SYRACUSE MAN HEADS CREDIT UNION

Douglas Yoder of Syracuse was elected to serve as president of the Indiana Credit Union League during a recent meeting at the Van Orman Hotel in Fort Wayne.

Others from the Lakeland area attending the annual meeting were Mrs. Yoder and daughter, Sally, and Robert Insley of Syracuse and Morris Wolfertman of Milford. The organization was celebrating its 30th anniversary.

A banquet was held at the Scottish Rite auditorium. Rabbi Dowfelt was the guest speaker and the United States Steel Orchestra and chorus provided the entertainment.

PYTHIAN SISTERS HEAR REPORT ON GRAND TEMPLE

Mrs. Zerola Zook gave a report from the Grand Temple at Indianapolis which she had attended recently at the regular meeting of Loyal Temple 130 Pythian Sisters held Wednesday at the lodge hall in Syracuse on Wednesday, Oct. 7. Miss Florence Moore was also a delegate.

Mrs. Nelson Hoover, MC, presided at the Wednesday evening meeting, and refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Arlie Brown and Mrs. Clarence Snyder.

Paved Roads This Year In Middle District

Last week a Mail-Journal reporter listed the miles of road paved this year by northern district commissioner Ray Ferverda. This week our reporter reviews the miles paved by middle district commissioner Frederick Gilliam.

The miles that Mr. Gilliam has had blacktopped are: 2 and one half miles on road 100 south from 400 west to 650 west; one mile Country Club road; one strip at the Bish Brown addition (Flagstone Terrace); one mile, 800 west, 125 north to state road 30; one mile on 850 west between 400 north and 300 north; 2 and one quarter miles re-cap on the Piercetown road. The remainder of his allotted nine miles was used in the Phillip Addition.

SYRACUSE WRC HOLDS INSPECTION

The Syracuse Women's Relief Corps, John C. Adams, chapter 178, met Monday evening, Oct. 7, at the Legion hall for regular meeting. The president, Mrs. Lee Poyser, presided and opened the meeting with the pledge to the flag.

Inspection was held, with Mrs. Wilma Carothers of Bremen, the inspecting officer. Other business was the discussion of the district meeting of the Women's Relief Corps held Thursday, at the Hex Grange hall, to which Syracuse was host.

There were 18 members and four guests, Trilla Niddaugh, Marie Garrett, Myra Geib and Myrtle Groves present, together with Mrs. Carothers. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostesses, Mrs. Orley Brown, Mrs. Clarence Snyder and Mrs. Zerola Zook.

SILVER THIMBLE CLUB HOLDS FOOD AUCTION

A food auction was held among the Silver Thimble club members at their October meeting at the home of Mrs. Arnold Doll on r 1 Milford Tuesday evening, Oct. 6.

A business meeting was held with the president, Mrs. Harlan Beer, presiding. The devotional leader, Mrs. Richard Kaiser, led the members in singing "When There is Love at Home". Names were drawn for the Christmas exchange.

Each member will bring a pair of pillow slips to the next meeting for Miss Clara Heininger and her underprivileged children in Alabama for Christmas gifts. Mrs. Bernard Beer will be the hostess.

Mrs. Doll and her assistant hostess, Mrs. Walter Steffen, served a Halloween dessert and coffee to the guests. Mrs. Lowell Rassi received a prize.

ROTARIANS HEAR PROGRAM ON SOUTHWEST

The guest speaker for the regular meeting of the Syracuse Rotary club held recently was Larry Cranfill of Indianapolis. Mr. Cranfill told of his experiences during a trip through southern California and into Mexico.

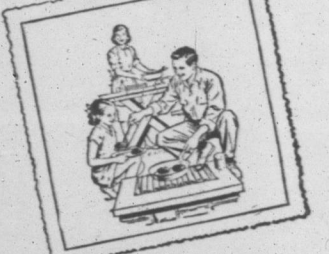

The trip was made for the purpose of collecting rare specimens of snakes and lizards. He said they supplied their own transportation (a four-wheel drive truck) to navigate the terrain in this section of the country, where it rains very little. He also presented color slides taken during the trip.

Rev. August Lundquist, newly appointed song leader for the Rotary, functioned in his capacity for the first time during the meeting.

MILFORD LIONS CLUB TO SEE FILM

The Milford Lions club will see the film "Mechanized Death" made by the Ohio state police at their meeting on Monday evening, Oct. 19. The film is on traffic accidents.
