If You Need a Medicine You Should Have the Best

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited, to those who are in need of it. A prominent druggist says "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy has so large a sale."

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact so many people claim, that it fulfills almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder ailments; corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism. ## AIMS TO REACH 100

A Pittsburgher, Who Caused a Sensation, Tells of Results.

ANCIENT TONIC HIS SECRET

Hundreds of Thousands of Families Found Health and Happiness by Following His Instructions.

Six years ago H. H. Von Schlick could be seen any day visiting prominent Pittsburgh business men in their downtown offices. He carried a satchel, and his arrival was always greeted by a smile indicating welcome. These men were his customers. They drank at his "fountain of youth." They accorded him with a new lease of life and the healthy condition of their families.

Von Schlick has bright eyes and his cheeks indicate that pure red blood flows through his veins. He says he was younger at fifty than he was at thirty-five. He has never had a sick spell or any of the symptoms of the ailments which afflicted him before he began using a tea, the ingredients of which were conveyed to him by an old Bulgarian 20 years ago. Von Schlick makes this statement:

"I was recovering from the grippe, was run down, and a dizzy feeling in the head, and felt like the victim of the hook-worm. This old Bulgarian knew of my sickness and while in the office suggested, 'I feel you some thing to make you feel better.' He returned next day with a package and told me to use one teaspoonful in a cup of hot water, and to repeat the dose once each night for a little while. He promised I would never be troubled from sickness again. I followed the prescription, skeptical, of course, and one day later I was seeking that old man to secure from him the ingredients of that tonic.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS YOUNG.
"He explained to me that in Bulgaria the older families regarded this tonic as the great disease preventive and health restorer; that it was handed down from generation to generation. At the first symptom of any sickness the mother or women of the family made the tea for all members. It is a well-known fact that Bulgarians are the oldest and healthiest people in the world.
"In Bulgaria and the Balkan countries of Eastern Europe, in spite of poor sanitary conditions, among 1,000,000 inhabitants there are 1,000 over 100 years old. In France there is only one person in 1,000,000 over 100 years old, and in Germany only one person 1,150,000. It is a rare news item in the United States when a man dies after reaching the century mark.
"My Bulgarian friend informed me that his progenitors reached this time of life and that they all had a healthy and happy old age. Asked for a reason.

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 17

JESUS BEGINS HIS GALILEAN MINISTRY.

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 4:12-23. GOLDEN TEXT—Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.—Matt. 4:17. ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Mark 1:28-31; Luke 4:1-11. PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Chooses Helpers.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Teaching and Healing. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Call of the First Disciples. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus enters upon his mission.

I. The King His Own Herald (vv. 12-17).

1. The reason for (v. 12). The news of the imprisonment of John the Baptist caused Jesus to forsake Judea and go into Galilee. The fate of John he accepted as foreshadowing his own. Because of this, he withdrew from the metropolis and went to the remote regions where his work would attract less attention. When the people willfully reject the truth and attempt to do violence to the messenger, he should turn from them unless specially directed otherwise.

2. To whom the proclamation is made (vv. 13-16). The people in Capernaum. This was done in fulfillment of a prophecy in Isaiah 9:1, 2. These people did not enjoy such privileges as those around Jerusalem. This was one of the darkest and most corrupt of the provinces, and now it is getting the light first. This foreshadowed the present age when the grace of God would reach out to the Gentiles. But this is just like the Lord. He did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. It should be our business, like the Master, to go to the most benighted souls with the message of light and life.

3. His message (v. 17). "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." This is the same kingdom which John the Baptist and the Old Testament prophets proclaimed. It means the Messianic earth rule of Jesus Christ. This is not our message, for ours is the gospel of the grace of God through faith in the finished work of Christ. We should call upon men to repent and believe the gospel of Christ's death for their sins and resurrection for justification. The time is coming when heralds will again announce the coming of the kingdom, and the King himself will come forth from the heavens to establish his mediatorial kingdom. For this we pray when we intelligently say, "Thy kingdom come."

II. The King Summons Servants to His Side (vv. 8-22).

1. His command of authority (v. 19). He did not use arguments, but issued the mandate. The King's voice is authoritative. To command is the King's prerogative, not to argue or entreat.

2. The station of the servants called (vv. 18, 21). They were men of lowly birth—fishermen. God chooses the foolish things of this world to put to shame the mighty, that no flesh might boast before him (1 Cor. 1:20).

3. They were called to definite service (v. 19). "I will make you fishers of men." He had previously called them to be disciples (John 1:35-42). He now called them to service. This call, then, was not the gospel call to sinners, which is always "Believe on me," but the call to service, of those who had already heeded the call to discipleship. The qualities which made them good fishermen—patience, bravery to face the storm and the night, the perseverance which tolled all night though no fish were caught, would make them good fishers of men.

4. Their prompt obedience (vv. 20, 22). They gave up their business and homes, not even inquiring where their salary was to come from. They put their trust in him who called, believing that he was able to supply their needs.

III. The King's Triumphant Progress (vv. 23-25).

He went the whole rounds of Galilee teaching the Scriptures, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of diseases. He did a threefold work:

1. Teaching the Scriptures in the synagogues (v. 23). The revelation of God needed to be explained. This is what he was doing at Nazareth (Luke 4:16-22).

2. Preaching the glad tidings of the kingdom (v. 23). The King who was present and was heralding his own mission was ready to establish his kingdom if they would have been willing to receive him.

3. Healing all manner of diseases (v. 23). There was no form of disease which he could not cure. So abundant was his success that "his fame went throughout all Syria; and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those who were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatic, and those who had the palsy; and he healed them. And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judea, and from beyond Jordan" (vv. 24, 25).

Our Purpose in Life.

For self-preservation and self-possession, for the renewal of our purpose in life, for a fair estimate of its various interests, for calmness and strength of mind, we need to rise at times above the ways of this world, and to remember what we are, whom we serve, whether we are called. And it is in this that the right use of Sunday may help us far more than we fancy. For it is by quiet thought in the realization of God's presence, and by prayer and worship, that we must regain and deepen this remembrance; it is by the Holy Eucharist that God is ever ready to bear it into our hearts, and make it tell on all our ways.—Francis Paget.

Thousands of Women

Owe Their Health To

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—overshadowing indeed is the success of this great medicine. Compared with it, all other medicines for women's ills seem to be experiments.

Why is it so successful? Simply because of its sterling worth. For over forty years it has had no equal. Women for two generations have depended upon it with confidence.

Thousands of Their Letters are on our files, which prove these statements to be facts, not mere boasting.

Here Are Two Sample Letters:

Mother and Daughter Helped.

Middleburg, Pa.—"I am glad to state that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did me much good when I was 35 years old. I was run down with female trouble and was not able to do anything, could not walk for a year and could not work. I had treatment from a physician but did not gain. I read in the papers and books about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. The first four bottles gave me relief and I kept on using it until I got better and was able to do my work. The Vegetable Compound also regulated my daughter when she was 15 years old. I can recommend Vegetable Compound as the best medicine I have ever used."—Mrs. W. YERGER, R. 3, Box 21, Middleburg, Pa.

Fall River, Mass.—"Three years ago I gave birth to a little girl and after she was born I did not pick up well. I doctored for two months and my condition remained the same. One day one of your little books was left at my door and my husband suggested that I try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I started it immediately and I felt better and could eat better after the first bottle, and I continued taking it for some time. Last year I gave birth to a baby boy and had a much easier time as I took the Vegetable Compound for four months before baby came. On getting up I had no pains like I had before, and no dizziness, and in two weeks felt about as well as ever."—Mrs. THOMAS WILKINSON, 363 Columbia Street, Fall River, Mass.

Interesting Discovery in Pueblo Ruin in New Mexico Has Recently Been Made.

The most satisfactory event to mark so far the work of the American Museum of Natural History in its excavation of the Pueblo ruin at Aztec, N. M., is the recent discovery of what was evidently the holiest shrine of this prehistoric people, records. Popular Mechanics Magazine. It takes the form of a room, bare of furniture, but in perfect condition. The walls are plastered, and are painted in a glaring white with dull red borders and a frieze of triangular designs. On the ceiling beams are strange marks made by rubbing the palm and fingers in white paint, and then pressing them upon the wood. From these beams hang several strands of beautifully made rope, presumably for the support of some sacred objects. On the ceiling, too, is carved a serpent, two and one-half feet in length, and in design unlike anything known to the archeologists in charge.

Of Course Newspaper Man Really Had Done Well, but Not Entirely by His Own Efforts.

"When I see a ragged man," said the chairman, virtuously, "I say to myself there goes one of life's wasters. There goes a man who has refused to make the most of his gifts. There is no excuse for poverty, gentlemen. Everyone should rise."
"Hear! Hear!" cried his hearers. "Everyone," exclaimed the chairman, "may carve out a good position for himself if he wishes."
"Perhaps you are right," interposed a member. "Only today I met a newspaper man who told me that 20 years ago he came to Chicago with exactly $5 in his pocket. He is now worth $40,000 and he owes this entirely to his own ability and energy, combined with good health and a high code of ethics, and to the fact that his uncle, recently died and left him $39,955."—Chicago News.

Oratorical Finesse.
"We are going to pick out the finest speaker in the town to introduce you to the audience," said the chairman of the committee on arrangements.
"Don't do that," protested Senator Sorghum. "I need the benefit of contrast. I don't want to go to extremes, but if I had to make the choice, I'd rather be introduced by a silver-tongued orator than by a man who stutters."

A woman may listen to her husband's advice, but she does as she pleases anyhow.
