Chapel have been changed. Services will now be held at ten thirty a. m. and seven p. m.

The report in the Goshen Times of the shooting of a deer in Elkhart county, was read by Wawasee citizens with a pang of regret for it is supposed to be the death knell of "Fanny" the neighborhood pet.
About seven or eight years ago Freeman Moore, returning from a trip through Montana brought with him a pair of young deer. He erected a fine large park for them on his farm between Cromwell and Wawasee and the flock grew until it numbered eight. Over a year ago all but "Fanny" the old mother doe died. Mr. Moore could not ascertain the real cause of their deaths but supposed it was due to smut on the corn which they ate. "Fanny," left alone, was not contented in the park and persisted in getting out and wandering at will over the neighborhood. Most of the spring and summer she spent at Crow's Nest, Wawasee where she was allowed all the petting, feeding and liberty she liked and which best of all was near the lake. When frightened she would leap into the lake and swim so far out her body hardly be seen. When the danger was past she would swim back to shore and begin cropping grass with her favorite companion, the old Jersey cow. She was last seen about Thanksgiving day. Mr. Moore instituted a search for the missing deer which was unsuccessful and it supposed the doe killed several days ago was our neighborhood pet.

(Too late for last week).

Mortuary.

John Coy was born in Elkhart county, Ind., Aug. 21, 1838, died at his home in Syracuse, Ind., Jan. 12, 1909, aged 70 years, 4 months and 21 days. The steamer relatives of life were early experienced by the deceased. His mother died when he was but a boy—the home broken up and he went to live with an uncle.

On Jan. 25, 1863, he was married to Miss Catherine Whistler, and to this union was born one child, Mrs.
Ida Medlam.

On Sept. 27, 1864 he was enrolled as a member of the 29th Ind. Inf. and went to the front in defense of his country. He received an honorable discharge June 21, 1865 and returned to his home.

Just at what time Bro. Coy enrolled as a member of the army of the Lord is not known to the writer but for the last 19 years he has been a member of the M. E. church.

In the death of brother Coy the church has lost an earnest worker and Syracuse a noble citizen and as brothers in church and arms we say:

"Soldier rest, thy warfare o'er Sleep the sleep that knows no jeering Dream of battle fields no mote."

Ship Houses to Italy.

Secretary Newberry of the navy is completing as fast as possible the general administration program for sending building material to Italy for the construction of a large number of small houses to shelter earthquake sufferers. All red tape has been waived so that vessels may be sent off at the earliest possible moment with their loads of material.

The first vessel to be loaded will be the Eva. It is estimated that she will hold enough material for about 500 houses. In addition to building material the Eva will carry four or five boss carpenters and an Italian carpenter interpreter, who will have charge of construction gangs. In addition to the Eva four or five other vessels will be chartered as the government intends to send enough material for about 3000 houses.
