

POETICAL.

TEMPERANCE ODE.

Pure water! 'tis of thee
Poured out in bounty free
Of thee we sing;
Drink to our sires supplied,
Drink by the Pilgrims tried,
From every mountain's side
Thy streamlets spring.

Man's native beverage, thee
Drink of the temperate free,
Thy taste we love:
We love thy springs and rills
In fountain'd woods and hills;
Thy soothing power distills
From heaven above.

By generous abstinence,
Banish'd he ever hence
The wine cup's wrong;
Let Temperance power arise
Nor fear though Wine defies;
God, pitying orphans' cries,
Will make her strong.

Health smiles on every hand,
When rings throughout the land
Gay Temperance sing;
Temperance can gladness make,
Let reason's thrills partake,
Let youth the bowl forsake
And health prolong.

Power giving God, to Thee
Who callest from Wine to flee,
To Thee we pray,
Firm may our youth abide
Against intemperance's tide;
Be Thou, O God, our guide
In virtue's way.

Clear crystal waters flow
Life giving as they go
Pure from God's throne;
Temperance on earth may guide
Us to that river's side
Where all the blest abide,
Nor sin is known.

BALDNESS.

A beautiful head of hair is the grandest ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the loss of it changes the countenance, and how much it causes many to recede from the joys and pleasures of their acquaintance; the remainder of their lives is consequently spent in retirement. In short, not even the loss of property fills the generous thinking youth with that heavy sinking gloom as does the loss of his hair. To avert all these unpleasant circumstances, OLBIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application, and a few bottles restores it again. It likewise produces eye-brows and whitens the hair from turning gray, makes it curl beautifully, and keeps it from coming out. Numerous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtues of OLBIDGE'S Balm are shown by the proprietors.

Read the following:
ROBERT WHARTON, Esq., late Mayor of Philadelphia, has been called, as may be seen below, to the high character of the following gentlemen.
The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by J. OLBIDGE, and have found it highly serviceable, not only as a preventive against the falling off of hair, but also as a certain restorative.

It will certainly raise its virtues in the estimation of the public, when it is known that three of the above signers are more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 30.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA,
City of Philadelphia.
I, ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor of said City of Philadelphia, do hereby certify that I am well acquainted with Messrs. J. P. Ingram, John S. Leech, and Hugh McCurrie, whose names are signed to the above certificate, that they are gentlemen of character and respectability, and as such full credit should be given to the said certificate.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of this city to be affixed, this 11th day of December, A.D. 1839.

HEADACHE.

DR. E. SPOHN, a German physician much noted, having devoted his attention for some years to the cure and removal of the causes of NERVOUS AND SICK HEADACHE, has the satisfaction to make known, that he has a remedy which by removing the causes cures effectually and permanently this distressing complaint. There are many families who have considered Sick Headache a constitutional incurable family complaint. Dr. S. assures them that they are mistaken, and laboring under distress which they might not only alleviate, but actually eradicate by the use of his remedy.

It is the result of scientific research, and adheres to patent medicines, and is not unpleasant to the taste.

HEADACHE, SICK OR NERVOUS.

The extraordinary reputation that Dr. Spohn's remedy for this distressing complaint is every day gaining is certainly a matter of much astonishment. That so much suffering should have existed for ages without any discovery of an effectual preventive or cure, is truly a subject of much regret, but Dr. S. now assures the public that such a remedy has been invented as will convince the most incredulous. The principles upon which it acts are simple and plain. It is an admitted fact that this complaint, whether called Sick Headache, or Nervous Headache, arises, primarily from the stomach—those who think they have the nervous headache may rest assured that this organ, the stomach, is the first cause, that the system has become vitiated or debilitated through the stomach, and that only through the same channel must they expect a restoration of the natural and healthy functions of the system. This object Dr. Spohn's remedy is eminently calculated to attain. The truth of this position cannot be controverted, and the sooner sufferers with the headache become convinced of it, the sooner will their sufferings end in the restoration of health. Dr. Spohn pledges his professional reputation on this fact. The remedy may be had of apothecaries generally throughout the United States.

MILES'

Compound Extract of TOMATO.

HITT & SAWYER, having been appointed, by the proprietors, wholesale agents for the above valuable medicine, will furnish Druggists and Merchants of the neighboring towns at the Eastern prices.

Particular attention to the value and efficacy of this medicine, the public are invited to peruse a pamphlet which can be had gratis at our Drug Store. This pamphlet contains statements from intelligent Physicians, Editors of Newspapers and others, which establish its reputation as the most valuable antiscorbutic medicine ever offered to the public.

These pills are particularly recommended as a safe and convenient family medicine, which may be depended on in the primary stages of most diseases incident to this country.

A few testimonials are subjoined—

The following is extracted from a letter to one of the proprietors by the Hon. J. D. Burnett, formerly Mayor of the City of Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, January 6th, 1838.
Dear Sir:—I have used your Compound Extract of Tomato during the past summer and fall, and have no hesitation in saying that it has saved me several medical bills. Four of my family during that period were indisposed, and exhibited the usual symptoms of a bilious attack. They were in every instance relieved by the use of your Tomato pills. I consider them a valuable family medicine. They are perfectly safe, and I believe as efficacious as calculated in curing a bilious habit. I have used them myself with great benefit.

SAAD BURNETT.
Tomato can be substituted in half the cases where calomel has been resorted to, every medical man ought to tell it with joy. I feel more at liberty to recommend your medicine, and resort to the use of it in my practice, from the fact that it is no secret remedial measure, as you make known all its component parts.

I have for years been recommending the Tomato as an article of refectation, and particularly to my convalescing patients, as an excellent corrective in bilious derangement; connected with which I have, in my notes, some very interesting facts and cases.

We wish you to send us a pot of the Extract for each kind of the pills in boxes, and half a gross of boxes. Two or three physicians in this neighborhood will become agents, if you desire, and will send on the necessary papers. With a little trouble in introducing your medicine, I think a large amount can be sold.

In great haste,
Yours truly,
GEO. W. H. LANDON, M. D.

Heron, Ohio, August 1838.
To Dr. A. Miles.

Letter from Dr. Lawrence.

The following letter from Dr. Lawrence, is evidence, that the medicine proves abundantly successful in those countries where disease develops itself in its most malignant forms. Dr. L. resides in a part of South Carolina contiguous to the Green Swamp of North Carolina, and where Chills and Fever are very common.

It is a sample of the many letters that we are daily receiving from physicians, who, having used the medicine with success, are anxious to obtain the component parts.

We would here remark, that we invariably comply with their request, and furnish them the desired information.

Dear Sir:—The object of this is, to sell the component parts of your Compound Extract of Tomato, as I have used the article in my practice, and I must say, that I have never found a medicine, the Therapeutic powers of which have proved so satisfactory, as this Extract of Tomato. I have used it in almost every form of disease where catarrhs are indicated, and its operation has always been attended with the same happy effects.

I am, Sir,
Very respectfully,
Yours &c.,
JAMES D. LAWRENCE.
