Umbaugh re-elected to state chamber

Mike Umbaugh, president of Barth, Inc., Milford, was re-elected as director during the Indiana Chamber of Commerce annual meeting recently in the Indiana Convention Center. He was among 35 directors re-elected and 22 new directors.

Jess F. Helsel, president of Helsel Metallurgical, Inc., Campbellsburg, was elected as chairman of the board of directors.

The luncheon speaker was Ian

M. Rolland, Fort Wayne, head of one of Indiana's largest home-based enterprises. The president of Lincoln National Corporation addressed some 1,000 business and civic leaders and local and state officials on the subject, "Indiana Business: Stepping Out of the Shadows."

3 accidents investigated

Three accidents were investigated by Syracuse Police last week, with one of the incidents resulting in the arrest of a Milford man.

Horacio Hernandez, 24, P. O. Box 565, Milford, was arrested at 3:40 p.m. Friday and charged with driving without insurance. The arrest was made after his vehicle collided with a 1984 Ford Escort, owned by Carey L. Crews, 19, r 3 box 589, Syracuse.

Hernandez attempted to back from the Dunnico Inc. parking lot, Palm Drive, when he collided with the Crews vehicle, which was also parked in the lot.

Up to $1,000 damage was caused to the Crews vehicle, while the 1978 Dodge Colt Hernandez was driving suffered up to $200 in damages.

Up to $1,000 in damages was caused to a 1970 Chevrolet truck, driven by DeWayne E. Boger, 17, r 2 box 364, Syracuse, and a 1984 Dodge truck, driven by Shirley A. Hapner, 50, r 4 box 31, Syracuse, in a 3:25 p.m. mishap.

Hapner was traveling south on Huntington Street when she collided with the Boger vehicle, which had entered her path while turning from Pittsburgh Street.

Slippery street conditions contributed to a rear-end collision on SR 13 at 3:52 p.m.

Joseph C. Hill, 25, r 7 lot 7, Green Acres, Warsaw, was traveling south on SR 13 when he slid into a 1986 Dodge, driven by Joyce E. Peterson, 60, r 3 box 385, Syracuse, as it awaited a stop light at the Pickwick Street intersection.

Up to $200 in damages was caused to the Peterson vehicle and the 1970 Chevrolet Monte Carlo driven by Hill.

photographer for the celebration.

Moser stated he will be taking aerial photos of the area for the museum, as well as photos at the various events. He was given permission to use the sesquicentennial logo in stating his business was the official photographer.

Neat Completion

Col. Joe Gray announced the brochure has been printed and should be ready this week, promising to get the advertisers' copies to them by Christmas. Col. Gray stated the remaining 5,000 copies will be available for sale around Memorial Day. The copies will sell for $2 each, and Col. Gray remarked if the comment's he has heard already are any indication, the brochures will sell easily.

Col. Gray and Mrs. Patterson announced the news items submitted needed to be cut drastically, due to limited space, however, the original items will be kept and possibly used by The Mail-Journal in a special publication.

Col. Gray mentioned all but approximately $125 of the publishing costs were covered by ads. He stated this was due to an additional four pages being added to keep from leaving out articles.

Parades

Mrs. Patterson announced the parade committee met in October. The main parade, on Saturday, July 11, and the kiddie parade, on Wednesday, July 8, were extensively discussed.

Concerning the main parade, names and addresses of possible parade entries are to be turned into Mrs. Patterson by Monday, Dec. 1, so that a mailing list can be compiled by J.A. Business and entries can be mailed by the first of the year. She announced several ads will be purchased prior to the entry deadline seeking entries from anyone interested but not previously contacted.

It was noted a minimum of four judges will be sought. Bill Beemer, chairman, announced Chris Schenkel has offered to be the master of ceremonies for the parade. Complete rules and entry forms will be available at a later date.

The route for the kiddie parade will be Lakeside Park to the Civil Defense Building on Dolan Drive and open to those 18 years of age or under. The parade will be at 7 p.m. with participants assembling at the park no later than 6 p.m. for check in at the gazebo. Judging of the entries will be during the parade, with prizes being distributed one-half hour after the parade at the check-point.

The parade committee decided to give every entry an award, with trophies being presented to the first place entry in each of the following categories: motorized or mechanized conveyances, cars and boats.
