SPORTSMANSHIP FORUM AT WAWASEE PREP

Gene Sullivan, the assistant Notre Dame basketball coach, and members of the Notre Dame team will participate in a school sportsmanship forum on Saturday, Oct. 5, at Wawasee Prep. Mr. Sullivan has been with coach Johnny Dee at Notre Dame for two years. Before joining the university staff, he coached at Loyola university for nine years.

The sportsmanship forum is part of a special interdisciplinary program at Wawasee Prep conducted each Saturday morning at 8:15. The ID program is designed to present the students ideas not treated in the classrooms or to tie together material from various courses. Programs already conducted this year include a discussion of the lyrics songs used in the movie the "Graduate" and a slide program of the buried city of Pompeii and the Roman Forum. The first program of the year was a discussion of the changing mood on college campuses and was conducted by three graduates of the school.

Lakeland Youth News

By Terry Auker and Ann Jensen

Again congratulations go to the mighty Wawasee Warriors. Your victory over Jimtown shows there's all action this year for the Warriors.

We realize now that Wawasee is a consolidated school you will be making rivals with other schools. We hope you will continue to make them, just in sports, and remember how much good sportsmanship means for the reputation of your school. Don't start fights at the games and the dances, it's always better to have a friend than an enemy.

The dance last week was a real big success with about 325 young people.

This week the dance band will feature "The Suns of Dawn" so we hope to see you all there and bring your friends too.
