FROM HERE AND THERE

The fellow who keeps his troubles to himself is the quickest to lose them. An author's brightness isn't always due to the burning of the midnight oil.

A party of Kansans, with sunflowers painted all over their baggage, and a sunflower in the lapel of every man in the party, will be seen in ten foreign cities this summer. For two months they will tour Europe, advertising Kansas as the Sunflower state.

A cynic is a person who makes a specialty of telling the truth.

Many a man's hypocrisy is due to the fact that he has a scolding wife.

Any man is likely to make mistakes, but it's the other fellow who blunders.
