

It is stated in a German paper published in Philadelphia, that the capitalists of Europe have offered to make a loan to the State of Pennsylvania, at an interest of two per cent, on the sole condition that the principal is not to be paid before fifty years.

We saw a gentleman from England yesterday, who informed us that there was very little excitement in London upon the subject of the cholera, and that nearly all the deaths that had occurred had taken place among the poorest and most wretched classes of the community. A great number of persons still doubted that the epidemics which prevailed was the real Asiatic cholera, and the physicians appear to know but little more upon the subject than their patients. —Blicknell's Reporter.

EDITORS CAN'T LIVE ON WIND. — We observe the following pithy and humorous remarks in the editorial column of a New York paper, and we advise all editors to publish it:

Our subscribers and others who owe to us money, will take notice, that pay is coming on and their debts ought to be paid. We can numerate many reasons for it but the few following will suffice:

In the first place, the paper maker wants his pay.
2d. Our workmen want their pay.
3d. Our inkmen want their pay.
4th. Our carrier want their pay.
5th. Our very printer's d--- wants his pay.

6th. And even the very butcher and baker want their pay also—but they may see where they get it.

"And, indeed, all—all—and every body!—want their pay from the 'poor printer.'"

Do not, then, he—yes, he—want his pay also!

For as the celebrated Doctor Green, of Reading, saith—"A printer cannot live on wind, like the organ pipes in a country church, he must have his pay, as well as other folks."
