Syracuse Yellow Jackets Poised For First Game Of Season At Pierceton

The Syracuse Yellow Jackets are ready for a really big season. And it starts Friday night at Pierceton when they will play the Pierceton Cubs.

While the Cubs are short of returning varsity and will be lame on bench strength, the Jackets begin the season with only three returning lettermen and reflect on their poor last season record of only three wins to 18 losses.

However, this doesn't deter the Jackets from having a bright outlook as they enter their season confident, and with a new coach, Charles McClure.

Returning to the Jackets' lineup are Bruce Cripe and Larry Jones, seniors, and John Longenbaugh, a junior.

The Yellow Jackets' schedule calls for nine home games and nine away. However, the Milford game, scheduled for Feb. 12 at Milford, will be played at Syracuse.
