

WHO IS ALDO J. SIMPSON?

This question is answered below, so that Voters of this vicinity who are not personally acquainted with him and those who know him may learn more about this candidate.

FOR PROSECUTING ATTORNEY

For LaGrange and Elkhart Counties at the Republican Primaries on May 4th.

He was born 28 years ago on a farm near Millersburg, Indiana. One of the "Common People," his parents, Edward and Arvilla Simpson, still live on the home farm. He worked at home and for neighbors until he took up the practice of law at South Bend, Indiana, in the summer of 1914 with the exception of time he spent in school.

In the summer of 1916 he moved from South Bend to Goshen and took up the practice of law.

A graduate from the law department of Valparaiso university, having completed a three years course in two years.

After Herman Haskins was elected Prosecuting Attorney for LaGrange and Elkhart counties, Simpson was the man selected to act as Deputy Prosecuting Attorney for Goshen and vicinity, and as such he has faithfully and successfully handled many important cases.

He has been an active Republican worker ever since he was old enough to shout "Hurrah for McKinley and Roosevelt."

He is now a partner of Lou W. Vail in the law firm of Vail & Simpson at Goshen.

A Vote for Simpson as Prosecuting Attorney for LaGrange and Elkhart Counties, is a vote for enforcement of the law and

OPPORTUNITY

"One flag, one language, one loyalty and an opportunity for every man and woman who is industrious and thrifty to earn a comfortable living, to save something for a stormy day, and to be able to marry, raise a family, and give their children a chance."—(Leonard Wood. 4221

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY

To the Voters:

I have been unable to get around to call upon all of you of the county and tell you that I am a Republican candidate for Prosecuting Attorney, and I should like to have your vote at the primary election to be held Tuesday, May 4; but I hope you will cast your vote for me.

TAX REDUCTION

"Nothing will help more in pushing forward legitimate business than to spread the burden of the war over a much longer period of years than is now contemplated. We want to spread our business abroad over the world—our commerce and our trade. We must protect American business which needs protection."—(Leonard Wood. 4221

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY

Editor The Journal:

Through your columns please announce that my name will be on the Republican primary ballot as a candidate for renomination as Prosecuting Attorney for the Fifty-fourth Judicial Circuit, subject to the decision of the Republican voters of the county at the Primary to be held May 4, 1920.

(484) Henry W. Graham.

PROTECT OUR CITIZENS

"We must protect Americans wherever they live against any oppression when they maintain themselves within the law of the land in which they reside, and the world must understand that it cannot injure American citizens with impunity."—(Leonard Wood. 4221

AMERICA FIRST

"We want the same kind of a democracy we had during the war. We want the same spirit of co-operation. The spirit to win, to put America first. We have got it. We simply want to get together and put things over."—(Leonard Wood. 4221
