

Opportunity.

They do me wrong who say I come no more. When once I know and fail to find you in; For every day I stand outside your door And bid you wake and rise to fight and win.

Wail not for precious chances past away, Weep not for Golden Ages on the wave; Each night I burn the records of the day; At sunrise every soul is born again.

Laugh like a boy at splendors that have sped, To vanished joys be blind and deaf, and dumb.

My judgements seal the dead past with its dead, But never bind a moment yet to come.

Tho' deep in mire ring not your hands and weep; I lend my arm to all who say "I Can!"

No shame-faced outcast ever sank so deep But yet might rise and be again a man!

Dost thou behold thy lost youth all agast?

Dost reel from righteous retribution's blow?

Then turn from blotted archives of the past

And find the future pages white as snow.

Art thou a mourner? Rouse thee from the spell!

Art thou a sinner? Sins may be forgiven!

Each morning gives thee wings to flee from hell.

Each night a star to guide thy feet to Heaven.

J. M. Ott and wife and Wilson Ott and family spent last week at the Snively cottage on Kale Island. Tommy tells us a fish story that is a good one. A party at the Pret Miles cottage made a triple catch one day last week. They noticed a large pike near the shore which was nearly choked to death from trying to swallow a bass. They threw them out on the shore with a boat oar and upon weighing found that the pike tipped the scales at 18½ lbs. The bass weighed two pounds and when examined it was found to have met a death similar to the pike, having tried to swallow a half pound perch.

Hearst, who was never considered strong enough to secure a place on the Democratic national ticket and who lost the mayoralty of New York city to McClelland, may get some satisfaction from the fact that his party will be recognized by at least one state.

Returns from the gubernatorial election in Vermont give Geo. H. Prouty, the Republicans' candidate, a plurality of 29,818 over the Democratic candidate, James E. Burke. The Independence party launched by W. R. Hearst, recently showed some strength, taking third place, thereby securing a regular place on the state ballot in subsequent elections.

The Big Stone exhibited in the window of F. L. Hoch's drugstore from Sept. 1 to Sept. 15, 1908, is for advertising purposes. You may register one free guess at J. W. Rothenberger's office over the bank, as to the weight of this stone. To the person successful in guessing nearest the exact weight of the stone, will be given a $25.00 purchase coupon, and for the next nearest guess a $15.00 purchase coupon, which may be applied on the purchase of any new piano, piano player or player piano. If you do not need a piano, sell your coupon to a neighbor or friend who does wish to buy. It costs you nothing to guess. Children under fifteen years of age will not be allowed to guess. These coupons must be applied on a purchase during the month of September. I positively guarantee that prices have not been raised to cover these prizes and that any purchaser during this month will receive a real reduction. Come in and get acquainted.—J. W. Rothenberger, Syracuse, Ind.

Business Changes.

The Miller Brothers of Claypool, arrived Tuesday evening with their household goods and are now occupying the rooms recently vacated by John Peterson and wife and the brick house on Washington street.

The Kitson hardware stock will be invoiced this week and the new proprietors will no doubt be in full charge next week.

We feel that Syracuse is the winner by these people moving into our midst and we extend to them a hearty welcome.

Another change was the sale of the Geo. F. Weyrich general merchandise store to Mr. J. E. Taylor of Fremont, Ind., who expects to be in full charge next week. Mr. Taylor returned home Tuesday to close up his affairs at that place preparatory to moving here.

Ben Hoopingarner conducted the deal, exchanging a farm at Dunlaps for the merchandise stock.

Prohibition Convention.

The township convention of the Prohibition party was held Saturday evening at the electric light company's office.

D. E. Deeter was chosen chairman and J. W. Kitson, secretary. The nominations were as follows:

For township trustee, Henry Shock; for township assessor Dennis Kelly.

These nominations were made after some general discussion, and the spirit for future success was manifest.

After some arrangements for township work the meeting adjourned. We ask all temperance voters to unite with us and elect these good men.

J. W. Kitson, Secy.

D. E. Deeter, Chmn.

Hess Reunion.

The eighth annual assembly of the Hess Association was held at the old homestead, now the home of Mrs. P. H. Fetters, two miles south of Goshen, last Thursday, Aug. 27.

This place was settled in 1828. Forty years ago the land was sold to a hydraulic company of Goshen, having been ruined by back water, from the Goshen dam.

There were 125 persons present and a splendid time was had. The officers elected were E. W. Hess, Argos, president; Mrs. Mary McDonald, Warsaw, secretary; J. R. Hess, treasurer.

The next assembly will be held at Winona next year, the last Thursday in August.

Township Convention.

The Sunday school convention of Benton township will be held at the Lutheran church at Benton, Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 19 and 20. The first meeting will be held Saturday evening, with a nice program. On Sunday at 1:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. services will be held to which everyone is most welcome.

Can Hunt Anywhere.

There appears to be a misunderstanding regarding the hunting license issued by the state of Indiana. Licenses issued in any county in the state are good in any other county in the state, or in other words a permit granted in Kosciusko county is good in Fulton, Whitley, St. Joseph, Elkhart, or any other county in the state.

Will Miller, living down by the saw mill, showed us a radish that was a whopper. He grew it in his garden and it weighed 9½ pounds.

K. P. members are urgently requested to be present next Wednesday night at 7:30. If you are not there, you will miss a good speech.

Services at the Church of God Sunday: Sabbath School as usual; preaching at 11 a. m.; an ordinance meeting in the evening after church. Everybody is welcome to these meetings.

L. N. Kitson is making quite an improvement on his Main street residence by the building of a cement porch. Andy Rarick, the cement man, is doing the cement work, with Warren Rentfrow and Chas. Nine on the carpentry.

- SHOES -

We have just enlarged our shoe department and are better prepared than ever before to supply the wants of the entire family in this line. Quality and Style have influenced us more than price in making our selections for fall and winter and we still adhere to our old motto, "If they are not right we make you satisfied."

Walk-Over Walk-Over Walk-Over

For Men's Dress Shoes

We have the "Walk-Over" in many Styles and all the good leathers, including patents, vici calf, kid, and gun metal.

Chrome tanned elk work shoes are always soft and are the best wearers.

$2.50 and $3.50

Try our Ox Calf for $2.00. Sold a lot and never had a complaint.

For Boys

We have greatly strengthened our line—got some new ones: Endicott, Johnson tan their own leather, make the shoes and sell direct to the retailer. We bought one—it's Elkskin upper and "Chromelk" sole—a new thing in sole leather and will stand the wear.

Look at them.
