THIS Institution, conducted by Sisters of Charity from the community of St. Joseph, near Emmitsburg, Maryland, has been in successful operation for more than two years.
The spirit of the establishment is already well known, and if we may judge from the patronage it has enjoyed, well appreciated; it will continue to promote the cause and enhance the value of learning and virtue, and exert itself in accordance with the character, necessities and increasing prosperity of the country.
A healthy and pleasant situation, an alternate and well adjusted succession of study and relaxation, a diet wholesome and exuberant, a government firm, yet mild and maternal—all conduce to the health, comfort, happiness and literary proficiency of those who may be placed at St. Mary's, whose conductors will spare no pains to merit a continuance of public favor.
The Academy is provided with ample accommodations for at least twenty boarders and sixty day scholars.
The Catholic Faith is professed by the conductors, without any encroachments on, or interference with the principles of pupils of other denominations. Nevertheless uniformity and good order, require an attendance at the public exercises of divine worship.
No uniform is prescribed, but it is expected that each boarder will be provided with about six changes of clothes; dark dresses are preferable.
The system of education embraces the English and French languages—Arithmetic, Reading, Writing, Grammar, Practical and National Arithmetic, Geography and Delineation of Maps, Ancient and Modern History, Rhetoric and Belles Lettres, Natural Philosophy and Chemistry, Music on Piano, Vocal Music, Drawing and Painting in water colors, plain Sewing, Tapestry, Embroidery, Bead and Lace work, in short all the branches usually taught in Female Academies.
