

VEVAY TIMES AND SWITZERLAND COUNTY DEMOCRAT.

VEVAY, INDIANA:

SATURDAY, MARCH 21, 1840

"An INDEPENDENT TERRASAY—whose officers, responsible to the people, instead of privileged corporations, shall guard the people's money. Democracy asks in vain—what claim have the Banks to use their public treasure as their own—again to convert it into an engine of ruinous expansion and contractions of the currency, and of new political panics and pro-sources, to enforce submission to the money power?"

Democrats Attend!

To-day the Democratic Republicans of Jefferson township will meet at Jacksonville, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the County Convention to be held in this place on the 25th of April next. Every Democrat to his post. Let us have a "long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether."

"On Monday next, the Democrats of Pleasant township will meet at Moorefield, to appoint their delegates to the County Convention. We hope to see a general turn-out of the Democracy of Pleasant on this occasion. Democrats, let us see how many noses you can count on that day."

"We learn from the Globe that Maj. ROBERT A. FOASVY, late Paymaster U. S. Army, has refunded the balance due by him to the United States, and that the Department will not lose a cent by his official transactions."

GEN. HOWARD'S SPEECH.—To day we present our readers with the able and eloquent speech of TILGHMAN A. HOWARD, the people's choice for Governor of Indiana. The rich encomiums passed upon this masterly effort of Mr. Howard, by the leading intelligent men of both parties abroad, cannot but prove cheering to the Democracy of Indiana. With a man whose popularity and moral worth stands so eminently high in the estimation of his fellow-citizens far and near, we have no fear of defeat. The Democracy of the country may safely proclaim, yea, from the house-tops—Indiana is REDEEMED, from the thralldom and misrule of a Federal executive.

New Jersey contested Election settled.

It will be gratifying to our readers to learn that this much vexed question, after having been staved off so long through the cunning and intrigues of the Federal party in Congress, has finally been settled in favor of the Administration claimants. Some time since a majority of the committee on elections reported that the democratic claimants from the State of N. Jersey had, at the polls, received a majority of the lawful votes, as members of the twenty-sixth Congress. The resolution concurring in this report, and directing the Speaker, to swear them into office, passed the House on the 10th inst., by a vote of 111 to 80. Many of the opposition members refused to vote either for or against the resolution, among whom was the great disorganizer, and stumbling-block to the affair throughout, JOHN Q. ADAMS. Perhaps they thought it safest, on the final disposition of the matter, not to vote against the popular will and voice of the people. Be that as it may, however, if there had been any possible chance of staving it off longer, they would have done so in defiance of the will of the majority.

Our Paper.

Many new subscribers have recently been added to our subscription list, for which acquisition we are mainly indebted to the exertions of our Democratic friends. We hope they will continue to use their exertions in our behalf—a very little trouble on their part would increase the circulation of our paper to double what it now is. Every Democrat in the county of Switzerland should be in possession of the Times or some other paper advocating measures in accordance with the principles of the party. It is needless for us to urge the utility of a general dissemination of the principles of Democracy among the people at this time—the good to be derived from such an result, is well known to all. The opposition have for some time been actively employed in circulating Federal papers in this country, and we believe, have succeeded in spreading a large number before the people. Suffice it to say, to counteract the misrepresentations spread before a discerning people, through the medium of a Federal print, it is only necessary for them to have free recourse to a Democratic paper—there they will find the naked truth.

The New Orleans papers of the 26th ult., quote Flour, at $4 87 a $5; Whiskey, 24 a 25; Hay, $20 a $21 per ton; Corn, in ear, none; shelled, in sacks, 60 cents; Oats, 37 a 40 cents per bushel.

Democrats and Federal Whigs.

The question has been asked by the opposition—"what has your Democratic Legislature done for the people?" We answer they have done more for the relief of the people than can be pointed out in the whole vocabulary of Federal Whig management since the existence of a legislative body in the State; and that too, with only a Democratic House of Representatives, the opposition having a majority of two in the Senate.

The Federal Whig Legislature, last year, taxed the people thirty cents on the hundred dollars. A Democratic House of Representatives, this year, reduced the taxes to fifteen cents. Let the people bear this in mind.

The Federal Whig Legislature, last year, kept in office a board of Internal Improvement, and a host of rodmen and axemen, whose contingent expenses, including salaries, exceeded $61,000. A Democratic House of Representatives, this year, re-organized the board, disbanded this horde of officers, and reduced the contingent expenses to $2,300, saving the State about $59,000—enough to pay the interest on one million two hundred thousand dollars of State Bonds. Mark this also.

The Democratic House of Representatives, this year, passed a bill abolishing imprisonment for debt—and the Senate, with a majority of two federal whigs, defeated the bill. Let the people recollect this in August next.

In short, the object of the Democratic House of Representatives, was, to pass laws for the benefit of the people. The object of the Federal Whig Senate was to defeat all their measures.

Attack upon the Liberty of the Press.

A most cowardly attack was recently made upon one of the editors of the Madison Courier by MILTON STAPP, the condemned Fund Commissioner of this State. It appears that the editors of the Courier had copied from the Indiana Democrat a synopsis of the few last days proceedings of the Legislature, in which there were some pretty severe strictures upon the qualifications and conduct of Gen. Stapp, as Fund Commissioner. This was the head and front of their offending. Gen. Stapp entered the Courier office, flourishing a large hickory club, and in a very abrupt and ungentlemanly manner demanded of one of the editors whether he believed the state.

The editor, not considering it a fair question, declined answering it. Whereupon the brave Knight of Federalism (notwithstanding a man superior in stature to the editor) made a blow at his head with the hickory bludgeon, at the same time swearing that he would give him a d—c caning. On this the General was sadly dispointed. Our little friend of the Courier, with no other weapon than the naked fist which he came into the world with, closed in upon his antagonist and gave him a pretty sound drubbing, which he richly deserved. The General, as a matter of course, was "sorry he shot," and retreated in double quick-time. We doubt whether he will stop short of Texas.

And has it come to pass, that the LIBERTY of the Press—that great Palladium of the People's rights—should be wantonly attacked and trampled upon by blood-bound demagogues and ruthless office holders of the Federal party! Oh, shame, shame, shame!! This affair reminds us of the disgraceful scenes which were enacted by some of the Federal office holders, during the sitting of the Legislature.

THE CLOVEN FOOT.—Never was there a more true illustration of Federalism, or we may say Toryism, than was exhibited in this place a few days since by a stranger, an influential leader of the Harrison party from Cambell county, Kentucky, who made use of the following expression:

"IT WOULD HAVE BEEN THE HAPPIEST THING THAT COULD HAVE BEFALLEN THIS GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES, HAD GEN. JACKSON BEEN DEFEATED AT THE BATTLE OF NEW ORLEANS, AND THE CITY TAKEN BY THE BRITISH."

We ask the candid reader if any man, abiding in a Republican Government like this, who would utter such a sentence as the above, can be a friend to his country! No! he is an enemy to any thing but tyranny. Could any man believe there was such a being under the broad canopy of heaven! Such is the fact, and it can be proven. We are sorry for it.

The New York papers announce the arrival of the steam ship Great Western, bringing intelligence of the marriage of Queen Victoria and Prince Albert, which took place at the Chapel Royal, St. James, on the 10th February. The papers are filled with glowing accounts of the ceremonies and doings on the occasion—as long as moral law, and equally as uninteresting. There is one item, however, which it may not be amiss to notice, for the especial benefit of the ladies. Her Majesty's dress was a rich white satin, trimmed with orange-flower blossoms; her head-dress was a wreath of the same blossoms, and her delicate little face was concealed beneath a veil of Honiton lace.

A Show.—The onward march of Democracy in Illinois, is cheering. At the late Charter Election in Chicago, the entire Democratic ticket was elected by overwhelming majorities.

KENTUCKY YEOMAN.—A friend has put us in possession of the first number of this large, and very excellent sheet, recently established at Frankfort, Ky., by Messrs. ROBINSON & ADAMS. The Yeoman is just such a paper as the people of that section of Kentucky have wanted for some time; it breathes the pure principles of JEFFERSON Democracy, inhaled from our Republican institutions—the terror of the opposition.—If we mistake not the talented gentleman at its head, Federalism will soon than once have cause to quake beneath the lash of TRUTH, whilst the columns of the Yeoman are administered under their management and control.

The following paragraph is from the OPERATIVE, a paper established in London, by the English working classes, and which is an advocate of Democratic principles. There is too much truth in the observations:

"Out of about fifteen daily journals published in New York, thirteen are in the hands of the whig or money-mongering party. The commercial men who support these papers, are the deadliest enemies of their own Democratic Government. They have already tried many artifices to undermine and subvert it, but the Working Classes are too many for the traitors."

The Indianian says that J. L. Warr, the Federal Elector for the third district, recently remarked—in a private conversation, that he believed if he could not make the people believe black was white, or white was black. Perhaps it would not be as hard for this walking-stick of the Federal party, with his wondrous powers, to make the people believe that Warr is actually a little tinged with black, as it would for him to make them believe the moon is made of green cheese. What say you, friend Huckleberry?

SUB-TREASURY BILL.—This important measure, which passed the Senate of the United States some time since, came up in the House on the 11th inst., and was committed to the Committee of Ways and Means.

We invite the attention of our readers to the very able and spirited address of Col. J. M. McCalla, delivered before the Kentucky Democratic State Convention held at Frankfort, on the 8th of January last. It will be found on the preceding page. The address is short, though nevertheless cogent and sublime in thought and sentiment. We hope every Democrat in the county will read it.

Our friends in Switzerland are informed that about the first of April we design paying them a visit, previous to which time we hope they will not fail to pay over to our agent there the amount due us on subscription, as we are very much in need of money.—Political Beacon.

What dunning so soon, neighbor Gegg. Why, we should suppose the low price at which the Beacon is peddled out in this county, would have called forth advance payment from your dear "whig friends" hereabouts.

The Pittsburgh Mercury says, "the Rev. JOHN N. MAYER, the distinguished and eloquent Methodist Preacher, died recently at Mayaville, Ky., of apoplexy." The New York Sunday Mercury says, "the Rev. J. N. Maffit is holding forth in Mayaville, Ohio, to large and fashionable audiences." Try it again, gentlemen.

The Morning Chronicle is the title of a spirited little Democratic sheet, issued from the office of the Chicago Democrat, daily.

JAS. W. BORDEN, Esq., late notary public and attorney for the branch of the State bank at Richmond, has commenced a libel suit against the editors of the Palladium of that place for calling him a defaulter.

THE GREAT WESTERN, On her late trip, brought out twelve thousand letters, the postage on which amounted to three thousand dollars.

C. W. HUTCHER, Esq., has resumed the editorial charge of the New Albany Argus.

The following sentiment was sent by General Jackson, to a recent celebration of the late Democratic triumph in Tennessee:

"The sub-Treasury—Proposed by the present administration. It is now the measure of the people, rendered necessary by the evils of our banking system. Its establishment will give stability to our currency, purity to our legislation, and credit to public and individual enterprise."

Profaning the Sabbath. We take the following from the N. O. Bee, of the 6th ultimo:

The Whig of the parish of Jefferson, are requested to meet at the CARROLTON HOTEL, on SUNDAY, 9th February, at ten o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of approving the nomination of the Whig National Convention at Harrisburg, and to adopt suitable measures to insure the success of the Whig cause in Louisiana.

Virginia papers announce the death of William D. Hodges, Esq., member of the House of Delegates from Nansemond County.

The Legislature of Florida has passed a law prohibiting duelling.

Peach trees were in full bloom at N. Orleans, 11th of February.

Fresh Shad were selling in the Wilmington, N. C. market about two weeks since.
