

VINCENNES ACADEMY.

THE Trustees of this institution having procured, and at considerable expense fitted up the spacious building known as the Knox county Seminary, and having secured the services of able, experienced and respectable Teachers, will open the School the 1st Wednesday in October next, with the addition of a Primary Department, in which will be taught Reading, Writing, Spelling and first lessons in Arithmetic.

This edifice contains, besides two large and commodious school rooms and a Library Room, several other apartments convenient for the recitation of classes in the higher branches of study, and for experiments in Chemistry and Natural Philosophy, in which latter branches lectures will be delivered the ensuing winter.

One of the best Miscellaneous Libraries in the State, comprising upwards of fifteen hundred volumes or standard works, is attached to the Institution, to which the students will have access.

The academic year is divided into four terms or Sessions of eleven weeks each. The first commences the 1st Wednesday in October. The second, the 1st Wednesday in December. The third, the 1st Wednesday in March. The fourth, the 2nd Wednesday in June.

STUDIES & TERMS OF TUITION PER QUARTER.

Reading, Writing, Spelling, and first lessons in Arithmetic, $3 per session.

Reading, Orthography, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography with the use of maps and Globes, Natural History, Rhetoric, Literary Criticism, History, intellectual and moral Philosophy, Chemistry, Natural Philosophy, Astronomy, the various branches of Mathematics, Composition and Elocution, $5 per session.

The above with Latin, Greek, French or Hebrew Language $6 per session. Use of Library 50 cents per session.

Appropriate instructions will at all times be given without additional charge, to a class wishing to qualify themselves for teaching, and a vigilant, parental guardianship will constantly be exercised over the manners and morals of all the pupils. All the studies and internal economy of the Institution will be subject to the daily supervision of the Principal, and to a stated monthly visitation of the Trustees and Board of Visitors.

The Institution will be open at all times to visits of parents and guardians, who are invited to call and satisfy themselves as to the instruction and discipline of the school and the progress of the pupils. Besides this, there will be two public examinations a year.

To the citizens of Vincennes and its vicinity, the Trustees would respectfully suggest, that an Institution of permanency and of the high character which it is their intention to give this academy, is not only demanded by the wants of this community, but is adapted in many respects to improve the character, increase the respectability and promote the prosperity of this growing Borough—and if so, has it not special claims on their patronage?

To those at a distance, who cannot be supposed to have any peculiar sympathy with the local interests of the place, they beg leave to say, that it is the settled purpose of the Board, so far as a liberal and enlarged policy—so far as appropriate and efficient means can go, to make Vincennes Academy, as a Seminary of sound and useful learning, ultimately and as speedily as possible, second to none in the United States.

The advantages of a public and permanent Institution must be obvious to all; there is greater power of motive to give it character, better opportunity to remedy inconveniences and to supply conveniences—there will be less change of books and consequently less expense to patrons; a uniform system of study can be maintained from the beginning to the end of a course of accomplished education; and what is surely a consideration of greater importance, Globes, Maps, Chemical and philosophical apparatus &c. can be furnished to a much greater extent than can be expected in private and temporary Schools.

Board in private families is from $1.50 to $2. per week.

ROWANDS' TONIC MIXTURE,

OR VEGETABLE FEBRIFUGE. A Specific and Lasting Cure for the Fever and Ague.

THIS worthy remedy repels the charge of being a quack medicine, it having been the result of many years' study, experience and labor in the medical practice and observation of Fever and Ague. It is composed of such medical principles as were considered most fit to restore the harmony of action between the stomach, liver and the other important functions of the system, the loss of which harmony is evidently the immediate cause of the disease.—It speedily promotes a regular and healthy appetite, which is generally entirely destroyed or reduced very precariously; by which effort vigor and strength are soon afforded to the whole system. It must be apparent to all, that a medicine possessing these peculiar virtues, is useful in a great variety of complaints. By renewing the healthy action of the digestive organs, it has proved itself of remarkable benefit in Dyspepsia, Depraved appetite, Heart-burn, Water Brash, Flatulency, Jaundice, Night sweats, Dysentery, Bowel complaint, and many other affections of similar origin. But it is in the treatment of Fever and especially Fever and Ague, or Intermittent Fever, that its powers have been principally tested, and with those who have seen its usefulness, it is pronounced an invaluable remedy. It has also been used as a preventive, by many who were subject to a periodical recurrence of the Chills and Fever, and it has always ward off the apprehended attack. Many hundred persons of known veracity, have testified to its powers as a specific, but the medicine is so generally known that it is deemed unnecessary to copy any of them. It is manufactured by the proprietor in Philadelphia, and sold in all the principal towns in the United States—Canada, Mexico and St. Domingo. It may be had in Vincennes, Indiana, at the Drug Store of HITT & SAWYER.

SALE OF LOTS IN THE TOWN OF FLORENCE,

Illinois, on the 10th and 11th of October, FROM the very liberal patronage manifested in the purchase of Lots in the town of Florence, heretofore, and from a desire on the part of the proprietors to comply with the wishes of many individuals who have not yet purchased—another sale will take place on the days aforementioned when it is hoped that all who are desirous of making profitable investments in town property will avail themselves of the opportunity which that occasion will present. At the sale alluded to, the average price of lots was greater than that in the first public sale of lots in the flourishing town of Indianapolis, the Capitol of the state of Indiana.

FLORENCE is delightfully situated in the county of White, on the Wabash river about eighty miles above its mouth, and is the only site in the whole intervening distance where a good landing for Steamers can be found either on the Illinois or Indiana side of the river. From this place the river is navigable for Steam boats to the point of its junction with the Ohio, all times when they run on the last mentioned river; and is the only place below the Grand Rapids which is not subject to be overdrawn in high water, on which a town could be advantageously laid out. Bon Pas creek which flat boats descend from 40 miles above its mouth, unites its waters with those of the Wabash at this point. Its situation is believed to be as healthy as any on this river. A few miles N. W. of it is the wealthy and flourishing settlement of Albion. The country around it, abounds with the finest timber—is inhabited by an enterprising and industrious population and interspersed with farms, which in luxuriance of soil and high state of cultivation, will not lose by comparison with any west of the mountains. It commands the trade not only of White, but also of several adjacent counties, and from the nature of its position it is destined to be the dividing point of trade between the northern and southern portions of the rich valley of the Wabash. To the merchant, the manufacturer, the mechanic, and the speculator, it presents inducements of no ordinary character, as it may safely be asserted, that no town on the Wabash river has better prospects of arriving at greater commercial importance and few indeed as good. A plot of the aforesaid town is open to inspection at the house of Thos. Bishop in Vincennes, and at the office of O. B. Ficklin in M. Carmel, Illinois.

N. B. Messrs. Kearney and Tyrell have erected within the limits of the town, a splendid Steam Mill, and there is every confidence that their public spirit and enterprise will be rewarded by a rich harvest of gain. It is situated directly at the junction of the Bon Pas with the Wabash, and the vast bodies of fine timber floated down to it from the Wabash, White and Bon Pas rivers, will enable them at all times to keep on hand a constant supply of lumber for the market.

Terms of payment made known on the day of sale.

THOMAS BISHOP, and others, Proprietors.
