Donald Adams, aged fifteen years made the trip with the wire-walker, Davenport, at the Bluffton Fair, across a street on a wire. The lad clung to the man's back, and aside from slipping a little a few times, the trip was made without any trouble. The mother of the boy was present, but did not know of his venture until the pair were out half way across the street. The boy had the nerve for the hair-raising stunt, but he no doubt wondered what he would do when his mother got a hold on him.

MORGAN-KETRING NUPTIALS.

On Wednesday, October 7th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. L.
Ketring, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Jessie Marie, to Bennet Bostwick Morgan, of Chesterton, Ind.

After the guests had assembled the bride and groom unattended entered the west door of the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March played by Miss Blanche Ketring, and took their places under a bower of southern smilax, when the pretty ring ceremony of the Methodist Episcopal church was performed by Rev. A. L. Weaver.

The wedding ring was carried in a bride's rose by the little niece of the bride, Frances Helen Miller.
The room was tastefully decorated with trailing vines and many cluster-bouquets of bride's roses. Immediately after the ceremony congratulations were offered.

The bride looked sweetly pretty in a white lingerie gown of pri-cess style and carried a shower boquet of lilies of the valley and maiden hair fern with streamers of tulle.
Her traveling-suit was of navy blue with a picture hat of blue velvet.

Mr. Morgan is a son of Mrs. Margaret Morgan of Chesterton. He is a graduate of DePauw University, and a member of the Sigma Ki fraternity. He is now engaged in the insurance business.

The bride is one of the most universally popular young ladies of Syracuse, having grown up here and graduated from the Syracuse high school. She has always been held in the highest esteem in this community.

The five course wedding dinner was served by the competent caterers, Mrs. Alda Collier of Ligonier at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.
H. Miller, the latter a sister of the bride. The house and table decorations were carried out in pink and green and heart shaped viands were evident in each course.

On last Thursday a linen shower was given the coming bride by a number of her friends at the home of Mrs. C. J. Reilly, and on Monday evening at the home of Miss Mabel Hillabold the bride's girl friends showered her with miscelaneous gifts.

The father's gift to the bride was a certificate of four shares of stock in the State Bank of Syracuse and a check for $100. The groom's mother presented the bride with a deed for two town lots in Chesterton.

Very secretly had the newly-wed planned their going away, but there were wiser heads than they, for the arrival of an auto from Goshen had aroused suspicion and they were very closely watched lest they escape "unnoticed." Several times the baggage was taken from the auto, but the chauffeur succeeded in regaining it and at four o'clock mid showers of rice and happy farewells they swiftly sped away toward Goshen from where they expected to leave on the Lake Shore for the East. They will be at home in Chesterton after October 25th.

The guests from Chesterton were Mrs. Margaret Morgan, Miss Sarah
Morgan, and Mr. and Mrs. E. L.
Morgan and daughter Eleanor. The guests from town were the immediate members of the family, Rev.
A. L. Weaver and wife, and Ethel Kitson and Garfield Walker.

Grays Close Season.

The Grays went to Cromwell Sunday and were defeated by the Senecas by the score of 3 to 3. The showed their lack of practice both in the field and at the bat.

The boys have not had a very successful season as far as winning is concerned, but financially the team has done fairly well.

With the present lineup and prospects for a ground near the town, Syracuse will probably have a strong team next season.

For Exchange!

I have 40 acres of nice Michigan land in an Indiana settlement that I will trade for a good span of driving horses. It's a good bargain. Address M. L. Russell, Syracuse, Ind.
