BRUCE'S NEW YORK TYPE FOUNDRY, established in 1813. The subscriber has completed a new edition of his book of Specimens, with which his customers and other Printers disposed to buy of him, may be supplied on application, at his Foundry, Nos. 18 and 20, Augustus street, behind the City Hall. He would remark for the information of those who have not been in the habit of dealing with him, and because a different practice has been extensively introduced that his book contains nothing but the actual productions of his own Foundry, and presents a true specimen of what will be furnished to orders. The assortment is very complete, has been deliberately and carefully, in twenty years, brought to its present high state of perfection, and embraces a variety of styles adapted to different tastes and to the various departments of printing, Newspaper, Book and Job, highly finished, and cast of the most serviceable metal. Not to notice the varieties, which are distinguished by their numbers in the Book, it consists of ROMAN and I. ALIC, 27 sizes, from twelve line Pica to Pearl.

TWO LINE and FIVE 15 sizes, two line Column to Agate.

SHADED, 13 sizes, from two lines Pica to Long Primer.

WEEKLY

COURIER & ENQUIRER,

NEW YORK.

ON Saturday, the 28th of January, the proprietors of the Morning Post and New York Enquirer, intend publishing on the largest sheet ever issued a weekly newspaper to contain all that appears during the week in their daily paper. It will be published on fine paper, with new type, and to place it within the reach of all classes of the community, it will be offered to subscribers at the reduced price of SEVEN CENTS per annum, payable always in advance.

In consequence of the other daily papers in New York, determining not to board vessels and receive their news on Sunday, the publishers of the Courier & Enquirer have lately invested $10,000, in a separate news establishment, consisting of one schooner of 80 tons, one of 60 tons and the necessary row boats. The establishment is supported at an annual expense of $9,000, and vessels from Europe are boarded at sea, and their news disseminated through the country with great dispatch, long before they reach the harbor.

In its politics, the Courier and Enquirer are purely Democratic—adhering to the principles and usages of the republican party, and advocating the re-election of gen. Jackson to the presidency. Its columns are alike devoted to Foreign and Domestic Intelligence, Morals, Literature and the Fine Arts. In morals, however, it does not act upon the creed of the Fanatics or Bigots, but on the contrary, inculcates those principles of morality and religion only, which are founded upon peace and good will to all mankind—the fruit of which is tolerance and brotherly affection, instead of persecution for opinion's sake.

Upwards of 4000 copies of the Courier & Enquirer are published daily, and more than 3000 semi-weekly, and in the city of New York its daily circulation is known to be more than an hundred per cent greater than any other paper. These facts are referred to, as affording the only commentary the proprietors can with propriety offer on the quality of the matter which will be found in their contemplated weekly publications.

It is intended to publish 17,500 copies of the first number of the paper, which will be distributed in different parts of the country, and one copy sent to each post master in the United States, in order that a specimen of the publication may be examined.

TERMS.

Daily Paper, $10 per annum. Payable, in Semi Weekly paper, 4 per annum, all cases, in Weekly paper, 3 per annum, advance.

Any person who may obtain eight subscribers to the weekly paper and remit the amount, shall be furnished with a copy gratis; and to companies of ten subscribers, who associate and remit $25, it will be sent for $2, each per annum.

County Surveyor.

The subscriber respectfully informs the citizens of Switzerland county, that he was appointed of said county, by the board of county commissioners at their January session. He can be found at the residence of Albert Gazlay, near Troy, in Posey township. Orders left at the "Messenger" office, Printer's Retreat, will be promptly attended to.

SURVEYOR,

The Saturday Courier

THE LARGEST AND CHEAPEST NEWSPAPER.

IN the United States, is published every Saturday, by WOODWARD & SPRAGG, PHILADELPHIA, at two dollars per annum, payable half yearly in advance. This popular journal, printed on an extra size imperial sheet, of the largest dimensions. It contains 28 columns of reading matter, each column being equal to eight pages of a duodecimo book.

The publication of the Courier was commenced in April last, since which time it has received a patronage so unequalled by more than 7000 copies are now distributed weekly through all parts of the U. States. This fact, which has no parallel in the annals of the periodical press, will show the high estimation in which the Courier is every where held, and that the same ratio of increase will continue, may fairly be presumed, inasmuch as since the commencement of the present month, nearly one thousand new names have been added to the subscription list.

The Courier possesses advantages over all other weekly newspapers, its immense size admits of the greatest possible variety, and its contents furnish an extensive, useful, novel, entertaining and instructive miscellany, comprising the different branches of popular literature, such as tales, poetry, essays, criticisms, &c. notices of the fine arts, humor, sporting anecdotes, sketches of life and manners, police reports, prices current of the grain market, foreign and domestic intelligence of the latest dates, and an abstract and summary of all matters which may possess interest for the general order.

The literary department of the Courier is watchfully superintended, and no article is admitted which does not possess positive merit. One hundred dollars were paid for a prize tale which was published in this paper on the 7th of January, and other inducements have been offered to secure original contributions. Among the voluntary correspondents of the Courier are Miss Leslie (author of several publications, which have been highly applauded by American and European critics), Richard Penn Smith, the celebrated dramatist, novelist, and magazine writer; Mrs. Caroline Lee Hentz, the accomplished author of the prize tragedy, "De Lara," Miss Bacon, the fair writer of the pathetic "Love's Martyr," &c. And many others whose names are equally distinguished; besides a number whose productions under fictitious signatures have elicited general approbation.

In the selection of literary matter, the publishers of the Courier have extensive facilities. Their exchange list includes the most valuable American journals; and among other periodicals which they receive from abroad may be specially enumerated Bulwer's New Monthly, Campbell's Metropolitan, Fraser's Magazine, Landon Literary Gazette, Blackwood's, La Belle Assemblée, World of Fashion, and the United States Journal. Through their agent, Mr. WILKINSON, they are also furnished with the choicest English papers, including the John Bull, Bell's Life in London, &c.

A portion of the Courier is appropriated to sporting intelligence, and particularly to that branch which relates to the turf. Subjects of this kind are introduced as often as proper regard to variety will admit. Descriptions of favorite horses, their pedigree, performance and appearance, accompanied with engraved likenesses, are occasionally given; in furnishing which, assistance is procured from several distinguished sportsmen.

Police reports occupy a share of attention. These are prepared by a skillful person, engaged expressly for that purpose; and as the materials are gathered from authentic sources, their general accuracy may be confidently relied on. In arranging them for the press, the reporter combines facetiousness with fact, and so constructs the narrative, that in most instances they will be found extremely graphic and diverting, without the slightest sacrifice of truth.

In preparing the contents of the Courier, strict regard is paid to news. All foreign intelligence, up to the latest dates, is invariably given; and whenever a press of important matter may require it, an extra will be published. The summary of domestic affairs is more complete, correct and full, and embodies a greater extent and variety of information than can be found in any other paper, as in addition to a condensed statement of localities, a synopsis of passing events in all parts of the country is regularly prepared and published.

In order that those who love to laugh may find matter for their mirth, each number contains a mélange of humorous subjects, some one of which is illustrated by an engraving, executed by a skillful artist.

The editorial department embraces reviews of new publications; notices of the fine arts, &c. remarks on general topics, descriptions of public improvements, amusements, &c. discussions of suitable subjects, dramatic criticisms, &c. This department has been, and will continue to be, conducted in a spirit of the most fearless independence. Whatever comes fairly within observation, shall be frankly dealt with, and no station or influence will deter the prompt and decided expression of unbiased opinion.

In fine, the Saturday Courier professes to be the largest, cheapest, most diversified, entertaining, and instructive weekly newspaper issued from the American press. The publishers claim for its contents a character of vigorous originality, judicious selections, extensive variety, and interesting detail, and they invite comparison with contemporary publications.

PREMIUMS.

Persons procuring five subscribers to this paper and forwarding the amount of a half year's subscription, $5, will be entitled to a sixth copy gratis.

Persons forwarding 10 subscribers, and remitting 10 dollars, will be entitled to an extra copy, and a discount of 10 per cent.

Persons forwarding 15 subscribers and 15 dollars, will be entitled to an extra copy of the paper, and a copy of Lord Byron's works, or Walter Scott's works, or any other work of a similar character and value which may be preferred.

Uncurrent notes of solvent banks, received at WOODWARD & SPRAGG, No. 12, Chesnut-street Philadelphia.

PHYSICIAN & SURGEON

Dr. And. C. Forbes,

THROUGH this medium, wishes to inform the citizens of VEVAY, and the public generally, that he still continues to practice in the town of Vevay and its vicinity. He returns his grateful thanks to his friends for the patronage either extended to him. He hesitates not to extend to business men a share of public patronage, having resided here about seven years, and also trusts that the public are sufficiently acquainted with him to extend their patronage. He may be found, at all times, unless absent on professional or official business, at his office, three doors east of the corner of Main and Ferry streets, on Main street.

PHYSIC AND SURGERY,

BLANKS.

THE AMERICAN FARMER.

Edited by C. B. Smith, is published by Baltimore, (Md.) by J. S. SHAW, at No. 11, N. E. corner of 1st and B. Sts. Successors of J. S. Shaw, in weekly numbers of eight quarto pages at Five Dollars per annum.

It is devoted exclusively to practical Agriculture, Horticulture, and Rural and Domestic Economy. The American Farmer contains also a great number of useful recipes; recipes adapted to the season of mothers and mistresses of families; so much of the news as relates to the foreign and domestic markets for Agricultural products, and a correct statement of the prices current at the time of publication; but nothing connected with party politics is at any time admitted to appear in its columns.

The American Farmer is neatly printed on fine paper, and many of the subjects of which it treats are illustrated by expensive wood engraving. The numbers for a year make a volume of a convenient form and size, and the last one is accompanied by a title page and minute index, completing the volume for binding.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

1. Price five dollars per annum, payable at the middle of each year of subscription.
2. Subscriptions are in all cases charged by the year and never for a shorter term.

For further particulars call at this office.

Monthly Traveller,

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS.

THE publishers, encouraged by the commendation and patronage bestowed upon their past labors, and determined to spare no exertions to merit a continuance of public favor, will continue in the enlarged series of the Monthly Traveller without increasing the price. This series commenced in January last, and each number contains more reading by one fourth, than the numbers of the first year. While some editors have the modesty to require five dollars a year for a monthly miscellaneous magazine, it is hoped the very moderate price charged for this work, will induce all classes to become patrons, and cause its already wide circulation to be extended still further.

The Monthly Traveller is intended to serve the purpose of those who have not access to the uncounted miscellaneous publications of the day, but who are still desirous of availing themselves of their most valuable contributions. It contains the most popular selections from foreign and American publications; original notices of the current literature of the times, and such articles as are calculated to entertain and instruct readers of both sexes and every age. It is published on the 15th of each month, by Badger and Porter, No. 62 Court street, Boston, at two dollars per annum, in advance, or two dollars and a half at the end of the year.

Persons intending to subscribe for the volume commencing with the year 1832, are requested to send in their names as early as possible, that the publishers may estimate the extent of their edition.

Subscriptions received at the "Messengers" Office.

A DESPERATE KIDNAPPER.

In the spring of the year 1816, Mr. M'millan had dispatched ten Canadians in a canoe down the Flathead river, on a trading excursion. The third evening after quitting the fort, while they were quietly sitting round a blazing fire, eating a hearty dinner of deer, a large half-famished bear cautiously approached the group from behind an adjacent tree; and before they were aware of his presence, he sprang across the fire, seized one of the men (who had a well-furnished bone in his hand) round his waist, with the two fore-paws, and ran about fifty yards with him on his hind-legs before he stopped. His comrades were so thunderstruck at the unexpected appearance of such a visitor, and his sudden retreat with poor Louison, that they for some time lost all presence of mind; and, in a state of fear and confusion, were running to and fro, each expecting in his turn to be kidnapped in a similar manner; when, at length, Baptiste Le Blanc, a half-bred hunter, seized his gun, and was in the act of firing at the bear, but was stopped by some of the others, who told him he would inevitably kill their friend Louison in the position in which he was then placed. During this parley, Brun relaxed his grip of the captive, whom he kept securely under him, and very leisurely began picking the bone which the latter had dropped. Once or twice Louison attempted to escape, which only caused the bear to watch him more closely; but, on his making another attempt, he again seized Louison round the waist and commenced giving him one of those infernal embraces which generally end in death. The poor fellow was now in great agony, and vented the most frightful screams; and, observing Baptiste with his gun ready, anxiously watching a safe opportunity to fire, he cried out, "Fire! fire my dear brother, if thou wouldst save thy friend, Fire for the love of God! At his head—at his head." This was enough for Le Blanc, who instantly let fly, and hit the bear over the right temple. He fell, and at the same moment dropped Louison; but he gave him an ugly scratch with his claws across the face, which for some time spoiled his beauty. After the shot, Le Blanc darted to his comrade's assistance, and with his hanger quickly finished the sufferings of the man-stealer, and rescued his friend from impending death; for, with the exception of the above-mentioned scratch, he escaped uninjured. They commenced the work of dissection with right good will; but, on skinning the bear, they found scarcely any meat on his bones; in fact, the animal had been famishing, and, in a fit of hungry desperation, made one of the boldest and most successful attempts at kidnapping ever heard of in the legends of ursine courage.—Cox's Anecdotes on Columbia river.

Frederick of Prussia one evening surveying some of the advanced posts of his camp, discovered a soldier endeavoring to pass the sentinel. The king stopped him, and insisted on knowing where he was going. Truly, (answered the fellow) your majesty has been so worried in all your attempts, that I was going to desert.

Were you? (replied the monarch) remain here but one week longer, and if fortune does not mend with me, I will desert with you.

Gold-fishing has become so common in Virginia, as to become a nuisance.
