DR. S. H. SELMAN.

RESPECTFULLY informs the citizens of Indiana, that he has removed from Shelby County, Kentucky, and has permanently located himself in the town of Columbus, Bartholomew county, Ind., and offers his professional services to all those who are afflicted with diseases of the body. He believes he is master of many of the prevailing diseases of this country. Having had a very extensive practice from various parts of the U. States, with all kinds of diseases, he has no hesitation in saying to all those who are diseased, it would be well for them to try his Medicines. He made his study with his father-in-law, (Dr. Richard Carter) who is commonly called the "Indian Doctor of Kentucky," and whose skill in the science of vegetable medicines is well known to the public. He procures his medicines mostly from the Garden of nature by distillation, extracts, &c., and believes them to be the most sure remedies known in the world for the removal of diseases, though simple in their nature, yet efficacious for the cure of disorders to which the living hundreds can witness. He would also inform the public that there is no man in this state, who has any knowledge of this practice, or who ever studied it, with the exception of himself, his brother, T. Selman, of Paris, Jennings county, and Samuel P. Langsdon, who is now studying with him; He merely mentions this that people may not be imposed on.

EVERYBODY'S ALBUM

A MONTHLY MAGAZINE OF
 Humorous Tales, Essays, Anecdotes and Fables.
 EMBELLISHED WITH NUMEROUS
 Grotesque and Amusing
 ENGRAVINGS.

THE cheerful and pleasing feature with which it is proposed to diversify and distinguish this work has never yet been adopted by any one of the numerous literary characters that have hitherto abounded in this country—and its extensive novelty and the vast fund of humor and variety which will be interspersed throughout its pages, is calculated to render it a desirable and popular companion for the amusement of all classes who desire to possess an epitome of the works of celebrated Modern Humorists, Etchers and engravers. The encouragement generally given to new undertakings, having a salutary object in view, has proved a decided public advantage, and it is questionable whether any other age has ever brought into active use so large a proportion of the really deserving offsprings of genius and talent as the present. Assured that this periodical, affording, as it will, an elaborate and comprehensive collection of faithful illustrations, Satirical Essays, in prose and verse, witty Tales, with Quips, Quizzes, Anecdotes, Fables, must have a partial tendency, (among its patrons at least) to divert into another and more exhilarating channel much of the oppressive action of the mind, consequent upon the cares and vexations of business, the publisher anticipates for it a most flattering and extensive subscription list. The work, at all events, will be commenced on the first of July, and continued for one year, therefore every subscriber will be certain of receiving all the numbers for which he has paid—When the twelve numbers are completed and made up into two volumes, they will form one of the most desirable and amusing records of Wit and Humor which can be found in print. Let the public assist the publisher with their patronage, and he assures them he will leave nothing undone, that will give celebrity and popularity to his work.

The Every Body's Album, will be published in monthly numbers of 72 pages, with a variety of embellishments—neatly stitched in colored covers—printed with new type, and on fine white paper, at three dollars per annum, payable in advance. Two copies will be supplied to order, for one year, for $5. When sent to a distance from the city, the work will be packed in strong wrappers, to prevent rubbing by the mails. Notes of solvent banks of every description taken in payment of subscription. Each number comprising seventy-two large or two pages, neatly covered and stitched—making at the end of the year two volumes of eight hundred and sixty-four pages, and at least six hundred engravings, with titles & index complete at Three Dollars per annum.
