

GAZETTE.

VINCENNES.

SATURDAY, MAY 8, 1841.

We are authorized to announce Mr. T. H. CAVANAUGH as a candidate for County Auditor at the August election.

We are authorized to announce Mr. ANDREW GARDNER as a candidate for County Treasurer, at the ensuing August election.

We are authorized to announce Mr. SAMUEL JUDAH, as a candidate for Representative at the approaching August election.

We are requested to announce Mr. JAMES JOHNSON, as a candidate for County Treasurer, at the ensuing August election.

We are authorized to announce Mr. DANIEL P. McDONALD, as a candidate for County Auditor at the ensuing August election.

We are authorized to announce Mr. E. M. JONES, as a candidate for County Assessor, at the approaching August election.

The following is the result of the election for Congress, so far as heard from:

KNOX COUNTY.

Townships.	Thompson.	Davis.
Vincennes,	299	150
Washington,	116	51
Buzzards,	59	43
Widener,	29	9
Vigo,	101	10
Palmyra,	74	56
Harrison,	30	38
Johnson,	25	57
Decker,	16	24
	750	477
Thompson's maj.	282

VANDERBURGH COUNTY.

Townships.	Proffit.	Lockhart.
Pigeon Township,	351	144
Union "	64	23
Perry "	10	4
Knight "	49	4
Scott "	21	46
Armstrong "
	493	221
	221
	276
Thompson's maj.	62

FLOYD COUNTY.

Townships.	White	Carr.
New Albany,	526	270
Greenville,	84	138
Franklin,	11	72
Lafayette	maj.	17
Georgetown,	maj.	33
	621	559
	559
White's maj.	62

During the last week, we have been asked "who opposes Wallace" in the Indianapolis district? For the information of all such as wish to know, we inform them that Nathan B. Palmer, late treasurer of this State, is the loco-foco candidate for Congress, in said district. Ex-Governor Wallace, it is believed, will be elected without any trouble.

It will be seen by reference to another column, that the Fancy Store of Maj. LeRoy, has been removed to Market street, next door to J. B. Colwell & Co's. Drug establishment. We hesitate not in saying that a greater variety of every thing pretty and cheap, cannot be found in any store of the kind this side of the mountains—in truth, it would be an ornament to the city of New-York. There is no occasion hereafter for our ladies to send to the eastern cities for any thing in the way of fancy, ornamental and useful articles, when they can be procured in our own beautiful town. Give the Major's call.

The "Rev. Maj. John Bryce, Esq." the man who wished to figure so conspicuously at Lafayette last May, at the time of the Convention, is the loco-foco candidate in the seventh Congressional district. Henry S. Lane, the people's choice, possessing integrity, patriotism, true principles, and ability, will "kick him to death," and no mistake.

The perpetrators of the horrible murder, burglary and arson, recently committed in St. Louis, Mo. are believed to be negroes, from lately developed circumstances, a further account of which will be given as soon as accurate information is received.

It appears that the resuscitation story about White, who was hung at Louisville for murder on the 8th ult. is all a hoax.

The proprietors of the Cincinnati Republican have been appointed Printers of blanks, &c., for the Post Office Department, in place of the Louisville Advertiser, men, who received lately from the Post Master General a very laconic but full-of-meaning note, informing them that their services were no longer wanted as printers to the Department.

"The Hill," a tale of real life, which we published some time since, was written by Solon Robinson, Esq. of Lake county, Indiana.

We perceive that the Standard man at Perryville has knowingly, wilfully, and maliciously told a lie, in saying that Mr. Burke was removed from the Post office at Cincinnati, "by Gen. Harrison, previous to his death to make room for Mr. Taylor, his son-in-law." We say knowingly, because he certainly must have seen, if he has seen any thing, (by the way we think he has seen but little,) the fact going the rounds of the papers, that the removal of Burke and the appointment of Taylor in his place, was caused by John Tyler, our present Chief Magistrate, and not by Gen. Harrison.

Capt. Todd, of the steamboat Exchange, who was so ill-fated as to have his boat sunk just below New Harmony, during last week, deserves every praise, for his indefatigable industry in raising the boat, and bringing the goods which she then contained as far up as Vincennes, though in a very bad condition, having been under water some five or six days. The goods generally were insured.

The captain, it is said, behaved in a manner which won for him the esteem and admiration of all who were so unfortunate as to have goods on his boat at the time of the accident.

The Eagle, at Lafayette Indiana, a violent Loco-foco paper, has been discontinued, and we learn the establishment is about being removed to Missouri, to stir up the natives in their diggings. Wonder if old Vockey is going too?

For the Vincennes Gazette.

MR. CADDINGTON:—Agreeably to the wishes of your correspondent, and the earnest solicitation of many friends, I am induced to offer myself as a candidate for County Auditor, at the August election, ensuing. If elected, I will endeavor to discharge the duties of the office with an accuracy and promptness that will defy all fault-finders.

With great satisfaction we see the cabinet, composed of eminent and trust-worthy statesmen, selected by the enlightened and learned Mr. Garrison, to sit him in administering the government, continued in power. This affords a acceptable guarantee that all our national concerns as far as depends on the Executive, will be conducted justly, wisely, and prudently, in accordance with the views which influenced a large majority of freemen, "THE TRUE DEMOCRACY OF NUMBERS" of the United States, at the last Presidential election. Therefore,

Resolved, That we, of this meeting, citizens of Vincennes and Knox county, Indiana, holding ourselves always free to judge of the acts of our Government and of all men in authority, entertain full confidence in the wisdom and patriotism of President Tyler and his cabinet counsellors, believing them to be incorruptible statesmen, and enlightened and orthodox Whigs—that we cordially repose a firm reliance on his Administration, not only to promote the creation of an uniform national currency, and the general good of the country, but also to disintegrate the Government from all its vexatious embarrassments, as the people have disintegrated themselves from the shackles of a party whose acts originated the existing difficulties—that we confidently trust the honor of the nation will be held safe, and the interests of the people be duly consulted, and that we shall zealously sustain every proper executive measure to reform the abuses under which the Union has so long suffered.

And, Whereas, this community have already manifested in public meeting, a becoming sense of their own and a nation's loss in the death of President Harrison, it now remains for all who contributed to place him on the highest pinnacle of human greatness, more particularly the citizens of Vincennes and Knox county, their friends and former neighbors who knew him well, and sincerely deplore his sudden demise, to offer all possible condolence to his afflicted family, and express an anxious solicitude that the Congress of the United States—the Representatives of the country to which he consecrated "the spirit of youth, the strength of manhood, and the ripeness of years"—shall make for them the national funds, a suitable and ample pecuniary provision—Therefore,

Resolved, by the citizens here assembled, of a collation of well regulated respectable article, whilst we cannot but grieve, the great Ruler of the Universe has seen fit to terminate the mere existence of our much beloved benefactor and chief magistrate, Wm. Henry Harrison, and condole, and deeply sympathize with his family in their severe bereavement, we feel that lamentation on his own account, is a wrong to his glorious memory. His many public and individual virtues, his many eminent, civil and military services, his integrity of heart, and the patriotic impulses of his nature, afford durable evidences of his illustrious worth, and surely render our loss, his gain. But to the moral claim of his venerable relict, whose more poignant grief mingle with our own, we would earnestly call the attention of the people's Representatives in Congress. Under the circumstances, and in their severe affliction, the family of the deceased patriot have, we think, an irresistible claim upon the liberality and justice of the nation—and we feel confident an act awarding an amount to secure to them pecuniary ease and comfort, would not only excite the most desirable sensations in the bosoms of a free and generous people, but still more emphatically prove to the world that our Republic is not ungrateful.

Resolved, That the foregoing proceedings (signed by the Chairman and Secretaries) be published for general information, and that a committee of three be appointed to transmit a copy of the record to the relict of President Harrison, with a letter of condolence on behalf of this meeting, at the loss of her illustrious and much beloved consort.

John Ewing, Wm. Bruce and Pierre Brouillet, were appointed a committee on behalf of the meeting, to address the family of President Harrison under the last resolution.

A resolution was adopted unanimously, offering to the Chairman, Assistant Chairman and Secretaries, the thanks of the meeting, when on motion, the meeting adjourned.

THOMAS BISHOP, Pres't.

PIERRE BROUILLET, Vice Pres't.

A. B. M'KEE,

T. H. CAVANAUGH, Secy.

W. M. DAVIS, Secy.

The late President.

We published a day or two ago, from the New York Commercial Advertiser, a characteristic anecdote of Gen. Harrison, introducing what is believed to be the last letter written by the hand of that good and loved man. The Washington Correspondent of the Philadelphia American, says, that many interesting anecdotes are related of him, connected with his brief sojourn in the Capitol, as President, and tells the following, than which nothing could characterize the republican simplicity of his habits.—Cin. Gaz.

It was his custom to go to the

and he frequented

way. On one of these occasions he chased a new milch cow of a neighboring farmer, and requested him to drive it to the President's House. The General was there to attend to the animal, and invited

the farmer to take some refreshment: pro duced a bowl of hot coffee, ham and eggs,

and continued the conversation with him

about farming.

The farmer having finished his break fast, remarked to the General, you have bought my cow and given me two dollars

more than I asked, and a good breakfast

besides; but if it wouldnt be too much trouble, I should like to have a look at the President before I go. I am the Presi dent, replied the General. The farmer at first looked incredulous, having taken his hostile friend for the steward; but con vinced of his mistake, with much frankness observed, Well General, I voted against you at the last election, but I didn't know you then. That single mark—I didn't know you then—will ex plain thousands of votes cast against the good General at his election."

A fast.—General Harrison.

JUDGE HALL in his life of our late lamented President says, that when in command of the North Western army he was making active preparations for a descent upon Canada. "The 19th of September had been appointed by the President at the request of Congress, as a day of humiliation and prayer; and little as religion is usually respected in armies, this day was observed with decorum by all, and employed by many in exercises of sincere devotion." What influence this day of devotion had in promoting the victory

a few days after over Proctor and Indian allies, might afford subject for curious speculation.

At all hazards this impressive duty was not neglected, either by Washington or Harrison, and after its performance the inscrutable result was committed to the hands of God.

Philadelphia North American.

From the Charleston Obs. (a religious paper.)

It is wonderful to see how this event (the death of Gen. Harrison) has allayed the bitterness of party strife—how it has clustered around the bier of the departed the resolute opponents of yesterday, and caused them to vie with each other in their sympathies and sorrows, and in their unfeigned expression of affectionate regard for the dead. The trait of our national character which is thus exhibited is a noble one—it is a spectacle to which the crowned Potentates of the earth can be pointed as an evidence that the affections of all People are true to their country, and that they are ready on every fitting occasion, to give honor to them to whom honor is due; that, as a People, notwithstanding all our differences, we are one and indivisible, bound together by ties much stronger than mere physical force—that individual interest, or the necessity of mutual defense—the ties of a common brotherhood, common principles, and common sympathy. The true patriot will love his country more from this manifestation of the heart by which he is animated, and will be inspired with the greater confidence in the stability of her institutions. The true philanthropist will labor more assiduously in promoting the best interests of the People; and the devout Christian will pray the more now for the soul of the departed.

Every Thing Ought to be Well Done.

A good many capital things are told of the late William Gray—a distinguished merchant of Boston. He was familiarly known by the name of "Billy Gray." He left at his death a large estate, and used to contribute a chief source of his worldly suc cess.

His motto, "What is worth doing is worth doing well." On one occa sion, he had reason to find fault with a mechanic for some slovenly job.

The mechanic recollects Mr Gray when he was in a very humble condition, so he bore the rebut with impatience. "I tell you what," said he, "Billy Gray, I shan't stand such jaw from you. Why I recollect you when you was nothing but a drummer in a regiment."

"And so I was," replied Mr Gray, "so I was a drummer—but didn't I drum well?—oh! didn't I drum well?"—Philadelphia Standard.

LONG YARN.—A Leeds (English) paper

states that the longest rope on record,

in one unspliced piece has just been finished