

WEEKLY MESSENGER

Printer's Retreat, Indiana

Saturday, November 23 1836.

Journeyman Printer.

A Journeyman Printer wanted immediately at this office. A steady berth and good wages given to a good, steady workman. Printer's Retreat, October 8.

PLEASANT TOWNSHIP.

The following persons are candidates for the office of justice of the peace in Pleasant township, in place of Henry Rogers, whose term of service is about to expire:

JOHN G. ANDERSON,
ABRAHAM ATKINSON,
HENRY ROGERS.

Three per cent fund.—The treasurer of state gave notice, on the 11th inst., that he had received a further sum of $155 12 for each county, which was ready for distribution; in addition to the sums received in June and September last. About $1,200, of this fund added to the $7,500, the one half of the surplus revenue fund, will secure to our farmers, GOOD ROADS. We recommend, that the inhabitants of each congressional township, meet on a day hereafter to be named, and appoint committees, to superintend the disbursement of their respective quotas. Now, is the time, to be up and doing—let this money slip from you, and you will be slaves to a few, for the balance of your lives.

Steam boat disaster.—On the 18th inst. above the Rising Sun, the steam boat Flora, broke her connecting pipe, causing the death of one man, and maiming thirteen others, all cabin passengers but one; among them, badly scalded, was George L. Kinnard, one of our members of congress. Report says Mr. K. is dead.

Surplus Revenue.—Should the legislature of our state, and of which, I have no doubt, accept the loan of her quota of the surplus fund under the act passed by the last congress, about $1,500,000 will be coming to Indiana. Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars have already been deposited at Indianapolis, of this money. What shall be done with it? It will be remembered, that this money is loaned, (not donated) to the state, without interest; and to be refunded or paid back, whenever needed by the general government, &c. And when it shall be called it, it will have to be raised by TAXING THE PEOPLE!!! Let the people, then, have the immediate and sole benefit of the loan, and then, when you call it in from them, to pay it back again, they will not murmur nor grumble. If the loan be divided among the people, according to representation, Switzerland county will be entitled to about two thousand, five hundred dollars, out of the money already deposited, and a like sum for every succeeding $250,000—the quota coming to Indiana, within the next year, in all probability, will amount to one million and a half of dollars, of which Switzerland will be entitled to about fifteen thousand dollars. Now let one half of this sum be placed in the common school fund of our county, so that all our children may be educated.—And let the balance be expended on our public highways, and then we will all have good roads through our plantations.

Many politicians, are in favor of giving this money to the mammoth internal improvement speculators, to pay the interest on the money already borrowed by them. Citizens of Switzerland, will you submit to such a disposition of it? I trust not—you will not consent to pay tribute to some half a dozen favorite towns, who are infected with a mania, that has entailed burdens upon you and your children for five generations to come.

Another class, want it expended in making a splendid turnpike across the county. Will you consent to that disposition of it? I think not; for that road will be no earthly benefit to eight tenths of you; and you may be called upon to refund the money, by taxation too long before that road is completed. The legislature, cannot object to Switzerland county appropriating her share of the money, in her own way. As every man, who uses coffee, &c, contributes to make this surplus fund, so let him insist on having an immediate share in the benefits arising therefrom.

Gazetteer.—Charles W. Appleton, of Centerville, contemplates publishing a Gazetteer of Indiana. A good work, of that description is much needed.

Maryland.—Wesley Linthicum, one of the "glorious nineteen," promised to qualify as a senatorial elector, on the "19th" instant—one more will form a quorum.

Married on Sunday last, by justice Culp; of Cotton township, master Eber Gilbert, to miss Celestia Jayne.

Singing School.

THERE will be a Singing School at the Zion's Chapel Meeting House, in Jackson-ville, on Saturday, December 3d. Those who wish to participate in singing, and those having an ear for music, are invited to attend.

SALT.

200 Barrels first quality Kanawha salt just received and for sale by
CLARKSON & DUFOUR.

Estate of Lyman W. Mix, dec.

COMES James M. Cotton, administrator of the estate of Lyman W. Mix, deceased, late of Mount Sterling, and files in the Switzerland Probate court his complaint in writing, setting forth clearly and succinctly, the condition of said estate—the whole of the estate that have come to his possession, as, also, the amount of the debts and demands outstanding against said estate, so far as the same have come to his knowledge, and that said estate is insufficient to pay the same, and prays for relief generally. It is ordered, that said administrator notify the creditors of the estate of the said Lyman W. Mix, deceased, of the filing and pendency of said complaint, by a publication, for six weeks successively in the Weekly Messenger, a newspaper printed and published at Printer's Retreat, in said county, that unless said creditors notify said administrator of the existence and extent of their respective claims, by filing the same, or a full statement of the nature, description, and date of the contract or assumption upon which the same may be founded, in the office of the clerk of said court, previous to the final distribution of the assets of the said decedent, and such claims, not so filed, will be finally postponed and defeated in favor of more diligent creditors.

WILLIAM C. KEEN, probate judge.

November 19, 1836.

Therefore, the creditors aforesaid, are hereby notified as aforesaid, and that they appear at the court house in the town of Vevay, on Wednesday, the 15th day of February next, at 1 o'clock, P. M., when and where all claims, filed as above directed in the clerk's office, will be finally heard, acted upon, and determined by said court, according to law.

By order,

JAMES M. COTTON, adm'r.
