THAT large two story FRAMED HOUSE, formerly occupied as the Bank office in Vevay. Said house is 70 feet long by 25 feet wide, with a porch 12 feet wide extending the whole length of the house, and facing the river. There is also on said lot a good brick stable and other buildings, and the lot is enclosed with an excellent fence. It is now in complete repair and intended for a

Tavern and Boarding HOUSE.

As there is little or no opposition, it is believed that an enterprising and accommodating person would meet with great encouragement. The above house is divided into nine rooms, six of them have fire places. It is believed, that if it can be occupied soon, that the court and bar and others attending court, (third Monday) in March next, might be expected to put up at said house.

The terms will be liberal, as such as house is much wanted in Vevay.

PROSPECTUS OF The Complete Periodical LIBRARY.

FORTY EIGHT Pages weekly—nearly 2500 large octavo pages a year, for $3, furnishing annually select reading, equal to 60 volumes of common size.

The Library will contain nearly all the new works of merit as they appear—Voyages and Travels—History—Biography—Select Memoir—the most approved European Annals—Adventure—

Tales of unexceptional character, &c.
The "Complete Periodical Library" will be found indispensable to all lovers of good reading, in town or country.

Every number will contain 48 pages, in a size expressly adapted for binding when the book is completed; printed with type so large as not to fatigue the weak eye. Its immense size will enable the Editor to crowd any common sized book in two numbers, frequently into one.

New works will thus be despatched as they arrive from Europe, and sent off fresh to patrons. The subscriber in Missouri will be brought as it were to the very fontain of literature. Works printed in this library will be furnished to him, when, without it, he would be wholly unable to procure them. A book that will cost six dollars to import, can be reprinted and distributed to subscribers, owing to peculiar facilities, for about 20 or 30 cents, with the important addition of its being fresh and new.

We shall give near 2500 pages annually, equal to fifty common sized books!

Every work published in the Library will be complete in itself. A title page will be given with each volume, so that the subscriber, if he please, may sell or give it away, without injury to any of the others; or it may be bound up at the pleasure of the subscriber.

This work presents an extraordinary feature, unknown to any other periodical in the country. The subscription price may be considered a mere loan for a year, as the work, at the year's end, will sell for cost, and in many parts of the United States it will bring double its original cost to the subscriber.

The works published in "The Complete Periodical Library" will be of the highest character, both as regards the author and his subject. New works of approved merit, will be sent out to the Editor by every arrival from Europe, giving him an unlimited field to select from, while care will be taken to make his publication equal to any thing of the kind in America.

The first number will be issued on the 3th of May next, and regularly every Wednesday thereafter, secured in handsome printed covers, and on fine white paper, at $5 per annum, payable in advance. Clubs remitting $20 will be supplied with five copies for that sum; a gentle at the same rate. Address
