

Latest from England.

The British mail packet Lady Ogle arrived at Boston on the 10th inst. via Halifax, from Falmouth, England, bringing Falmouth dates of August 10th. We presume the London dates by this conveyance are one day later than we have received here. The following extracts are from the Boston papers:

Don Pedro and suite arrived at Lisbon from Oporto, in the steamer William IV. on Sunday 23rd July, at noon. He was received with great enthusiasm. When Admiral Napier went on board the steamer to pay his respects, the Emperor assisted him up the vessel's side, and embraced him. They had not met before since the battle of St. Vincent.

The city rang with shouts of Viva! Donna Maria! Viva! Don Pedro! Lisbon were an animated appearance, and the change of Government was generally hailed as a blessing. Don Miguel was supposed to be with the army in the north, and active measures were in train to expel him from the country. Lisbon had been illuminated every night since it was taken possession of by the Duke of Terceira.

The British and French Cabinets, it was reported on high authority, had signified to the representation of Don Pedro their wish that he should withdraw all pretensions to the Regency of Portugal during the minority of the Queen, in favor of the infant king.

Confidence of the entire defeat of Miguel exists in all quarters.

The Falmouth Herald mentions that two ships of the Royal Navy had just sailed from Plymouth for Portugal, doubtless to look after the British interests in the present crisis.

In the House of Commons, the slavery bill was re-committed to the whole house. An amendment was introduced, extending the act of the 52d Geo. III. to all the West India Islands, and thereby securing to dissenters the same benefits they enjoy in England. The bill was restored to the House and passed. A vote of a million has passed, to pay the arrears of the Irish composition for the last three years. O'Connell and his friends voted for it as the "first measure of conciliation," and it was carried by 36 majority.

LATEST FROM MEXICO.

The New Orleans Bulletin of the 21st ult. has the following—

By the schooner Tampico, Dayton, from Tampico, we have copious files of the Gazeta, to the 10th August, and a supplement from the Telegrafo of Mexico (city), the latter containing a despatch from Gen. Valencia, to the Minister of War, dated Cuernavaca, July 25. The latter had totally defeated the insurgent General, D. Angel Perez Palacios, with all his host, prisoners arms, every thing falling into the hands of Valencia. The battle lasted five hours; the patriot troops he having in the most heroic manner.

On which the Telegraph observes, "the liberty of the Mexicans is about to be secured forever."

In the state of New Leon, Cal. Don Romon Cortina, commanding the Federal Troops had completely triumphed over the rebels, who had renounced their faction and placed themselves at the disposal of the Mexican government. (Last despatch dated, Montezy, July 19.)

The prisoners taken at Cuernavaca are 320, besides Escobedo, and Palacios (Tampico G. Z. Aug. 9.)

The same paper, same date, says—A courier has just arrived from Mexico, and it being too late to make extracts, we shall only say that Gen. Valencia's victory is confirmed, and on the 29th of July, Arista and Duran were in Griega moving towards Zelaya.

Mexico, July 23.

We announce with grief that at the departure of the express which brought the preceding (Valencia's) despatch Gen. D. Vincente Filasala was in the agonies of death.

THE MESSENGER.

Printer's Retreat, Indiana.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1833.

SOLOMON WASHER.

Our readers will recollect that this gentleman commenced a suit against the editors of this paper, for publishing a communication in May last, over the signature of "Junius Brutus," in which he was charged with violating the chastity of an orphan girl, 11 or 12 years of age, who was living at the time under his protection. At the late term of the St. Charles Circuit Court, Mr. Washer was required to give security for costs of said suit, which he utterly refused or neglected to do—he well knowing, that the charges contained in the publication of J. Brutus, could be proved upon him—and the court in consequence entered the following order against him:

Solomon Washer, }
Keen & Child, } SLANDER.

Come the parties by their attorney, and the said plaintiff failing to comply with the rule heretofore taken on him, and showing no sufficient cause, said rule is made absolute; and for said cause, this case is dismissed.

It is therefore considered by the court, that said defendants recover of said plaintiff their costs by them in their behalf laid out and expended, and that said plaintiff be amerced for his false clamor.

I certify the above to be a true copy of the order of court in the above cause.—September, 27th 1833.

EDWARD PATTON, clerk.

The third trial of John Jones came on last week, at Columbus, Bartholomew county, Ia., and the jury again found him guilty of the crime of murder. CADEN Heron was also tried on an indictment for murder, and found guilty. On Saturday morning the prisoners were brought into court, when Judge Morris pronounced sentence of death upon them.

The day set for their execution is on Friday, the 11th of October next.

Government Deposites.

The Washington Globe of the 20th inst. announces that the deposits of the public monies will shortly be changed from the bank of the United States to the State banks; and that arrangements have been made for this purpose in Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, and Boston, in time to make the change by the 1st of October. The Globe further states, that it is not in contemplation to remove the whole of the deposits from the bank of the United States at once, but to withdraw it gradually by the usual operations of the government—so that the change need not produce any inconvenience to the commercial community. It is stated new reasons have come to light, which render this step necessary.

It is now ascertained for certain, that John Ewing is elected to Congress from the 2d congressional district by a majority of two votes over John W. Davis. By the returns as at first received in the secretary's office at Indianapolis these gentlemen were tied; but is seems a mistake was made in the return from Knox county, which has since been rectified by the clerk of that county filing a second certificate in the secretary's office.

Thomas T. Bouldin, Esq. who has been for some years past the representative of the Charlotte Congressional District, Va., but had declined being a candidate, at the April election, because Mr. Randolph desired to go once more to Congress, has been elected to fill the vacancy occasioned by that gentleman's death.

A short time since, some workmen, digging a foundation for a livery stable in Middle alley, Albany, N. Y., found a parcel of bombs and shells, charged with powder. They are supposed to indicate the existence there of a magazine or laboratory, during the French or, perhaps Revolutionary War.

"Some things can be done as well as others."

SAM PATCH.

A friend has communicated to us the following fact, which we present to our readers without comment—it speaks for itself.

"Mrs. Ewing, wife of Mr. Patrick Ewing, of Decatur county, was delivered last night (8th inst.) of three fine boys weighing each 7½, 6½ and 6½ lbs.—making in the aggregate 20½ lbs.—All doing well"—Palladium.

CHOLERA IN NEW ORLEANS.—The epidemic still prevails to a frightful extent in New Orleans. From the 8th to the 21st of August, there were 346 deaths, some of which were caused by yellow fever, but the principal part were cholera cases. On the 1st day of September 35 interments were reported. Amongst the deaths by yellow fever, is that of Jonathan Wadley, of Oxford, Ohio, in the 24th year of his age.

THE SPY

AND SPIRIT OF THE AGE.

THE unprecedented success of the SPY—there having been nearly seven hundred subscribers received since its commencement, in July last—is the best evidence of the estimation it has secured in the public mind. While the present proprietors will pursue the course which has conferred such eminent popularity on their predecessors, they will also use every endeavor to give the SPY, if possible, a spirit of great vigor, variety and originality, than has been heretofore achieved. This publication is intended as a satirical observer and corrector of the morals and manners of the day. Satire is a most effective and powerful weapon in the hands of a judicious tactician, and may be used on any occasion with advantage, but particularly upon the vices or follies of the community. The respectable responsibility assumed, is a sufficient guarantee for its utility and excellence; and for the total expulsion from its columns of that scurrilous which blunts the edge of satire, and deprives it of its purifying agency. Literature and the Drama will be sharers of its columns and all that is serviceable to the progress of useful information and moral improvement will receive its warm advocacy.

The terms are $2 per annum, payable in advance, or $2 50, if not paid before the expiration of six months.

Agents will be allowed a discount of 10 per cent. on all subscribers they obtain by remitting or becoming responsible for the same. They will also be entitled to a copy of this paper gratuitously.

All orders must be addressed (post paid) to

BAILY & BROWN'S
Circus, and Menagerie
OF LIVING ANIMALS.

WILL be exhibited in VEVAY on Tuesday, the 1st, and at JACKSONVILLE on Wednesday, the 2d day of October, 1833.

The proprietors, in recommending their united Exhibitions to the public, feel confident that it contains the most rare and beautiful collection of wild animals that ever appeared in this part of the country; this, together with the splendid performances of the Circus, render it one of the most pleasing performances ever offered to the public.

4 LIONS,

3 Asiatic Lions, in one cage. The keeper will enter the cage, each day, and caress and perform these kings of the forest.

Mammoth African Lion, Not only the largest, but is considered the finest animal of the Lion species in the world.

The Untamable Hyena, the most fierce and blood thirsty quadruped known. When destitute of other food it ransacks the graves and devours putrid human bodies.

THE KANGAROO.

This extraordinary animal is considered by naturalists, as one of the greatest curiosities in the world; its fore legs being only about 18 inches in length, with a claw similar to that of an eagle, and only used for conveying food to its mouth; the hind ones are about four feet in length.

The Tiger, Hunting Leopard, North American Leopards, the Jaguar, a beautiful African Leopard and a North American Pantheress, in one cage, Red Alpaca, from Chili, a variety of Apes, Monkeys, and Baboons. For a full description of the animals, see large bills.

CIRCUS.

The performance of the Circus will consist of Horsemanship, vaulting, tumbling, &c. aided by the whimsicalities of the Clown.

Hours of exhibition from 11 o'clock, A. M. until 4 P. M. Admission 25 cents—children under 9 years of age, half price.
