

SPECIF.

The quantity of specie entered at the Custom house in New York from foreign places, between the 28th of March and 12th of May, a period of seven weeks, was, of gold, $83,233; silver, $2,947,333—total, $3,030,566. The period commences after some of the large importations were made, and there have been constantly large receipts from New Orleans. We should believe that the amount of specie received at this port since the 1st of January, could not be less than the whole of Gov. Marcy's loan, $6,000,000. Jour. Commerce.

Mr. Avery of the Syracuse Iron Foundry, it is said, has discovered that a mixture of blue clay with common sand, in the proportion of one-tenth of the former to nine-tenths of the latter, constitutes the best composition for casting yet used. He has patented the discovery. Paterson Intelligencer.

Two horses belonging to Mr. R. R. Thiel, of New York, on Saturday the 31st ult. trotted 100 miles in 9 hours, 57 minutes and 35 seconds. A bet of $1500 had been made by their owner, that they would perform the distance in ten hours, which was won of course. They were driven before a light wagon. The feat is said to exceed any thing recorded in the annals of this kind of sporting. Paterson Intelligencer.

Outrage on the American Flag.—The Mobile Register contains an account of a most flagrant outrage on our flag, by the authorities at Tobasco. Capt. McKee, of the brig Industry, was dragged from his vessel and thrown into a dungeon, without even the pretence of an occasion. Our counsel has made every effort to procure his release, but in vain. They offer to set him at liberty for fifty ounces of gold; and will probably detain him until they have extorted the money, or are constrained to release him by the interference of our outraged government.

Foot Race.—A German undertook, for a bet of $800, to run yesterday, from the corner of Fourteenth Street and the Third Avenue to Harlem and back in 20 minutes. He performed this feat in 77 minutes, and appeared afterwards but little fatigued. This distance, by measurement, is 12 miles—6 miles out and 6 back. He is about 27 years of age, and weighs 147 pounds.

Getting rid of a dangerous companion.—A gentleman who was proceeding from Durham towards Sunderland alone, in his gig, one day last week, overtook in the dusk of the evening, a person on foot having the appearance of a respectable female, who politely asked him the favour of a ride, which the gentleman readily granted. So after the vacant seat became occupied, the gentleman turned his head round to speak to his supposed female companion, when he observed a whisker on the cheek. Surprised and somewhat alarmed at this discovery he purposely dropped a glove on the road, and immediately drew up, requesting the stranger to be so good as to alight and pick it up, as his horse would not stand so as to enable him to do so. This scheme had the desired effect; he alighted, and the gentleman instantly drove off in a rapid pace, leaving his late companion a distance in the rear. On afterwards examining a reticule which had been left in the gig, the gentleman was horrified to find that it contained a brace of loaded pistols. Durham Adv.

A Susceptible Thief.—John Hamilton was brought up for stealing a coat from his boarding house in Mulberry street. When placed at the bar, he delivered himself as follows:—"You are a magistrate, and a rich man; I'm a thief, and a poor man; so you can't enter into my feelings, and consequently I don't want you to tattle with or pain them by a long rigorous examination. I wanted a coat and I stole one. I have been detected, and must be punished for it, I know your duty as well as my own; it was my duty to escape, but I couldn't—its your duty to commit me; so do it off hand, and let me be tried as soon as possible, and you'll confer an especial favor on me. He was committed.—N. Y. Transcript.

THE PRINTER'S COMMANDMENTS.

1. Thou shalt subscribe for the newspaper printed in thine own vicinity.
2. Thou shalt not take a newspaper without paying the subscription money punctually.
3. Thou shalt not steal another's articles and publish them as thine own.
4. Thou shalt not perpetrate maniac prose or insane rhyme, and expect thy vile effusions to be published as the outpourings of youthful genius.
5. Remember the advertisements, and keep the printer blessed with the fullness thereof.
6. Thou shalt not borrow thy neighbor's newspaper, but go to him that hath to sell and buy one for thyself.
7. Thou shalt not fly in a passion when thy mill and water communication, and thy compilations of solemn thoughts, are rejected by the editor.
8. Honor thy contemporaries of the type and quill, and always show a good example before thy brother's eyes.
9. Remember the indices; and when thou seest thy brethren taking unto themselves helpmates from among the fair daughters of the land, thou shalt go and like likewise, for by this means it is that the printer's subscription list increases.
10. Beware of meddlers and gossip, double faced politicians, and sea serpents, and common scolders.

Be on your Guard. There are counterfeit $5 bills of the Bank of Burlington, Vermont, payable to H. Vail or bearer, and dated March 1, 1833. R. G. Cole, Cashier. E. J. Engleby, President. The engraving is coarse, but the writing is excellent.—The Constitutionalist.

Beat this Shoemaker.—The New England Weekly Review, printed at Hartford, Ct. says: We are informed that Mr. Grove C. Holcomb, of Granby, in this State, made in five and a half days, twenty-four pairs of good stout men's boots. We need not say that he is an industrious mechanic, or that he "sticks to his last" literally. N. Y. Sun.

Sad Reverse of Fortune.—There is an old lady now in this city, who sells peanuts and apples at the corner of the street, who was once the wife of a wholesale dealer in Pearl street, and whose property was estimated at $200,000.—There are but few men whose minds would bear up under circumstances like these. N. Y. Sun.

One Animal Preys on another.—A large Hawk was lately taken on the coast of England in which was found a clever sized Coddling. On opening the Coddling, a small Ling was found sepulchered in its maw. On opening the Ling, an angle worm and several marine insects were found established in close quarters.

Blood is not washed out with blood, but with water.

Notice Extraordinaire.

THE subscriber feels himself called upon to apologize to his trusty subjects, for closing the Palace door against them during the audience hours of Friday last. It cannot be supposed that my high station precludes me from the attacks of sickness. Therefore, best known, that on the day above written, the stomach of his Majesty manifested utter rebellion to the lawful deposits made by order of the Princess Royal; I regret to state, that they were removed, notwithstanding the remonstrances of my Secretary, and, in short, of my whole Cabinet, including the Knight of Industry; consequently I was completely prostrated; I could not have taken a friend by the nasal organ and flourished my razor without serious hazard to the jocular. In addition to these facts noted, it may be properly stated, that my eldest son, (their appointment) is cutting his teeth—a crisis that needs all the care and kindness of a devoted parent. Times are pregnant with important events. Among them, and not the least, is the approaching election. I am personally friendly to all the candidates. No one of them has any reason to fear my opposition. I shall exert myself to secure the election of them all. To effect this object I would say to them that nothing is so necessary as to have a smooth face. I am an adept in making smooth faces. My terms are very moderate. I shall rise in price on some after the election. WM. FLEURVILLE.

THE SATURDAY

COURIER,

The largest and cheapest Weekly Newspaper in the United States, is published every Saturday by Woodward and Spragg, price $2 per annum, payable in advance.

THIS popular journal is printed on a sheet of the largest dimension. No other weekly paper is comparable to it in size. It contains thirty-two columns of reading matter, each column being equal to twelve pages of a duodecimo book.

The COURIER though but three years in existence has an actual circulation of over twenty-one thousand copies. This unparalleled patronage shows the high estimation in which it is every where held.

The COURIER possesses advantages over all other weekly newspapers. Its immense size admits of the greatest possible variety, and its contents furnish an extensive, useful, novel, entertaining and instructive miscellany, comprising the different branches of popular literature, such as Tales, Poetry, Essays, Criticism, &c.; notices of the Fine Arts; Humor; Sporting Anecdotes; Sketches of Life and manners; Police Reports; Prices Current of the Grain Market; Foreign and Domestic Intelligence; and an abstract and summary of all matters which may possess interest for the general reader.

The original articles of the COURIER are contributed by the ablest writers in the country, and in the selections of literary matter, the publishers have extensive facilities. Their exchange list includes the most valuable American journals, and among other periodicals which they receive from abroad may be specially enumerated Bulwer's new Monthly, the Metropolitan, Fraser's Magazine, London Literary Gazette, Blackwood's, Mrs Norton's Le Belle Assemblée, World of Fashion, and the United Service Journal. Through their Agent Mr. WILMER, they are also furnished with the choicest English Papers including the John Bull, Bell's life in London, &c.
