

EMERY DRUCKAMILLER

Former Syracuse resident Emery Druckamiller honored

Emery Druckamiller, a former Syracuse resident and an outstanding athlete for Syracuse high school, was honored last Saturday during halftime ceremonies at the Indiana-Ohio State university game. Druckamiller, now of Angola, was named a Big Ten second baseman.

Druckamiller won his first letter in baseball at IU in 1923. He led the IU team to the conference championship in 1925 and was team captain in 1925. He was named a Big Ten second baseman.

Druckamiller was also an outstanding basketball player at IU, serving as sixth man during his freshman year.

When Druckamiller played with the Syracuse high school basketball team he was named to the all-state team in 1921. He is the only player from Kosciusko county to be so named.

After graduating from Indiana university, Druckamiller returned to Syracuse where he coached for two years. He then went to Angola where he has served as coach and athletic director. He also coached at Tri-State. He is now retired.
