

POETRY.

The Harvest Home.

Honor the Lord with thy substance, and with the first fruits of all things increase;

So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses burst with new wine.

Proverbs.

Shout, reapers, shout your "harvest home,"

Shout praises to the glovi us Lord,

Who sour'd the rain, who warm'd the sun,

Whose bounty has our garners stor'd,

He bade the Spring with zephyr breath

Blow mildly o'er each frozen glade,

Till, bursting from the bonds of death,

Up rose the green and spicy blade.

In vernal show'r his His goodness flow'd

On every hill, on every plain,

His providential care bestow'd

The early and the latter rain.

He beckon'd to the frostiest south,

And call'd young Summer into birth,

Then crown'd with blessings sent her forth

To shine upon the gladden'd earth.

And bade, beneath her genial heat,

The soil her varied riches yield,

That man might from his labors reap

The income of each fruitful field.

And next, as onward roll'd the year,

Brown Autumn, with her plentious horn,

Shook from her lap the ripen'd ear,

The bearded grain, and yellow corn,

And when by fruitful increase spent,

The land from labor sought repose;

Old Winter from the north He sent

To wrap her in his hoary snows.

And bade him in his icy chain

Bind earth and air, and field and flood,

Till balmy Spring should breathe again

Her fragrance over each flower and bud

Thus, all the seasons in their turn,

At His command their treasure pour,

That man with grateful heart might learn,

The bounteous Giver to adore.

Then turn each eye, and bend each knee,

In praise to Heaven's eternal throne,

While every heart swells gratefully,

Thanksgivings for your harvest home.

And, as ye raise your gladsome voice,

And higher swells the solemn tone,

Or let your thankful hearts rejoice

And gladly shout the HARVEST HOME.

TO PRINTERS.

BALTIMORE TYPE FOUNDRY.

THE proprietors of the Baltimore Type Foundry respectfully inform the Printers in the United States, that they are now prepared to furnish them with a great variety of letter, suited to book, news, and job work, at prices the same as they can be obtained at other foundries, consisting principally of the following, viz:

Nonpareil, Minion, Brevier, Burgeois, Long Primer, Small Pica, Pica, English, Great Primer, Double Pica, Double English, Double Great Primer, Cannon, Five Lines Pica; and the following Antique Type: Nonpareil, Brevier, Burgeois, Long Primer, Pica, 4 lines Pica, 8 lines Pica—lines Pica ornamented, 8 lines Pica fluted, 8 lines Pica oak leaf, 8 lines Pica ornamented, &c. &c. &c.

Together with leads, brass rule, dashes, plain and ornamented; a great variety of flowers, cuts suitable for books, newspapers and hand bills, card borders, &c.

Orders for any of the above, as also for presses, cases, chases, composing sticks, gallies, ink, varnish, or any thing required in the completion of an office, will be executed on terms as favourable as at any other establishment of a similar kind in the United States. Old type will be taken in exchange at nine cents per pound, delivered at the Foundry.

Mr. Edwin Starr, who has been long engaged in carrying on this business, is superintending the Baltimore Foundry, and from his well known experience, will be enabled to attend to the orders of printers in such a manner, for promptness and accuracy, as to insure satisfaction.
