

OBITUARIES

Louise M. Baker

Funeral services were held Tuesday for Louise M. Baker, 63, of North Webster. Mrs. Baker died of an apparent heart attack last Saturday at her home.

Mrs. Baker was born in Huntington April 16, 1910 and moved to North Webster in 1947. She was married April 16, 1939 to John C. Baker with whom she owned and operated Baker's Cafe in North Webster. Mrs. Baker was a member of the Redeemer Lutheran church in Warsaw.

Mrs. Baker is survived by her husband; one daughter, Mrs. Larry (Carolyn) Hemmer, Warsaw, and by three grandchildren. One sister, preceded her in death.

Burial was at North Webster cemetery after a service at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 1, led by Rev. B. G. Miller.

Mrs. Willard Miller

Mrs. Gertrude J. Miller, 77, 853 North Main street, Nappanee, mother of Mrs. Betty J. Searfoss, r 1 Milford, passed away Thursday at 10:40 a.m. in Elkhart hospital. She had been a patient for five days.

Mrs. Miller was burned severely May 5 when a sweater she was wearing caught fire while she was cooking, but according to authorities, the burns and her death apparently were unrelated.

Mrs. Miller was born in Marshall county on September 11, 1895 to Robert and Sarah (Lemler) Watkins and on June 2, 1923 she married Willard Miller, who survives.

Other survivors, in addition to the husband and daughter, are another daughter, Mrs. Helene L. Clayton, South Bend; two grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; a brother, George Watkins, Bourbon; two sisters, Mrs. Barbara Danner, Bourbon, and Mrs. Charles Miller, Nappanee; and one half sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, Etna Green.

Funeral services were held at the First Church of God where she was a member on Saturday at 2 p.m. Rev. James Geahlen officiated and burial was in Sandridge cemetery.

Cecil Lowry, Jr.

Funeral services were conducted at 3 p.m. Saturday for Cecil Lowry, Jr., 49, r 1 Warsaw, who passed away Wednesday at 9:45 p.m. at the Whitley County hospital, Columbia City. He had been a patient there for two days and death was due to complications following a three month illness. Rev. John Weeks officiated and interment was in the North Webster cemetery, Mock addition.

Mr. Lowry was born November 20, 1923 to Cecil H. and Nannie (Bergman) Lowry at Connersville. On December 21, 1953 he was united in marriage to Hilda W. Kron and she survives.

Surviving with the widow is the mother, Mrs. Cecil Lowry, Sr., North Webster; one daughter, Frances, at home; two sisters, Mrs. Lester (Helen) Williamson, Springfield, Ohio, and Mrs. Ruth West, Clearwater, Fla.; one brother, Ralph Lowry, Fort Wayne.

Mr. Lowry had been living in the North Webster community for the past seven years and was employed as a carrier and microwave supervisor at the United Telephone company, Warsaw. He attended the North Webster United Methodist church, was a veteran of World War II and the Korean conflict and a member of the American Legion Post 49, Warsaw.

Johnny Waddell

Funeral services for Johnny Dwayne Waddell, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oshie Thomas Waddell, r 1 Leesburg, were conducted at 10 a.m. Friday with Rev. Chester Reed officiating. Interment was in the North Webster cemetery, Mock addition.

Johnny was one of three persons killed in an automobile accident Tuesday, May 8. He was pronounced dead on arrival at the Parkview Memorial hospital in Fort Wayne at 10 p.m.

Johnny was born on October 2, 1965 to Oshie Thomas and Margaret (Carpenter) Waddell at Portsmouth, Ohio. He was a first grade student at the Leesburg school.

Surviving with the parents are two sisters, Kimberly Jean and Sandra Jane, and one brother, Oshie, Jr., all at home; maternal grandmother, Mrs. Minnie Abdom, Portsmouth, Ohio; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Waddell, Wheelersburg, Ohio; and paternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Lucy Waddell, Flatwoods, Ky.

Brett C. Miller

Brett Christopher Miller, infant son of Lynn E. and Linda (Haney) Miller, 315 South Seventh St., Goshen, was stillborn Monday at 2:21 p.m. at the Goshen hospital. He was the great-grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John Gardner of Milford.

Surviving with the parents and maternal great-grandparents is one brother, Robert Paul, at home; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haney of Goshen; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller of Goshen; paternal great-grandmothers, Mrs. Frona Miller of Goshen and Mrs. Vada Kowarch of Culver.

Funeral services were conducted at 10 a.m. Wednesday (today) with Dr. Nevin H. Zuck officiating. Interment was in the Violet cemetery.
