

56,680 SUBSCRIBERS!

PHILADELPHIA MIRROR.

This splendid patronage awarded to the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, induces the editors to commence the publication, under the above title, of a quarto edition of their popular journal, so long known as the largest Family Newspaper in the United States, with a list of over twenty-six thousand subscribers. The new feature recently introduced of furnishing their readers with new books of the best literature of the day, having proved so eminently successful, the plan will be continued. Six volumes of the celebrated writings of Captain Marryatt, and sixty-five of Mr. Brook's valuable letters from Europe, have already been published with out interfering with its news and miscellaneous reading. The Courier is the largest and cheapest family newspaper ever issued in this country, containing articles in literature, science, and arts; internal improvements; agriculture; in short every variety of topics usually introduced into a public journal. Giving full accounts of sales, markets and rates of the latest dates.

It is published at the low price of 2d. For the small sum subscribers get valuable and entertaining matter, each week enough to fill a book 200 pages, and equal to 52 volumes a year, and which is estimated to be sold weekly, by at least two hundred thousand copies, scattered in all parts of the country, from Maine to Florida, and from the seaboard to the lakes. The paper has been now so long established as to render it too well known to require an extended prospectus; the publishers therefore, will do no more than refer to the two leading daily political papers of opposite politics. The Pennsylvaniaian says—"The Saturday Courier is the largest, and one of the best family newspapers in the Union; the other, the Inquirer and Daily Courier, says, 'it is the largest journal published in Philadelphia, and one of the very best in the United States.' The New York Star says—"we know of nothing more liberal on the part of the editors, and no means more effectual to draw out the dormant talents of our country, than their unremitting liberality in offering literary prizes."

The Albany Mercury of March 18th, 1836, says—"the Saturday Courier is decidedly the best newspaper ever published in this or any other country and its value is duly appreciated by the public, if we may judge by its vast circulation which exceeds $3,000 per week! Its contents are agreeably varied, and each number contains more really valuable reading matter than is published in any week in any daily paper in the Union. Its mammouth dimensions enable its enterprising proprietors, Jesus, Woonward & Clarke, of Philadelphia, to republish in its columns, in the course of a year, several of the most interesting new works that issue from the British press; which cannot fail to give to it a permanent interest, and render it worthy of preservation. To meet the wishes, therefore, of such of their subscribers as desire to have their numbers bound, they have determined on issuing an edition of the Courier in the quarto form, which will render it much more convenient for reading when it is bound in a volume, and thus greatly enhance its value."

THE QUARTO EDITION.

Under the title of the PHILADELPHIA MIRROR, will commence with the publication of the Prize Table, to which was awarded the prize of $100, written by Miss Leslie, editor of the splendid Anti-Slavery and the Token, and author of Pencil Sketches, and other valuable contributions, to American literature. A large number of songs, poems, tales, &c. offered in competition for the $500 premiums, will add value and interest to the succeeding numbers which will also be enriched by a story from Miss Sedgewick, author of Hope Leslie, The Linwoods, &c., whose talents have been so justly and extensively appreciated, both at home and abroad.

This approved family newspaper is strictly neutral in religious and political matters, and the uncompromising opponent of quackery of every kind.

MAPS.

In addition to all of which the publishers intend furnishing their patrons with a series of engraved maps, embracing the twenty-five states of the Union, &c., exhibiting the situation &c., of rivers, towns, mountains, lakes, the sea board, internal improvements, as displayed in canals, rail roads, &c., with other interesting and useful features, roads, distances, &c., forming a complete Atlas for general use and information, handsomely executed, and each distinct map on a large quarto sheet, at an expense which nothing but the splendor of patronage which for six years past has been so generously extended to them, could warrant.

TERMS.

The Philadelphia Saturday Courier is still confined in its large form, at the same price as heretofore. The Philadelphia Mirror, being a quarto edition of the Saturday Courier, with its increased attractions, and printed on the best fine white paper of the same size of the New York Albany, will be put at precisely one half the price of that valuable journal, viz: Three Dollars per annum payable in advance, (including the maps.)

LA MOTT'S COUGH DROPS.

VALUABLE MEDICINE FOR COUGHS AND CONSUMPTION. This Elixir, in its original form of prescription, has stood the test of twenty years experience, in the general use of it, and is now offered, with the addition of some articles from the vegetable kingdom, the virtues of which, have been fully attested and highly appreciated which render this composition peculiarly adapted to the present prevailing disorders of the breast and lungs, leading to consumption—Common colds and coughs, which are occasioned by obstructed perspiration, will readily yield to its influence, removing those troublesome irritations, which act as a constant stimulant to coughing. It eases pain, and induces rest to an eminent degree. Persons affected with pulmonary complaints, bleeding of the lungs, &c. spasmodic asthma, palpitation of the heart, and consumptive affections, even in the most advanced periods of life, will find immediate relief, from its remarkable power of diminishing irritability of the system, and the velocity of the circulation, and by cleansing and healing the disordered parts. It also affords immediate relief in the hooping cough—203-1
