

From the Maysville Eagle, July 4.

MAXVILLE.—Five deaths have occurred in this city since the publication of our paper last week, viz:—Presley Foster, on Saturday night; John T. Langhorne, (one of our oldest merchants, but for several years past, the keeper of the Eagle tavern,) on Sunday; William, son of Mrs Burrows, on Sunday; and Miss Eliza Goddard, daughter of the late Col. William Goddard, on Monday morning and a little daughter of Mr. Corns, on Tuesday evening.—Miss Goddard was attacked in Flemingsburg about two weeks previous, with cholera, the disease terminating in congestive fever. Several cases occurred on Saturday night, Sunday, and Sunday night, most of which have recovered, with the exception of those above named. The general health of the inhabitants is now comparatively good—and business is rapidly resuming its wonted activity.

At Hanover, six miles west of Madison, one case occurred on Monday last, which terminated fatally. The deceased was a student of the Hanover College by the name of Thomas B. Goodwin, aged about 21 years, from Lunenburg county Va. He was taken at 9 o'clock in the morning, and died at 7 P. M. No case has since occurred that we have heard of. We have been informed that the panic among the students was great, and that about 40 of them have left the college.

In Salem says the New Albany Gazette, 40 have died, but the disease was abating. Among the dead are some of the most respectable inhabitants.—JOHN H. FARNHAM, Esq. was, we are informed, convalescent, but relapsed and died.—Madison Republican.

From the Lexington Observer, July 6.
OUR CITY.—Since the publication of our last paper, we have heard of two deaths in the city, and but two or three new cases of cholera. One of the deaths, was a case of eight or ten days standing; and the other, a black woman of Ch. Hunt, Esq. was new case. She was taken on Wednesday night. There are not at present, so far as we have heard, more than five or six sick in the city; and not more than two of them considered at all dangerous.

The cholera broke out with great violence in Newtown, a small village in Scott county, on Wednesday night last. By 2 o'clock next day there had been three deaths, and several other cases considered dangerous. The persons who died were Mr. Parker N. Hutchinson, a daughter of Jesse Cannon, and a colored person.

We learn that there have been, in all, twenty one deaths from cholera at the Chocta Academy in Scott county. One white person, nine Indians, and eleven blacks. It is said to have very much abated at that place.

CHOLERA AT SIMPSONVILLE, Ky.—In this little village, containing a population of 70 persons, 23 deaths had taken place from Cholera, at the last accounts. A horrible percentage.

CHOLERA IN SHELBYVILLE.—The disease has been peculiarly severe in this devoted town. From the 28th of June to the 9th of July, 89 deaths occurred; although, on the last mentioned day, very few of the inhabitants remained in the town, most of them having left on the appearance of the epidemic. A correspondent gives it as his opinion, "that the disease would soon entirely disappear, as nobody would be left to take it."

LEBANON, (Ohio) July 19.

There has been several cases of cholera in the vicinity of this town, during the week past, but few deaths have occurred. Mrs. Whitehead, died on Saturday last, near Deerfield, and John Merrill, (stage driver) on Thursday morning, between Waynesville and this place. There has been no decided case in town, though many have been strongly marked with the peculiar symptoms of the disease.

In Dayton there were 8 fatal cases of cholera from the 7th to the 11th of July.

Columbus, Ia July 20.

CHOLERA.—We have information from Charleston, through a most respectable source, to the 9th inst. the cholera was then still raging, and but little appearance of an abatement.—The following is a list of the names of some of the persons who have fallen in that town and county:

Mrs. Mary Carr, consort of General John Carr; Mrs. Morrow, consort of Capt. William Morrow; Mr. James Garner; Dr. Thomas Beggs, and his mother; Mrs. Scribner; M's. Carpenter, late of Salem; Mr. William Robinson; and a child of Mr. Thomas Armstrong.

We have at length received news from Salem on the subject of the cholera, that we are sure may be relied on so far as it goes. It is truly distressing; our informant, who is a citizen of this town, and who passed thro' Salem on Saturday the 14th inst. says that he was informed, by several citizens of that place, that the whole number of deaths which had occurred since the scourge broke out, amounted to about 100. 60 of which were in the town.—The disease was abating. There had been no new cases in the last 24 hours, and but two or three deaths in the two preceding days.

J. H. Farnham, esq. and wife; Mr. John Allen, editor of the Annotator, and wife; and Mr. Francis Hagan and wife, are among the fallen. We expect ere long, to receive a full list of the dead, when we will lay it before our readers.

The same gentleman who gave us the above information, was in Corydon also, and says that three cases had occurred in that town, but none had proved fatal. It was evidently on the decline there, as there had been no new cases for five or six days previous to the 13th inst.—Columbus Chronicle.

DEPOSITION OF LORINDA HEWITT.
The state of Indiana, Switzerland co. ss.

David Schoonover, Affidavit & notice to Solomon Washer. } perpetuate the testimony of LORINDA HEWITT.

Friday Morning June 21st, 1833.—Pursuant to adjournment the examination proceeded—present the parties as yesterday.

58. The night you say that Mrs. Washer went to Mrs. Hyde's, and Hyde's two boys were there, was there or was there not a stranger traveller in the house?—Not that I remember of.

59. If there had been a traveller there, would you not remember it?—I think I should.

60. You say that Mr. Hewitt and Mr. Schoonover were talking that Mr. Chamberlin knew when the trees were planted—was it then talked between them that Mr. Chamberlin was wanted as a witness?—(Over ruled.)

61. Did Mr. Hewitt your husband direct David Schoonover who to have subpoenaed as witnesses?—(Over-ruled)

62. Did you never visit Washer's family after the time named when you were 17 years old?—Yes.

63. Tell what time did you continue those visits?—Something like 2 or 3 years—it may not have been so long.

64. Were those visits made of your own free will and accord?—No.

65. Who prevailed on you to make those visits?—I have talked some with the neighbors, after I went to mother's to live, how Washer's wife used me, and the neighbors told me the same as my mother did, advising me to go there; they said it was not right to hold any thing against them.

66. Had you any other business to transact there except friendly visits?—They were always urging me to come there to work for them—I was never willing, but my people insisted on my going. I never went there to work when he (Washer) was at home, and I remember of, but the time that I spoke of yesterday. Mrs. Washer told me that her husband wondered why I did not come more when he was at home, and said my uncle thought hard of me for not coming when he was at home. I had no other business, and I never visited there because I wanted to go, but to please my people.

67. State whether you have not visited there after you was 17 years of age, when Washer was at home?—Sometimes he was there when I visited, and sometimes was not.

68. Did you or did you not make visits of several days at a time after you was 17, and was your grandfather there?—My grandfather was generally there when I went there—I never remember of visiting there two, or three, or four days at a time, after I was 17. I went there to work several times.

69. Did you not know, after you was 17, or 18, or 19, or 20 years of age, that it was improper for you to visit the house of a man when he was at home, that had attempted a violation of your chastity?—I knew it was improper.

70. Did you or did you not at different times, since you left Washer's house, receive small presents from him?—I do not remember of his giving me any thing—his wife has given me small things.

71. Do you recollect his presenting you with a trunk?—When he came up from down the river, my brother bro't a trunk to me and said it was a present for me; my brother did not tell me whether Mr. or Mrs. Washer sent it.

[CONCLUSION NEXT WEEK.]
* * We are under the necessity of delaying the publication of the balance of the testimony of Mrs. Hewitt, until the next week—we had not received the copy of it, when this paper went to press. We commenced publishing at the request, and at the expense of Solomon Washer. We wish to send us the amount of our bill, $20, immediately after we complete the job.

* * The name of Solomon Washer has been dropped for several weeks—he is not a subscriber to the "Weekly" Messenger (as the learned would-be spells it) and has neglected to pay us the dollar, demanded of non-subscribers. Neither, has his name been inserted in any of the tickets printed at this office, for the following, among other reasons:

1. He, Washer, not having made any arrangement or contract with us to print his tickets.

2. A friend of his, to whom we spoke to know whether he would make any arrangements on the subject informed us that "Mr. Washer had made his own arrangements for his own tickets."

3. Not being in the habit of working for nothing, finding ourselves, wasting our ink and paper, to further the views of our enemies.

4. Not feeling disposed to aid in imposing a man upon community, who is ineligible to hold the office, if elected.

THE DUTCH SETTLEMENT.

Extract from a letter to the editors, from sheriff Banta, dated Pleasant, July 22.

Gentlemen—Through the mercies of a good and gracious God, myself and family are in a good state of health—by a wonderful display of the mercy of the almighty sovereign ruler of heaven and earth, our family has been spared, although we have all had the premonitory symptoms of this dreadful scourge. I have lost six of my relatives, in this immediate neighborhood. I will not, at this time, undertake to describe the confusion and distress in the neighborhood—all business was stopped—the farmers' grain stood in the field, some cut and the balance standing, none being able to leave their families to take care of it, &c. &c. &c. The disease is abating here—but is moving to the west and north like a mighty lion. I annex a list of the deaths in this neighborhood. (The names of the most of them, have already been published in this paper.)

NEXT PRESIDENT.—Daniel Webster has been announced in the Washington city "Examiner" as a candidate for the next presidency.

The president returned to Washington city, on the 4th instant, from his eastern tour.

In consequence of the low stage of the water, no mail has been sent from New-Orleans to Louisville, since the 20th of May last, by the Ohio and Mississippi Mail Line.

DIED.

Suddenly, on Tuesday last, Lieutenant JAMES HOOD, latter, late of Chambersburg, Pennsylvania. Mr. Hood was a prominent candidate for the legislature; but was called from this wicked world, before his fellow-citizens could realize any benefit from his "tracendental talents."—Mr. Hood had fables, (and who has none) but those he left behind him, feel disposed, to "pity him, and rather than censure him give him their prayers." Printers in Pennsylvania, are requested to notice his death, that his numerous relatives in that state, may be apprised of the time and place of his death.

Sarah Maria Cornell.—The existence near Providence, of a female of the above name, is thus confirmed by the Providence City Gazette:

"We understand that there is now living in this vicinity a girl of the name of Sarah Maria Cornell, and it is supposed her name and fame have been blended with the female, who, it is said, was murdered by the Rev E. K. Avery. That such a girl as Sarah Maria Cornell does now exist, we know to be a fact. Her story was before the public a year or two ago, and might be repeated if its grossness did not render it unfit for the public eye. We know the girl by reputation, and at one time she was daily in the streets."

Clough.—On Thursday last, Clough was overheard in an attempt to effect a breach in the wall of his cell. He had been considerably indisposed, and was still laboring under much debility. This circumstance he doubtless apprehended would allay suspicion. He was confined in the cell occupied by Williams, the pick-pocket, who about a year since broke from our prison, was retaken, and subsequently detected in the act of effecting a second escape, by perforating the wall. It had never been repaired, and Clough, aided by a pewerspoon, a stone, and two small blocks of wood, commenced operations at the same place, and must have succeeded at night-fall had he not been detected. The wall is about two feet thick, more than half was overcome; and as it opened into the yard, he would certainly have got off, as the walls could easily have been scaled. Soon after beginning the discovery was made, and his operations noted; always resuming his work when any commotion was observed, particularly when the pump was visited. On being told that he must enter the dungeon, he averred his determination not to comply—that he would not be taken in alive. He was, however, placed there, when he attempted to starve himself, which he persisted in for about 24 hours, when his resolution gave way to the cravings of an empty stomach.—Mount Holly Herald.
