The Saturday News.
AND LITERARY GAZETTE.
 A weekly family newspaper—devoted to literature, criticism, the fine arts, general intelligence, news &c. Price two dollars per annum, payable in advance.
 N Saturday July 2, 1836. The subscribers will commence, in Philadelphia, the publication of a new weekly newspaper under the above title.
 The News will embrace every variety of light literature, including tales, poetry, essays, criticisms, notices of the fine arts, the drama, &c. The original matter will be supplied by writers of the first eminence. A regular correspondence will be maintained with Washington, and the principal cities of the Union and arrangements are in progress by which letters from Europe will be constantly furnished.
 Attention will be paid to securing at the earliest possible date the choicest productions of the English periodical press. Popular novels will occasionally be given, though they will not be suffered to interfere with a general variety. The latest news, and all items of interesting intelligence will invariably form part of the contents.
 The News will be printed on a folio sheet of the largest class, and will furnish as large an amount of reading matter as any weekly paper now published in this country. It will be conducted in a spirit of the most fearless independence. All allusion to party politics or sectarian religion will be carefully avoided.

THE SILK GROWER'S GUIDE.
 With various Engravings.
 At $2 per annum, in advance.

ON Wednesday, August 3, 1836, the first number of the SILK GROWER'S GUIDE, will be published by the subscriber, and continued every other Wednesday thereafter, each number containing 16 large super royal octavo pages, double columns, expressly adapted for binding, and the whole subject fully illustrated by appropriate engravings.
 Every possible source of information will be used to make this a standard publication for American cultivators of silk. The editor is extensively familiar with the subject, from personal experience in its most important branches, and comes prepared to furnish his readers with information so much desired on this interesting subject. He will also be assisted with valuable pens in this city and vicinity, where the mulberry tree and silk worm have for many years received close attention.
 The cultivators of the mulberry tree, in all its varieties—the rearing of silk worms—production of cocoons—reeling, manufacturing, and dyeing silk—the easy introduction of the silk business—its immense value to every farmer—its profits—its peculiar applicability to our climate, and the habits of our farmers, with numerous other considerations, will be fully and honestly elucidated in this publication. Philadelphia, as a focus, possesses remarkable facilities for the acquisition and dissemination of this important knowledge. The best root sugar culture, and agricultural subjects in general, will be assiduously attended to. To make the subject peculiarly intelligible, engravings will be freely employed to illustrate the work, and no expense spared to place it in the first rank as the most complete publication on silk husbandry in America.

It will be printed on fine paper, with good type, and packed up to defy injury by the mail. Six copies will be sent for $10—thirteen for $20.
 Address the editor, (post paid.)

LA MOTT'S COUGH DROPS.
VALUABLE MEDICINE FOR COUGHS AND CONSUMPTION.
THIS ELIXIR, in its original form of prescription, has stood the test of twenty years experience, in the general use of it, and is now offered, with the addition of some articles from the vegetable kingdom, the virtues of which, have been fully attested and highly appreciated, which render this composition peculiarly adapted to the present prevailing disorders of the breast and lungs, leading to consumption—Common colds and coughs, which are occasioned by obstructed perspiration, will readily yield to its influence, removing those troublesome irritations, which act as a constant stimulant to coughing. It cases pain and induces rest to an eminent degree. Persons afflicted with pulmonary complaints, bleeding of the lungs, &c. spasmodic asthma, palpitation of the heart, and consumptive affections, even in the most advanced periods of life, will find immediate relief, from its remarkable power of diminishing irritability of the system, and the velocity of the circulation, and by cleansing and healing the disordered parts. It also affords immediate relief in the hooping cough—203-1

Dr. Judkin's SPECIFIC OINTMENT.
THIS valuable medicine is celebrated for curing the following diseases: White Swellings of every description—Sore Legs and Ulcers of long standing—Glandular Tumors—Felonis or Catarrhs—Rheumatic pains of the Joints; Sprains; Bruises; and Tetters; Chilblains; or parts affected by frost. It is also good for Scalds and Bursas.
 For glandular swellings, it is superior to any medicine yet known. It is much safer than mercurial applications, (as it does not contain the smallest atom of that mineral) because it does not lay the patient liable to injury from exposure of cold.
 It cures the worst Felon or Whitlows on the application forty-eight hours. Rheumatism which have stood as long as to become a systematic disorder, require medicine to be taken inward to remove them entirely. But in most cases by applying this ointment externally as directed, it will give relief.
 Certificates of important cures—also directions for accompany each bottle. 203-1y
 The above articles are sold by D. McCullough Vevay and Jacksonville, and Lyman W. Mix, Mt. Sterling.

Caution to Farmers.
THE undersigned cautions farmers and others to beware of whose father lives in Bartholmew county, in this state. He came to my house in labor on a farm, worked a few days and was taken sick. I called upon an able physician to attend on him, but as soon as he was able to be about he basely absconded, leaving me to pay his doctor bill and other expenses. He also contracted debts with a merchant in the neighborhood and has not paid them, when he had plenty of cash, he also stole a pair of socks from another neighbor. Look out for him—guard well your stables, henroosts and smoke houses.

26,000 SUBSCRIBERS!
PHILADELPHIA MIRROR.
THE splendid patronage awarded to the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, induces the editors to commence the publication, under the above title, of a quarto edition of their popular journal, so long known as the largest Family Newspaper in the United States, with a list of near TWENTY SIX THOUSAND SUBSCRIBERS. The new feature recently introduced of furnishing their readers with new books of the best literature of the day, having proved so eminently successful, the plan will be continued. Six volumes of the celebrated writings of Captain Marryatt, and sixty-five of Mr. Brook's valuable letters from Europe, have already been published without intertending with its news and miscellaneous reading. The Courier is the largest and cheapest family newspaper ever issued in this country, containing articles in literature, science, and arts; internal improvement; agriculture; in short every variety of topics usually introduced into a public journal. Giving full accounts of sales, markets and sales of the latest dates.

It is published at the low price of $2. For this small sum subscribers get valuable and entertaining matter, each week enough to fill a book 200 pages, and equal to 52 volumes a year, and which is estimated to be read, weekly, by at least two hundred thousand people, scattered in all parts of the country, from Maine to Florida, and from the seaboard to the lakes. The paper has been now so long established as to render it too well known to require an extended prospectus, the publishers therefore, will do no more than refer to the two leading daily political papers of opposite politics. The Pennsylvania says—"The Saturday Courier is the largest, and one of the best family newspapers in the Union; the other, the Inquirer and Daily Courier, says, "it is the largest journal published in Philadelphia, and one of the very best in the United States." The New York Star says—"we know of nothing more liberal on the part of the editors, and no means more efficacious to draw out the dormant talents of our country, than their unexampled liberality in offering literary prizes."

The Albany Mercury of March 16th, 1836, says, "the Saturday Courier, is decidedly the best newspaper ever published in this or any other country and its value is duly appreciated by the public, if we may judge by its vast circulation, which exceeds 25,000 per week! Its contents are agreeably varied, and each number contains more valuable reading matter than is published in a week in any daily paper in the Union. Its mammoth dimensions enable its enterprising proprietors, Messrs. WOODWARD & CLARKE, of Philadelphia, to republish in its columns, in the course of a year, several of the most interesting new works that issue from the British press; which cannot fail to give to it a permanent interest, and render it worthy of preservation. To meet the wishes, therefore, of such of their subscribers as desire to have their numbers bound, they have determined on issuing an edition of the Courier in the quarto form, which will render it much more convenient for reading when it is bound in a volume, and thus greatly enhance its value."

THE QUARTO EDITION.
 Under the title of the PHILADELPHIA MIRROR, will commence with the publication of the Prize Tale, to which was awarded the prize of $100, written by Miss Leslie, editor of the splendid Annual the Token, and author of Pencil Sketches, and other valuable contributions, to American Literature. A large number of songs, poems, tales, &c. offered in competition for the $500 premiums, will add value and interest to the succeeding numbers, which will also be enriched by a story from Miss Sedgewick, author of Hope Leslie, The Linwoods, &c., whose talents have been so justly and extensively appreciated, both at home and abroad.

This approved family newspaper is strictly neutral in religious and political matters, and the uncompromising opponent of quackery of every kind.

MAPS.
 In addition to all of which the publishers intend furnishing their patrons with a series of engraved maps, embracing the twenty five states of the Union, &c. exhibiting the situation &c. of rivers, towns, mountains, lakes, the sea board, internal improvements, as displayed in canals, rail roads, &c. with other interesting and useful features, roads, distances, &c. forming a complete Atlas for general use and information, handsomely executed, and each distinct map on a large quarto sheet, at an expense which nothing but the splendid patronage which for six years past has been so generously extended to them, could warrant.

TERMS.
 The Philadelphia Saturday Courier is still continued in its large form, at the same price as heretofore. The Philadelphia Mirror, being a quarto edition of the Saturday Courier, with its increased attractions, and printed on the best fine white paper of the same size of the New York Albany, will be put at precisely one half the price of that valuable journal, viz: Three Dollars per annum payable in advance, (including the maps.)
