THE FINISH READING ROOM.

Come sinners, come! why will ye die? Charles of the Finish asks you why? His board is spread, his string is out. He wonders why you've found it not. Come sinners, come! why will ye die, And nothing know of luxury?

THE public are hereby informed that the well known establishment, just celebrated as the FINISH, which was destroyed by the fire on the 17th ult., has arisen Phoenix-like, from the ashes, and is now, after going through the "fiery ordeal," like refined gold, seven times purified by the crucible of the alchemist. Its golden wings are now spread at the Broadway House, where all those who feel disposed to take shelter, and share with their neighbors, can come and partake in true epicurean style, of the luxuries of life, either mental or physical. Those who are fond of newspaper literature are informed that the proprietor will continue to receive about fifty newspapers from every part of the United States, which, together with an assortment of the choicest Wines, Brandies, Cakes Candies, &c. &c., and the large number of private rooms, will always render his house an agreeable resort to the citizen or traveler.

American Ladies' National MAGAZINE.

Godey's Lady's Book, for 1842 the most splendid and valuable monthly periodical ever published. The only Magazine devoted to ladies, and conducted by members of their own sex. Composed entirely of original articles, by the most eminent writers of the age; and embellished with a large number and greater variety of costly, elegant, and attractive pictorial illustrations, than any similar publication. Edited by Mrs. Sarah J. Hale, Mrs. Lydia H. Sigourney, Morton M. Michael, L. A. Godey, Contributors to each number, Miss C. M. Sedgwick, Miss E. Leslie, Mrs. E. C. Embury, Theodore S. Fay, N. P. Willis, Mrs. C. Lee Hunt, T. S. Arthur, Mrs. E. F. Elliot, N. P. Willis, Esq.

In announcing to his numerous patrons and the public at large his arrangements for the year 1842, the proprietors of Godey's Lady's Book takes occasion to acknowledge the unparalleled and triumphant success of his Magazine, which has now reached the extraordinary number of 40,000 copies monthly, being a larger edition than has ever been printed of any other work of any description in America. This success he is aware has been attained by the vast superiority which the various contemporary magazines which have attempted to rival its merits, a superiority which he is still determined to preserve, by keeping it, in all its departments, literary, intellectual and moral, as well as pictorial, emblematic, artistic, and mechanical. That this is no idle boast, he appeals to experience of the past twelve years, in all which time he has made no promise to the public which he has not fully performed, nor undertaken any thing which his means did not enable him to accomplish to the uttermost.

Entering as he is about to do, on the 24th volume of the Lady's Book, with increased energy and accumulated resources; with an ample knowledge of the business in which he is engaged, acquired by long years of unremitting application with a subscription list unparalleled in the annals of literature; with numerous facilities not possessed by any other publisher; with well-designed and wide extended arrangements; and above all, with a steadfast purpose of maintaining the lofty elevation his work has reached, the proprietors have not hesitated to incur expenses, which under other circumstances might well prove startling; but by means of which he will be enabled to make the Lady's Book the richest, the rarest, the most attractive, and the most valuable periodical intrinsically and extrinsically, ever offered to the American public.

Literary Department.

It has ever been the aim of the proprietor to impart to the Lady's Book a high literary and moral tone; and for this purpose he has, without regard to cost, procured the aid of the most eminent writers; and, for several years past, has committed its editorial supervision to Mrs. S. J. Hale, Mrs. L. H. Sigourney, and Miss E. Leslie, ladies of whom not only their own sex, but the whole country, have reason to be proud. In this respect, the Lady's Book enjoys a decided advantage over all other publications, as it is the only work devoted to ladies, which ladies direct—an advantage which must be obvious to every parent, husband, brother, and friend, as well as to every lady who properly appreciates the dignity and importance of her sex. To add to its superiority in this particular, the proprietor has secured, in addition to the ladies already mentioned, the invaluable services of Miss C. M. Sedgwick, Mr. H. R. Redwood, Clarence, Letters from England, &c. &c. a writer, whose efforts in raising the intellectual standard of her sex, and vindicating the true rights of woman, not less than her richly-gifted intellect and varied information, have gained her a reputation as wide as it will be enduring. He has also made arrangements, by which, besides regular contributions from Mrs. E. C. Embury, Mrs. T. S. Osgood, Mrs. H. H. Parsons, Mrs. A. M. F. Auman, Mrs. D. F. Elliot, Miss Dupuy, Mrs. V. E. Howard, Miss E. Allen, Mrs. S. E. Failey, Miss E. Leslie, Mrs. H. B. Stowe, Mrs. Selie Smith, Mrs. J. Thayer, Mrs. C. L. Hunt, Mrs. E. C. Sedgwick, Miss M. M. Duncan, Mrs. M. S. Leon Loud, Mrs. C. H. W. Edging, Miss M. B. Snow, Kate Franklin. He will be enabled to furnish occasional articles from Maria Edgeworth, Mary R. Mitford, Mrs. E. B. Willson, Mrs. S. G. Hall, Mrs. Holland, Cary Howitt, and other English lady writers of distinction, some of whom have already published in the Lady's Book the only original contributions they have ever made to American literature. Nor has he omitted to procure the assistance of eminent writers of the opposite sex. Award of the universal and well-deserved popularity of N. P. Willis, Esq. and confident that the productions of his graceful and elegant pen will be highly acceptable to the readers of the Lady's Book, the proprietor has entered into an arrangement, by which he will be enabled to give in each number of his work an exclusive article from that gentleman; and he also retained all the contributors whose writings have heretofore given such ample satisfaction, including W. G. Simms, Esq., Professor Ingraham, Professor Country, Professor Frost, Professor Walter, P. Benjamin, Esq., J. S. Mackenzie, LL. D., F. S. Arthur, Esq., H. W. Hubert, J. C. Neal, Hon. E. T. Conrad, Dr. J. K. Mitchell, E. Sargent, Geo. P. Morris, J. R. Chandler, R. Morris, F. Earle, M. D., N. C. Brooks, A. M. E. Holden, A. McKim, L. F. Talcott, R. Dawes, E. G. Squire, J. M. Lellan, Jr., J. Aldrich.

With such aid, it is not too much to say that the Literary Department of the Lady's Book will surpass any thing that has ever been or can be attempted.

Business Department.—The price of this publication is three dollars per annum—two copies one year in advance $5.

Those of our friends wanting to subscribe to the best Two Dollar Family Newspaper, published in this city, can be accommodated as follows:

Two copies of the Saturday Courier, 1 year, and Godey's Lady's Book, 1 year, will be sent for $5.

Five copies of the Lady's Book, 1 year $10.
Five copies of the Saturday Courier, 1 year, and the Lady's Book, 1 year $10.

Thirteen copies of the Lady's Book, 1 year, and Walter Scott's Novels, complete, or his Miscellaneous Works, which ever may be preferred, $30.

In all cases where money is remitted for "Clubbing," the most liberal allowances will be made. The money, in all cases, to be positively received before a number is sent. No letters will be taken from the post office, unless the postage on them is paid. Unless positive orders are given at time of subscribing, the work will be continued after the first year, and if not paid during the year, the price will be increased to four dollars.
