Don't be uneasy about the NEWS. The management isn't.

Luther Brinegar has filed suit for absolute divorce against Myrtle Brinegar.

Lovell Bowers and Homer Utterback are counting the minutes to Nov. 10th, when the quail season will be open, so they can try their bird dogs. They have some fine dogs.

The viewers for the change in the Adams cinder pike, was over the road Wednesday. Just what their report will be is a matter of conjecture, but one thing is sure that the road is getting in a very dangerous condition.

If Harrodsburg is going to keep up its reputation in voting in the interest of Harrodsburg, it will be unanimous for Carter for trustee. With his interest there in the telephone system, would also make him especially interested in the welfare of that place.

The critters eye is soft. All the talking, reading and political argument would be a waste of time at this time. Most everyone has their minds made up how they are going to vote, and nothing goes but to have a good time and settle the question, the sooner the better, is the way it appeared in Bloomington, Thursday.

It doesn't look like the Clear Creek boys altogether depend on the telephones to 'love' their Bloomington sweethearts, from the speed they were making through Smithville, last Sunday, toward the chestnut hills. Johnny B. said it took him and his Pa both to see them. Likely it will be the 'hello girls' next, if it is agreeable with the chief.

A Political Joke.

A certain candidate hereabouts approached a man and wanting to find out how he stood on the political question, asked him what he thought about Bryan, he said, "Oh, Bryan is a fine man and no doubt will make a good president, if he is elected." "Well what about Taft?" "Well Taft is a great man, and would make a good president if he was elected." "Well, who do you think has the best show?" Oh, Ringling Bros. has the best show."

What One Democrat Thinks

Henry Huff, who is a staunch democrat, and has been, up to about 18 months ago, capable of earning $2.50 to $3.00 per day and had two good hands and arms to use, when by an unfortunate move, while working at the Ketcham mill, got one of his arms torn off at the elbow by a cog wheel. He now has to depend on some lighter labor and is unable to earn the wages he could if he had his other hand. As Ralph Carter handed him one of his cards the other day, he raised the stub of his arm and said, "Well I will tell you, I am a democrat and always vote the ticket, but you see that arm? I think that any one who wouldn't vote for me or you wouldn't be much of a man."

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Walls, went to Bedford, Wednesday.

"Andy Stull will go to Mt. Ebal to-night." Wonder why he likes to go in that direction well?

Mrs. Nancy Leonard has returned from Minden, Neb., after a pleasant visit with the Tarkington family.

It has been decided that township advisory boards are not to be elected the coming election.

Mrs. Louisa Leonard has returned to her home in Bloomington, after a few days visit with her brother, Silas Grimes.

Judge Wilson, Henley and the county candidates spoke at Sanders last Saturday night to a large and enthusiastic audience.

Homer Utterback and Perry Taylor, went up to Bloomington last night to see "Under Southern Skies." They pronounce it good.

Nothing wrong can be said of Mr. Taft personally. He is a fine gentleman, a honest man and comes from a good old aristocratic family.—Bloomington Star.

The people that ordered tailor made suits from a stranger a week or so ago, has never turned up with the goods yet. Each one was required to put up $9.00 in cash, in advance, which probably accounts for the delay. It pays better to patronize home merchants after all.

The drought still continues. Water supply is getting shorter every day. Forest fires are raging all around the quarries and in the Handy neighborhood, and there is no water to fight the flames with. The farmers mass together and fight the flames day and night to save their property. The weather reports are promising rain soon, but there is little indication up to the present time.
