The county commissioners meet in regular session Monday.

Edgar Sciscoe has returned from a visit with relatives at Peerless.

It is generally customary with a town when any one of its citizens is at stake on any public matter or otherwise, for the entire town to stand by him, regardless of political prejudices.

anyone might have. Don't you think it would be appropriate for Smithville to stand by Ralph Carter, Nov. 3rd.

Mrs. A. A. Burris and Mrs. Dudley spent Wednesday with Mrs. George Davenport.

Geo. Tanksley who recently moved into the Mrs. Caze property, has opened up a shoe repairing shop.

The telephone service at Harrodsburg has been greatly improved by the addition of Miss Sena Barrett to the operating force.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS—Please get your copy in by Wednesday morning, to get in Friday's paper. This is important with us.

Mrs. Ethel Bennett, who has been visiting relatives here for several weeks, has returned to her home in LaFayette. Miss Mary Bennett accompanied her home.

Don't neglect when purchasing from our advertisers, to mention the News. It proves to our advertisers that their appeal through this paper is being noticed.

Let it be recorded that the first frost was on the morning of Sept. 30th. Paw-paws, chestnuts and persimmons are now in style. Date your girl for Chapel Hill right away.

There is yet to be selected by both parties in this township three men on each side to fill the tickets with advisory boards. This position is not a very high salaried one, $10 per year, and it is supposed that there will be a number of candidates.

Republicans to be with us Next Friday.

M. F. Poling, candidate for representative of Brown and Monroe, who is the opponent to John G. Harris, of Bloomington, and John H. Harris for prosecutor of Lawrence and Monroe, together with the county candidates, will speak in the K. of P. hall Oct. 9. The band will play and all are invited to come out and hear the issues by these able speakers.

Our new M. E. pastor, Rev. C. L. Bair, preached his first sermon here Sunday.

Tom Crafton, of Fountain Co., is visiting his brother Henry Crafton, east of town.

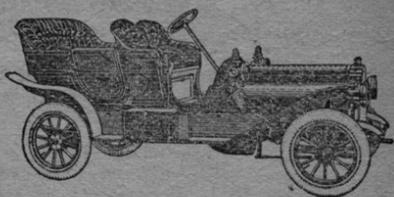

The drought has been broken, but there has not been enough rain, to do much good.

From the daily papers the local political situation seems to be between (Bradford) Chaney and Cullop.

Edgar Butcher and mother returned home last Thursday after a weeks visit with Abner Scott, at Oakland Ill.

The Mason picnic at Stanford, Tuesday was a very enjoyable occasion, excepting that it was most too cool. L. D. Rogers, of the Citizens Loan and Trust Co., spoke in the forenoon, and Wesley Oldham, of Smithville, and M. L. Borden, of the Bloomington post office force, made some interesting speeches on the history of the lodge and its origin. Mr. Whaley was master of ceremonies. The Smithville band furnished the music. There was a ball in the afternoon, and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves, especially the dinner.
