UNION HALL.
THE subscriber respectfully informs his friends, and the public generally, that he continues to keep a House of Entertainment at the old stand, formerly kept by Mr. Amos Gilbert, in the town of Vevay, Indiana. He has fitted up the house in a superior manner, and hopes to please all who feel disposed to call on him. His bar is furnished with the best liquors, both foreign and domestic, and he has a Waggon Yard attached to the premises, which is very convenient for those who travel in that mode. His stables are well provided with plenty of provender, and he feels assured, that no guest will depart from the house dissatisfied with his fare, and the superior entertainment he may receive.
ROBERT LECLERC, sures his friends that his store will show y, and midwifery.

Universities of Dublin and Longburgh, from which latter place he holds his de-

LOOK AT THIS!

Store in Jacksonville, to Mr. Moses Chamberlin, and as they are both going to the South, one for the benefit of his health, and the other on business; they earnestly request those indebted to them, to call and settle their accounts immediately—if not settled soon, they will be under the necessity of leaving them with a magistrate for collection.

EDWIN STOREY,

TO FARMERS.

THE subscriber wishes to purchase, im-

THE SPY AND SPIRIT OF THE AGE.

THE unprecedented success of the SPY—there having been nearly seventeen hundred subscribers received since its commencement, in July last—is the best evidence of the estimation it has enjoyed in the public mind. While the present proprietors will pursue the course which has conferred such eminent popularity on their predecessors, they will also use every endeavor to give the SPY, if possible, a spirit of great vigor, variety and originality, than has been heretofore achieved. This publication is intended as a satirical observer and corrector of the morals and manners of the day. Satire is a most effective and powerful weapon in the hands of a judicious tactician, and may be used on any occasion with advantage, but particularly upon the vices or follies of the community. The responsible responsibility assumed, is a sufficient guarantee for its utility and excellence; and for the total expulsion from its columns of that security which binds the edge of satire, and deprives it of its purifying agency. Literature and the Drama will be shunned in its columns and all that is serviceable to the progress of useful information and moral improvement will receive its warm advocacy.

The terms are $2 per annum, payable in advance, or $2 50, if not paid before the expiration of six months.

Agents will be allowed a discount of 10 per cent. on all subscribers they obtain by remitting or becoming responsible for the same. They will also be entitled to a copy of this paper gratuitously.
—All orders must be addressed (post paid) to
