Joint Holy Week Services To Be Held

The churches of the city will join in pre-Easter services beginning on Palm Sunday, April 11, under the sponsorship of the Ligonier Ministerial Association.

The Palm Sunday service will be held at the Presbyterian church at 7:30 p. m. Union services will continue at that church each night at the same time through Wednesday. "Prophesy of the Lord" from the Old Testament will form the central theme for the sermons.

Rev. C. R. Bitzer, of the E. U. B. church will preach the sermon on Sunday evening; Rev. Clinton Wasson of the Nazarene church, on Monday evening; Rev. Dewey Henry of county road 1000W, causing his truck to strike the right front of Martin's rig.

Ringler was pinned in the cab when a large slab of steel, weighing tons, came off of the bed and struck the cab. He was taken to the office of Dr. Robert Stone, Ligonier, and later admitted to Goshen General hospital.

The Church of Christ, Tuesday evening; and the Rev. Robert Carmin of the Methodist church, will be the Wednesday evening speaker.

Holy Communion will be held in the individual churches on Thursday evening.

Good Friday union services will be held in the Presbyterian church beginning at 1 p. m. The local pastors will participate in the two-hour services.

SUNRISE SERVICE TO BE HELD EASTER

The Ministerial Association of the city has planned an additional feature for Easter Sunday. A Sunrise Service will be held in the Methodist church at 6 a. m. with the Rev. William Simmons as guest speaker. After the worship service the Methodist men will serve a light breakfast in the social hall.

Martin suffered a compound fracture to his left ankle and abrasions to his left hand. He was admitted to McGary Memorial hospital at Kendallville.

There was $2,000 damage to the Martin tractor-trailer and $1,500 damage to the Ringler truck. A Mail Journal staff photo.

A free will offering will be taken for the breakfast. This service is for the community.

Noble Coaches To Continue Conference

Noble county coaches have decided to continue the Noble County Athletic Conference next year, although the West Noble high schools, Ligonier, Wawaka and Cromwell, will not play each other in basketball next year.

The all-sports trophy will be continued, with points in basketball to be based on county tournament play only. This means that Topeka and Shipshewana-Scott which were admitted to the NCAC last year, from LaGrange County, will be able to compete in the all-sports race.

Winner of the county basketball tournament will receive 12 points toward the all-sports trophy, with the runnerup getting nine points. The two semi-finals losers will each get six points, while the four first-round losers will get three points each.

How's Your Credit?

Consumer credit has become a dynamic force in our American economy. But, like a double-edged sword, it can cut a swath across the nation if improperly used.

On the plus side, consumer credit has virtually become a way of life — providing the means for many young families to acquire the material essentials needed for comfortable family living. On the negative side are the dangers of excessive credit. The question is how much debt can a typical family safely assume? Too often, the consumer is enticed into using credit when his present financial situation does not warrant it.

Coburn Credit Co., Inc., one of the leading consumer sales finance firms in the country, reveals that the personal bankruptcy rate in the U.S. runs 13,000 a week! While the increased purchasing power made possible by installment buying benefits the nation's economy as a whole—these individual credit casualties present a serious problem.

Bernard Korn, executive vice president of Coburn Credit, suggests the prospective borrower analyze his own credit standing in the same way that major credit firms and banks would do.

1. Does your employment record show job stability?
 2. Does your income fully meet current needs?
 3. Do you own your own home, or have a long record of renting in good neighborhoods?
 4. Do you have a savings and checking account, own property, and have life insurance coverage?
 5. Do you have a record of prompt repayment on past debts?
 6. Are you currently free from suit by existing creditors?
- Though these are not hard and fast guidelines, Korn admits, they are basic credit considerations, and they can help you in safely determining your own credit standing.

Six County Students Will Attend I. U. Demonstration Days April 2, 3, 9, & 10

There will be six students representing Kosciusko County at the annual Demonstration Days to be held at the Indiana University Medical Center in Indianapolis on April 2, 3, 9, and 10. These students are from Milford and will be attending on the 9th.

A total of 1,885 students from 145 Hoosier schools in 68 counties have made reservations to attend one of the four sessions, to be held on Friday afternoons and Saturday mornings on two successive weekends. The first Demonstration Day was planned three years ago to take the place of separate tours of the Medical Center by students interested in careers as physicians, dentists, nurses, or any of the allied health sciences. By organizing this special day it was possible to show in depth the activities involved in this kind of education, the scientific work in progress, and the future the student can reasonably expect in these various professions.

Last year two days were set aside for the program, and all Hoosier schools were invited to participate. More than 1300 students came, taxing the facilities and leading to the scheduling of four days for this year.

Each session will open with a general assembly when the students will be welcomed and a general explanation of the various programs will be given. The students then will be divided into small groups to view specific experiments and specific areas of interest. The session closes with another general assembly when questions from the floor will be answered.

Grooming and Posing

All dogs benefit from grooming. They need it for their appearance and health's sake. They also need it as a part of their discipline of growing up and being educated.

Dogs which are taught to stand for grooming, toenail clipping, eye cleaning, burr removal, and similar things, while young, learn at that time that they cannot growl or bite the person working on them.

Such dogs can be taken to the veterinarian for treatment with full knowledge that the dog will not make you ashamed of him by fighting or trying to bite. For example, if you've taught your dog to pose, as show dogs are, then your veterinarian can make a careful examination. Your dog's life could depend upon such an examination.

Puppies which have been weaned can be given baths if this becomes absolutely necessary. Use water at blood temperature—about 100 degrees—and dry the puppy thoroughly afterward. Then you should give him some play indoors to warm him up and to re-establish the heat blanket in his fur.

While you are grooming your puppy, do not neglect to check his teeth. Here again, you are training your dog to permit his mouth to be examined. This training may pay later dividends, for there will be times when you, the veterinarian, or the judge in a show will want to study the dog's mouth very closely.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ON Oral Vaccine

RALPH THORNBURG
Chairman, Turkey Creek Township

ROBERT BROWN
Chairman, Van Buren Township

received previous Salk polio shots?

In Syracuse people can pick up the pre-registration blanks from Dr. Clark, Dr. Craig, Dr. Fosbrink, Dr. Foder, or at the Burkholder Drug Store, Thornburg Drug Company, State Bank of Syracuse, Comolly's Grocery, Arnold's Grocery, and Klink's Market.

In Milford blanks can be picked up at Walter's Drug Store or the post office.

A complete series of two feedings of the new Trivalent vaccine is recommended regardless of any previous shots.

Q. Suppose all members of a family but one get the vaccine, is there a possibility that the person may become immunized from the others?

A. The person who did not take the vaccine might become immune through transmission from other members of the family—and this would of course be a beneficial effect. However, this procedure cannot be depended upon.

Q. Does this vaccine help to protect against all types of polio?

A. Yes, in Syracuse and Milford, we are fortunate in getting the new Trivalent vaccine. It contains a blend of the three strains of monovalent vaccine. It is taken by mouth and only two feedings are necessary for basic protection, instead of three.

Q. How many doses of the vaccine are needed?

A. Two doses spaced about eight weeks apart.

Where will this vaccine be obtained during the mass immunization program?

A. You may receive the vaccine at certain community centers which will be placed at strategic points throughout the county. Watch your newspaper and listen to the radio for further announcements on this.

Q. Can the vaccine be purchased anywhere and taken by individuals?

A. No. It is available only through doctors and recognized institutions like the County Health Department and hospitals.

Q. Why is it necessary to take the vaccine now, when we do not have any incidences of polio in this area?

A. The nation is enjoying relative freedom from polio right now, but it is well known that this disease comes and goes in waves. There is therefore no assurance that the present situation will continue. By the same token we do not have any cases of smallpox, yet we continue to be vaccinated against this disease. The principle is the same, and through this new oral vaccine, we hope to make polio as rare tomorrow as smallpox is today. Experts feel that it is better to conduct a program like this before an epidemic strikes rather than wait until it is here.

Q. What does the vaccine taste like?

A. It is a pleasant-flavored liquid, designed to appeal particularly to children, who are very susceptible to polio.

Q. Would an overdose of the vaccine be harmful?

A. No. In carefully controlled tests, measured overdoses of the vaccine have been given, with no harmful after-effects.

Q. Where can I obtain additional information or answers to other questions on oral polio vaccine?

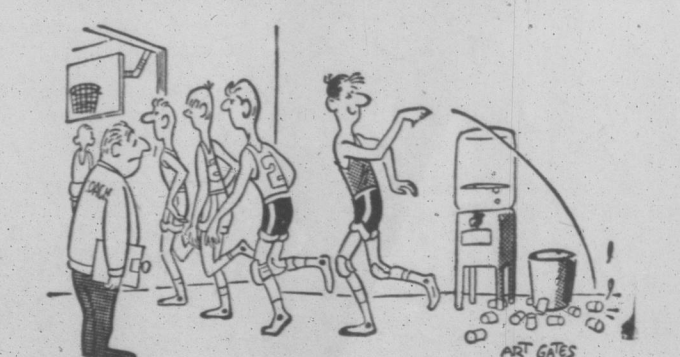

A. From your doctor, from the County Health Department, U. S. Public Health Service, or from a special office that has been set up for this program. In some locales a special telephone answering service may be set up to answer questions from the general public.
