Bruce's Type Foundry.

No. 13, Chamber street near Chatham N. York. THE price of five line Pica, Plain and Antique, is reduced to 25 cents a pound, and six line Pica and larger to 20 cents, thereby making these perfect metal types cheaper than any other.

This Foundry has a most extensive and unparalleled assortment of Plain, Shaded, Condensed and Ornamental types, by which printers at the letter press are enabled to rival the impressions from copper-plate in beauty, fancy and tasteful display.

The assortment embraces 250 sizes or varieties from twelve line Pica to Pearl, of Roman, Italic, Black, Antique, Italian, Title, Condensed, Shaded, Script, Backslope, German Text, Ornamental, Music, &c. and also Piece Fractions, Superiors, Space Rules, Astronomical and other Signs, Ornamental Dashes, Long Braces, Rules, nearly 300 Borders, and more than 1000 Cuts or Ornaments for Newspapers, School Books, and Scientific works.

The subscribers furnish Composing Sticks, Cases, Chases, Galleys, Furniture, Paper, Ink, all kinds of Printing Presses, and every article required in a Printing Office. They also execute orders for Stereotyping.

Printers of newspapers who publish this advertisement (with this note) three times before the 1st July, 1836 and send a paper containing it to the Foundry, shall receive payment when they make a purchase from the Foundry of four times the amount of their bill. The publication of our former advertisement is hereby forbidden.

IN CHANCERY IN THE SWITZ'D. PROBATE COURT.

James Boyle

vs.

William S. Moss.

For specific performance.

COMES the complainant by Dumont his solicitor, and proves by the affidavit of Daniel Kelson, that William S. Moss is not a resident of this state—it is therefore ordered that publication of the pendency of this suit be published three weeks successively in the Weekly Messenger, a public newspaper printed in the county of Switzerland, and that unless the said William S. Moss appear here on the first day of the next term of this court [which will be holden on Monday, August 8, 1836, at the court house in Vevay.] and put in a proper defence to said bill, the matters and things therein contained will be taken as confessed against him, and decreed accordingly.

May 10.

Celebrated Trials.

AND CASES OF CRIMINAL JURISPRUDENCE.

OF ALL AGES AND COUNTRIES, FROM THE EARLIEST RECORD.

Selected by a member of the Philadelphia bar.

TREASON, RO BEERY, LIBEL, SEDITION, MURDER, PIRACY, WITCHERY, HERESY, FORGERY, &c. &c. &c.

These remarkable and deeply interesting trials have been collected from all the best sources which the public and private libraries of this country afford. The numbers will embrace many recent cases furnished exclusively by the London Annual Register, and recourse has been had occasionally to manuscripts where printed documents could not be procured.

It is believed that the collection supplies a striking deficiency in the library of the lawyer, physician, and general reader. Much care and attention has been exercised in the compilation, to make it not only acceptable but a necessary adjunct to the books already accessible, and the reader is confidently referred to the case mentioned below for the evidence of the variety and value of the materials.

To members of the bar the publisher need hardly recommend it, as they must know its worth, but to the general reader, who may be misled as to its character, the publisher assures them that it will be found, when completed, a volume of the most intense and exciting interest.

One singular and alarming fact presents itself in the murder cases, and it is that so many should die protesting their innocence. Is it to be believed, that upon the verge of eternity they could so loudly proclaim that which they know to be false, when not a hope of escape is held out to them? The "circumstantial evidence" cases of which there are five, would make us think otherwise. It is a subject that may well make one ponder upon the law which demands life for life.

SOME OF THE CONTENTS.

John Thurtell and Joseph Hunt, for the murder of William Ware, at Hartford, January, 1334; Henry Fauntleroy, esq. for forgery, at the Old Bailey, October, 30 1824; Anna Scholzleben (Germany) for poisoning, 1808; John Dock Rouvett, for forgery, 1806; John Holloway and Owen Hagerty, for the murder of John Cole Steele, on Hounslow-heath, February 22, 1807; The unknown murderer, or the police at fault (Germany) 1817; Thomas Simmons, for murder, Oct. 20, 1807; major Alexander Campbell, for the murder of captain Alexander Boyd, at Armah, in a duel, 1807; James Stewart, for the murder of sir Alexander Boswell, in a duel, 1822; Martha Alden, for murder, 1807; Francis S. Riembaner, for assassination, 1805; Eliza Fenning, for an attempt to poison Mr. Oliver Turner, and family, April 11, 1815; William Jones, for murder Abraham Thornton, for the murder of Mary Ashford, 1817; Casting, the physician, for murder, at Paris, Nov. 1817; John Donelan, esq. for the murder of sir Theodosius Edward Allessly Boughton, before the hon. sir Francis Buller, 1781; sir Walter Raleigh, for high treason, in the reign of James I, 1608; James O'Coigley, Arthur O'Conner, John Bunn, John Allen, and Jeremiah Leary, for high treason, at Maidstone, 1798.

The publication will commence in July next. It will be published in monthly numbers, containing 120 pages each, printed on fine white paper of the size of the Murray novels, and will be completed in five months, or sooner, at the option of the publisher—making a volume of 600 closely printed octavo pages. The numbers will be sent by mail to any part of the Union, carefully packed. Terms $2 for the complete work, or three copies for five dollars.

It is worthy of remark, that a similar work is published in London at about 75 cents a number, and contains only 78 small duodecimo pages. This edition will cost 40 cents a number, and contains 120 large octavo pages.
