

GAZETTE.

VINCENNES.

SATURDAY JULY 1, 1843.

Whig Principles.

"The will of the Nation uncontrolled by the will of ONE MAN; one Presidential term, a frugal Government, and no sub-Treasury, open or covert, is substance or in fact; no Government Bank, but an institution capable of guarding the People's treasure and administering to the People's wants."

The appointment of the Secretary of the Treasury to be vested in Congress.

The just restriction of the power of dismissal from office now exercised by the President.

The introduction of economy in the Administration of the Government, and the discontinuance of all sinecures, and needless offices."

For President in 1844

HENRY CLAY,

of KENTUCKY.

FOR GOVERNOR,

SAMUEL BLOOMER,

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,

JOHN H. BELLADENNY,

FOR CONGRESS,

GEORGE G. BUNN,

We are authorized to announce Abner P. Ellis, Esq., as a candidate for Representative, at the ensuing August election.

We are authorized to announce James D. Williams as a candidate for Representative, at the approaching August election.

We are authorized to say that Mr. Sam'l Lyon will serve as County Commissioner in the First district if elected.

Knock Senator.

Sheriff Smith has received the order of the Governor for the election of a Senator in the place of John Ewing, resigned. We did not believe that John Ewing would resign, unless he could be a candidate for Congress—although we well knew that this same resignation, was a part of the consideration Mr. Ewing promised Mr. Myers, for the support of the Locos last year. But he has resigned, and we are disappointed. It would seem that it is doubtful whether Ewing is a candidate for re-election—the Western Sun, some time since announced him, and promised a circular the next week. But we have not had any circular, and the Western Sun, does not continue the name of Mr. Ewing as a candidate. John Ewing cannot be elected now. The Locos will not vote for him, as they did last year, against the Whig nomination—a majority of the Whigs will not vote for the Disorganizer. They would rather vote for Myers. John Ewing deserves punishment, and he will get it. He incites a insinuation, with a Scorpion if no other instrument is convenient; and John Myers is at hand, ready made into greatness by Ewing himself. The Democracy will not vote for John Ewing, should he be a candidate. A large part of the Whigs will not—nay, cannot vote for Ewing; for the man, who, to promote his own private ambition, and to gratify his own malignant passions, broke them down in the two last elections.

It is with regret we state that the Rev. B. B. Killikelly, D. D., has resigned his charge as Vicar of the Protestant Episcopal church in this place, and removed with his family, to Pocahontas, Mississippi, which is to be the place of his future ministerial labors.

During his residence of some five years among us, Dr. Killikelly had acquired the regard and esteem, &c. &c. may venture to say, of the whole community—all of whom will long cherish the recollection of his many virtues, both as a man and a Christian—and lament the separation which has taken place. Owing mainly to his exertions in raising contributions abroad, a neat and substantial church, after the Gothic order, has been erected, and under his ministry a flourishing congregation has grown up, and gave promise had he remained, of continued increase through his instrumentality.

We annex sundry Resolutions proposed by the Vestry and congregation of Dr. K.'s church, on learning his intention to leave Vincennes, which we believe express the sentiments not only of those bodies but of all who came within the circle of his acquaintance.

SAINT JAMES' VESTRY ROOM,
Vincennes, June 24th, 1843.

Whereas, this Vestry has learned with deep and sincere regret the intention of their worthy Doctor to resign the charge of this Parish, at the end of the present quarter.

Resolved, That this Vestry, at the same time they deplore the separation about to take place between themselves and their beloved Pastor—bear witness to his ardent zeal and indefatigable exertions to promote the best interests of the church, and especially in the erection of a House of worship for the extension of his blessed master's kingdom—and as a boy, and as humble individuals offer him their most heartfelt and ready thanks for past services, and implore the rich blessings of Almighty God on his future labors in the Vineyard to which he is going.

S. R. GREENHOW,
Sect. of Vestry.

At a meeting of the congregation of St. James' Church, Vincennes, held this evening the 25th June, A. D., 1843—Mr. Solomon Rathbone was called to the Chair, and Henry S. Bunting appointed Secretary.

When the following resolutions were offered by Dr. Joseph Somes, and unanimously adopted.

1. Resolved, That we have learned with deep concern and regret, the intention of the Rev. Dr. Killikelly to relinquish his pastoral charge over this parish, on the first of July proximo.

2d. Resolved, That as a Missionary Minister we bear cheerful testimony to his Christian piety and zeal. This sacred office in which we are now assembled, will be a lasting monument to his memory; as it is chiefly through his instrumentality, under God, we enjoy the privilege of worshipping in a House of our own.

3d. Resolved, That in asking leave of our beloved Rector—We take this opportunity to offer him our most grateful and heartfelt thanks, for all the kind offices of love and charity received at his hands, and pray the rich blessing of Almighty God, upon his future labors in the new field to which he is called.

4th. Resolved, That these proceedings be placed upon the Parish records, and that the Secretary furnish the Rev. Dr. Killikelly, with a copy of the same.

SOLOMON RATHBONE, Clerk.
H. S. BUNTING, Sect.

—
Experimenta Lard Oil.

We have heard this week the result of an interesting experiment tried by Mr. Wm. Clegg of Christie. He took two lamps of equal size, put the same length of wick in each, filled one with 11 gills of Sperm Oil, which cost him $1.25 in Baltimore, and the other with the same quantity of Lard Oil, which cost him 75 cents at Crosby & Abdill's Factory in this place. They were both lit, and the Sperm Oil burned 171 hours, while the Lard Oil lasted 204 hours. He afterwards tested the Lard Oil with common tallow candles, and states as the result, that the Oil is cheaper if not cheaper than candles at four-pence a pound. He and others who have used the Lard Oil decidedly prefer it to Sperm, on account of its cheapness and freedom from the disagreeable scent pertaining to the latter article. The Winter Oil will remain as clear in the coldest weather as the best quality of Sperm.

For ourselves we can say with truth, that until we used Crosby & Abdill's Lard Oil, we never could get our Astral lamp to burn with the best sperm oil brought to the place—now it burns splendidly.

Through the kindness of a friend we have received a late number of the New York Sun, which is filled with an account of the reception of the President in that City. The editor concludes thus: "President Tyler's reception in the Commercial Emporium was equal to that of President Jackson." We scratched our head at this, but on further examination discovered that the editor had been selected to execute the Post office printing, and consequently all his laudations of the captain were paid for, and his account of the reception exaggerated for the purpose of creating political capital elsewhere.

The Hon. Hugh S. Legare, Attorney General, and acting Secretary of State, died on the 20th of June at Boston, further particulars of which we will give hereafter. He left Washington City to attend the Bunker Hill celebration, and died 3 days after indigestion.

Mr. Campion—It is indeed pleasing to see another link added to the chain of our Manufactury in that of the successful operation of Messrs. Crosby & Abdill of this place, in manufacturing Lard Oil. The Lard Oil made by them is of superior quality, which I have used for some time past in the Cotton Factory—Cotton Spindles by machinery require the best quality of oil, and if not good, it will soon tell.

I have generally had my sperm oil for the Cotton Factory from Samuel Judd, manufacturer of sperm oil in New York, and have no hesitation in saying that the Lard Oil made here is equal to the best sperm Oil I have used, and will go much further in oiling.

D. S. BONNER.

Vincennes, June 30th, 1843.

For the Vincennes Gazette,
SOLON, No. 9.
"Dim backward as I cast my view;
What wondrous scenes appear!"

I am an old man, as I said in my introductory number, and I have bid adieu to the pleasurable emotions of youth. Its ardor, hopes, and highly colored expectations have long since given place to the more sober realities, and calm reflections of manhood years. Yet, I love to take my seat apart, from the cares which yet attend me, and reflect upon other times. In such seasons, it is sweet to commune with my own thoughts. Events long forgotten amid the strife of the world, rush back upon my mind, and the varied scenes of my boyhood, and countenances never to be forgotten, pass in review before me, as if by enchantment. Some of the reminiscences fill my eyes with tears, others, again, cause a smile, even at this distant day, when I remember the days of my youth and of light-heartedness. Where now are the companions of my sports—my school-mates—the partners in many youthful folly? The deep sepulchral voice of time answers, "Gone, gone," and in a vast majority of cases it answers truly. Some were nipt in early youth; others in the first spring of man, or womanhood; and others again in the prime of life;—few indeed remain, and they, too, like myself, are mostly far from the home of their fathers. A few years, and of the merry throng that "spared on the college green," none will be left to tell the tale of their early days.

In all my life, it has been a habit to note, in a book kept for the purpose, the incidents that came to my knowledge, the remembrance of which were worth preserving, and from this book, I will present another sketch to my readers; being a few passages in the life of an early friend, long since gone to the world of spirits.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character followed him all his life.

George Odyke was born of respectable parents in the state of —. He was early sent to school, and before his 15th year, was the best scholar in the academy of his native village. To a great quickness of perception, he added a determination to accomplish whatever he undertook. This distinction of character