CURE

DREADFUL DANDRUFF.

Girl's Head Emaciated—Feared Loss of All Her Hair—Baby Had Milk Crust—Missionary's Wife Made Perfect Cures by Cuticura.
"For several years my husband was a missionary in the Southwest. Every one in that high and dry atmosphere has more or less trouble with dandruff and my daughter's scalp became so encrusted with it that I was alarmed for fear she would lose all her hair. After trying various remedies, in desperation I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. They left the scalp beautifully clean and free from dandruff and I am happy to say that the Cuticura Remedies were a complete success. I have also used successfully the Cuticura Remedies for so-called 'milk-crust' on baby's head. Cuticura is a blessing. Mrs. J. A. Darling, 310 Fifth St., Carthage, Ohio, Jan. 20, 1908."

An Unburied Picture.
Rossetti secured permission in 1863 to reopen the coffin of his wife in order to secure the manuscripts of some poems which he had buried with her seven years before.

Some such incident might have occurred in connection with J. M. V. Turner if his desire to be buried wrapped up in his own painting of "Carthage" had been carried out. There was some difficulty in selling the painting, and the artist kept the canvas by him. He always said he would be wrapped in it when he was buried and even went so far as to ask Chantrey if as his executor he would fulfill his wishes on that point.

"No doubt," answered the sculptor. "I shall bury you rolled up in your picture if it is one of the conditions of your will, but I would take you up next day and unroll you!"

PATIENT SUFFERING.

Many Women Think They Are Doomed to Backache.

It is not right for women to be always ailing with backache, urinary ills, headache and other symptoms of kidney disease. There is a way to end these troubles—quickly. Mrs. John H. Wright, 606 East First St., Mitchell, S. D., says: "I suffered ten years with kidney complaint, and a doctor told me I would never get more than temporary relief. A dragging pain and lameness in my back almost disabled me. Dizzy spells came and went and the kidney secretions were irregular. Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of these troubles and I feel better than for years past."

Bees and Their Baskets.

Every bee carries his market basket around his hind legs. Any one examining the baby of a bee through a microscope will observe that on the hind legs of the creature there is a fringe of stiff hairs on the surface, the hairs approaching each other at the tips, so as to form a sort of cage. This is the bee's basket, and into it, after a successful journey, he will cram enough pollen to last him for two or three days.

Such Is Fame.

The Washington man had taken his visiting friend up into the congressional gallery and was showing him how the House of Representatives looks when in session.

"That man who has just taken his seat," he said, "is Champ Clark, leader of the minority."

"A stamp clerk, and leader of the minority?" said the astonished visitor. "Gee! What's his name?"—Chicago Tribune.

How's That, Fellows?

Ten or twelve years ago, when a girl got married, she left such a debt for wedding clothes and expenses that it ordinarily took the family six years to recover from it. Fathers should take off their hats to the modern girl. She earns the money to buy her own wedding outfit and in many cases has a little left to help buy things for her new house. The modern girl is more of an improvement over the young woman of twenty years ago than the modern young man is over the young man of that time.

WHY NOT OWN LAND?

One of the Best Ways to Make Money is to Invest in Western Canada.
"Deep down in the nature of every properly constituted man is the desire to own some land." A writer in the Iowa State Register thus tersely expresses a well-known truth. The question is, Where is the best land to be had at the lowest prices? and this the same writer points out in the same article. The fact is not disguised that the writer has a personal interest in the statement of his case, and there is no hidden meaning when he refers to Western Canada as presenting greater possibilities than any other part of the American Continent to the man who is inclined to till the soil for a livelihood and possible competence. What interests one are the arguments advanced by this writer, and when fairly analyzed the conclusion is reached that no matter what personal interest the writer may have had his reasons appear to have the quality of great soundness. The climatic conditions of Western Canada are fully as good as those of Minnesota, the Dakotas or Iowa, the productiveness of the soil is as great, the social conditions are on a parity, the laws are as well established and as carefully observed. In addition to these the price of land is much less, easier to secure. So, with these advantages, why shouldn't this—the offer of Western Canada—be embraced? The hundreds of thousands of settlers now there, whose homes were originally in the United States, appear to be—are satisfied. Once in a while complaints are heard, but the Canadians have never spoken of the country as an Eldorado, no matter what they may have thought. The writer happened to have at hand a few letters, written by former residents of the United States, from which one or two extracts are submitted. These go to prove that the writer in the Register has a good basis of fact in support of his statements regarding the excellency of the grain growing area of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Alberta. On the 29th of April of this year W. R. Conley, of Loughheed, Alberta, wrote to a friend in Detroit. He says: "The weather has been just fine ever since I came here in March, and I believe one could find, if he wanted to, some small bunches of snow around the edge of the lake. There is a frost nearly every morning; at sunrise it begins to fade away, then those blue flowers open and look as fresh as if there had been no frost for a week. . . . There is no reason why this country should not become a garden of Eden; the wealth is in the ground and only needs a little encouragement from the government to induce capital in here. There is everything here to build with—good clay for brick, coal underneath, plenty of water in the spring lakes, and good springs coming out of the banks."

Unaccountable Mistake.
All was quiet in the sleeping car. Suddenly the passenger in lower No. 7 parted the curtains, thrust out a weather-beaten face, and hailed the sable functionary who was tiptoeing past.
"Say," he grumbled, "where's the pillers for this bunk?"
"There are your pillows, suh," said the porter.

"Them things!" exclaimed the passenger. "Smash my topknots! I thought them was the life preservers!"—Chicago Tribune.

Her Kick.
"I don't mind finding a gray hair or two in my own hair," sighed the bachelor girl, who shows some few signs of the mere and yellow leaf, "but when I pay $3 for a nice bunch of lovely brown curls and have to pick them out of those, too, it isn't fair. Do you think it is?"

They Did Not Need to Work.
A stout, splendidly "robbed" woman sat talking to a friend. Her husband had just come into a considerable fortune, and, like many other Americans, had begun farming in an amateur way. In their case, however, it mattered little whether crops were good or bad. A writer in Harper's Monthly tells the story.

"Yes," the lady remarked, "since John's uncle died we have a nice country house, horses, cows, pigs, hens, and—"

"That must be charming," broke in the other. "You can have all the fresh eggs you want every day."

"Oh, well," hastily interrupted the first speaker, "of course the hens can lay if they like to, but in our position it isn't at all necessary."
