren.

Surviving besides the Syracuse son are another son, Thurlo of r r Wakarusa; two daughters, Mrs. Curtis (Edith) Stump of r 1 Goshen and Mrs. Joe (Kathryn) Bontrager of r 2 Silver Lake; one sister, Mrs. Due Calahan of Nappanee; 19 grandchildren and a number of great-grandchildren.

Friends may call from 7 to 9 p.m. Friday and from 2-5 and 7-9 p.m. Saturday at the funeral home.

Mrs. Elmer Gray

Funeral services were held in the Wells, Minn., Methodist church at 2 p.m. Friday for Mrs. Elmer (Amina Della) Gray, 83, mother of Mrs. William (Mabel) Martin of Milford.

Mrs. Gray died at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 15, in the Wells hospital. She had broken her hip on Oct. 13.

The deceased was born on Dec. 31, 1879, in Brush Creek township, Minn. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lewis and married Mr. Gray.

Survivors are three daughters, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Henry (Gladys) Bess and Mrs. Howard (Mildred) Hanson, both of Wells; one son, Ross, Wells; eight grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren. The husband, one son and one daughter preceded her in death.

Rev. A. R. Kottke officiated. Burial was in the Rosehill cemetery.

JUNIOR MOTHERS CLUB MEETS MONDAY

The Junior Mothers club of Syracuse met Monday, Oct. 21 at the home of Mrs. Robert Lafferty. There were two guests present, Mrs. Ron Silveus and Mrs. Carroll Koble.

Business included discussion on the club's responsibilities to the kindergarten. Mrs. E. E. Lindley, project chairman, reported contact with Miss Carol Hollingsworth on what the club can do for the kindergarten.

The new budget was presented and approved. The entertainment was a "Best Worst Dress Party" in which Mrs. George Walbridge was the winner. Mrs. James Hall had charge of the entertainment.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Lafferty, Mrs. Paul Moore and Mrs. Jay Peffey, hostesses. The next meeting will be November 4, at the home of Mrs. E. W. Hall. The guest speaker will be a member of the four county mental health clinic in Warsaw.
