

WEEKLY MESSENGER.
Printer's Retreat, Indiana.

Saturday, July 2, 1836.

Among the letters remaining in the Natchez, Mississippi, post office, on the 1st of June, is one directed to Miecheer Viender Dunder Doctor Dongorslooon Boker Hobber Vodler Schinkenberger, care of Miecheer Viender Dickeson Steinmutz Gooldshwater, Natchez Mississippi.

HARMONIA.—Our dollar will be charged in announcing each marriage when the person solemnizing the same, or the man married, do not take our paper.

MORNING NEWS.—The rev. mr. Ely's steam boat Morn City Packet, lay a few Sundays ago at Evansville, being forbidden to run on the Sabbath—the passengers went a gunning and many of the crew got drunk.

ECONOMY.—At the moment the president refused the services of a regiment of Kentucky volunteers, mr. Benton in the United States senate, introduces a bill to increase Randolph's ragged uniform, standing army.

SCHOOL COMMISSIONER.—We are authorized to say that THOMAS COLE, will be a candidate for re-election at the next August election.

SAVE YOUR CASH.—In two weeks, we are to be visited by a splendid caravan of rare animals, consisting of the greatest variety, that has ever been exhibited in our county; said caravan will be accompanied by a large company of circus riders, with beautiful horses, and a full band of music. Will it not be advisable for those who have but little money to expend for such purposes, to wait until the caravan arrives. The caravan and circus united, charge no more than the circus that is a boat to visit us.

UNITED STATES SENATE.—The term of service, for which William Hendricks was elected, will expire on the 4th day of March next. A successor is to be elected by our next legislature. Although we have not approved of many of the votes given by him; yet we will be pleased at his re-election. Noah Noble and Ratliff Boon, are named as his competitors. We wish to hear the opinions of our candidates for the legislature upon this subject as we will be entirely governed, in giving our vote, by that question.

Stark's Address;

BEFORE THE BATTLE OF BENNINGTON.

Stand—the ground's your own my braves; Stand—nor cower to foreign slaves; Stand—or fall in honor's grave; Freemen live or die.

Soldiers, freemen! now's the hour; Yonder foe is in your power; Firm, amid the battle's show'r, Strike for liberty.

Mark your leaders, here their call, Herrick, Warner, Walbridge—all, They triumphantly may fall, But shall never flee,

Breast to breast, maintain the ground; Let your deeds the foe confound; Every motion deal a wound; Death at every blow.

Honor, country, all that's dear; Wives and children, call us here, Now with hearts estranged to fear, Let us do or die.

By the power that rules the skies, Yonder foe before us flies, Or Molly Stark a widow lies— Soldiers! follow me!

HAIL COLUMBIA.

Hail Columbia! happy land, Hail, ye heroes! heaven born band, Who fought and bled in freedom's cause, And when the storm of war was gone, Enjoyed the peace your valor won.

Let independence be your boast, Ever mindful what it cost, Ever grateful for the prize, Let its alters reach the skies.

Firm—united let us be, Rallying round our liberty; As a band of brothers joined, Peace and safety we shall find.

Immortal Patriots, rise once more, Defend your right, defend your shore. Let no robe ofe with impious hand, Invade the soil where sacred lies, Of toil and blood, the well earned prize.

While offering peace, sincere and just; In heaven we place a manly trust; That, truth and justice will prevail, And every scheme of bondage fail.

Firm—united, &c.

Sound, O! sound the trumpet of fame, Let Washington's immortal name, Ring thro' the world with loud applause; Let every clime, to freedom dear, Listen with joyful eye.

With equal skill, and godlike power, He governed in a fearful hour, Of horrid war, or guides with ease, The happier times of honest peace.

Firm—united, &c.

Behold the chief who now commands, Once more to serve his country stands, The rock on which the storm will beat: But armed in virtue, firm and true, His hopes are fixed on heaven and you.

When hope was sinking in dismay, And gloom obscured Columbia's day, His steady mind, from changes free, Resolved on death or liberty.

Firm—united, &c.

The Saturday News.

AND LITERARY GAZETTE.

A weekly family newspaper—devoted to literature, criticism, the fine arts, general intelligence, news &c. Price two dollars per annum, payable in advance.

ON Saturday July 2, 1836. The subscribers will commence, in Philadelphia, the publication of a new weekly newspaper under the above title.

The News will embrace every variety of light literature, including, tales, poetry, essays, criticisms, notices of the fine arts, the drama, &c.—The original matter will be supplied by writers of the first eminence. A regular correspondence will be maintained with Washington, and the principal cities of the Union, and arrangements are in progress by which letters from Europe will be constantly furnished.

Attention will be paid to securing at the earliest possible date, the choicest productions of the English periodical press. Popular novels, will occasionally be given, though they will not be suffered to interfere with a general variety. The latest news, and all items of interesting intelligence will invariably form part of the contents.

The News will be printed on a folio sheet of the largest class, and will furnish as large an amount of reading matter as any weekly paper now published in this country. It will be conducted in a spirit of the most fearless independence. All allusion to party politics or sectarian religion will be carefully avoided.
