He is subject to attack of heart trouble and while very weak fell with the result that he sustained a fracture of one of his hip. On account of his advanced age it is feared by the attending physicians and relatives that the injury may prove fatal.

The good roads committee of the State association of County Commissioners, meeting at the Denison hotel at Indianapolis Friday, decided to work hand in hand with the legislative committee of the good roads bureau of Indiana and it was planned to hold a meeting December 16 or 17 with the legislative committee of the bureau and with a committee on good roads which it is hoped will be appointed at the meeting of the State Association of Township Trustees. The trustees will meet December 16 and 17, and since the trustees govern thousands of miles of roads in the state, it has been decided that the trustees should be asked to join with the other two organizations in the promotion of the movement for better roads.

Arm Torn Off.

While working on the Stackhouse farm in Scott township, Jesse Oswalt of Leesburg, who is well known in Warsaw, in some manner placed his arm in a corn shredder with the result that the member was terribly mangled. It is feared that amputation will be necessary. The young man had been working all day and at a time when he least expected an accident, he thoughtlessly placed his hand into the machine farther than usual and his sleeve caught. The hand and arm were drawn in and horrible crushed and torn.

The young man displayed great nerve after the accident. It was a long time before he could be given the attention of a physician.

Jesse Oswalt is a son of Michael Oswalt a prominent resident of Plain township.

Quality and Style at the Right Price

IF YOU should buy a Suit or Overcoat now, and next February find it was not fit for another season, you wouldn't be greatly pleased with it, or with the people from whom you bought it, would you? Yet you must look out for just such kind of clothes--the kind that are all "front" and no backbone of quality.

Your safety is in buying from a firm whose reputation is established. That's the reason we want you to buy your clothing here. We stand back of it, and the makers back of us.

See our display window for styles and prices

Men's Suits 8.00 to 20.00
