CAMPBELL PICK-UP TRUCK IN ACCIDENT

Two injured in 2-car-truck accident late Friday night

Two cars and a pickup truck were involved in an accident at 11:09 p.m. Friday on the Milford-Syracuse Road near the Dan Beer farm home.

Jeffrey A. Campbell, 22, of Milford, was driving east on the country road in his 1972 Chevrolet truck when his truck slid on the ice, went over a three and one-half foot embankment and struck a tree on the south side of the road. With Campbell was Rose Pamer, 18, also of Milford.

The truck was "totaled," and both occupants were taken to the Goshen Hospital in the Syracuse EMS ambulance. Campbell suffered lacerations to his right knee and Miss Pamer suffered facial, scalp and hip lacerations and a sprained right hip.

Robert W. Wright, 40, also of Milford, westbound in a 1970 Chevelle, recognized the Campbell truck and stopped to offer assistance.

Wright was out of his car when another car, a 1976 Chevrolet coupe driven by Donald D. Bice, Jr., 22, also of Milford, westbound and not realizing the Wright car had stopped, slammed into the Wright vehicle.

There were no personal injuries resulting from the impact of the two cars, but the Wright car had damages to its rear bumper under $200, while damages to the Bice car was estimated to be from $200 to $1,000 to the right front fender.

The triple-vehicle accident was investigated by deputy sheriff Tom Brindle and Milford night marshal Rich Schnieders.
